CHENKIN DRAWS HUGE AUDIENCE

The opening event of the Course drew a capacity house. "Standing room only" had to be sold to many late-comers. The Course was completely sold out.

Chenkin performed before an enthusiastic audience who warmly applauded the "Singing Actor" in his highly entertaining and unique one-man show.

TEMPLE FLASHES

The police department requests: No double parking on 82nd street. No parking on West side of 82nd street. The police department warns that tickets will be given for violations. Parking privileges have been generously offered by the Sears Roebuck Company in its parking space for Sunday mornings only. This space not available on Tuesday evenings. . . . The walls of the new Arts and Crafts room are being decorated with murals by our Bezalel Artists under the direction of Sam Bookatz . . . The Library Fund is dangerously low. Never before have there been so many publications in English on Jewish subjects. It is essential that our library be up to date in order to function effectively. Entire shelves may be established in memory of some dear one or on the occasion of some happy event. For smaller gifts the name of the donor is inscribed on a book plate. Contributions should be sent to the Temple office Rabbi Leon I. Feuer of the Temple tells this one: A child came home from the Kindergarten and told his mother that all the boys and girls had been "gypped." When asked why he said: "They collected Sunshine money from all the children but they didn't take them out to see the sun shine Congratulations to Simon Feder and Sol Moses in honor of their 80th birthdays

B'NAI B'RITH COMBATS ANTI-SEMITISM

Bnai B'rith through its Anti-Defamation Bureau has, by tactful, intelligent methods, eliminated Jewish slander from the press, stage, screen and radio, maintaining the dignity of our race and protecting it against calumny and ridicule, combating vigorously every form of bigotry, prejudice and discrimination. Its special representatives spread throughout the United States and Canada assist in carrying out its program presently directed and concentrated against the false and vicious propaganda and activities of anti-semitic agencies.

B'nai B'rith is the champion of the Cause of Israel—it is the only organization properly equipped and possessing a mass constituency sufficiently strong to provide the prestige and power to cope with the problems of American and world Jewry and to war upon the difficulties that beset Jewry and Judaism.

LIKE THE MOON

As to the benediction of the moon, you must know that we Jews reckon our months by the new moon; because in many ways we resemble the moon: Like the moon the Jew has been the enlightening star in dark places before the bright sun of civilization had yet risen. Like the moon the Jew tries ever to destroy darkness; and, like the moon, after the Jew has waned and seemingly died out of existence he is born again anew in the world. And this will continue until the prophecy of Isaiah shall come to pass: then shall the earth be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. Then the moon will shine equally with the sun, and the Jew will be acclaimed for the great service he has performed in the world of men . . .

A STATEMENT BY BENEDETTO GROCE

Noted Italian Savant Declares Nations Have Never Benefited from Anti-Jewish Persecution.

All my life I have fought against the stupid concepts of race and the suppression of liberty. I maintain that true religion of the modern era consists solely in liberty and in culture. As far as Jews are concerned, I am willing to concede (if only as a basis for discussion) that, at times and in some countries, they cause more or less resentment because of their views and the natural bonds between them—views and bonds, which are intended to further their own interests and their own power in competition with other citizens. But, aside from the fact that this is done not only by Jews but by others as well, and disregarding the question as to if and where this is done, I see no effective remedy except that of pitting force against force, capacity against capacity, in free emulation and rivalry. Only thus can the evil be prevented or diminished, the danger lessened, without causing—through self-defense—damage and impoverishment to the entire social or-

INSTITUTE OF JEWISH STUDIES OPENS

An opportunity for adults to pursue Jewish Studies is presented by the Bureau of Jewish Education through the Cleveland Institute of Jewish Studies. A wide range of subjects is offered on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8 to 10 P. M.

A person may enroll for one or more hours. The Institute meets at the Euclid Avenue Temple.

A distinguished staff that includes some of the best known names in the field of Jewish education and in the Rabbinate in the city make up the faculty of the Institute.

H. L. MENCKEN BELIEVES—That Hitler Has But His Own Throat to Cut

My belief is that Hitler will not last very long. After all, he has but one throat to cut, and it is an old platitude that those who live by the sword shall perish by the sword. Soon or late his imbecilities will get him into such difficulties that the Germans, in sheer self-defense, will have to rise against him and get rid of him. In all probability, a restoration of the monarchy will follow.

But that any such change will extirpate anti-Semitism I doubt. Its more extravagant and disgusting manifestations, of course, will disappear, but the thing itself will probably survive.

The persecution and expulsion of Jews have never been of any benefit to nations, as history attests. Peoples believe to be elevating themselves through those violent means, whereas they are only debasing themselves; they believe they are liberating themselves from oppressors, but they merely deprive themselves of freedom. Nor will the unfortunate recrudescence of such a procedure as we now witness in Germany help German life and culture. There are already discernable evidences which preoccupy the minds of the thinkers of a people once so rich in thought and in sound doctrines.
