Cantor's Notes By Cantor Peter Halpern

Dear Friends,

I hope this finds you enjoying the summer - playing, reading and getting to the many things you may not have during the year. It was with great anticipation that I left California and returned to the northeast, where I was raised. It has been a voyage from the Hebrew Union College in New York to Amsterdam, Holland, to sunny Southern California and back - now with a wonderful, loving 2 year old son. Truly, it is a gift that the sun rises each day, full of new potential for meaningful work, special relationships, and the rich blessings of daily life.

I have great hopes as your new Cantor. I pray that I may offer you something during services that adds to your inner life. I hope we will sing together, and in time laugh and cry, as we share the intimate moments of our Jewish lives. I pray that I become someone you can trust, open your heart to, for some, confide in, and that you will feel you can come to me with any concerns. I pray that I may teach your children with kindness and inspiration and add beauty to the musical life at our Temple. I pray that I will be all that you envision your Cantor to be and more.

"Sing unto God all the earth. Sing unto God a new song."

We deeply appreciate the outpouring of notes, cards and contributions in honor of the marriage of our children, Jon and Jaime. We thank you for your kindness, thoughtfulness and good wishes.

Sincerely,
Peggy and Jerry David

PRESIDENT'S Message

by Joyce C. Hoff

Let me draw a picture for you. It's the first true heat wave of the summer, I'm on vacation at the Shore trying to relax and enjoy time with my husband Matt and the leisurely days of summer. So...I go and check my email inbox and find the following note: Joyce, your Light article is late... again. Now this is not a surprising email to me, for I'm always late with my article and I know that the Temple never goes on vacation, especially in the summer. Vacation or not, here I am doing my presidential duty of letting you know more about our Temple, from my perspective.

Summer at Temple Emanuel is probably the busiest time of year. We hold Open Houses for prospective new members, do the paper work to make the High Holy Days as seamless as possible and freshen and clean our Religious School wing in preparation for September and the beginning of an exciting school year. All the while, we are treated to the happy voices of 2 and 3 year olds at play at Kamp Kayeetz. I, along with our hard working and committed Board members are busy planning the year's programming and re-energizing. Committees continue to meet all summer long, busily engaging themselves in providing ideas and people power – the essential ingredients of a successful synagogue.

You, our valued members, also have a role in helping Temple Emanuel continue as a strong congregation: Here are some ways you can help our Temple community:

- ◆ Encourage your unaffiliated friends to come to scheduled Open Houses to meet our clergy, staff and lay leaders. Our next Open House is scheduled for August 15 at 7 pm. Call Jane at (856) 489-0029 x15 and give her the name of your friend and she will follow up with an invitation. Of course, your friend or neighbor can also call Jane directly. On August 25 at 6:30 pm, please invite your unaffiliated friends and neighbors to join you for a light family dinner ($10 family/$5per person) and stay on for Shabbat Services at 8 pm. Please call Jane to let her know you will be attending.
- ◆ Join a committee. I know you hear that a lot, but we really want and need YOU! We will be holding Back to School Sunday, a special activities fair focusing on the many opportunities for participation available at Temple Emanuel, on September 10 (the first day of school) in the Social Hall. Plan on attending and choosing to become a more active member. In the interim, check Stephanie Ross' article about Social Action or Robin Miller's article about Caring Community. There are opportunities to help right now.
- ◆ Volunteer to be a High Holy Day reader. Maybe your Hebrew skills are just itching to get back out into the public. If reading is not your thing, contact Bruce Sachais, VP of Ritual and volunteer to usher.

Info on how to reach our staff and Officers is printed each month on the label page of The Light. Never hesitate to share your ideas, opinions or desire to become involved with any of us.

I would also like to take this opportunity to welcome Cantor Peter Halpern and his son Nathan to our Temple family. Cantor Peter joined us on July 1. He has been busy acclimating himself to our Temple and to the South Jersey area. A special committee, chaired by Tami Brody, has planned events designed specifically to help you meet and greet Cantor Peter. Check the Light for dates and times that fit your schedule. He is at services every Friday night, so join us for Shabbat and get to know him while enjoying his beautiful voice and the depth of musical knowledge he brings to our congregation.

As we all go about our lives this summer, and as I write this, our brothers and sisters in Israel are in the fight for the country's collective lives. Israel is always in our hearts, minds and prayers. Hopefully by the time you read this article, the conflict will be over and peace will reign in Israel. More information is available from the Union for Reform Judaism (www.URJ.org) and the Jewish Federation of Southern NJ (www.jfedsnj.org) on ways you can help.

Enjoy the rest of your summer.

B'Shalom,

Memo from MAYDA

As the song goes, "Summertime and the livin' is easy..." That may be true in other places, but not at Temple Emanuel. Summer is a time of rejuvenation, innovation and transformation. Summer allows us to plan, to vision, to dream of what can be – and then to put our plans into action.

New ideas stir from every corner of our synagogue, with committed volunteers and staff brainstorming fresh, unique and improved methods of reaching out to our Temple family. Vision is not enough, though, it is all in the doing. Our Temple's leadership hopes to make each of our members feel that they're at the very heart of things, not at the periphery. We want everyone to know that he or she makes a difference to the success of our Temple and to Jewish continuity.

As Ralph Nader said, "The function of leadership is to produce more leaders, not more followers." I invite you to become a Temple leader. Temple leadership is open to all members – there is no secret handshake, no top secret greeting – all that is required is a commitment to making Temple Emanuel the best it can be. I urge you to give me a call and let me know what area of Temple life interests you. Are you interested in Worship initiatives? Temple music? LifeLong Education? The Physical Plant? Membership? Finance? Fundraising? Social Action? Our Caring Community? Marketing and PR? Whatever your interest, talent or passion, we have it here.

Don't delay. Please write to me at mayda@templeemanuel.org or call me at (856) 489-0029x13—your future is waiting. Just remember:

We are not put on this earth for ourselves, but are placed here for each other.
If you are there always for others, then in time of need, someone will be there for you.

I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you often at Temple Emanuel. I hope you enjoy the balance of the summer.

B*ruchim Ha-ba'im b'shem Adonai!* These are the words we use to welcome people to a special, sacred occasion, like a wedding or baby naming. This meaningful phrase translates as "welcome in the name of God."

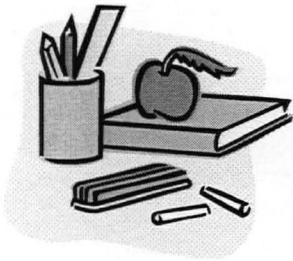

Welcoming the stranger is key facet of our tradition. We are reminded (and instructed) of this principle throughout the Tanakh (Torah, Prophets, & Writings). Extending a warm welcome to a new person or family into our community is truly a holy act. And the truth is, we benefit too, when we expand our circle and invite new people to join; they bring their talents, interests, passions, and vigor to our community, thereby enhancing the programs and energy in our lives.

We are blessed to have Cantor Peter Halpern and his son Nathan join our Temple Emanuel family. Cantor Halpern brings a wealth of experience, knowledge, and insights to us. I think you will find that he has an easy smile, friendly personality, and an honest dedication to the Jewish people. These qualities will serve our congregation well, during services, holidays, family simchas, and all occasions when we come together to worship and celebrate.

Please join me in welcoming Cantor Halpern & Nathan, Bruchim Ha-ba'im b'shem Adonai!

Temple Emanuel Book Club

Join Rabbi Geri Newburge, Rabbi Debbie Cohen and Peggy David, MSW, LCSW, each month to discuss a popular book with Jewish interest from 9:15 am-10:30 am. To fit your schedule, the book will be discussed twice, once on Sunday and once on Monday. You need only come to one of the discussions. Call 856-489-0029, x 10 to register. For a full year's calendar, call Rabbi Cohen.

Upcoming books are:

September 17 & 18 – Rabbi Geri Newburge, Everyman by Philip Roth

Philip Roth's new novel is a fiercely intimate yet universal story of loss, regret, and stoicism. Roth's everyman is a hero whose youthful sense of independence and confidence begins to be challenged when illness commences its attack in middle age. A successful commercial advertising artist, he is the father of two sons who despise him and a daughter who adores him. He is the brother of a good man whose physical well-being comes to arouse his bitter envy. He is the lonely ex-husband of three very different women with whom he has made a mess of marriage. Inevitably, he discovers that he has become what he does not want to be. In Everyman, Roth once again displays his hallmark incisiveness. From his first glimpse of death on the idyllic beaches of his childhood summers, through his vigorous, seemingly invincible prime, Roth's hero is a man bewildered not only by his own decline but by the unimaginable deaths of his contemporaries and those he has loved.

October 22 & 23 – Rabbi Deborah Cohen, Rashi's Daughters: Book 1 -- Joheved by Maggie Anton

Rashi, one of the greatest Jewish scholars who ever lived, had no sons, only three daughters. Much has been written about Rashi and his grandsons, the Tosafot, but almost nothing of his daughters. Legend has it that they were learned in a time when women were forbidden to study the sacred texts. Rashi's Daughters tells the story of these forgotten women.

SENIOR SCENE

By Gert Pastelnick
President, Henry Raich Senior Group

It is the middle of the summer. We have had some rain, and some very hot weather. But through it all, we are moving right along with plans for our September and October meetings. But, before I write about the exciting programs we have planned, I would like to make you aware of a fairly new committee in our Temple called The Caring Community. The committee will be serving the many needs of our Temple family. One of these needs will directly affect our senior family, as the committee is trying to develop a service to assist our members who do not have transportation to come to Temple services and functions. In the future, if you think you might want to avail yourself of this service, please call Eliane Strip at 856-667-4037. We need this information to assess the needs and develop a plan.

Now, moving right along... To start our Brown Bag season, our guest speaker on September 13 will be Ruth Bogutz. She will speak about Jewish Camden. This will bring back many memories for our members. October 20 is the date of our dinner and Senior Shabbat service. This is an evening that is always enjoyed by all. There will be much more information in the mail as we approach these two dates.

Hope the remainder of the summer is good for you. Look forward to seeing and greeting you in September.

We warmly welcome
our new members
into our Temple family...

Temple Emanuel Offers High Holiday Junior Congregation

Temple Emanuel offers a prayer option on the High Holidays for young people – a Junior Congregation. This service will be geared to young congregants in grades 4 and above and will take place during both the early and late services on the mornings of Yom Kippur and Rosh Hashana (first day only!). The themes and liturgy of the High Holiday will be presented in an age-appropriate manner.

Young congregants, who want to participate in this service, should attend the main service with their parents. Approximately half way through the main service, an announcement will be made from the pulpit and a brief interlude will be given for our young congregants to quietly leave the main sanctuary. Congregants in grades 4 and above are not required to participate in Junior congregation. It is an optional program; parents may choose to have their children in these grades remain in the main sanctuary to pray with them.

Junior Congregation will take place in the Chapel and will be led by Rabbi Debbie Cohen.

Temple Emanuel Parenting Teens – It's a Growing Season 2006-2007 Programs

Wednesday Nights 7-8:30 at Temple Emanuel, Look for dates in the next issue of the Light

Building on the discussions of our prior programs, Temple Emanuel will continue It's a Growing Season – Parenting Teens this fall on Wednesday nights from 7 to 8:30 on selected dates to be announced in the next issue of the Light.

It is commonly recognized that one of the main developmental tasks of adolescence is to separate from parents, and that peer influence takes on greater and greater importance during teen years. Still, there is no substitute for the parent-teen relationship. Parenting means giving your teenagers love, time, boundaries, and encouragement to think for themselves. The journey is packed with rough roads and we hope the programs planned will help you navigate them successfully.

Our first program will be "Internet Safety and Our Kids." While on-line computer exploration opens a world of possibilities for young people, expands their horizons and exposes them to different cultures and ways of life, hitting the information highway also exposes them to dangers. A study commissioned by Cox Communications and NCMEC found that 61% of 13 to 17 year olds have a personal profile on sites such as Myspace, Friendster, or Xanga and 14% have actually met face-to-face with a person they had known only through the Internet. The survey also found that families talking to teens about Internet safety helps reduce some youth exposure to potential threats and encourages teens to make safer online decisions. Join us for an evening when we talk about how to help your child make good choices online. The date of the program will be announced next month.

Kamp Kayeetz Campers Enjoy a Summer of Discovery

Campers at the Pre-School's summer program, Kamp Kayeetz, had a great time exploring, discovering and playing. Each week, through art, song and activities, the children experienced a world of discovery. The summer began with a trip to the "wild, wild, West!" The children rode a real pony and were taught how to square dance. They were then off on a safari where they discovered lots of wild animals, including dinosaurs. The children raced their matchbox cars in "Kayeetz 500" and enjoyed the tropical atmosphere during "surfing USA" week. They literally jumped for joy during "Olympic and Carnival" week as they cheered, competed, and played games devised by their counselors. The highlight at the end of the camp season was a show where the children sang the songs they had been taught by our music specialist, for their parents.

Each day as the campers enjoyed water play, arts & crafts, and music, laughter and excitement could be heard throughout the synagogue. A special thank you to all the wonderful CIT's, junior counselors and head counselors for making this a fun-filled summer! Thanks to our dance and music specialists, Karen Arensberg, Alexis Birnbaum and Larissa Stewart for adding that extra sparkle throughout the summer. A special and very hearty Todah Robah to Debbie Jeffreys for supervising the camp program so lovingly and efficiently.

To all our parents, thank you for sharing your child with us this summer. I hope to see you this fall. Our upcoming PACT (Parent and Child Together) are as follows:

- Ima (Mommy) and Me (Birth to 8 months)

Do you have a baby between birth and 8 months? Are you looking for fun and informative mornings out with your baby? Do you want to meet other moms and babies? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then Temple Emanuel's Ima (Mommy) & Me class is for you. It is a class for moms and their babies between birth and 8 months of age to get together and have a great time. The whole spectrum of fun is covered from songs to finger plays, to music, and information. Each week a speaker will present information and materials relevant to this age level. Topics may include safety, dental health, and developmentally appropriate toys to name a few.

- Awaken Your Senses (9 to 17 months)

This program will focus on gross and fine motor activities that will stimulate your child's senses, peak curiosity, and encourage exploration. In addition to providing a playful, active and comfortable environment that promotes positive socialization for the children, it is our hope that PACT will provide a relaxed setting that promotes a sense of community for parents and caregivers of same-aged children. Our "Young Explorers" experience the world around them through all their senses. Each week children and parents will have fun and explore music, games, and the enjoyment of making things happen. Through your child's natural curiosity, he/she will play and learn. Whatever the weekly theme might be, the excitement and joy of this age will be fun for everyone.

- Toddler Territory (15 – 28 months)

Each week an exciting theme will be explored at every sensory level of development. Enjoy songs, activities and fun as you and your child meet new friends. Toddler Territory is a wonderful introduction to our Pre-School program. This is a delightful age, so come explore this territory and savor the experience.

- Mommy/Baby Yoga (newborns up to 9 months)

Enjoy a wonderful new class with your little one. Learn how to do yoga with your baby to help you both relax and strengthen that very special mother/child bond.

- Save My Sanity (Yoga for Mommies)

Need a little time for Mom? We all do! Come and enjoy this wonderful new class designed just for you! Come, stretch, relax and re-energize with us. Wear comfortable clothes, bring a mat or a beach towel. (Babysitting available.)

Please call the Pre-School office at (856) 489-0034 for information regarding the dates/days and times these classes will be offered and/or to request a registration form.

YOUTH GROUP

by Sandy Umansky

A new year approaches; a new beginning is here. Youth Group is ready for changes, excitement, learning, and above all, the chance to experience hands-on Jewish living! Please mark your calendars for the events and activities that Youth Group plans: each one will enrich your life and make you proud to be part of Temple Emanuel.

Our senior youth group, TEFTY, has a new executive board comprised of the most dedicated and enthusiastic leaders: Co-presidents: Derek Bruno and Hallie Brettler; Religious & Cultural VP Melanie Rivkin; Social Action VP Sarah Katz; Membership VP Carolyn Strum; Co-secretaries: Lauryn Cohen & Arielle Karpf; Treasurer: Glenn Fritsch; Liasons to Caring Community Michelle Bruno & Laura Flanagan, and NFTY/PAR Executive Board Representatives Allie Cogan, Jillian Cogan & Becca Dittrich.

This coming year will be filled with social action projects to help our world and our synagogue; with Shabbat services written and led by our very own teens; and with appealing social programs that will widen everyone's circle of friends and peers. Please make every effort to become part of this; you will help your temple, your world and yourself!

TEFTY Jr., our junior youth group for fifth through eighth graders, will also be very involved in social action and social events throughout the year. Please look for monthly flyers and RSVP ASAP! Learning how to help others while helping yourself is a direct goal of youth group, one that is essential to growing up Jewishly!

Our Senior Youth Group is very involved in Regional Youth Group, NFTY/PAR. TEFTY members eagerly anticipate the seven conventions held annually. This year, both the URJ's Biennial Convention and the National convention for NFTY will take place in Philadelphia! This is a first for both events; our teens are already planning to attend both...and to learn and grow with the programming and activities for over 2,000 fellow teens!

TEFTY will be working diligently to raise scholarship monies to allow as many Temple Emanuel teens the incredible opportunity to share in these life-changing conferences as possible. Car washes, garage sales, bake sales...babysitting, leaf-raking...TEFTY will do it all!

I hope that some or all of the activities that Youth Group engages in will reach out to you, our Temple Emanuel teens; I hope that you will be interested enough to attend one event... and then another, and then another! I also hope that you will benefit from the feeling of belonging that unifies so many of our members, all amazing and involved teens.

For more information or just to talk, contact me at sandyumansky@comcast.net or (856) 429-6227.

Religious School Registration for 2006-2007/5767

Registrations for Religious School are Due! Please return them in a timely fashion.

1. Current Religious School students should have received Registration Forms by mail. If you need a registration form, please call the Religious School office, (856) 489-0035. We would be happy to send it to you.
2. Receiving registrations in a timely fashion helps us to better plan for next year. We understand that some sports and other activities schedules are not announced until August. Even if you are not sure of your session choice, please return your registration with your "best guess" of your choice. You can always call and make a change later. Having your registration, even if your session choice changes, helps us to plan for the year.
3. Registration will take place on an ongoing basis. We will make every effort to accommodate your request for a specific session or day of the week. Returning your forms early will better ensure that you get your first choice of date and times.
4. Hours for Hebrew school will be altered next year. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon Hebrew school will meet from 4:15 to 6:15 pm. Wednesday night 6th & 7th grade will meet from 7 to 8:30 pm.
5. Temple Emanuel is offering a new option for 8th and 9th graders – a program on Monday nights in Haddonfield. This program will lead to Confirmation and is designed to be a smaller, more intimate class than our Tuesday night program.
6. Students in Grades K&1 and 8-11th attend class once a week. Students in 2nd grade choose between attending HeadStart Hebrew and Judaica or just Judaica. Students in Grades 3-6 attend twice a week, midweek for Hebrew and on Sundays for Judaica. Students in Grade 7 attend on Wednesday nights and have a monthly trip.

We look forward to learning with your child next year!

Understanding Today's Conflict

We Stand Together for Israel & Pray for Peace

Hezbollah (Arabic: meaning Party of God) is a Lebanese political party and military resistance movement founded in 1982 by the Ayatollah Khomeini of Iran. Hezbollah is the main political party and military organization representing the Shia community, Lebanon's largest religious bloc. It is also a recognized political party in Lebanon and holds 18% of the seats in the Lebanese parliament. It opposes the West, seeks to create a Muslim fundamentalist state modeled on Iran. Hezbollah is believed responsible for nearly 200 attacks since 1982.

Hamas (Arabic meaning Zeal and an acronym for Arab Resistance Movement.) Hamas is the largest and most influential Palestinian militant movement, founded in 1987. In January 2006, the group won the Palestinian Authority's general legislative elections. Since attaining power, Hamas has continued its refusal to recognize the state of Israel. Hamas grew out of the Muslim Brotherhood, a religious and political organization founded in Egypt with branches throughout the Arab world. The first Hamas suicide bombing took place in 1993. Hamas is responsible for more than 350 attacks.

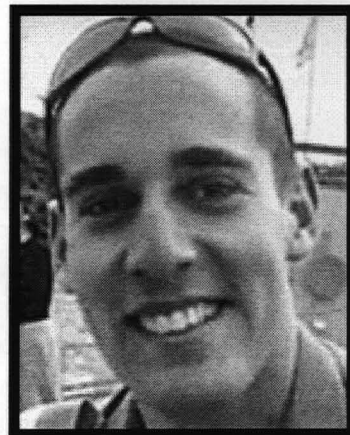

As I write, Israel once again is battling to protect herself. The battles are necessary, but no less painful. My family worries about our cousins, Hilary & Aviella, in Jerusalem and the West Bank. Both just had new babies and Hilary's husband will likely be called up to join his army unit. My aunt and uncle are making final preparations to make aliyah in September and these plans will certainly continue. Their apartment in Jerusalem is already purchased.

I know that, in times like this, there is uncertainty and confusion. We want to do something to help our fellow Jews in Israel but feel helpless. We want an venue for our prayers and hopes. We hear news reports and read newspapers articles and try to make sense of the information. I have collected articles from various places for this insert. I hope that it will help in some small measure.

Idan Kligerman, the community Shliach or Israel emissary from our sister community of Arad, knew one of the soldiers killed on June 25 by Hamas militants. Idan writes: "Hanan Barak was a 21 years young officer that commanded the tank that was attacked. He fought bravely to react to the horrible attack but he couldn't, and so did Pavel, his soldier who died too. (Another soldier, Gilad Shalit was captured.) Hanan was in my sister's, Maritsah's and Shiran's (two Israel counselors at the JCC in Medford) class, born and raised in Arad. "The man with the biggest heart I have ever met" say his friends. "We had plans for a wedding" cried his girl friend. Arad is a very special place where everybody knows everybody and when a tragedy like this happens, we all come together. Arad mourns and the rest of Israel is praying and begging for Gilad to come home healthy and alive."

E-mails of support and condolence for Hanan's family can be sent to this email: Idan@jfedsnj.org. Idan will speak at Temple Emanuel on August 11 during Shabbat services

Understanding the Conflict

(an article from Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Florence Melton Adult Mini-School, written by Dr. Jonathan Mirvis)

The recent events in Israel, both on the southern and northern borders, have radically changed the situation in the country with an atmosphere of uncertainty in the air. With the situation in a state of flux it is difficult to make far reaching conclusions and thus these are merely first thoughts on the issues at hand.

Political Background

Both in Gaza and on the Lebanese border Israel is facing similar situations. In both areas the ruling forces are fundamentalist Moslem terrorist organizations. In Gaza it is the Hamas and on the northern border it is the Hezbollah. Both organizations are supported by Iran who provides them with both military and financial support. On both borders we have similar scenarios that precipitated the crisis; in the south the Hamas dug a tunnel into the Kerem Shalom army base and captured Gilad Shalit and in the north the Hezbollah ambushed an Israeli patrol vehicle on Israel's side of the border, killing eight soldiers and kidnapping two, Ehud Goldwasser and Eldad Regev.

What do these organizations want?

Tactically both organizations have similar aims. They have both launched rocket attacks on Israeli towns and have both kidnapped soldiers. In addition are both demanding the same price for freeing the kidnapped soldiers, a mass release of terrorists held in Israeli prisons. They want to pressurize Israel into a prisoner settlement with Israel having to pay a heavy price in the process. Strategically their aims differ. The Hezbollah want to be recognized first and foremost by the Palestinians as the guardians of their rights and ultimate saviors. They believe that the more Palestinian prisoners they can free the higher will be their standing in the Palestinian street. Hamas, on the other hand, feel that they have popular support and they are striving for international legitimacy. They are desperate for the Israeli government to recognize them as legitimate partners and to negotiate with them. They claim that only they can guarantee peace in the Gaza Strip and they want to negotiate a settlement that will give them the legitimacy they aspire to.

What does Israel Want?

Tactically Israel wants to release her kidnapped soldiers at a minimum price and restore peace and quiet both to Gaza and the northern border. Strategically Israel wants to change the "rules of the game" on both fronts. These changes will include the following:

1. The kidnapping of Israel soldiers will not be considered a worthwhile option for the terrorist organizations.
2. In the north the Lebanese army will take control of Lebanon's southern border in keeping with the UN resolutions and remove the Hezbollah from the area.
3. In Gaza either Hamas will agree to lay down their arms or continue to suffer international alienation.

What are the chances of Israel achieving her tactical aims?

1. In Gaza Israel has far more of an advantage than in the north. In the Gaza Strip Israel has a major intelligence presence and thus has a strong chance of releasing Gilad Shalit using military means. The military ability of Hamas is very limited.
2. In the north the situation is far more complicated. Without the ability to physically release the kidnapped soldiers Israel will have to pay a heavy price for their release as has been the case with previous kidnappings. Militarily the Hezbollah is a well armed militia with the ability to strike cities across the Galilee region and thus Israel is facing a complicated challenge.

What are the chances of Israel achieving her strategic goals?

To achieve these goals this military venture taken by the Israeli Government will require time, determination and popular support. A supportive population that maintains its morale will be strategically important in order to allow the Government and army the stamina and patience to change the rules of the game.

This support and high morale cannot be taken for granted. All soldiers are very much civilians and many civilians have been drafted now into the military. The army patrol unit that was attacked on the northern border comprised reservists (miluimniks) on their last days of service. This unit comprised married men and fathers, many of whom participated in the tragic fighting in Jenin during the Intifada where many of their colleagues were killed.

What are the implications of the conflict for the Israeli population?

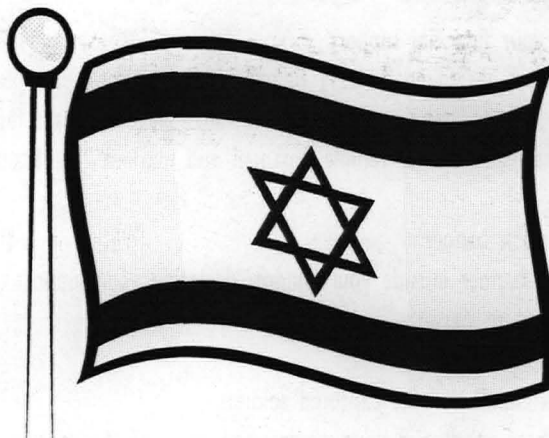

Multiple cities in the north have suffered rocket attacks leaving casualties and damage to property. In the Upper Galilee life has almost come to a standstill. Many families have moved south to spend this summer "vacation" with family and friends while those remaining behind remain in their shelters.

Economically this conflagration is certain to take its toll. The Tel Aviv Stock Exchange has dropped significantly since the crisis began. The cities in the north may suffer financial disaster with July and August being the tourist season and the expected massive cancellation of reservations.

What can the Jews in the Diaspora do to help the situation?

The support of Diaspora Jewry will be of strategic importance for Israel in the coming weeks. This support will be crucial to enable Israel to withstand the international political pressures and to indicate to the Israeli population that Israel is not alone.

From a practical point of view the tremendous vote of confidence in Israel reflected by the waves of tourists over the past two years must continue. This barometer of support is crucial as it strengthens the Israelis and of course contributes to the economy.

Prayer for Peace at this Time of Conflict

Adapted from a prayer by the Chief Rabbi of Israel

May the One who blessed our ancestors watch over and protect the Israeli soldiers taken hostage in recent days, Gilad Shalit, Ehud Goldwasser and Eldad Regev, and all others who are deprived of the blessing of freedom.

May God have compassion on them and grant them a speedy and safe return to their homes. May God save them and bring them from captivity to freedom, from enslavement to redemption, from darkness to light.

May the Holy One of Blessing grant them and all those wounded in the current violence a complete healing, a healing of spirit and a healing of body, strengthening their hearts, fortifying their courage, and soon letting them know joy and gladness.

May God bring peace to the land of Israel and all lands, and soon bring about the day when nation shall not lift up sword against nation nor learn war anymore, and let us say Amen.

What Can You Do to Help?

- Send your financial support
 - The crisis has taken a heavy financial toll on Israel. Temple Emanuel will be collecting funds to send the Reform Kibbutz Yahel, in the Negev, where many people from the north have sought refuge and to organizations conducting emergency campaigns. Please send donations made out to Temple Emanuel and marked "We Stand with Israel."
- Hang up a banner
 - Hang a banner outside your window declaring your support for Israel. Even a simple "We Stand With Israel" banner makes a strong statement to passerby.
- Light a candle for the captured soldiers
 - Light three candles in your window—one each for the captured soldiers. Make this part of your daily routine and invite others to join you.
- Call Israeli friends and relatives
 - Speaking with people in Israel lets them know that they have friends overseas that are thinking of them. It also allows you to hear about what is happening directly from Israel. Ask them how the story is being reported there.
- Write letters to the editor of your local paper
 - Did you know that the most read section of a newspaper is the Opinion Section? People read letters to the editor and are often influenced by what they say. An e-mail address to send the letters is provided on the newspaper's editorial page. When writing a letter, refer to a specific article, write the day that the article appears, be concise and provide your contact information.
- Contact our political leaders
 - The House and Senate overwhelmingly passed resolutions strongly backing Israel's right to self-defense and condemning Hizballah and Hamas—and their sponsors Iran and Syria—for launching unprovoked acts of war against the Jewish state. The House passed the measure 410 to 8 while the Senate approved the resolution unanimously. Please thank our members of Congress for supporting Israel at this critical time. Congressional offices keep a tally of calls to gauge public sentiment in the district. Call the Capitol switchboard, 202.225.3121 to connect to your Member's office.

SPREAD THE WARMTH

Like a cat basking in a patch of sun,
We all enjoy that feeling of well being and satisfaction.

The warmth provides comfort that we all need,
It is something on which our minds and bodies feed,

So, as you enjoy your dose of summer sun,
Please look ahead to how you can help someone.

Soon the winter cold will be upon us all,
You can help to spread the warmth this Winter and Fall.

You can provide comfort to someone that you don't even know,
By donating hats, gloves, scarves, and coats to protect those in need when the temperature drops low!

PLEASE PLACE DONATIONS IN THE BINS
IN THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL DURING
AUGUST & SEPTEMBER. THE SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE WILL HAPPILY GET THEM TO SOMEONE IN NEED!

*Calling all High School Students:
It's time to reach out and help others in need.*

Celebrating Rosh Chodesh...

In the Jewish calendar, the appearance of a tiny sliver of the waxing new moon is observed every month as a period of renewal. Rosh Chodesh, literally "the head of the month," is celebrated 11 times a year, when a new moon appears in the night sky and a new month begins. (The first new moon of the year is a separate holiday, Rosh Hashanah.) On the evening of August 24 we celebrate the new month of Elul (the Hebrew month when we begin our preparations, spiritually and physically, for the coming High Holy Days).

Almond Crescents

- 1 cup soft butter
- 1/2 cup confectioner's sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 1/4 cups white flour
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 3/4 cup finely chopped almonds

Mix butter, sugar and vanilla thoroughly. Blend flour and salt. Add to butter mixture. Stir thoroughly. Blend in nuts. Chill until very cold (approximately 2 hours). Heat oven to 400 degrees. Roll dough into 1" balls. Shape into crescents. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake 10-12 minutes (until lightly browned). Roll in confectioner's sugar. Cool, roll in sugar again. (Makes 4 dozen cookies.)

August 5th Va'etchanan

Deuteronomy 3:23-7:11

In this week's Torah portion, Moses continues to retell the story of the Israelites 40 years in the desert. Va'etchanan means "And I pleaded" with God to allow me (Moses) to go into the Promised Land. Moses is told to go up to Mount Pisgah and look, but he will not cross the Jordan River. Joshua will be the leader of the people and take them into the land that Moses may only see from afar. The parasha concludes with Moses telling the people to faithfully observe all the laws and rules given them by God.

August 12th Ekev

Deuteronomy 7:12 – 11:25

The name of this week's parasha is Ekev which literally means "on the heels of." "Ekev" can also be understood as "the consequence of" or "the result of." In this parasha "the result of" the Israelites following the rules means that they will continue to enjoy the benefits of the covenant made by God with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. These benefits include: health, abundant produce, and fertility. Parashat Ekev includes the words which are part of the second paragraph of the Sh'ma: "Therefore impress these My words upon your heart: bind them as a sign on your hand, and let them serve as a symbol on your forehead, and teach them to your children-reciting them when you stay at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise up; and inscribe them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates (Deut. 11:18-20)

August 19th Re'eh

Deuteronomy 11:26-16:17

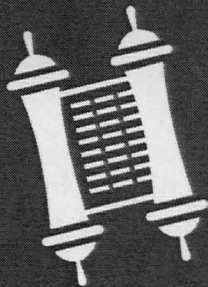

God speaks to the people of Israel throughout this week's parasha, beginning with the word "re'eh," "see". "See, this day I set before you blessing and curse: blessing, if you obey the commandments of God... and curse, if you do not obey the commandments..." Once the people enter into the Promised Land, they are to totally destroy the religious sites belonging to others. The first fruits, grains, wines, oils and first born of every flock must be brought to the place of worship designated by God and eaten there. Animals with cleft hoofs and which chew their cud may be eaten in addition to anything that lives in water that has fins and scales. Birds that are not birds of prey may also be consumed. A kid boiled in the milk of its mother is also forbidden. On the first day of the month of Aviv, a Passover sacrifice is to be offered. No leavening may be consumed for seven days. The people are to count seven weeks from this time and then observe Shavuot, the Festival of Weeks. After the harvest, the people shall observe Sukkot, the Festival of Booths for seven days, again rejoicing with family. If all this is done, God will bless the people, their crops, and all that they do.

August 26th Shofetim

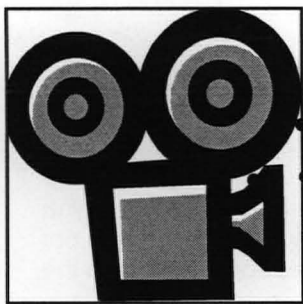

Deuteronomy 16:18-21:9

Once the Israelites enter into the Land they are commanded to set up courts of law within their settlements. Judges are instructed to be fair and impartial, to refuse bribes, and to favor no one in court. Moses continues to warn the people against idolatry. The Torah text anticipates that someday the Israelites might desire to establish a monarchy to rule over them. Moses gives the people guidelines for choosing a king: he must be an Israelite, he should not have many wives, be wealthy, and the "Teaching" (Torah Law) is to guide him at all times. The parasha concludes with Moses discussing the rules by which Israel is to conduct war.

Shabbat Morning Torah Study

Our Shabbat Morning Torah Study group meets throughout the year. During the school year, we meet every Shabbat morning at 9:15 am. Beginning in July, we meet at 10 am for remainder of the summer. Newcomers to Torah Study are encouraged to come. We read selections from the weekly Torah portion together and have a lively and engaging discussion. Come be part of our study community. Coffee is served – what could better?

Ushpizin

October 8 at 7 pm

Join us for the first movies of our series. Ushpizin is a critically acclaimed movie from Israel. Set during the Sukkot holiday, Ushpizin takes a revealing and humorous look at the lives of Ultra-Orthodox Jews learning and loving in modern Israel.

From Steven Rea of The Philadelphia Inquirer:

"With humor and grace, Ushpizin - written by the actor Rand and directed by Giddi Dar - does what the best movies can do: take viewers to what might be unfamiliar places, into a culture with unique customs and traditions, and show, through drama and comedy, how the fundamental truths of the human experience need no translation."

Won the Israeli Film Academy's best actor award in 2004 and nominated for two other awards. No need to register. A discussion afterwards will be lead by Steve Lubetkin.

WE GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

Our Temple Funds provide a beautiful way to remember someone special and at the same time, help to maintain several worthwhile synagogue projects. Deadline for insertion in The Light is the first day of the previous month. Minimum contribution is $10.
