What We Want in the New Year

"May you live as long as you want; but, may you never want as long as you live." These words - often used by me for a birthday toast - express two important sentiments relevant to our approaching High Holiday celebrations.

"May you live as long as you want." Tradition tells us our universe is going to be 5, 756 years old. Clearly, our world is getting older.

We are aging as well. As each year slips into the next, we confront both the world's and our own growth and atrophy. While surely a sobering thought, it is far from a meaningless existence we lead. Unlike our world, which floats passively along the tide of time, as human beings we have the ability to swim purposefully along life's seas, to change directions, to control much of our destinies if we want.

As we approach the new year, we ask honestly: How have we done this past year? Have we made each day a worthwhile venture? Can we look back and be content with the way in which each day was lived?

"May you never want as long as you live." In the story of Creation, the Holy One provided for the world's harmony and sustenance. Once humanity intervened in this delicate balance, wants and needs became a part of reality. Some six millennia later, many such "wants" exist in each of our lives: health, love, friendship, security, peace. As we mark another year of life, we measure the quantity of that life against the quality it has brought us. Can we be pleased with our efforts to improve the body's physical and emotional health? Did we reach out to others, bringing them into our spheres of living and loving? Have we achieved some measure of happiness which, until now, has escaped us?

"May you live as long as you want; but, may you never want as long as you live." "Want" and "wants" - the key to understanding of our High Holiday season. During these days of awe, we celebrate life. We "want" to live and pray that our lives are free of "wants." Both the quantity and quality of our existence are addressed. We answer these ultimate questions by examining ourselves and our involvement in life. When life is lived fully - when all we do indicates clearly our desire to participate in life - the satisfaction of all our "wants" flows naturally to us.

As we approach a new year, I pray that we recommit ourselves to the process of life. May we strive to see every day as a unique opportunity for growth and change. May we infuse each moment with work and play that enriches our lives and the lives of those around us. May our desire for a whole and healthy life lead us to acts of tzedakah (righteousness), chesed (loving kindness), and gimilut chasidim (helpful actions), thus freeing those we encounter from worry and need.

Truly, 5756 marks an auspicious beginning for Temple Israel. This year we celebrate our 150 year history. This year we anticipate a future equally wonderful. Personally, I feel blessed to be a partner with you at this new year of both celebrating the past and creating a future.

Leslie, Elana, and William join me in praying that 5756 will be a year of blessing for all of us, for Temple Israel, and for the world community. Shana tova tikateivu.

Rabbi Arthur P. Nemitoff

NOTEWORTHY

Tik'u bachodesh hashofar. Sound the Shofar when the new moon appears at the turning of the year at the returning of our solemn celebration for this is a statute binding on Israel an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Beginning Sunday evening, September 24, Jews all over the world will enter the holy space of their Temples and Synagogues, as in years and generations past, to hear the blast of the Shofar heralding in the New Year of 5756.

The music of the High Holy Days creates an unmistakable emotional quality that some say is stronger than any other element of worship, a quality capable of arousing in the worshipper a mood of devotion and profound spiritual involvement. The music of the High Holy Days allows us to shout praises to God and to whisper the yearnings of our hearts. As we read each year in the Unetaneh Tokef prayer, "The great Shofar is sounded, the still small voice is heard."

The general quality of the High Holy Day music reflects majesty, solemnity, and hopeful determination. Its overall effect is forthright and impassioned rather than sad and despairing. Just as there are major themes in the liturgy — God's Majesty, God's Justice and Compassion, Repentance, Redemption — there are musical themes or motifs which weave their musical threads through the rich fabric of our centuries old prayers.

The KOL NIDRE is probably the most famous of the High Holiday motifs. Its several haunting melodies find their way into other prayers, such as the Yom Kippur Michamocha, or treated by the Italian Renaissance composer Salamone Rossi in his setting of Shiviti in the Memorial Service. The melody used for the Barchu is among the oldest tunes, and its very sound evokes a tuning in to the mood of these "Days of Awe." Aware of the power of this melody, cantors will intersperse fragments of it in unexpected places. Listen for it! The descending minor chord at cadences and especially when intoning the final AMEN of a prayer is another motif of the High Holidays. This same descending chord is heard in the major mode for the High Holiday Aleynu. Some prayers, heard daily or weekly, are dressed up in special majestic splendor for these Holidays. The Sh'ma for example, is chanted to a melody which goes back to Temple days, and for all these centuries has been preserved in all its glory.

At this New Year we reach back to five thousand years of Jewish heritage. And, at the same time, we reach forward to the promise of the 21st century. At Temple Israel, we reach back to 150 years of our own glorious past. And, at the same time, we reach forward in anticipation of exciting new beginnings.

One element of the music which is both new and exciting and full of memory is the size of the High Holy Day Choir. Many recall with fondness the days when the singers filled both sides of the choir loft, when there were not only four, but as many as sixteen professional singers and at least as many volunteers. This year, as the number of volunteers has been increasing, we anticipate a minimum of twenty Temple members raising their voices to heaven in prayer and praise. This year we are increasing the number of professional singers as well. Because of the love and generosity of Jody and Jeff Scheiman, we will have not one, but two professional quartets; not four, but eight professional singers. Because of the Scheimans and because of devoted Temple members who volunteer countless hours to rehearsal and to worship, because of the glories of our rich musical past and the promise of new beginnings, this will be a year in which our prayers and our hopes and our dreams will resonate in the blast of the Shofar and in the still small voice. As we return to the special melodies of these High Holy Days, I invite your fullest participation in the beautiful sounds of prayer.

My family, Harold, Judah, Noah, Gabriel, and Daniel join me in wishing you a Shana Tova. May the sound of the Shofar herald a year of blessing for each of you, for our Temple family, and for all the world.

Cantor Vicki L. Axe

FROM THE PRESIDENT

My Fellow Congregants:

Let me begin by wishing all of you a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

On this particular day in time I feel that I must apologize to all of you for not achieving all of the lofty goals I had set for myself and the congregation during my first term in office. Many obstacles occurred that I had not anticipated, and maintaining the status-quo and trying to provide basic services became our paramount agenda. Fortunately, this is behind us now and we can get on with our future.

This is a very exciting time in the history of Temple Israel. For the first time in the last few years, we are in a position to formulate new plans and programs in areas of our congregational life that have been left unattended. We start this New Year optimistic.

We have put our new team in place. Rabbi Nemitoff and his family have settled in and he and Cantor Axe are ready to spend time with each and every one of you. We have a new Board. This is the most enthusiastic, diverse involved group in the Temple's history. They are workers and demand results.

One of the first goals that Rabbi Nemitoff and the Board have identified is to strengthen the relationship between the Rabbi, the Board of Trustees and the Congregation—to prevent reoccurring problems. To that extent, we are in the midst of engaging the Alban Institute, the most highly recommended group in this field to lead us.

We have created a Temple Revision Committee to better define our Temple organizational structure and review our constitution. To assure future leadership for the Temple, we finally have our Temple leadership program off the ground. This should become the model for other congregations around the country.

And finally, it is important to note that with the arrival of Rabbi Nemitoff, new families are beginning to inquire and join Temple Israel. Our membership is now up to 825. Please encourage your unaffiliated friends and relatives to visit with us and to consider a new or renewed membership.

Once again, as Temple Israel enters its 150th year of unsurpassed service to the Jewish Community of central Ohio, it is Judy's and my pleasure to wish you all L'Shana Tovah Tikatevu!

Steven A. Tuckerman, O.D.
President

New Year Greetings from Sisterhood

Temple Israel Sisterhood would like to extend a very happy and healthy 5756 to each and every one of you. The New Year promises to bring anticipation and excitement both to Temple Israel and its Sisterhood. To Rabbi Nemitoff, his wife Leslie, and children Elana and William, we welcome you to Columbus and wish you all L'Shanah Tova. These same greetings we pass along to Cantor Axe, Harold, Judah, Noah, Gabriel, and Danny.

Shana Tova

BULLETIN FROM THE BOARD

A meeting of your Board of Trustees was held on July 25, 1995. A few of the meeting highlights are as follows: 1) At the meeting the Temple Budget was approved with a commitment from the Board to assist in fundraising activities; 2) Doug Davis and his committee have prepared a Use of Facilities Policy which was approved by the Board. The next Temple Board Meeting will be held on August 22, 1995, to discuss with the Rabbi certain Temple policies. (Submitted by Tod Friedman)

I begin with holiday greetings from the Temple Israel office and maintenance staffs who join with me in wishing you a happy, healthy and prosperous Shana Tova. May 5756 bring you peace, joy, and all that you wish for yourself and for humanity.

The fall season at Temple Israel is one that is full of anticipation. In addition to looking forward to greeting many of you personally during the High Holidays, together we will celebrate the installation of Rabbi Nemitoff in October. (Save the October 20-22 weekend as, in addition to the actual installation service for Rabbi Nemitoff, one of the country's premiere Jewish singing groups, SAFAM, will present a community-wide concert in our social hall in his honor. More than a thousand of their fans are expected.)

Because this is our sesquicentennial year (Temple Israel began as a congregation in 1846) various committees are already being formed to help the entire central Ohio area know of our history and contributions to the quality of life. Your sense of pride at being a member of Temple Israel will be bolstered as more and more people are informed about the important role our congregation has played during the last 150 years. Historically speaking, did you know that Temple Israel is two years older than the Kroger Company and has been around longer than a number of this country's western states? Watch for more time-trivia in later issues of THE BULLETIN.

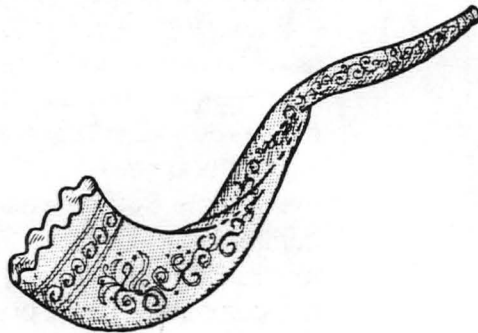

Your help and consideration of others will be greatly appreciated as you join us for High Holiday worship. Please plan ahead. Bring your 1995-5756 tickets with you to each service as to avoid signing in at the door for duplicate tickets. In this day and age, with security concerns all around us, seeing your ticket helps us know that you belong and eases the burden on those responsible for security. All adults over the age of 18 should have a ticket in his or her own hand. Adult children not living at home (other than full time college students) should have their own membership in Temple Israel and therefore have their own tickets. If you have any questions about membership, please contact membership chairman Tim Madison (444-5600), any of the officers, or me here at 866-0010.

When coming to Temple for the High Holidays, please get here early enough to help us avoid parking problems. Our security staff will direct you to the closest possible available spot. We must keep lanes open for emergency vehicles and don't wish to interrupt your worship to move a car parked in an impeding manner. We all thank you in advance for your assistance.

I thank all of you who have made my first year as your Executive Director as rewarding for me as it has been.

Again, L' Shana Tova Tikateivu!

Paul N. Dicker
Executive Director

NEW YEAR

THE EDUCATOR'S CORNER

The first day of school for grades K-10 is September 10. If you have not yet registered, please do so before school begins. Call the office if you need another registration form. Please note that registration will be accepted only for those whose dues and fees are paid up for the previous year; one half the amount of registration is payable at the time of registration.

See calendar for opening day schedule. PARENTS, PLEASE PLAN ON ATTENDING OPENING DAY ACTIVITIES! At our parents' meeting, you will receive this year's handbook and calendar, and have the opportunity to volunteer for our various special events, or as room parents. To make our special programs, such as Shabbat dinners, a success, we need your help! Dates for most of these programs were on your registration forms, so that you can plan to ahead.

DATE CHANGE: 7th Grade Shabbat has been rescheduled for January 26, 1996.

Please note that orientation for 11th grade Discovery Israel will be from 7:30-9:00 at the JCC on Wednesday, September 13. New this year is a twelfth grade class offering advanced study of Israel. Please call for further information.

Second grade families will once again participate in "Bet Bible Heroes". Each family will choose a Bible hero studied in this grade. Using resources we will provide, each family will have several weeks to prepare a creative presentation for the rest of the class. Parent orientation and resource sharing for "Bet Bible Heroes" will take place on Dec. 10.

Along with their other courses, our 8th and 9th graders will be participating in a city-wide Comparative Religion curriculum—including classroom work at Temple, and field trips and symposia off-site—created by the Columbus Council of Jewish Educators.

Help is still needed for High Holiday Children's Activities. In order to serve our children (ages 3-11), we need your help. Please call Karen Elson at the Temple Israel office, 866-0010. Orientation for helpers will be September 11 at 7:30 PM.

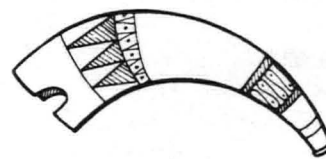

Karen R. Elson, Educator

KOL AMI

Kol Ami, the community Hebrew School of Columbus, will begin its 11th school year on Wednesday, September 6, at Agudas Achim and Thursday, September 7, at Beth Tikvah and Temple Israel. Students need to have completed registration procedures in order to be admitted into class. If you have not yet registered your child for Kol Ami, please call Leslie at the Kol Ami office (237-7686) as soon as possible.

Children who are entering second grade in the fall have the opportunity to enroll in the Early Advantage Class and have the benefit of a 'head start' with more Hebrew instruction.

Conversational Hebrew classes will again be offered to Kol Ami graduates. Anyone interested in participating should call the Kol Ami office.

Hay Class students and parents, please note that the Hay Class will meet once a month with a choice of an eastside or northside location. A calendar of specific dates for Hay Class will be mailed before the start of school.

Parents will be receiving a handbook and calendar for the upcoming school year before the start of the school year. Kol Ami looks forward to a productive year in Hebrew education!

INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM

An "Introduction to Judaism" course will be taught by Rabbi Arthur Nemitoff and Cantor Vicki Axe at Temple Israel for eighteen weeks, beginning October 25. It will meet Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Total cost for the course will be $50.00 which also covers the expenses of your books. Scholarships are available.

This course offers a wonderful opportunity to learn Jewish history, traditions, holidays, life-cycle ceremonies, and some basic Hebrew. Participants will gain comfort and familiarity with the symbols, liturgy, music and traditions which accompany Jewish celebrations in the home and in the synagogue.

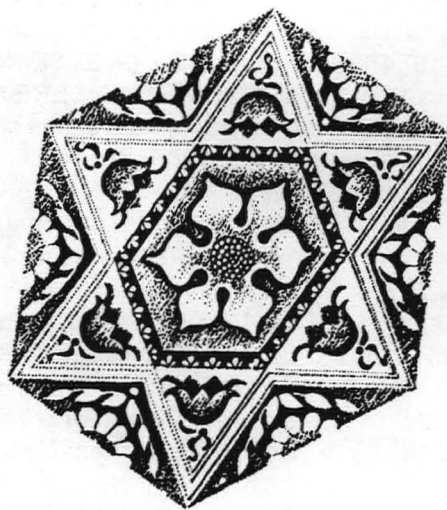

This eighteen week course provides a "hands-on" interactive learning experience. Class sessions are discussion-oriented and some sessions will focus on personal religious identity and family religious issues.

Anyone wanting to learn more about Judaism in our community, including Jews by birth, Jews by choice, and interfaith couples are invited to attend.

To register, call Temple Israel at 866-0010

COURSE WILL COVER

- ☆ Jewish History
- ☆ Jewish Theology-Synagogue-Prayerbook
- ☆ Holidays and Jewish calendar
- ☆ Christianity & Judaism: Points of Convergence/Divergence

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

As Director of the Temple Israel Preschool, I see early childhood as a time that is rich in social learning: It is also a time when feelings of rivalry, competition, and peer pressure begin to develop.

It is interesting to see the early signs of peer pressure as a toddler struggles to build a block tower just like one that another child built, or watch a child's reaction when that child is left without another classmate as a partner. Although peer pressure may seem negative and worrisome, in many cases it is a force for good. It allows your child to be a social scientist, to discover what attracts and holds friends, and ultimately to have a happy and healthy life.

In reading about peer pressure within the schools, I have come to realize that negative peer pressure wins out only when there is some kind of void between you and your child. Therefore, it is important to stay connected and to give your child a strong "home base" of values and self-esteem. Below is a brief overview of peer pressure "touch points" from two eminent researchers.

Cheryl Greenhut, Preschool Director

Charles E. Schaefer, Ph.D. and Theresa Foy DiGeronimo, M. Ed., have written about "the 5 good things about peer pressure:"

1. It's stimulating: just watch one baby react excitedly to another.
2. It's motivating: admiring a peer's school success can make a child want to match it. "A" for "A."
3. It teaches good thinking skills: peer pressure spurs a child to reason and plan. "If I invite Mikey over to play with my puppy, maybe he will like me and want to be my friend."
4. It teaches good social skills: a child learns to wait her turn, share her toys, and listen to others, or face exclusion from her peers.
5. It teaches a child about him/her self: seeing him/her self as others do helps your child to recognize strengths and work on weaknesses all through life.

WHEN YOUR CHILD'S "OUT" OF THE "IN" CROWD

Charles E. Schaffer, Ph. D.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Be alert to danger signs, such as your child rarely talking about other kids.

Help your child develop a strong friendship with one other child.

Encourage your child to join an extracurricular club or group.

Share one of your own experiences of being excluded.

Help your child develop an area of special ability.

Consider if there are underlying causes, such as a learning disability that makes "reading" body language and other social cues difficult.

HOW THIS HELPS

It may be a clue that your child has peer problems.

Being accepting by one good pal will help your child feel less lonely and more likeable.

It helps to cultivate friends in different circles, like in the neighborhood or a house of worship.

This tells your child that you survived and s/he will, too.

This helps your child value herself for what s/he can do.

It could lead to getting valuable help from your child's teacher, school counselor, pediatrician, or other professional.

PRESCHOOL AT RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Parents and pre-school children (three to four-years-old) are invited to come to Religious School on Sunday morning September 17, from 11:00 AM to noon and learn about Rosh Hashana at Temple Israel.

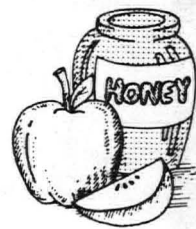

Four times this year, families can bring their pre-school children to Temple as an introduction to Religious School. This is the first of four sessions about Jewish holidays. Children will learn songs, hear stories, and make art projects developmentally appropriate for them. A snack will be served representing Rosh Hashana.

The class will be taught by Bev Shafran and Helen Speyer who both have degrees in early childhood and many years of teaching Jewish education to pre-school children.

A booklet has been compiled by the Outreach Committee about Rosh Hashana explaining the holiday and activities you can do with your child which will be distributed to parents who attend.

This program is open for families unaffiliated with any congregation as well as Temple Israel members.

There is no charge for this class but reservations are needed. Call the Temple Israel office at 866-0010 by September 15.

If you have a simcha to share with your Temple Israel family please call 866-0010 to let us know!

SELICHOT DESSERT PLANNED

Come and join Rabbi Nemitoff and Cantor Axe for our annual Selichot Service, preceded by a delicious dessert provided by our Sisterhood. This meaningful and mystical service prepares us spiritually for the upcoming High Holidays. Its tone is one of reflection and forgiveness. Join us on Saturday, September 16, at 10:30 PM, for this moving prelude to the High Holiday season.

PICNIC IN THE SUKKAH

*October the 8th is the date to save,
For a celebration with food you'll crave.
The occasion is the day we devote
To celebrate the harvest, the holiday of Sukkot.*

*Your Sisterhood has planned the night
To start at 6:15 PM (while the sky is still light).
A true picnic dinner is planned to be served.
Please send us your check to get your seats reserved.*

*Only $7.00 per adult - a bargain! A wonder!
Only $3.75 if you are 12 years or under!*

*At 7:30 PM when you're filled to the max
Our service begins with Clergy Nemitoff & Axe.*

Please send your check made payable to Temple Israel Sisterhood no later than September 30 to: Wendy Cohen 12684 Wheaton Ave. NW, Pickerington, Ohio 43147. Your check is your reservation.

HOLIDAY FLOWERS

Help provide an especially beautiful High Holiday season with your contribution for bima flowers. Contact Marlene at the Temple Office at 866-0010.

1995 High Holiday Observance for Children (Ages 3-11)

Once again, Temple Israel is offering something very special for our younger worshippers. This holiday season on Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur mornings your children will be carefully supervised with age-appropriate activities from 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM (including arts and crafts projects, storytime, a film, oneg, a Shofar demonstration on Rosh Hashana, a demonstration of the Kol Nidre on Yom Kippur, and a chapel service for both holidays). Parents and older children may worship at our regular service in the sanctuary. There will be separate activities for 9 to 11-year-olds. Supervised childcare will also be available on Yom Kippur from 2-6 PM.

Each group of children will be supervised by members of our congregation who have volunteered to give up one morning of regular High Holiday worship in order to lend their skills and talents to the very important task of serving our younger worshippers. Members of YFTL and other high school students will also be assisting.

Please note that the inclusion of the 9 to 11-year-olds is new. In order for these programs to work, we need your help to staff them. Please consider giving one morning to be with our children, and call Karen Elson at 866-0010 to volunteer.

We are very proud of these plans which will allow our younger worshippers to experience the High Holidays in a very special way. We want all members of our Temple Family, young and old, to feel warm and welcome at Temple Israel during the High Holidays and always. Please direct any questions about the High Holiday Observance for children - ages 3-11 to the Temple at 866-0010.

MEMORIAL PLAQUES

As in years past during the High Holiday season, memorial plaques will be sold for $350, a 25% reduction of the established price. To take advantage of this special opportunity, your request must be received at the Temple Office no later than October 25, 1995.

SPECIAL THANKS

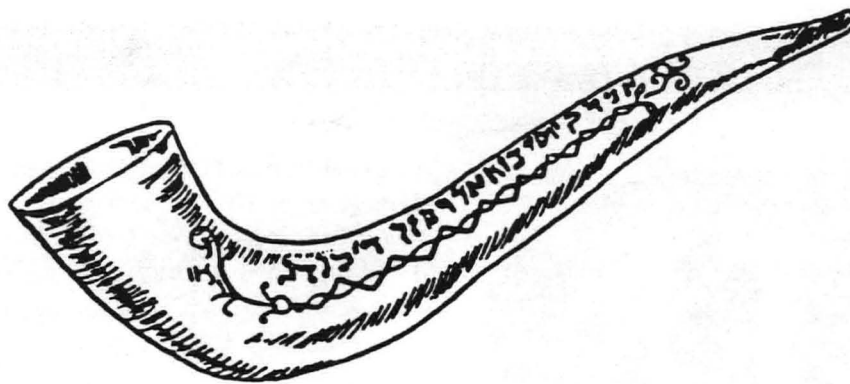

We want to acknowledge and thank those members of our congregation listed below who have shown their support and caring by setting their yearly dues at $5,000 or more:

YOM KIPPUR

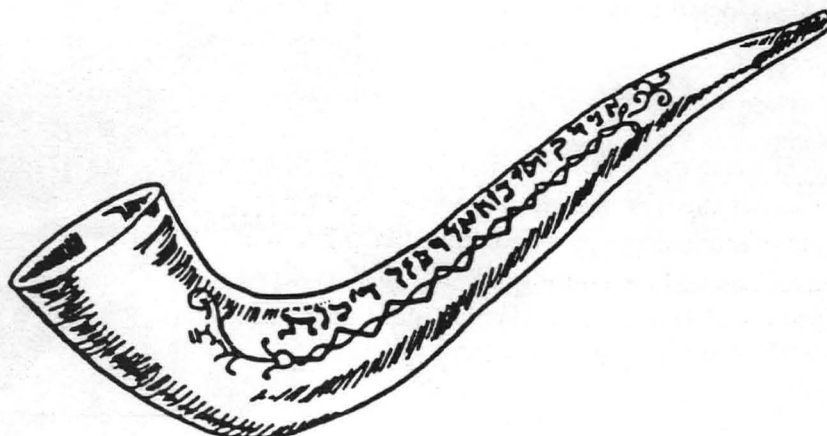

OUTREACH BREAK FAST
FOR YOM KIPPUR

OCTOBER 4, 1995
6:30 PM

BEV AND BOB SHAFRAN'S HOME
24 NORTH MERKLE
BEXLEY, OHIO

Immediately after services on Yom Kippur (6:00 or 6:30 PM), "OUTREACH" at Temple Israel is having a potluck break fast for--recent Jews by choice, inter-faith families, couples in inter-faith relationships and parents of inter-faith families.

This event is sponsored by Sisterhood and you will need to make your RSVP to Barbara Shapiro (chairperson of this event) at 239-0412 by September 29th.

The Columbus Tzedakah Project (CTP) has begun!!! The goal of the project is to educate and involve thousands of greater Columbus Jewish families in Tzedakah through highlighting the rescue and recovery of Jews in need who are supported by the Jewish CommUNITY Campaign.

There are over 1.4 million Jews living in the Former Soviet Union in several large cities and in smaller towns and villages. Because of rampant inflation and non-existent government social services, many are struggling to survive, and adequate food, medicine, and clothing have become luxuries.

New and gently worn adult clothing is needed for the Jews in the Former Soviet Union, as well as for all needy individuals here in Columbus. Your clothing donation will become part of a container-load of relief supplies to be shipped to the Former Soviet Union. Clothing must be clean, have no holes, rips, broken zippers, missing buttons, stains, open seams, fading, runs, worn spots, or pilling. We need your help!

Please donate clothing and volunteer to help sort and pack the clothing. Volunteers are also needed to make phone calls for CommUNITY Campaign's Super Sunday, October 22, 1995 at the JCC. Clothing for the Columbus Tzedakah Project may be dropped off at any of the above CTP donation sites. For further information, please call Karen Elson at Temple Israel at 866-0010, Gary Dublin at the Columbus Jewish Federation at 237-7686, or Lisa Soble at The Columbus Commission on Jewish Education at 231-2731.

The Columbus Tzedakah Project (CTP) is a community-wide effort coordinated by the Columbus Jewish Federation's Jewish CommUNITY Campaign and the Columbus Commission on Jewish Education and in cooperation with Temple Israel, Agudas Achim, Ahavas Sholom, Beth Jacob, Beth Shalom, Beth Tikvah, Columbus Jewish Historical Society, Columbus Torah Academy, Jewish Family Services, Kol Ami, Leo Yassenoff Jewish Community Center of Greater Columbus, Schottenstein Chabad House, Tifereth Israel, Wexner Heritage House, and the Wexner Jewish Students Center of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at The Ohio State University.

CARING COMMUNITY

Sisterhood has instituted the Caring Community Project. If you have a relative or know of someone in the congregation that needs assistance with transportation to the doctor's office, grocery shopping, a warm meal while recuperating at home, or a ride to a Temple function, please contact Carol Boster at 475-4437 or Irene Daroe at 864-0419.

SAFAM TO PERFORM

Rockers Rooted in Jewish Tradition Perform at Temple Israel
Sunday, October 22, 1995, at 4:00 PM

SAFAM IS A HEBREW WORD WHICH MEANS MOUSTACHE.
SAFAM IS A CONTEMPORARY ROCK GROUP, DEEPLY ROOTED IN JEWISH TRADITION.
SAFAM IS A CELEBRATION FOR RABBI NEMITOFF'S INSTALLATION WEEKEND.
SAFAM IS A BIG FINISH FOR AN ALL DAY COLUMBUS COMMUNITY TZEDAKAH PROJECT.
(ALL OF THE ABOVE)

Founded in 1974 by university students, this six-member Boston-based rock group is the longest playing contemporary American Jewish Band. SAFAM performs a unique repertoire of music that is both instrumental and vocal, and as diverse as the people it is about.

Starting with Chassidic, cantorial, folk, and Klezmer music, SAFAM has over the years expanded its stylistic repertoire to include rock, reggae, barbershop quartet, Latin and classical. Whatever the musical style, SAFAM'S style blends Hebrew and English lyrics and has been called "unabashedly emotional."

One of SAFAM'S signature pieces is "Leaving Mother Russia," which became the anthem for Soviet Jews, and which they performed at a rally for 250,000 people in New York's United Nations Plaza. The songwriter of this as well as many other SAFAM pieces is a full time cantor. In fact, he was Rabbi Nemitoff's cantor in his former congregation in Boston. Cantor Robbie

Solomon is "thrilled to be bringing SAFAM for its second appearance in Columbus. I am especially honored to be part of the installation celebration for Rabbi Nemitoff and also excited that the music of SAFAM will underscore a day of community tzedakah."

Rabbi Nemitoff said, "The members of SAFAM are all great guys. I can't think of a better way to begin my tenure here at Temple Israel than with the music of SAFAM. Rooted in Jewish tradition, the music and lyrics draw on Jewish history and Jewish themes to craft contemporary commentary that is deeply meaningful." SAFAM has released nine albums in its 20 year history including a double "The Best Of . . ." CD. The concert, which is part of the Cantor's Concert Series, will take place Sunday, October 22, 1995, at 4:00 PM. The concert will open to the public. Anyone wishing to assist in underwriting the cost of bringing SAFAM to the temple and Columbus is asked to contact Cantor Axe at 866-0010.

REVISION PROCESS REPORT

In order to establish guidelines for the revision process, a steering committee (listed below) has been appointed. The committee includes men and women who are members and non-members of the board, all of whom have demonstrated leadership and deep concern for the well-being of Temple Israel. The committee was selected to represent a broad base of the age groups, areas of interest and expertise, geographic location of residences, and years of involvement in Temple life. While this committee is charged with designing the manner in which change will be accomplished, the entire congregation is invited to participate in the process itself.

At the first meeting of the steering committee on August 2, 1995, the committee addressed positive approaches for working together and the breadth of the revision process. Suggested for inclusion were the definition of the mission and core values of our congregation, determination of an organizational structure that best suits that mission and Temple Israel, clarification of the roles and lines of authority of professional staff and lay leadership, and the rewriting of our constitution consistent with mission and structure. Care will be taken to make use of our own previous efforts in strategic planning, structural change, and leadership development. The involvement of Rabbi Nemitoff and Cantor Axe is seen as essential to the process as well as input from outside professional sources. At the second meeting of the committee on August 17, 1995, plans were made to catalog and index the accumulating documents, studies, and materials in order that they be readily available when the revision work begins. Various methods of maximizing congregational involvement were discussed.

The steering committee agreed enthusiastically that the revision process must begin as soon as possible and that the involvement of the congregation in the process of revision is imperative to successful completion and implementation of change. To that end, every member of the congregation is urged to participate. Indeed, many have already responded expressing their interest in participation. If you are interested and have not already indicated such by your response to the invitation in June, please feel free to contact any member of the committee. Your input is needed and welcomed!

TEMPLE ISRAEL FOUNDATION NEWS

It is with great pleasure that we announce that Mr. Ernest Stern has been selected for recognition at the Columbus Jewish Foundation's 15th Annual Dinner Meeting, on Monday, August 28, 1995.

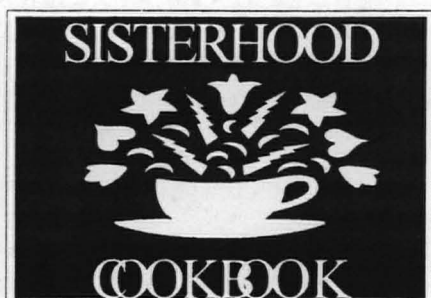

Mr. Stern has been associated with many organizations over the years; at this time he is a Board member at Temple Israel Foundation and a national Board member of the UAHC. He was the President of Temple Israel in 1979-1981 and President of Temple Israel Foundation in 1992-1993. Mr. Stern was chosen as Man of the Year in 1971 by Temple Israel Brotherhood and New Members' Honoree in 1988.

This is certainly not all of the accomplishments that Mr. Stern has made; through the years he has given so much to strengthen the Jewish Community.

The Temple Israel Foundation Board of Trustees would like to congratulate Ernie Stern for this recognition.

SISTERHOOD FALL MEETING SET

Temple Israel Sisterhood invites all members and guests to its Fall Opening Meeting on Tuesday, September 19 at 6:30 PM. The featured speaker will be Rabbi Arthur Nemitoff. The evening will start off with a dinner catered by "Pastabilities," after which Rabbi Nemitoff will get to know us, and we will have a chance to get to know him with a question and answer session. The "Possibilities" are endless! Come help Sisterhood welcome our Rabbi Nemitoff in style. Call Sandy Summer at 237-1337 for reservations by September 12. The price for the dinner is $14.00. As with any evening program, transportation and baby-sitting are available and by reservation only. Call Marci Delson with any questions at 764-8618.

TOT SHABBAT

Temple Israel's Sisterhood proudly announces the 1995-1996 Tot Shabbat program. We are having on Saturday morning, September 9, 10:30 AM children ages two through six and their families are invited to join us in the sanctuary for a participatory Shabbat service with Rabbi Nemitoff and Cantor Axe. Following the service, there will be a special craft to help celebrate the sweetness of Rosh Hashana. We will conclude the morning with Kiddush, motzi, and a light lunch for all.

Mark your calendars for September 9, as well as for the additional Tot Shabbats on November 18, January 27, and April 6. Plan now to share these joyous experiences with your young children and create Jewish memories together. For reservations for the September 9 Tot Shabbat, please call the Temple office at 866-0010 by Wednesday, September 6.

B-B-Q THANKS!

The Temple Israel Summer Barbecues are designed to be a vehicle for introducing prospective new members to our happy family and allowing our long established members a chance to reacquaint in their otherwise busy lives. UAHC SENDS 5756 GREETINGS

"Days are scrolls; write on them what you want to be remembered."
Bachya ibn Pakuda (Spain c 1050-1120).

It is said that during the High Holy Days, the Book of Life is opened, and all our deeds are weighed.

What shall be written in the Book of Life? What shall be inscribed on the scroll of the New Year? He who is kind will be remembered for his kindness. She who is compassionate will be remembered for her love and mercy. Those who do loving acts will be remembered for their loving kindness.

Every day we are writing; and in the future those who follow us will be reading. By our example will they live. For Judaism is passed along on our shoulders and on the shoulders of those who come after us.

In the New Year 5756 may we write good deeds on the scroll of our life. May we be a blessing to our children and our children's children. May we keep alive the spark of the Jewish faith, and the fate of the Jewish people.

Looking forward to seeing old friends and making new ones at the Atlanta Biennial, November 29 - December 3, and with love from home to home, we remain, as always,

David S. Hachen
