Entered as second-class matter April 9th, 1926 at the Post
Office, Cleveland, Ohio, under the Act of March 3rd, 1879.

RABBI BRICKNER gave a series of lectures at Oberlin College on "Trends in Contemporary Judaism." He discussed Reform, Orthodoxy, Neo-Orthodoxy, Conservatism, the Re-constructionist Movement and Zionism. There was a large attendance of faculty and students.

Of special interest are the following excerpts from two letters:

"I have been very much interested in your lectures at Oberlin College and Seminary this week. As a young minister, I feel quite enriched by having seen and heard you."

H. J. Tucker,

Minister of Mt. Zion Baptist Church,
Oberlin, Ohio.

"On behalf of the students and faculty who profited so much from your lectures in Oberlin, I want to express appreciation and gratitude. Thank you very much for the contribution which you have made to the cultural life of Oberlin."

Herbert Gordon May,

Graduate School of Theology, Oberlin
College.

THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COUNCIL presents at its luncheon meeting on Friday, March 11th, Hotel Cleveland, Constantine Brown, who will speak on "The Fascist Front."

Brown is recognized as one of the outstanding figures on foreign affairs in Washington. His knowledge of foreign psychology, his contacts abroad and his close association with those "who have the news" in the capital, enable him to interpret and forecast international developments.

Dear Member:

The joyous festival of Purim, which reminds us of our triumph over Haman—and over all the Hamans of history—begins this year on WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 16th.

Last year in celebration of Purim, we inaugurated something, WHICH I BELIEVE WAS HELD FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ANY REFORM CONGREGATION IN THIS COUNTRY, namely MEGILLAH NIGHT, which has always been a practice of the traditional Synagogue.

Over one thousand of our members and their families attended Megillah Night last year and enjoyed the beautiful service in the Temple and the social affair afterwards. The response of our people was so genuine and spontaneous that we have decided to convert this innovation into a regular practice.

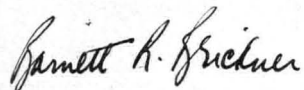

Mr. Brilliant and Mrs. Braverman in conjunction with the choir and the young people of our school will put on a MAGNIFICENT PAGEANT, which will be in the form of AN ANIMATED MEGILLAH READING. To this evening—Wednesday, March sixteenth—I invite all the families of our congregation. We want it to exceed in attendance even the Megillah Night of last year.

Also associated with the festival of Purim is the tradition of MISHLOACH MONOS—THE EXCHANGING OF GIFTS AND OF REMEMBERING THE POOR.

Several years ago, I started the practice of sending Purim baskets to a number of families who formerly were comfortably situated but who are now dependent upon relief. Last year we sent 46 baskets and the letters which I received in return touched me deeply.

Should you wish to help these families, I will be pleased to receive your gift.

Faithfully yours,

Signed: BARNETT R. BRICKNER.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR PARENTS

1. Thou shalt love thy child with all thy heart, with all thy soul, with all thy strength, but wisely, with all thy mind.

2. Thou shalt think of thy child, not as something belonging to thee, but as a person.

3. Thou shalt regard his respect and love, not as something to be demanded, but something worth earning.

4. Every time thou art out of patience with thy child's immaturity and blundering, thou shalt call to mind some of the childish adventures and mistakes which attended thine own coming of age.

5. Remember that it is thy child's privilege to make a hero out of thee, and take thou thought to be a proper one.

6. Remember also that thy example is more eloquent than thy fault-finding and moralizing.

7. Thou shalt strive to be a sign-post on the highway of life rather than a rut out of which the wheel cannot turn.

8. Thou shalt teach thy child to stand on his own feet and fight his own battles.

9. Thou shalt help thy child to see beauty, to practice kindness, to love truth, and to live in friendship.

10. Thou shalt make of the place wherein thou dwellest a real home—a haven of happiness for thyself, for thy children, for thy friends and for thy children's friends.

Dedicated to all who accept parenthood as a welcome responsibility and a high privilege.

—By Paul M. Pitman, reprinted from The Parents' Magazine.

THE GIFTED SIGHTLESS VIOLINIST, ABRAHAM HAITOWITSCH, after an absence of several years, will be presented in Cleveland in a violin recital at the Statler Hotel Ballroom on Friday evening, March 11th.

Possessing a pleasant personality, Mr. Ha'towitsch in his enthusiasm and musicianship makes his hearers forget the great handicap under which he labors. So well has he developed his talent that in hearing his playing one feels him not only a certain and accomplished master of technique but also an intelligent interpreter of every composer he is playing. In delicacy of reading, in human warmth, and intelligent understanding, Mr. Haitowitsch has made for himself a permanent place in the musical life of America. Tickets for Mr. Haitowitsch's recital may be procured at Taylor's, 630 Euclid Avenue.

THOMAS MANNING, CAPTAIN POLICE DEPARTMENT, writes:

"It would be of tremendous value to the members of this Precinct, in the work of accident prevention, if it were possible to get word to the large assemblages of people attending the various churches throughout this district.

"While we are working hard in our own way, we are at a loss to account for the wonderful results obtained so far this year. Fifteen lives lost as compared with forty this time last year.

"Twelve of the fifteen deaths were caused primarily by the pedestrian foolishly venturing into the street with the thought that the drivers of approaching cars would see them. All wore dark clothes and were killed at night.

It is the opinion of Captain Manning that a kindly word on this subject, by a man of God to his people on a Sunday morning will prove a blessing to all con-

TAKE TIME TO LIVE

Take time to live;
The world has much to give
Of faith and hope and love,
Of faith that life is good,
That human brotherhood
Shall no illusion prove;
Of hope that future years
Shall bring the best, in spite
Of those whose darkened sight
Would stir our doubts and fears;
Of love, that makes of life,
With all its griefs, a song;
A friend of conquered wrong,
A symphony of strife.

Take time to live,
Nor in vain mammon give
Your fruitful years;
Take time to live;
The world has much to give
Of sweet content; of joy
At duty bravely done;
Of hope, that every sun
Shall bring more fair employ.

Take time to live,
For life has much to give,
Despite the cynic's sneer
That all's forever wrong;
There's much that calls for song!
To fate lend not your ear.
Take time to live;
The world has much to give.

—Thomas Curtis Clark in "The Christian Century."

cerned. We feel certain that the success so far this year belongs to the people who have become accident-prevention-minded and that the larger the number that have this frame of mind the greater will be our success. The members of this Precinct will be indeed grateful for any word passed along in this direction."
