THANK YOU—PURIM BASKET
COMMITTEE!

Mrs. Sidney Weiss, chairman. Mesdames: M. Bondy, L. J. Cort, Chas.
Korach, E. B. Newman, Max D. Wald,
Chas. Roubicek, L. Singer, Max Fanger,
M. Bachman, I. Koenig, Leo Kichler, E.
Glick, A. A. Wormser, S. F. Deutsch, L.
Loeb, the Misses Rollie and Nora New
and Mr. Sanford Weiss.

OTHER PURIM CELEBRATIONS

were held in our temple in addition to the very successful Megillah Night.

The Sisterhood celebrated Purim with an appropriate symposium on "Women of Today" which was followed by a Tea
in the Recreation Hall. The Junior Alumni combined drama, dinner and dancing at its "Cafe Shushan." The Religious School dispensed with formal classroom sessions and held a special Purim Children's Service and Pageant
in the temple. There were also Purim parties in class and club.

RESCUING THE CHILDREN

Ten thousand German refugee children "of every race and creed" would be admitted to the United States this year and another 10,000 next year, should Congress act favorably on a joint resolution introduced by Senator Robert F.
Wagner. They could be admitted without any danger of displacing American labor or becoming public charges, the Senator indicated, for they would come only when responsibility for their maintenance and care would be assumed by individuals or private organizations.
Senator Wagner recalled the statements of forty-nine outstanding Catholic and Protestant clergymen urging such action,
as well as agreement by the labor movement, and said that America would only be following the precedent of England and Holland in this regard.

Wire or write immediately to Senator Victor Donahey or Robert A. Taft to support the Bill.

Dear Members:

Sixty Purim baskets were sent as Mishloach Monos to deserving families,
most of whose names were secured
through the Jewish Social Service Bureau. Some baskets were also sent to refugee families.

I want to express my thanks and that of the congregation to all of those who contributed to this fund and also to the Charity Fund on Megillah Night.

The very large attendance which filled every seat in the Temple and the wonderful program followed by the social hour will ever remain an unforgettable
and heartening experience.

Megillah Night has endeared itself to our people and has become an institution in our congregational life.

Faithfully yours,

Barnett R. Brickner

AN ART EXHIBIT of paintings, ivories, woodcuts and water-colors by internationally famous Jewish artists, now living in Palestine, on Jewish subjects is now being shown in the Parlor of the Euclid Avenue Temple. The public is cordially invited to view this exhibition which opens on Sunday afternoon, March 12th from 2:30 to 5:00 p. m. Shown daily from Sunday to Thursday from 2:30 to 5:00 p. m., and evenings from 7:00 to 10:00 p. m.

VERY URGENT WILL YOU HELP?

Reports from London indicate that there is serious danger that the Palestine mandate and the Balfour Declaration may be repudiated, and the doors of hope thereby closed to hundreds of thousands of our oppressed fellow Jews who desperately need Palestine.

Our national Jewish leaders have wired us and other cities to cable Prime Minister Chamberlain in London immediately, appealing to the British government to carry out its pledges to the Jewish people. An emergency meeting of the special Palestine Steering Committee was called and a cable has been sent to the Prime Minister in the name of the 140 organizations of the Jewish Community Council.

It is of the utmost importance that as many individuals as possible should send similar cables at once. The cables should state "Appeal uphold Balfour Declaration save Jewish hopes British integrity"; or "Greatly disturbed proposed repudiation Balfour Declaration Appeal keep British pledges for Jewish homeland"; or "Behalf oppressed Jews beg uphold Palestine Mandate." It is important that this wording should be varied, so that every cable will not be the same. It is also important that the tone of the cables should be that of appeal to British honor, and not condemnation or animosity.

Cables should be addressed to: Hon. Neville Chamberlain, 10 Downing Street, London, England. You may specify a "deferred rate" for 14 cents per word; such cables will reach London in 2 to 4 hours.

Please act at once, so that a mass of such cables may be sent immediately. It is very urgent.

Sincerely yours,

Max Simon, President,
Jewish Community Council.

"WHAT LIBERTY DOES RELIGION REQUIRE?" An article by Dr. Barnett R. Brickner appeared in Religious Education Magazine of October-December, 1938. The article makes an eloquent plea for "group liberty" as well as "individual liberty." Here is fully elaborated the principle of cultural pluralism as indispensable to a healthful Jewish life in the United States.

AMONG THE BOOKS Rabbi Brickner plans to discuss from his pulpit, in the near future are "Peculiar Treasure" by Edna Ferber, and "It's Later Than You Think" by Max Lerner.

THE MARCHIONESS OF READING attended Friday evening twilight services at our temple during her stay in Cleveland recently.

THIS IS SACRED

If there is anything sacred in the world, it is made so, not by the tradition of some divine decree, nor by association with some so-called holy book or institution, but by contact with some phase of human life. Whatever serves man's needs, liberates his faculties, gives expression to the dreams and visions of his soul, is the work of his hand and heart—this is sacred. Sanctity is not something that inheres in any portion of time or space. It is not a quality that is native to any section of the cosmos. It is the projection of the human spirit into the world which it inhabits.

—John Haynes Holmes.

SOME SAYINGS OF JUSTICE BRANDEIS

“The fetters which bind the people are forged with their own gold.”

“Bankers must be wholly detached from the concern whose credit or securities are under consideration.”

“The idea of day labor is anti-social and un-economical. There must be regular employment for the good of society and labor.”

“Every act of injustice on the part of capital must be met by one on the part of labor.”

“The greatest factors making for communism and social anarchy are the excesses of capitalism.”
