A WORD TOGETHER

Another year will soon be ushered in. Bernice, myself, Richard, and Elliot hope it will be a healthy and happy one for members of the Temple Sholom family. Many new activities and programs will be a part of this year's Temple calendar. Be participants and not spectators. Only in this way will your Jewish consciousness be raised.

Individually and collectively problems abound. Presently we once again face an outbreak of hostilities in the Middle East and the threat of bloodshed. Yet no matter how grim the times, hope remains a necessity. As Jews we are good at hope: we know how to hope even against the odds. The words we sing in the Hatikvah: וְיִשְׂרָאֵל אֲמַר אֵלֵינוּ תְּקוּמָה
"Still our hope has not died," expresses this truth of Jewish history. Let us pray, though we all face personal problems and the world at large is at a perilous juncture, hope will never be surrendered during the New Year!

Rabbi Lloyd R. Goldman

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

- * Two family night services will take place in the near future. On Wednesday, October 3 at 7:30 P.M. we will usher in the beautiful festival of Succot. Our pulpit Succah will be in place and Vince Chase, Director of the Catholic Social Services, will be our guest speaker. Students will be asked to share their blessings by bringing food items for the needy.

- * Simchat Torah will be commemorated on Friday, October 12. It too, will be a 7:30 P.M. service.

- * The Christian/Jewish Dialogue will have its initial meeting of the Temple year on Sunday, September 16 - 7:30 P.M. in the Temple Sholom multi-purpose room. Guest speakers will be Carrie Labriola and Shirley Flacks of the Dayton Christian/Jewish Dialogue. Prospective new members are welcome

- * An Ad Hoc Committee of Sisterhood has been studying a need for its restructuring. This committee will present its plan on Monday, September 10, 7:30 P.M. in the Temple Sholom multi-purpose room. Since a formal ratification vote will be taken at this meeting, a quorum of the Sisterhood membership will be necessary. Please make every effort to attend and voice your opinion.

- * RELIGIOUS SCHOOL BEGINS SEPTEMBER 16.

- * Dr. Herbert Silverman will be the speaker for the 12:15 Yom Kippur Seminar.

PLAN TO ATTEND!

The Men's Annual Stag will take place on Wednesday, September 12th starting at 6:00 P.M. Cost will be $35.00 per person. Please save the date, plan to attend and bring several guests for this steak cookout. This is a major fund raiser for the Ways and Means Committee and we need your support. The Telephone Committee will call you for your reservations.
