Rabbi's Message
BY RABBI RANDI MUSNITSKY

Tuesday the 13th of April corresponds on the Hebrew calendar to the 27th of Nisan. In recent years that date has been designated on the Jewish calendar as YOM HASHOAH, Holocaust Remembrance Day. It commemorates the unspeakable tragedy of the Six Million whose memory it strives to perpetuate and sanctify.

Regrettably, few Jews are aware that such a day for remembering exists and even fewer still pause to mark the day in any way. We can understand why many of us would rather not be reminded of this most disastrous chapter in our history. The subject is as painful as it is incomprehensible. But remember we must. That is the very least we owe them - the immortality which memory confers.

The actions of the Nazis were the worst disaster ever to befall the Jewish people. The Holocaust has been called the greatest moral failure in the entire history of humanity. Yet, despite unimpeachable historical, physical, and eye-witness evidence of Nazi actions there are still some groups who maintain that the Holocaust never occurred, that the accusations of the Nazi degradation and murder of millions of people is merely propaganda. In the face of such ridiculous statements it behooves us to never, never forget.

Dr. Leo Baeck was a renowned German Rabbi who, despite frequent arrests and threats of death, refused all offers to take refuge in another country because he considered it his responsibility not to desert his fellow Jews. Dr. Baeck wrote a prayer to be recited at Kol Nidre services in 1936. Although its reading was forbidden by the Nazis, the following excerpt became common knowledge and offered courage to all: “We bow our heads before God and stand erect before men.” We can do no less for their memories and for ourselves than to follow the dictates of those few words. May we remember them on YOM HASHOAH.

Rabbi's Tribute Brings World-Renowned Scholar to Temple Emanuel

The annual Rabbi Edwin N. Soslow Scholar-in-Residence weekend at Temple Emanuel promises to be both inspirational and thought-provoking.

The yearly tribute to the late, beloved Rabbi Soslow, will begin at Sabbath Services on Friday night, April 9, at 8 p.m. as the Temple welcomes guest speaker Dr. Ellis Rivkin, Professor of Jewish History Emeritus at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati. Dr. Rivkin will talk on the topic of “What Crucified Jesus?”

On Saturday morning, April 10, at 9:15 a.m. Dr. Rivkin will lead the Torah Study Session.

Dr. Rivkin has a long and distinguished career in both education and Jewish studies. He holds a doctorate in history from Johns Hopkins University and a B.H.L. degree from Baltimore Hebrew College.

He has served as a visiting professor of Jewish History and Judaic Studies at institutions of higher learning such as the University of Utah, Southern Methodist University, Antioch College and the University of San Francisco.

In 1962, Dr. Rivkin was awarded a Simon Guggenheim Fellowship to do archival research on the role of the Jews in...

Hit the road with the senior group on Wednesday, April 21, and take a bite out of the Big Apple! We’re going to the Museum of Jewish Heritage in New York to explore the 20th Century Jewish life. Details will follow. If you are interested, please call the Temple office at 489-0029.

CONSULTATION ON CONSCIENCE

The Reform Movement’s Premier Public Policy Conference will be held on April 25-27 in Washington, D.C.

Religious liberty, the Mideast peace process, health care reform and civil rights, economic justice. These are the issues of our day. These are the issues progressive Jews confront at the turn of the millennium. And these are the issues that will be addressed at the conference.

For more information, or to reserve your place at the conference, call the Religious Action Center at (202) 387-2800.

the development of early capitalism in European archives. After reading his paper at the International Congress of Economic Historians in Munich in 1965, Dr. Rivkin was granted an American Philosophical grant to continue his research on the topic in the Viennese archives.

In the course of his career, Dr. Rivkin has served on the editorial boards of the Hebrew Union college Annual and the Jewish Publication Society of America, and has been a member of many honorary learned and professional societies, such as Phi Beta Kappa, the American Historical Association, the Society of Bible Literature and the Central Conference of American Rabbis.

In 1977, Dr. Rivkin established The Globalist Research Foundation, which has published his analyses in the field of International Affairs with a special focus on Israel and the Middle East. He has published five books, including, “The Dynamics of Jewish History,” “The Shaping of Jewish History: A Radical New Interpretation,” and “What Crucified Jesus?” He is also the author of more than a hundred articles and reviews which have appeared in publications such as “The Jewish Quarterly Review,” “Judaism,” and “The Journal of Modern History.”

Dr. Rivkin is now working on a book about the role of Great Britain as a post-imperial superpower.

A well-respected, world-renowned author, educator and speaker, Dr. Rivkin promises to make the Rabbi Edwin N. Soslow Scholar-in-Residence Weekend unforgettable.

As part of Temple Emanuel’s annual Memorial Tribute to the rabbi, the Soslow Achievement Award will be presented to a graduating senior.

For more information, call the Temple at 489-0029.

New Members

We warmly welcome the following new members into our congregational family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Taylor

SISTERHOOD
by Faith Chonofsky

SOCIAL ACTION
by Pearl Braunstein

Our Social Action Committee will be collecting men's suits, dress shirts, ties, sport jackets and women's suits, dresses, skirts and blouses for our "Dressed for Success" project. This project will be ongoing from April through June. With many people coming off the welfare roles, the need for this type of clothing for interviews and hopefully gainful employment is needed. Please drop off the clothing in the bin in the coat room or call me at 429-5354 for pick up and delivery instructions.

Caring Hearts is also in need of pasta sauce that comes in cans only. These can be placed in the Caring Hearts playpen in the coatroom.

Casserole Cooking will be held on Tuesday night, April 20, at 7 p.m. in the kitchen. Volunteers are always needed to help prepare casseroles which are then taken to the Neighborhood Center in Camden. These casseroles offer a hot meal to 200-300 people. Please call me for more information.

Be a part of an exciting new program as we assist three young, developmentally disabled Jewish women as they move into their own apartment in Haddonfield. Volunteers are needed who can give the gift of time and friendship. Tasks include sharing a Shabbat dinner together, going bowling, transporting the women to services and social events.

A paid position supervising the women in their home with cooking, cleaning and food shopping is also available. In addition, there are positions as respite workers with the developmentally disabled are also available. If interested, contact the Jewish Family & Children's Service at 424-1333.

Our Rabbis are always available to make hospital visits or phone calls to congregants and family members who are ill. Please call the Temple Office at 489-0029 so that we may be of help.
The Death of Death, Resurrection and Immortality in Jewish Thought
by Neil Gillman

Combining astute scholarship with historical, theological and liturgical insights, Gillman traces the evolution of Jewish thought about death and the afterlife. From Judaism’s original belief not only in the afterlife, but in bodily resurrection, to later ambivalence about resurrection and reincarnation, today, somewhat surprisingly, more contemporary Jewish scholars - including Gillman - have returned to the notion of bodily resurrection. By exploring Jewish thought about death and the afterlife, this fascinating work presents us with new ideas about their lives.

Rabin
by Leah Rabin

The widow of assassinated Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin has written a memoir of their life together that is both a memorable study of a man who shaped history, and a tale of what happens when religious and political ideologies clash.

Biblical Women in the Midrash: A Sourcebook
by N.H. Hyman

This work examines the depiction of prominent Biblical women, first in the Bible and later in Talmudic and rabbinic Midrashim. In addition, it includes new Midrashim from contemporary writers.

Growing Up Jewish: An Anthology
by Jay David, ed.

This anthology includes personal reflections by some of our most admired authors, including Grace Paley and Chaim Potok.

YOUTH GROUP
by Sandy Umansky

Shalom to all the youths at Temple Emanuel!! After attending this country’s largest youth convention in Reform Jewish history, I have renewed faith in the power of kids. You can do anything you set your mind to, can attack and overcome any religious obstacle. All you really need is conviction, dedication, desire and, of course, youth group.

We at Temple Emanuel can give you that vehicle. Yedidim, Shomrin and TE•TY are all awaiting your arrival.

Rabbi Eric Yoffie, president of the Reform Movement, UAHC, stresses that informed Jewish education provides the cornerstone of an adult Jewish life. In simple terms, youth group makes such an impact on your entire life that you’re more likely to remain an active Jewish individual if you participate in youth group as a teen.

I hope to see more of you take part in the wonderful activities that our youth groups provide. Look forward to regional conventions (elections for our region are fast approaching, we wish all TE•TY-ites Mazel Tov). There are car washes, trips to Great Adventure and much more going on at youth group. So, come out and see us and join in the fun.

PHOTO SEARCH

We are looking to put together a booklet with photos of our Social Hall decorated for your Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Wedding, etc. If you have any photos you can spare, or if you could make some copies of them so we can include them in our album, please send them to the Temple to the attention of Jane Vortreflich. We would like to be able to show our members and non-members how lovely the room looks when decorated for a special event.

L’Chaim, the gift shop located in Temple Emanuel, has something for everyone and every occasion. Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, Birthdays, Weddings... The special hand-crafted and one-of-a-kind items could be just what you - or a loved one - are looking for.

Call 751-3270 or see our ad for our new store hours.

Men’s Club
by Scott P. Jeffreys

If you did not join us on Sunday, March 7, you missed an intriguing interactive session with Rabbi David. We reviewed what Jewish literature would say to the question of “is it acceptable for men to wear an earring?” and “is dinosaur meat Kosher?” A fun time was had by all.

We are evaluating how we can team up with other Men’s Clubs to help with the Maccabi Games this August at the JCC. They are seeking all kinds of help! So if you are interested in finding out how you can get involved, call their Hotline at 489-8250.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, May 22 for the Mediplex Rehab Hospital’s bike-a-thon from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. They will have a seven mile family bike ride beginning at 10 a.m. A BMX bike-riding demonstration will start at noon. There will be bike registration by the local police, information from local bike clubs, discount helmets and equipment along with face painting, balloons and food.

If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please call me at 751-5119.

CEMETERY PLOTS NOW AVAILABLE

A new program is under way for obtaining plots in the Temple Emanuel Cemetery at a discount. The Temple cemetery was started in 1996 with the purchase of 83 plots by 33 families. It is located in the Jewish-consecrated section of Locustwood Memorial Park, a beautiful cemetery on route 70 in Cherry Hill. The new program is for plots adjacent to those previously purchased.

Look for the mailing describing the program and containing an application. The program, which runs until July 15, 1999, provides for a 5 percent or 15 percent discount if more than 24 or 48 plots are sold, respectively.

This is an opportunity to prepare for the needs of your family at a reduced price, which guarantees against future price increases. Applications, together with a 50 percent deposit, should be sent to the Temple Emanuel office as soon as possible. The remainder will be billed monthly until the program ends in July. Extended family and friends who are not Temple members are welcome to participate, and their requirements should be included in your own application. For more information, call Ernie Jellinek at 429-2573.

CULTURAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM NEEDS SUPPORT

Zahal Shalom is a new grass-roots organization (formed under the leadership of community Shaliach Nachum Katz) whose purpose is to bring a delegation of 10 disabled Israeli veterans to visit the South Jersey/Philadelphia area Jewish community. They will be here from May 18 - June 1. The veterans will stay with host families in the Cherry Hill area and participate in many activities, which we hope will provide for a dynamic cultural exchange. We are still in need of host families. Please contact Tanya Buckman at 428-0538 for more information.

This project cannot go forward without the community's financial support. We need to raise $25,000 in order to make this planned cultural exchange a reality. In addition to contributions, we are looking for volunteers, including host families. Please consider making a contribution to this worthwhile cause - it promises to be a memorable experience for all who participate.

Contributions are tax-deductible, and payable to the Jewish Federation of Southern New Jersey for the Zahal Shalom Organization. Mail to Nachum Katz, Jewish Federation of Southern New Jersey, 1301 Springdale Road, Suite 200, Cherry Hill, N.J. 08003. For more information, contact Pnina Mintz at 427-0930, or Ray Rubel at 751-8931.

LIGHT UP YOUR LIFE

The Light is your publication. It is your link to what’s happening at the Temple - religiously, educationally and socially.

It is the editor’s and the administration’s goal to have the publication in your mailbox by the first of every month so you can keep up on the goings on at Temple Emanuel and plan ahead for upcoming events.

However, we can only do that if the article submission deadlines are met. If you are submitting an article for The Light, please have the written copy in the Temple office by the first of the month for the following month’s newsletter. If they are late, we cannot promise the articles will appear. It would be a shame for members of the Temple Emanuel family to miss out on important events and information, so mark your calendars and meet those deadlines!
