From the Rabbi's Study

by Jerome P. David, D.D.

As we begin a secular new year, 2013, our thoughts and prayers are with our people Israel as they face many difficult challenges and choices.

As I write this message the Cease Fire with Hamas is holding more or less (although the fundamentals do not change). Mahmoud Abbas unilaterally pressed the UN General Assembly to upgrade Palestine to a Non-Member Observer State (the Palestinian authority has begun changing its name to "Palestine" on official documents and websites). In other words, Mahmoud Abbas got his wish to erase a deep and abiding truth; the Jewish people have a profound history in the Holy Land dating back over 3500 years. Abbas recently declared, "I challenge the claim that the Jewish people had a Temple 2000 years ago." He went on to say that there is no trace of Jewish history in our land and that the prophetic writings of Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel, revered by Jews and Christians alike, were never uttered in the Holy Land. And Abbas has been called the "moderate."

If you recall, after much international pressure, Israel withdrew unilaterally from Gaza in 2005. Since then, Hamas has fired 8,500 rockets into Israel. It seems clear to me that Israel's enemies have no interest in a state of their own. They just want to destroy the Jewish one. I hate to say this, but with Hamas claiming victory and Iran arming Gaza with sophisticated missiles, and Egypt in the role of protector, peace is not around the corner. Peace is not a year or two away. Not now. Because their issue is not a Palestinian state; it's the end of the Jewish one. Finally, the message...is not that Israel has the right to defend itself, which I believe goes without saying. The message is...that we have to be defenders of Israel, in this world that would attack Israel, and by extension all Jews, with the thinly veiled anti-Semitic claim that we are once more being too rash, too violent, and unfairly aggressive. Israel must do what it needs to do, which is to live in perpetual, never ending conflict, and in the face of that, to thrive and to flourish.

May the One who creates harmony on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel.

To which we say Amen.

It's so hard to believe that 2013 is already here. Time is flying by so quickly. As I look back over the past year I am struck by the many positive changes that have taken place at Temple Emanuel.

Here are just a few:

- Our membership has reached over 1000 + families and growing each day.
- Increased growth among members 30-40 years of age. This cohort group is made up of couples with and without children and singles who have bonded to create new friendships. As a result a new group has been formed titled "The Up and Comers" giving them a chance to socialize in a way that fits their lifestyle.
- Pre- School and Religious School numbers are growing
- We have revamped our Religious School curriculum to ensure our children are receiving the best education possible and are reviewing our programming to meet your needs.
- The addition of "Just For You Services" in support of families with special needs. These services are open to the community filling a gap by providing a unique and spiritual component.

Along with all of these positive changes I would like to address Rabbi Newburge's decision to move forward in her career as she leaves Temple Emanuel this summer. Over the past 9 1/2 years each one of us has been touched by Rabbi Newburge in one way or another and she has become an important part of our lives. There will be many opportunities to honor Rabbi Newburge and wish her well in the future.

I am personally filled with mixed emotions but stand in full support of Rabbi Newburge's decision. Growth only occurs through change that is made up of both fear and excitement simultaneously. Fear of "the unknown" and the wonder of "what can be". We will never be able to replace Rabbi Newburge but we will do our best to add a spiritual leader who is as dynamic and well-respected to our Temple family.

We will move ahead at this significant and exciting time in the life of our congregation and continue to provide a home that is open and welcoming to all.

Thank you for your support!

More Information coming SOON!

As Executive Director of Temple Emanuel I wear many hats, my favorite is the ability to interact with so many of our members. I am often astounded by the level of commitment of so many of you. Day in and day out, our large cadre of volunteers helps maintain the lifeblood of our Temple. But, what I know for sure is that this group of dedicated individuals cannot continue to do it alone. My goal is to get more of you involved and create an even stronger, more vital community. Having each of you understand the need for and the importance of your involvement cannot be overstated. Each of every one of us has a stake in the future of our temple. Your ideas, your voice and your concerns help our temple leaders formulate goals for the future and create strategic and long range plans to assure the vitality of our congregation.

I recently read the following story which I believe reflects the importance of each individual and the responsibility each of us carry as we continue to move our synagogue from strength to strength. None of us can sit idly by and wait for "someone else" to raise their hand to volunteer.

There's a legendary story told about a very small Jewish community somewhere in the hinterlands that had exactly 10 observant Jews. They managed to have a synagogue with regular daily services. In spite of the difficulty of getting a minyan, a quorum of 10 Jews required for communal prayer, they never faltered. Every one of their members knew that without their personal participation a vital religious need would go unfulfilled.

Week after week, month after month, the community with but 10 observant Jews successfully continued their services. And then a new family came to town. To the initial delight of the congregation, the head of this household willingly accepted responsibility to join the minyan as well. And from that day forward, with now 11 possible minyan-goers, this synagogue never again had a prayer quorum!

When every single one of the participants knew that they were essential, that without them their dream of daily services would be impossible, they were successful. Once the realization dawned that somebody else could be the essential "10th man," no one again took their commitment with the same seriousness.

At Temple Emanuel we are, indeed, a tapestry woven together to create a community. "We" are Temple Emanuel -- not the bricks and mortar. We come from many backgrounds and for many reasons. We come to worship, to feel part of something greater than ourselves. We come out of tradition, responsibility, habit, custom, routine. We come because we believe in maintaining a Jewish life; we come because it is our time and with a sense of duty to connect the past and the future.

We are the sum of all of our parts -- each bringing a unique gift and perspective to our synagogue community. This precious heritage -- our Judaism -- is our legacy and that of our children. Let us pledge to draw closer to one another and to those things at Temple Emanuel that are personally meaningful and bring us wisdom, peace and love. Please contact me at mayda@templeemanuel.org with your ideas, concerns and your availability to become part of our future.

Wishing you and your family a wonderful 2013. I look forward to seeing you often at Temple Emanuel.

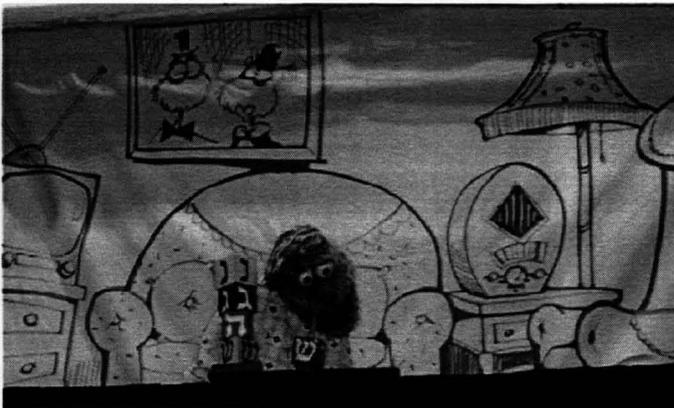

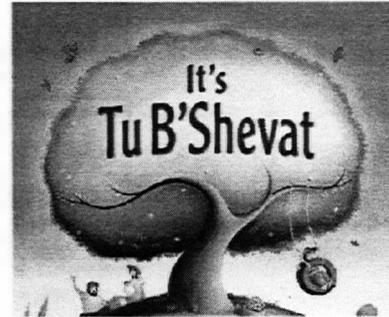

Dear Congregant,

In addition to all the other special events coming up here at Temple Emanuel, on January 25 and 26, we will observe Shabbat Shirah—the Shabbat of Song. This Shabbat is so named because the Torah portion we read that week, B'shallach, includes the Song at the Sea, Shirat HaYam. This is the portion of the Torah from which Mi Chamocha is taken. Mi Chamocha, however, is but a portion of the entire parsha, which begins at Chapter 13 verse 17 and continues through the end of Chapter 17 of Exodus (Shemot). In the Torah, the first 18 verses of Chapter 15, which comprise the entire Shirat HaYam are printed in a very special way, appearing almost as waves in the ocean. The verses are a song of praise to God's supreme greatness. A special melody, different from the regular Torah trope, accompanies the special way of inscribing the words in the scroll. This Shabbat also coincides with Tu b'shevat, the ninth day of the month of Shevat, when we celebrate the new year of the trees. Please join me to hear the special melody and sing other prayers and songs in praise of God and trees on the evening of January 25.

Hanukkah Happenings at Temple Emanuel

I have to admit that this is the first time I have felt angst in having to submit my Light article a month in advance. Not only because January is a "slow" month in regard to Jewish holidays (Tu b'shevat notwithstanding), but also because of so much happening in December of which I am excited to write about and experience. So apologies in advance for bucking tradition and covering two months.

Over the High Holy Days, Rabbi David spoke eloquently about Israel that culminated in the formation of an Israel Advocacy Workgroup. The initial workgroup meeting on November 14 was well attended and identified several activities and tasks to spur education and awareness of Israel within our South Jersey community. This Workgroup, in partnership with the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), promises to be a vibrant and integral part of our temple focus so please join us at the next meeting.

As Rabbi David mentioned in his High Holy Day sermon, a strong advocacy for Israel is best demonstrated by getting on a plane. Our 9th and 10th grade students (my son, Matt included) will be traveling to Israel for their Confirmation trip over the Winter Break, and my parents and I are also planning to arrive in late December to visit family and friends. It will be my first trip (out of 7) with no planned itinerary - just hanging out in Israel.... and I cannot wait!

It has been an anxious time in Israel recently. My nephew was called up for the Reserves (Meluim) on a Thursday, but was back home with his new wife, pregnant with their first child, the following Sunday with the cease fire in effect. For many of us, it feels scary, but for most Israelis, it is yet another day to be taken seriously but not to overwhelm your life.

As we look forward to the New Year, the Ritual Committee continues to lift the "stones" and identify critical objectives that shape our plans and enable us to achieve our Mission (below). These objectives include a focus on:

The B'nai Mitzvah Program

- Education/Awareness of proper decorum and sanctity in the temple, programs and services
- Enhancing engagement of our members and guests (including teens)
- Expanding musical offerings in temple programs and services
- Encouraging greater camaraderie and collaboration through inter-generational programming and Services

I invite you to join us at our next Ritual Committee meeting on Monday, January 14th at 7:30 pm to help us achieve these objectives. Wishing everyone a peaceful and healthy New Year!

Ritual Committee Mission:

To create a Jewish environment that enhances the experience of our members and guests, and enables us to establish/strengthen our connection to others, God, Torah, Israel, and Temple Emanuel.

Sacred Prayer Bracelets™

You Are Never Alone

Now available to our members and clergy to share with friends and loved ones experiencing a difficult time in their lives. The Sacred Prayer Bracelet™ is a visual, tangible and meaningful connection with our Jewish faith and the concept that we are never alone. The Sacred Prayer Bracelet™ with a Star of David charm is an expressive means for those who care about someone experiencing a difficult time. They can share their concern and support for that person through prayer and connection.

Each packet contains two prayer booklets with two Sacred Prayer Bracelets™ and is available for a donation of $36.

Happy New Year! As we enter into 2013 I want to thank everyone who has attended our monthly brunch series. Your continued support helps Men's club to help others. I also want to wish everyone good fortune and health!

Speaking of health, during this month's Men's Club Brunch we will have a special guest. Jessica Chasen will discuss the positive health effects of massages. Jessica will be explaining, as well as demonstrating (on a lucky attendee) the effects of massage. With the New Year upon us we are looking forward to the great events we have planned: Poker, Men's Club Retreat, Men's Club Golf Outing, Wine Tasting and more. We hope you will join us. I want to take this opportunity to say good-bye to Rabbi Newburge and to wish her well on her new journey. You have become a friend as well as family and I am thankful for all that you have done for me and my family over the years!

Caring Community

Written by Sheila Stern

I am writing this article just after lighting the fourth Hanukkah candle of 5773. This is the season of giving and therefore it is also the season of receiving. Hanukkah is the perfect metaphor for the Caring Community. The Caring Community is all about giving and receiving because one side of the equation does not happen without the other.

Over the years many programs have been started by the Caring Community and other Temple activities have come under the Caring Community's umbrella. Bubby Bags, rides to services, help with Shiva, the Single Group, visiting the sick and home bound and cooking for members with special needs are some of our endeavors.

As the secular New Year begins think about your role in the Caring Community. It is good to be on either end of the partnership of the Caring Community as both the giving and the receiving cannot happen without the other half. Reach out to the Caring Community on either side of the partnership. You will be glad you did.

On behalf of the Caring Community we wish our temple family good health and happiness in 2013.

January is National Hobby Month, the perfect time for women to 'get their craft on!' On January 24 we'll gather to express our inner artists with card-making, a yarn project and Gary Rosenthal's Glass Ribbon Project. The renowned sculptor combines copper, brass and steel with fused glass to create his wonderful works of art. Gary has designed a special "Women of Valor" series which incorporates a geometric glass piece in shades of pink. A portion of each sale is donated to help find a cure for breast cancer. Tikun Olam is part of our "Something Crafty" night as we contribute by making the glass mosaics that will adorn the Women of Valor series. Many thanks to Janet Cohen and Julie Borsky for chairing the event under the leadership of Amy Salcedo, Sisterhood VP of Programming.

And now for many thank yous. We are blessed with an active and engaged board and membership who fun-draise all year long to support the Temple, our schools and the community. Among our biggest fundraisers is the annual Hanukkah Bazaar. Literally dozens of women were involved starting with Sheila Stern and Robin White who co-chaired, Deb Berger who ably guided us, Wendi Cohen who chaired the Spinning Dreidel Café, DJ Whitley, Cathy Krepow, Lauren Waite and Felice Friedman who led the Macabee Mart. A special shout-out to Linda Harvey who shops all year long for the great gifts our children bring home. Paula Levine sold scrip and Linda Harvey and Sallie Brown manned the Sisterhood table. And the food donations and volunteers! Among those stepping up were Roz Appell, Sherry Berman Robinson, Janet Cohen, Wendi Cohen, Jen Gilman, Sandy Gordon, Sandy Griffel, Kim Leibovitz, Kim Levin, Liz Levine, Sara Levine, Jane Meyerson, Vivian Newberger, Susie Sunshine-Pheatt and Pam Sacks. Thanks to one and all.

Earlier in the month, we will gather to learn about two special members of our community, Sydney Kershner and his lovable service dog named Doc. Join us on Sunday, January 6 at 11 am as Sydney enlightens us with a wonderful talk and demonstration about how he and Doc accomplish many things together. Refreshments will be served. Please support this FREE Sisterhood event and RSVP to Sherry Berman Robinson at sbermanrobinson@aol.com. Thanks to Elaine Kooperstein for this terrific idea.

Coming up on February 4 is Mind, Body, Spirit when Jessica Chasen will guide us on putting Kaballah concepts to use during the counting of the Omer. Mark your calendar now! RSVPs to this FREE event also go to Sherry Berman Robinson.

We said a special thank you to our clergy and staff with Sisterhood's staff luncheon on December 5. It's our small way of showing gratitude for all that they do.

Finally, I'd like to recognize Susan Witte for chairing our annual Hanukkah party with Sallie Brown, and Jess Chasen and Sherry Berman-Robinson for organizing and leading "Latke Making for Dummies" and Sandy Gordon for her delicious recipes. This event has always had special meaning for me: it was the first Sisterhood event I attended more than 10 years ago. I've been replicating the latke recipe I learned that night ever since – and hooked on Sisterhood, too.

Something Crafty

Join your Sisters as we "get our craft on" – mosaics, paper & yarn.... Oh My! No experience necessary!

Thursday, January 24, 2013 7 pm - 9:30 pm

$18 for members, $20 for non-members

The evening will feature Gary Rosenthal's Glass Ribbon Project where we will design glass pieces that will then be fused into one of the pieces in his Women of Valor collection; a portion of the proceeds go to support women with breast cancer. The evening will also include a fabulous card making project using great paper and stamps, a yarn project, kibitzing, noshing and laughter.

Our temple offered so many opportunities to celebrate and enjoy Hanukkah. Hopefully, whether within the temple or among your own families and friends, you had a delightful holiday!

And now, welcome to a new year of Senior Group news and activities. We're looking ahead to sharing the brown bag lunch meetings and delightful afternoons with all of you.

The fall season was rich with a variety of programs. We heard from Myrna Fineman about her playwright friend, enjoyed a Shabbat dinner, were surprised by Al's Chorale with Julia Zavadsky, and enjoyed the political insights and reflections on the presidential election by Dr. Richard Harris of Rutgers University.

Why do I say "surprised" by Al's Chorale? We expected Julia Zavadsky would bring us a wonderful musical program. Then we learned that she was coming with the 40+ members of the JCC's Al's Chorale. The Chorale's story (and name) is inspiring and their singing was full of spirit and much enjoyed by all. Thank you, Julia, for going beyond anything we had anticipated.

In January we welcome David Snyder, Director of the Jewish Community Relations Council. This significant agency serves us all well, often quietly and without much fanfare. Although we are fortunate to live in a generally peaceful community, there are times when groups and/or individuals create some stir or problem that is unsettling for our community. The JCRC staff works to calm and bring people together to solve the dilemmas. Please join us on Wednesday, January 16, when Mr. Snyder will update us on current interfaith issues.

Looking ahead, we anticipate afternoons of sharing with friends and programs with Dr. Martin Rosenberg, Cantor Neil, Barry, the Caterer, Jessica Chasen and Rabbi David. We think these will be a terrific mix of topics and personalities. Watch for our program flyers and information in The Light. Be sure not to miss them.

Are you getting used to the cold yet, Temple Emanuel? Let us bring in the New Year with an event highly appropriate for the weather. On January 6 TEFTY is going ice skating! Time is to be announced, but we hope to see everyone there! Did you miss our TNP's? Get ready for a brand new program on January 15 for this one is going to be exciting and will be a great way to get introduced to our awesome youth group. Junior TEFTY members from grades six to eight are invited to the Junior Youth Kallah. This event is structured similarly to a NFTY event. It will have services, programs, and song sessions. This is a chance for our younger youth groupers to meet and interact with other kids from all over southern New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The fee is $165 that pays for transportation to Camp Harlem (a bus will leave from Adath Emanuel), sleep accommodations and five meals. For more information email Rabbi Newburge at gnewburge@templemanuel.org. This New Year is kicking off on the right foot and we can't wait to spend 2013 with the TEFTY youth group.

Family Pot Luck Dinner
Followed by Sex Therapist Presentation
(with babysitting for a nominal fee)

Want to “rev up your romance” in anticipation of Valentine’s Day? Temple Emanuel’s Up & Comers Group is proud to present a unique family experience on Saturday, February 9, for couples of all ages (with or without children). The evening will begin with a Pot Luck Dinner for the whole family in the Social Hall of Temple Emanuel at 6 pm. Temple Emanuel will supply the chicken, and attendees will supply the sides. If your last name begins with: A – I, please bring salads; J - R, please bring side dishes; S – Z, please bring desserts.

From 7 pm – 8:30 pm, the adults will stay in the Social Hall for a presentation by certified sex therapist, speaker and critically acclaimed author Dr. Stephen Betchen on “improving sexual health and intimacy within a relationship”. A Clinical Assistant Professor at Thomas Jefferson University and regular contributor to such popular national publications as Ladies’ Home Journal, Men’s Health, and Family Circle, Dr. Betchen will share insights from his book “Magnetic Partners” and from more than 25 years of experience as a licensed marriage therapist who has helped couples of all ages reach new levels of happiness in the bedroom and other areas.

While parents are enjoying the presentation, babysitting will be provided by TEFTY babysitters for a nominal fee - $7 for the first child and $5 for each additional child. The fees will be used to fund scholarships for TEFTY students.

Please RSVP to Roberta at roberta@templemanuel.org or (856) 489-0029, ext. 168

The Prime Timers' first event in 2013 will be a musical evening with Murray Savar at the synagogue on January 27. Wine, hors d'oeuvres, coffee and dessert will be served.

A planning meeting is scheduled for January 6 at the synagogue. Those attending will suggest future events for the group, which may include a dinner and a show at a local theater.

The group ended 2012 with a holiday party on December 16 at the Mandarin Buffet on Kings Highway in Cherry Hill. As it was the final day of Hanukkah, participants were invited to bring their menorahs and light them. They dined in a private tea room at the restaurant. Members Barbara and Rudi Schwartz arranged this event.

The Prime Timers are Temple Emanuel members who fall between the Empty Nesters and Seniors. Individual Prime Timers suggest events and take charge of arranging them. For information concerning events or any questions about the Prime Timers contact Terry Blau at templemanueladults@yahoo.com. She will direct interested members to join them on short notice for a restaurant meal, movie, community theater performance, or other excursion.

As a teacher, towards the end of each month, I am responsible to write my lesson plans for next month. But after all these holidays, I am finding it too easy to procrastinate! Instead, I have been thinking all too often, how time seems to be flying by. When did my toddlers become adults? Weren't they just in pre-school? Twenty years ago, The Pre-School at Temple Emanuel opened – thanks not only to the many planners and visionaries, but also to everyone who donated the funds to build it. There are a few whose names hang in our halls as a daily reminder to us that we need to always remember to say “thank you.” First to the Brewstein/Grossberg family for honoring their beloved wife and mother in such a wonderful way; the Hymerlings whose love of learning reached into our pre-school, to the Harper family who found a loving way to remember their son and to the Riesenbach family.

Twenty years seems to have flown by, and we probably have not said “thank you” enough to all the wonderful teachers who have blessed us over the years. It is because of them that Temple Emanuel has such an incredible reputation. Over the last six years, we have won the “Best of South Jersey Pre-School” once and placed as one of the top Pre-Schools for five years! We are very proud of what we have become. Thanks to the generosity of the Mogell Family and Temple Emanuel Sisterhood, we have a state of the art playground that is enjoyed on a daily basis! But thankfully some things never change. The wonderful mural created by Morah Ellen in 1995 still graces our hallway walls. We do not, and will not, compromise on providing quality programming. We have a committed and active Parent Committee, and most importantly, we love what we do!

This year we are forming an Alumnae 20th Anniversary Club and want everyone who has ever been a part of the pre-school to consider joining. It would be a way for you to re-connect and help our pre-school to replace items that are now 20 years old, and it is our way to reach out to you! We would love to welcome you back and invite you to visit and attend some activities. We are asking past and present pre-school families and/or students to donate $18. For the first year, we will provide wooden hands with your names on them so we can create a wall in our pre-school where you can forever leave your handprint in our heart!

February 1st is Registration Day

For the 2013-2014 School Year & Kamp Kayeetz Summer Program

The pre-schoolers are happy to return to school after the winter break! It is a new year filled with excitement and new challenges. All of the children are looking forward to our fabulous special events this month including June in January and the Tu B'Shevat Seder. We welcome our newest pre-schoolers, the two year old Bees. They will join Morah Debbie and Morah Gail for their very first pre-school experience, and we know they will have the best time ever!

I love new books and so do the children. Every year I order some of the best new children's books as recommended by the Book Vine Company, which previews hundreds of books and chooses only the best for their catalog. If you want to buy a book for your child, check out the catalog and any book you find will be quality children's literature. You can also ask me about my recommendations for our favorite new books!

The new year brings about the opportunity to register for the 2013-2014 school year. A question often asked by parents who are looking into pre-schools is, "Will my child be challenged academically?" I respond by assuring them that their child will be, but in addition to academics, their child will be provided with a well-rounded education. We understand that it is our job to teach the whole child, and that cognitive skills are just one part of what a child needs to learn. The first five years of life are a time of enormous growth in linguistic, conceptual, social-emotional, and motor competence. We strive to create an environment in which children learn and develop in all these areas.

The best way to understand what makes The Pre-School at Temple Emanuel special is to come and visit. We are happy to give anyone you know who is looking for a pre-school as well as mommy and baby classes, a tour of our beautiful facility and an opportunity to see how wonderful we are. So pass the word that the Pre-School at Temple Emanuel is the "playce" to be!

Registration day is Friday, February 1. If you register on that day you will receive one week of mini camp (those play days after school ends and camp begins) for free. Mark it on your calendar and don't be left out. Register for one of THE BEST pre-schools in all of South Jersey!

“Nes Gadol Hayah Sham” – “A Great Miracle Happened There”!

Our entire Hebrew School formed teams in honor of the Maccabees who led the Jews to victory, allowed them to win back the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, and cleaned the Temple making it ready for worship and rededication with the miraculous jar of oil that burned on and on for eight days. The students learned to place the candles in the hanukiyah from the right side to the left in the same direction in which we have learned to read

Wednesday Hanukkah

Hebrew Hanukkah

Continuing with the celebration of the Festival of Lights, they recited the Hanukkah blessings and danced around our school's giant dreidel while focusing on the four Hebrew letters spinning - Nun, Gimmel, Hey, and Shin.

Wishing everyone Happy Hebrew Hanukkah Happenings!

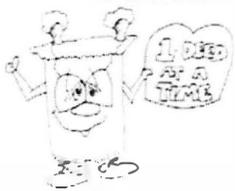

Mike Firstenberg, Chair

Religious School Education Council

January promises to be an exciting time for the Religious School Education Council. We have been invited to observe all of the classes in the Sunday School and the Hebrew School. Please come join us at our next meeting - Sunday, January 27 at 10:15 am as we review our classes and plan out future offerings. Please be on the lookout for parent opportunities during February and March as we will offer new programs for parents during school hours. If you have any questions, or would like to join the council, please reach out to Mike Firstenberg at firstenberg@verizon.net or (856) 810-0454.

The word mitzvah means religious instruction, commandment or "good deed". There are different kinds of mitzvot. Rabbis use the phrase, simcha shel mitzvah to express the joy you feel every time you do a mitzvah. Mitzvot are not merely part of our obligation as Jews, they are what makes being Jewish so special and fills our lives with joy.

At Temple Emanuel's Religious School each grade level has selected a mitzvah project that they will be working on throughout the school year. We hope to enhance our student's lives as Jews and give them the understanding and meaning of responsibility to others while doing these projects.

At the start of every new year, I try so hard to tie up all loose ends and make my plans and preparations for the coming year. With so much to look forward to in the new year, I want to be prepared as much as possible for the challenges ahead. I always think in the new year that I have some control over how the year will proceed. I guess my energy levels are high at this very moment in time.

We at Temple Emanuel would like to ask you, as you begin your planning and preparations for this new year, to call upon us with exciting events that may be around the corner for you. Any happy life events that you may have, please share them with us. Also, please remember the next time you pass the Tree of Life outside the social hall, to stop and read happy inscriptions by your Temple family and consider adding your own inscriptions to our Tree.

To add an inscription on the Tree of Life, please contact Holly Friedman at the Temple office (856) 489-0029 x 118.

The newest additions to our Tree of Life include:

SWEET COUSCOUS WITH NUTS AND DRIED FRUIT

- 2 - 1/3 cups water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup dried cranberries
- 1/3 cup dried apricots, chopped
- 1/3 cup dried cherries, chopped
- 2 1/2 cups (about 1 pound) couscous
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped, toasted slivered almonds
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped toasted and skinned hazelnuts
- 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil, if desired

In a medium saucepan, combine the water, sugar, cranberries, apricots, and cherries. Bring the mixture to a boil over medium-high heat, stirring constantly, until the sugar has dissolved, about 2 minutes. Stir in the couscous and remove the pan from the heat. Cover the pan with a tight fitting lid until the couscous has absorbed all of the cooking liquid, about 5 to 7 minutes.

Using a fork, fluff the couscous to break up any lumps. Add the almonds and hazelnuts and toss. Spread the mixture evenly on a baking sheet until completely cooled, about 10 minutes.

Transfer the couscous to an airtight container and store in the refrigerator.

Serving Suggestion:
 Drizzle the couscous with 1/4 cup of extra-virgin olive oil for a moister texture.

January 4
Shemot Exodus 1:1 – 6:1

We begin reading the book of Exodus. A new Pharaoh comes to power who forces the Israelites to build cities for him and to work in his fields. Despite these hardships, the Israelite community continues to grow. The Pharaoh then orders all male babies born to Israelite women to be drowned in the Nile River. A baby boy is put in a basket and found by Pharaoh's daughter who names him Moses.

January 11
Va'era Exodus 6:2 – 9:35

The story of the struggle to leave Egypt continues. God reviews the covenant made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and then tells Moses, I have heard the cries of the Israelites and I will now fulfill my promise to them, to redeem them from slavery and bring them to the land that I promised their ancestors. God tells Moses that Moses will rule over Pharaoh, and Aaron will be Moses' prophet serving as his spokesperson. The first plagues descend on the Egyptians. The Nile is turned into blood and frogs invade the land, lice and swarms of insects invade Egypt. Pharaoh does not yield. The plagues of cattle disease, boils, and hail quickly follow.

January 18
Bo Exodus 10:1 – 13:16

God inflicts the last three plagues upon the Egyptians and gives the instructions for the observance of the festival of Passover. Locusts, the eighth plague, devour all the grass and trees so that nothing green is left in all of Egypt. Then darkness covers the land for three days. Before the tenth and final plague, God tells Moses and Aaron to instruct each Israelite family to slaughter a lamb, put some of its blood on the doorposts of their homes so that God will pass over their houses when God kills every first born child in the land of Egypt. Finally, acknowledging God's power over him, Pharaoh tells Moses and Aaron to leave with the people so that they may worship God. They leave hurriedly, before their dough can rise.

January 25
Beshalach Exodus 13:17 – 17:16

We read about several miracles as the people of Israel safely cross the Sea of Reeds, have their hunger and thirst in the desert satisfied and emerge victorious from their first battle as a free people. The Israelites continue on their journey and run short of water and food. God explains that bread will come for them from the sky.

Temple Emanuel's Up & Comers: Worth Joining

Are you "up" on the latest in savvy socializing?

For some, it began as an outgrowth of Tot Shabbat. For others, it was a connection they made through Sisterhood, Men's Club, an adult education class, or through their kids. The common thread is that many of our younger married and single congregants were meeting one another and liking one another. They began exploring ways to get together, and it grew, and it grew, and it grew until it became apparent that the answer was a group!

Now the challenge --what to call their new social group. Young marrieds...? Neh. Doesn't describe everyone, and too old school, no way does it define these highly educated and active individuals, centered, balanced, extremely family-oriented. Real up and comers – aha!

This month, we're getting to know some of our members who have become part of this new group – the Up & Comers. Meet Jamie and Seth Pearlman, Julie and Joel Schwartz, Jennifer and Jarod Gilman, Stacy Steinhoff, Karen and Ian Driben, and Mark and Donielle Friedenthal.

Q. Your dynamic group is mainly about creating an inclusive, meaningful and trusted network of "modern tribe" friendships. How do our Temple's core values -- Connection, Diversity, Spirituality, Jewish Education, Social Responsibility and Community, resonate with this group?

A: Our group represents all of Temple Emanuel's values, melding religious and social activities. Up & Comers is really an extension of what we've already observed happening here. Yes, we formalized this group to connect with other like-minded people in their 30s and 40s as well as those who might want to be temple members and are seeking friends to whom they can relate; however we are also a social group eager to connect with other existing groups within our synagogue, such as Social Action, making valuable contributions to our warm, welcoming and diverse congregation and our metro community.

Q. In terms of life's priorities, please share a bit about why you're personally drawn to this group – which includes supervised, separate activities for kids – and how you foresee these ideals and common goals thriving.

A: We're an inclusive bunch inviting everyone: married couples with and without kids because many of our members utilize their weekends and evenings as together time, and singles with and without kids who are looking for lasting friendships and connections are also extremely comfortable joining because the vibe is so welcoming. From both perspectives, it's really a win-win!

Q. Contemporary relationships of all kinds and at all stages can be hectic, let alone finding time to invest in them. Why is the Up & Comers Group attractive to you at this time in your lives? Do you feel that sharing Jewish traditions with others will help strengthen your family's Jewish journey?

A: Sometimes it's difficult to devote meaningful time or even find a Jewish group catering to a Gen X demographic which truly fits your needs. It used to be – where can we go on a Friday night with a toddler? Hey, let's do Tot Shabbat! Now there's even more, from adults' events for couples and singles to family centered activities like Pot Luck Dinners that help strengthen ties with current friends and create new friendships within our temple family of families. And it strengthens our kids' ties, too. Kids do what they see, and really, how can we foster Jewish identity and ask them to marry within our religion one day if we don't expose them to our culture in a fun and educational way?

Q. Daily schedules for your generation are electronically oriented, often hour-by-hour or even minute-by-minute. What positives do you see thus far with regard to Up & Comers linking your social lives and spiritual practice in person?

A: For a lot of us, it's becoming more and more apparent that we need to put technology on pause and actually have good old-fashioned conversations with friends in person. Sure, life is hectic, but you need to make time for things that are important, have priorities. Some people live by their smartphones; others feel like they might be the last left on the planet without one, though when twenty people show up at your first meeting and are so communicative it speaks to "defeating the text monster." We've never seen a group in or outside the temple take off with so many great people feeling so passionate about forming abiding friendships and interacting in a relaxed setting! It feels really amazing to be part of something special from the ground floor up, it's kind of magical!

Q. We hear you've got some sensational programs up-coming! What's on your calendars and how can marrieds and singles with and without kids get involved? Fill us in!

A: We have two fun events planned: Our first on January 26 is an adults-only evening of wiffleball and mini-golf at Big League Dreams in Medford, followed on February 9 with a Family Pot Luck Dinner and adults-only sex therapist presentation by Dr. Stephen Betchen. Babysitting will be provided that night upon request through TEFTY for a nominal fee. We also have a Karaoke 80s Party in the works for spring and you are invited to get involved NOW! Please "Like" our Facebook page to stay informed on what else is up-coming, and for more information, email Stacy at stacysteinhoff@gmail.com. See you soon!

Bank

Affinity Program Fundraiser for Temple Emanuel

HOW IT WORKS

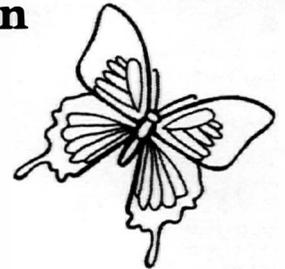

- At TD Bank, the growth of non-profit groups and organizations is important. Their success enriches the communities in which we live and work.
- The Affinity Membership Program offers an easy way to raise money for Temple Emanuel.
- The more members who bank with TD, the more money Temple Emanuel can earn. There are no costs involved. In fact, it actually pays for you to belong!
- TD Bank will make an annual contribution to Temple Emanuel based on the average balance of your account.

In 2011-2012, we received about $7900.
