CONGREGATION
RODEF SHOLOM

A Monthly Publication of Congregation Rodef Sholom * Youngstown, Ohio

October 1998 Volume 64, Number 2 Tishri/Cheshvan 5759

Kindling the Light
Rabbi Frank Muller

The High Holy Days have concluded, the October chill has arrived, but we are only in the middle of the mighty month known as Tishri. That means more Jewish holidays to celebrate. Now comes the joyous festival of Sukkot.
Although agricultural in its origin, Sukkot in later years became associated with a significant event in the life of the Jewish people: the journey through the wilderness toward the land of Israel. The Torah identifies the Sukkah (booth) with the temporary dwellings in which the Israelites lived during that journey.

"You shall dwell in Sukkot seven days...in order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in Sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I the Lord your God.” (Leviticus 23:42)

Today, most of us don’t take this commandment in the Torah very seriously, primarily because it is viewed as a rather primitive and impractical ritual. Yet according to our movement’s main guidebook for the holidays, Gates of the Seasons, it is a mitzvah for every Reform Jew to participate in the building of a Sukkah, preferably right in one’s own backyard.

Happily, more and more Reform Jews are interested in reviving this time-honored custom. A Sukkah is a wonderful thing to build. It is large, tangible, creative and always one of a kind. Putting it up is the stuff of which childhood memories are made. Once it is up, one brings it to life in a number of ways, such as by decorating it with a personal touch and by eating in it with friends and neighbors. For the true adventurist there can even be a night or two spent sleeping in the Sukkah under the stars. Though it may be chilly, one can be certain that the mosquitos won’t be around to bite.

As for the mechanics of putting one up, not to worry. Do-it-yourself kits proliferate for the technologically-challenged, of which I consider myself a sustaining member. Actually, the kit I purchased over the summer from “The Sukkah Project” comes complete with “Klutz Alerts”, useful hints for people like me who think a crossbeam is a religious symbol from another faith.

I have no idea whether my Sukkah will end up looking more like a chuppah, or worse, like the forts I used to build as a kid, but at least my family and I will have fun trying. After all, didn’t someone once say that according to the effort, is the reward? At the very least, building a Sukkah creates an opportunity to be social and offers a vehicle around which to build family life and enhance Jewish identity. That is a mitzvah, the benefit of which no one can deny. Happy Sukkot to you and yours.
It sort of feels like the morning after at Rodef Sholom—September encompassed High Holy Day services with boom crowds, beautiful music, the Shofar’s cleansing notes. There were three Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, a conversion, baby-naming, the dedication of the Tree of Life. The annual Temple picnic had a lot of our congregation’s kids at Chestnut Ridge Park, Israel Bonds honored Pinky Ehrlich at Rodef Sholom, and Religious School started up.

But October proves another spirited month. The Dr. Sidney M. Berkowitz Memorial Lecture is October 7 with Dee Dee Myers, President Clinton’s former White House Press Secretary—come early or miss out on a seat. Sukkot, (Supper in the Sukkah), Simhat Torah and Consecration, the new and 50 year member Shabbat service, Tot Shabbat, two weddings, Sisterhood luncheon and fashion show—I expect all our members to be in Temple this month again!!!

Some thanks—Phyllis Wilkoff and June Shapiro for the Gift Shop (and Jean Wolfort too), Fran and Mendel Harmon for the Holocaust Torah cover, the YSU Hillel backers, Evelyn Solomon, Jack Tamarkin, our ushers, Toni Schildcrout and Caring Community, Cantor Ehrlich, and UAHC Northeast Lakes Council office, our committees, the office staff (Esther, you bake a great Challah), and all the contributors listed at the back of this bulletin across-the-board.

We are looking for two paid positions. We need a Program Director. This person would create programs, inspire membership, attract new members, increase diversity and involve more congregants. We also need a new Tutorial Coordinator, Jane Pollack stepping down after a great job. This is two afternoons weekly of outreach and social action. Call the Temple if you are interested or know of someone who might be; the pay is not too shabby, and the satisfaction could be boundless.

Rodef Sholom is here to meet your specific needs—let us know what you are looking for that we don’t provide, and we’ll do our best to satisfy.

Mazel Tov

To Elayne and Ed Cohn on the Bar Mitzvah of their grandson, Brian Carnahan, son of Randi and Russell Carnahan of Worthington, OH., on October 17th.

To Barbara and David Alter on the birth of their granddaughter, Simran Rayna Alter, born to Michael Alter and Anjali Goel. Also to great-grandmother Mamie Smith and great-grandfather M.J. Rifkin.

Kimberly and Michael Anderson on the birth of their son, Duncan Joshua, born August 26th. Also to grandparents Bessie and Godfrey Anderson.

To Margie Simon on her election to the recently merged World Union for Progressive Judaism/ARZA National Board on Sept. 13th in New York City.

Pinky Ehrlich Honored

Pinky Ehrlich, who has been active for many years in numerous community and religious organizations, received the State of Israel Bonds Woman of Valor award at a dessert reception held at the Temple on September 13.

Pinky, a respected nurse both in local hospitals and as a private duty nurse for many years until her retirement, has been very involved as a leader in our community with organizations such as the Youngstown Area Jewish Federation, the Jewish Community Center and Jewish Family Service.

She was the first to receive the Woman of Valor Award from the Youngstown Area Jewish Federation. She also was awarded the ZOA Brandeis Award, the K’far Silver Scholarship plaque and was nominated for the YWCA Woman of the Year Achievement Award.

Her husband is Lawrence Ehrlich, Cantor Emeritus of Congregation Rodef Sholom.

Sisterhood News

The Sisterhood Opening Luncheon/Fashion show will be October 15 at 12:00 Noon. Sunny Heselov and her committee are doing an outstanding job putting together this annual event. A flyer has been sent with all the details. Please make your reservations before the October 8th deadline. Call if transportation is needed. Guests are welcome. Come and get to know your temple. NO BOARD MEETING BEFORE.

Phyllis Wilkoff and June Shapiro are trying very hard to get the Sisterhood Gift Shop stocked with new items. It will be open every Friday night 1/2 hour before and 1/2 hour after services for browsing. Come and look over the many items. Call Phyllis if you are interested in purchasing items. The Gift Shop is always open for business during regular office hours, 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. Donna Manevich does an outstanding job with our stationary. Please remember to call her, 759-0994, if you are in need of stationary. When you are at the temple a display will be in the Gift Shop for you to look at. Just let her know what your needs are.

I know that a special person willing to be in charge of Onegs and Candleblessers is still out there. We need people to light the candles and sponsor onegs after services. Will someone PLEASE help?

The next Board meeting will be November 10th at 10:30 a.m. in the Wilkoff Library. As your president I hope to see you there. Please call the office if you cannot attend.

Community News

Gil Mann will be the featured speaker at the 1999 Combined Jewish Appeal Campaign Kickoff, to be held on Thursday, October 8th at Congregation Ohev Tzedek, 5245 Glenwood Ave., Boardman. Mr. Mann is the author of the book, “How to Get More Out of Being Jewish.” The book was first published in October 1996, and is based on comments the author heard in interviews and focus groups with Jews around the United Stated. The cost for the event is $3 per person. Area teens are invited to the event, with no charge for youngsters under 18 years of age. For tickets and information, call the JCC at 746-3251.

YSU Professor Gabriel Palmer-Fernandez will be speaking at the Youngstown Jewish Community Center on Friday, October 9th. Dr. Palmer-Fernandez is the Director of the Dale Ethics Center. His topic will be the evolution of the bio-medical ethics during the past 30 years. He will highlight in particular the Jewish perspective on issues such as cloning and cessation of life support. The program will begin at 12:00 Noon with a kosher lunch, followed by the featured presentation. The program is open to the public. The cost is $5 for JCC members and $8 for non-members. Advance reservations are required and may be made by calling the JCC at 746-3251.

Jewish Family Services will be dedicating a new memorial on Sunday, October 18 at 1:30 p.m. in the garden area next to the JFS offices on Gypsy Lane. The monument is in memory of loved ones left behind in the former Soviet Union. The short ceremony will be in Russian and English, and the entire Jewish community is invited to attend. No reservations are necessary.

Reminders

For your safety, we would like to remind you to limit your cemetery visits to the hours when the guard is on duty. The hours are Sundays from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and on Wednesdays from 1:00-3:00 p.m.

A major fund-raiser for the Temple is grocery SCRIP. Scrip cost you nothing and the Temple makes a profit by buying it at a discounted rate from Loganway Giant Eagle and Belmont Giant Eagle. The scrip is sold in denominations of $10 and $20's. Call the Temple office for details.

Dee Dee Myers was the first woman and the youngest person ever to serve as the White House Press Secretary. Armed with sharp political instincts and an irreverent sense of humor, Ms. Myers earned the respect of the White House press corps and the nation with her ability to explain complex subjects in straightforward language. In her daily press briefings, as chief spokesperson for President Clinton and the White House, she fielded questions on topics ranging from Bosnia to the budget and from international trade to health care. Ms. Myers is currently Political Editor for Vanity Fair, using her experience to help shape the award-winning magazine’s political coverage. Until her recent move to Los Angeles, she was co-host of CNBC’s Equal Time.
