THE RABBI IN CHICAGO

Next week,, Rabbi Brickner will be in Chicago attending the convention of the American Sociological Society of which he is a member and will read a paper before the section on the Sociology of Religion. This convention brings together the leading people in the field of Sociology in this country.

NUMBER SEVEN

There are seven days in the week.

Every seventh year was a Sabbatical year.

Seven cycles of seven years each culminated in the Jubilee year.

The traditional Menorah has seven branches.

Noah took seven pairs of every sort of clean animals with him into the Ark. He allowed intervals of seven days to elapse between the successive despatches of the dove from the Ark.

For seven days, seven priests with seven trumpets marched around Jericho. On the seventh day they encompassed the city seven times.

Shavuoth comes seven weeks after the first day of Pesach.

The Bible prescribes that both Succoth and Pesach be celebrated for seven days.

According to legend Moses was born on the seventh day of Adar and died on the seventh day of Adar.

In Pharoah's dream, there were seven fat cows and seven lean cows; seven full ears of corn and seven empty ears.

There are seven days of mourning.

Traditionally seven blessings were recited at the wedding celebration and repeated for seven successive days.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

A NEW CHORAL GROUP, under the leadership of Harriet Korach Kohn, was organized last Sunday morning. It meets weekly, on Sundays, at 9:00 a. m., in the Chapel. Membership in this group is open to Confirmants of High School age, even though they do not attend the High School Department.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR directed by Lilly Berkowitz, now boasts a membership of 35. They replace the adult choir at Children's Services, they give several concerts for the school during the course of the year and in May they give a special concert arranged exclusively for parents of the Junior Choir. Membership is limited to pupils of the Intermediate and Junior High Departments of our Religious School.

AN AMAZING ATTENDANCE RECORD has been achieved by the Special Hebrew classes which meet three days a week, on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. For the first twelve weeks the average attendance was 93.1%, with an enrollment of 136.

THE CLUB DEPARTMENT has an enrollment of 238 with an average attendance thus far of 81.2%.

THE TOTAL ENROLLMENT of the Religious School is 854, with an average attendance of 91.1% in the Elementary Department, and 87.8% in the High School Department.

BOOKS

"Without books, God is silent, justice dormant, natural science at a standstill, philosophy lame, letters dumb and all things involved in Cimmerian darkness."

Give to the Library for all occasions, whether of joy or of memory. The library needs the best books of the hour. It wants to accomodate its readers in their quest for knowledge, for diversion, for inspiration. Your interest will enable it to do this.

Beginning with the New Year the library will again be open 7 days a week, on Saturdays and Sundays from 9:00 a. m. to noon; and week-days from 2:00 to 6:00 p. m.

The Sisterhood gratefully acknowledges receipt of the following donations:

To The Altar Fund: Mrs. E. J. Thalman and Mrs. Maybelle F. Pollock in memory of their parents, Jacob and Nannie Firth. Mrs. B. Volk in memory of Moses A. Sloyer. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gitson in memory of their grandmther, Devora Beyer. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sinek in memory of their mother, Rose Sinek. Mrs. Samuel Brockman and Mrs. S. M. Schultz in memory of their mother, Devora Beyer.

BRITAIN CRITICIZED ON PALESTINE ISSUE

Christian Group Here Calls on Government to Assist Jewish Settlement.

SEES PROMISES REVOKED

Resolution Adopted by 200 of Varied Faiths—Aid Asked in Fight on Persecution.

The Pro-Palestine Federation of America, a Christian organization, sharply criticized British policy there in a resolution adopted at a luncheon conference on "the Jewish problem" at the Hotel Astor.

More than 200 persons, including leaders in many denominations and several representatives of interested Jewish organizations, voted for the resolution submitted by Charles Edward Russell, organizer and head of the federation.

Mr. Russell read the text of the Balfour Declaration before offering the resolution and declared that after nineteen years the mandatory power had shown it did not believe in the "sanctity of covenants."

The resolution protested generally against persecution of Jews abroad and asserted "their natural place of refuge is Palestine." It continued:

"We, therefore, call upon the British Government to fulfill its covenanted pledges to the Jewish people and the world. We feel that it should cease to obstruct the Jewish settlement of Palestine and begin to further that settlement in accordance with its promises when it assumed the Palestine mandate.

"We believe that we speak the profound conviction of Christian America when we urge the British Government to rescind its illegal, unjust and indefensible partition of Palestine; that Transjordan shall be restored to its proper place as part of the Palestine territory; that Transjordan shall be thrown open to Jewish settlement and that there shall be removed all restrictions upon Jewish immigration to all parts of Palestine, except such as may be necessary to prevent the incursion of criminal or other undesirable persons.

"We believe the problem of the Jews could be the problem of the civilized world and we call upon our Christian brothers everywhere to assist us in bringing to an end the persecution of and terrible injustice toward the Jews that belie the very heart of the teachings of the founder of our faith."

Reference to Windsor

A variety of approaches to the problem under consideration was presented during a speech program of almost three hours. Mr. Russell, pointed to the plight of impoverished Polish Jews seeking haven in Palestine, pointed out that "the most distinguished exile that England ever had has found refuge in the bosom of a Jew. Can you beat that for irony?"

The reference to the Duke of Windsor, in seclusion at the Enzesfeld estate of Baron Eugene de Rothschild, was clear, although the speaker mentioned no names.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell, declared that "no race on earth had succeeded like the Jews under such heavy handicaps."

"Why not take away those handicaps and see what the Jews can do?"

Other speakers were Norman Hapgood, Dr. Frederick B. Robinson, president of City College; the Rev. Dr. Christian F. Reisner, pastor of the Broadway Temple; Professor Franklyn Hudgings, secretary of the sponsoring group; Pierre Van Paassen, journalist; the Rev. Dr. Henry Smith Leiper of the Universal Christian Council and the Rev. Walter M. Howlett of the Inter-faith Committee.

THE AVUKAH CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Avukah, The National Collegiate Zionist Society, will be held in Cleveland from December 30th to January 2nd. Forty-five chapters will be represented.

In addition to discussing organizational questions and Zionist problems the convention will direct itself particularly to the problem of orienting Zionist activity to the individual student.

Mr. Pierre Van Paassen, noted liberal journalist, who has recently arrived from an extensive trip abroad will speak at an convention luncheon on Thursday, December 31st, 12:00 noon, at Hotel Cleveland. His subject will be "World Forces in Palestine."

CLIFFORD ODET'S "AWAKE AND SING," will be brought to the Hanna Theatre on December 26th by the Hillel Players of Ohio State University. The performance is being sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Cleveland B'nai B'rith.
