Succoth Services--First Day

Monday, October 10th, 10:30 A. M.

Rabbi Brickner, Officiating

Succoth commemorates the Feast of In-Gathering which our people celebrated in Palestine and it also stands for the Jewish Feast of Thanksgiving. It is a festival marked with the spirit of joy and gladness. The symbols of the Festival are the Succah, the Ethrog and the Lulav.

As has been the custom of many years, the Temple pulpit will be transformed by the Sisterhood Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. I. J. Kabb, into a beautiful Succah, decorated with evergreens, flowers and fruits of the harvest season.

In keeping with the spirit of the day, the children who have just entered the first grade of the religious school will take part in the Consecration Ceremony which symbolizes their entrance into the studies of the Torah and its traditions.

WHY YOUR CHILD SHOULD STUDY HEBREW

1. The knowledge of Hebrew gives your child an opportunity to participate intelligently in Jewish religious life.
2. Hebrew provides the key to the classic, medieval and modern Jewish literature.
3. Through Hebrew your children become possessors of the universal language of the Jews.
4. The Hebrew language serves as a bond unifying Jewry throughout the world.
5. The knowledge of the Hebrew language enables the children to read the Bible in the original.
6. This, in turn, leads to an intelligent appreciation of the greatest book of all time.
7. The entire past of the Jew is made clearer to your child through his familiarity with our ancient language.
8. Hebrew brings children in closer contact with the present creative effort in Palestine.
9. Some children may obtain sufficient mastery to be able to write and create in the Hebrew language.

AMERICAN-JEWISH CITIZENSHIP.

A Jew trained in the language, history, and culture of his people is a self-respecting Jew.

A self-respecting Jew will be properly integrated into his environment.

The survival of the Jewish people depends on Jewish education.

lowed to sing any song that the Czechs (Nazis) do not like because it does not please the Czechs (Nazis) or are brutally struck for wearing white stockings because the Czechs (Nazis) do not like it, and do not want to see them, and are terrorized or maltreated because they greet with a form of salutation that is not agreeable to them, although they are greeting not Czechs (Nazis) but one another, and when they are pursued like wild beasts for every expression of their national life (cheers), this may be a matter of indifference to several representatives of our democracies or they may possibly even be sympathetic because it concerns only 3,500,000 Germans (Jews). I can only say to representatives of the democracies that this is not a matter of indifference to us (cheers).

"And I say that if these tortured creatures cannot obtain rights and assistance by themselves, they can obtain both from us. An end must be made of depriving these people of their rights."

There, Hitler, is your indictment from your own mouth and may that God whom you interpret so freely judge your heart by your mouth.—Editorial by Harry Newman in The Judge for October.

WHAT TO FIGHT FOR

"It seems to me that the greatest battle in which the Jews of America, England and France should engage is that of the preservation of democracy. Every fight in these countries which involves the maintenance of liberty—the freedom to think, speak and behave, within the limits of human decency, even for our enemies—should find Jews the strongest supporters. Likewise, these Jews of these countries should enlist their every energy to help spread democracy and democratic principles to the rest of the world. The only hope for Jews is, I feel sure, democracy; the plight of the Jew will either be ameliorated or made more difficult in direct proportion to the increase or decrease of democracy through the civilized world.

In the fresh and clear air of democracy, you will find rivalries, dislikes, suspicions and envy a-plenty; even quiet discriminations. But these — unpleasant though they may be at times—are never formidable menaces. What is important is the fact that in democracy it is impossible to translate these dislikes and suspicions into open annihilation."

ALL FAITHS ASKED TO PRAY FOR OPPRESSED IN EUROPE

Christians and Jews throughout the country will be urged to observe a special day of prayer for the victims of racial and religious oppression in Europe, the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America announced recently. Sunday, November 20, has been suggested as the date for this national observance.

The decision to sponsor such a day of prayer was made on the recommendation of a committee headed by the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge of Philadelphia who said the idea had received support from church representatives from both this country and Canada.

Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, director of the National Conference of Jews and Christians, has declared his support of the project.

—The New York Times.

Mourn not the dead who in the cool earth lie dust unto dust;

The calm sweet earth that mothers all who die as all men must.

But rather mourn the apathetic throng the cowed and the meek;

Who see the world's great anguish and its wrong and dare not speak.

THE JUDGE ON THE BENCH

On that day that Adolf Hitler, to save his political life, leads Germany into the sacrifice of war, the partition of the old Germany will begin. Germans who love Germany might as well know now that if this madman is left to pursue his course unchecked from within as well as without, the nations which will oppose Germany by force of arms will at the war's conclusion see to it that Germany is broken up into such small pieces that never again can there be a threat like this one. The Treaty of Versailles, cruel and unjust as it was, will seem mild in comparison to the next terms for peace, and Hitler and his cowardly crew, if still living, will sign, trying to bargain for sanctuary for themselves, not caring for the millions of German lives spent freely or for the millions still left within the borders of the Fatherland to carry forever the burdens of this insanity. How strange it will seem to have Germany colonized and her people moved to the easier assimilation of other countries where maniacs cannot seize their minds again.

Hitler and his crew have come a long way, almost as long a way in furthering their personal ambitions as they have thrust the real Germany back. Nobody knows better than Hitler that he cannot win this war, but he has come to the place where he must trade whatever German lives must be lost for some security to his person. It was always that way with madmen. Were the rules of society for control of the individual followed by nations, the world police would and should seize this homicidal person and lock him safely away in a padded cell next those of Goebbels and Goering.

This writer is Irish and in the tradition of his people he has been taught that the fairy tales which seemed so real to us as children have an application to the facts of more mature life.

The words Hitler used at Nuremberg on the fateful twelfth of September were arranged in phrases that must have unknowingly come out of his distorted memory as applied to himself and his actions.

"Come and bring a prospective member"

We quote verbatim from the official transcript of that speech and ask the reader to substitute in this quotation Jews for Germans; Nazis for Czechs:

"These Germans (Jews), too, are creatures of God. The Almighty did not create them that they should be surrendered by a State construction made at Versailles to a foreign power that is hateful to them, and He has not created 7,000,000 Czechs (Nazis) in order that they should supervise 3,500,000 Germans (Jews) or act as guardians for them and still less to do them violence and torture.

"The conditions in this nation are unbearable, as is generally known. Economically these people were deliberately ruined and afterward handed over to a slow process of extermination.

"These truths cannot be abolished by phrases. They are testified to by deeds. The misery of the Sudeten Germans (Jews) is without end. They want to annihilate them. They are being oppressed in an inhuman and intolerable manner. When 3,500,000 who belong to a people of almost 80,000,000 are not al-

EVENING PRAYERS FOR VERY YOUNG CHILDREN

The Rabbi is often asked for prayers to be recited by young children. Three are given below. One may be selected that the parent deems appropriate.

Great God of Life who lives in me and lives in all I know

With happy thoughts I go to sleep and while I sleep I grow.

I hope to wake this coming morn more strong and brave and bright

While Thou shalt stay both night and day with all I love tonight.

Sh-ma Yisroel Adonoi Elohenu, Adonoi
Echod.

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the
Lord is One. Amen.

(By Jessie E. Sampster)

Now my work and play are done
I rest me in Thy care
And while I sleep
Thy love will keep Thy children everywhere.

Sh'ma Yisroel Adonoi Elohenu, Adonoi
Echod.

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One. Amen.

(3)
Before in sleep I close my eyes
To Thee, O God, my thoughts arise
I thank Thee for Thy Blessings all
Which come to us, Thy children small
O keep me safe thruout the night
That I may see the morning light.

Sh'ma Yisroel Adonoi Elohenu, Adonoi
Echod.

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the
Lord is One. Amen.

THE HUMAN AVALANCHE

In this poignant situation, unparalleled as in the modern times, Jews turn once again to the only land that offers a chance for their stricken brethren in faith. "Our position today," Dr. Weizmann told the Keren Hayesod Conference at Antwerp recently, "has become so acutely critical that we must demand a permanent solution to our problem and that solution can be found only in Palestine—the National Home of a homeless people."

Even if Palestine were only a partial solution, it would be better than the sterility of present efforts, the good will tempered by caution, and the waiting with pitiful impotence on a word or a crumb from a hate-ridden and consci-enceless dictator. Only a few bands of Arab brigands, successfully defying the might of Great Britain, stand between the exiles and this major hope. Jews have the right to demand that this obstacle be sternly removed. Let this country, unable otherwise to help the Jewish people in the disaster that threatens to engulf it, at least open to it the doors of the land which was dedicated to Jews by Britain's solemn word and proclaimed as theirs by the rest of the world.
