BETWEEN US . . .

It's a marathon! The runners all begin at the same point. They are filled with enthusiasm, energy, and determination. Each one has been preparing for years for this great event; they all hope to cross the finish line and be declared the winner.

The Olympics had their marathon. The race was won and over, the closing ceremonies were taking place, and some of the runners continued. They made it to the finish line. Only they had to conclude in another place so that they would not interfere with the events taking place in the Olympic stadium. So some finished in anonymity, their race concluded, but not affecting the outcome.

In America, there is another marathon. It is the endurance run to the Presidency. We have been observing it for months. And now we are watching the last few miles when the runners begin to sprint. All draped in red white and blue, these runners are challenging each other and trying to muster all their strength to be at the finish line just at the right moment. Some have already fallen aside and quit. In the last few miles there remain only two.

I wonder — who will really win the race? Will it be the candidates or will it be America? After such a long race there ought to be something in the victory that is much more than political positioning and power. There ought to be a sense that our nation has achieved consensus, direction, and purpose for the future.

For that is what this quadrennial event is meant to be. That is the meaning of voting. That, dear friends is what makes America such a precious and sacred place for the celebration of freedom.

So, watch and participate in this year's presidential marathon. Be a part in choosing the winner. Maybe, we will all be lucky. Maybe, just ,maybe, the nation will win and we will get the kind of leaders we really deserve — leaders who will dare to show us the way into the next century, a century that is filled with the promise of goodness, prosperity, and peace for all humankind.

MESSAGE TO OUR TEMPLE FAMILY

The ancient world saw Israel at the center of the map, with Jerusalem at the center of Israel, and the Temple at the center of Jerusalem. What a fascinating way to perceive their ancient world.

It is easy to look back to biblical times to see how the Temple fit into this picture. People lived closer together and they needed a central location to barter or trade for goods or services; a central place to discuss ideas and to communicate with others; a place to seek help in troubled times, and a place to give thanks for the good things in life. This Temple was truly the center of their world.

As we look at Anshe Emeth today, our first thought is that its role in modern society is quite different...or is it really? I believe, our Temple is the center of our community and will become more and more in the years to come.

We are a House of Prayer, a place where families congregate to satisfy their religious needs. We celebrate in good times and seek help from the Clergy in times of trouble. We celebrate the birth of our children by naming them at the Temple. We now have "Gan Yeladeen" a child care and day care facility at the Temple. We celebrate Bar and Bat Mitzvahs, weddings and other life cycle events here.

We are a House of Study, a place where we educate our children through High School; a place where we educate ourselves with programs like the "Keepers of Jewish Excellence", adult education series and wonderful musical programs. We reach out into the community to educate those who wish to enrich and renew their Jewish experience, and to those who wish to affiliate with our People.

We are a House of Assembly, a place where we provide for the home bound and homeless. Through the help and guidance of the Tzedakah and Caring Community Committees we have provided for those of us who have fallen on hard times. In this troubled economic period we held a Job-a-thon and will continue to be a clearing house in order to help our unemployed family members find jobs, and to help our families from the Soviet Union start a new life here.

I am very proud of the accomplishments at Anshe Emeth and in September when one of our officers or trustees contact you they will want to know what suggestions you can make to improve our Temple programs, and also to ask you to reach as deeply as possibly and make a pledge to keep our programs going.

Please, at this time remember Hillel's, most poignant question "If I am not for myself, who will be for me, and if I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when?"

Leshana tova tikatevu,

Jerry Katz

WORSHIP SERVICES - SEPTEMBER 1992

FRIDAY, September 11 - Another Presidential Election
Rabbi Miller will speak about the current presidential election campaign and its significance for us as Jews. It is much more than politics as usual, or a media event. The campaign is a challenge for all of America and a test of our mettle as a nation.

FRIDAY, September 18 - From the Outside Looking In
This summer, for the third time, Rabbi Paskoff taught a regional Introduction to Judaism course. As usual, this proved to be an enlightening experience for the instructor, as well as, hopefully, for the class. Together we will learn through the eyes of those confronting Judaism for the first time.

FRIDAY, September 25 - Articles of Faith
In his new book, preeminent Reform Jewish theologian Eugene Borowitz comments on how easy it is for us to express our doubts, while it is so difficult to express exactly what it is we do believe in. Utilizing the model of medieval Jewish philosopher, Moses Maimondes, Rabbi Paskoff will attempt to lay out articles of faith for the modern Jew.

HIGH HOLY DAY INFORMATION

Your seat reservation will be sent by September 18.

Arrangements may be made for babysitting of younger children during morning services on both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. If you want your children to participate and you did not check the babysitting box on your seat reservation form, please call the Temple office 545-6484 before September 15.

Please note that all seats in the Sanctuary and Social Hall are reserved. No one may occupy any vacant seats unless the Seating Committee is advised of their availability prior to the start of services. Remember, please, that tickets will be required at afternoon Yom Kippur, Yizkor, and Ne'elah services. Ushers will collect tickets.

Ushers are needed for all High Holy Day services. If you can assist at one or more of the services, please call Fred Greenstein at 249-6456 or the Temple office 545-6484.

The congregation provides large print editions of the High Holy Day prayer book for those wishing to use them. Ask an usher to provide you with one. Special audio equipment for the hearing impaired is available for use in the Sanctuary. Please call the Temple office to reserve a head set.

Because of physical impairments, some members of the congregation may not be able to attend High Holy Day services. If you or a member of your family is unable to worship with us at the Temple, cassette recordings of previous High Holy Day services will be available. Please call the Temple office to make arrangements to obtain the tapes.

Please also note that there will be a reserved section at Yom Kippur Yizkor and Ne'elah Services for our disabled and/or elderly members. One family member may accompany each person.

The office will be closed on Monday, September 28th, in observance of Rosh Hashanah.

NEW MEMBERS

Our Temple extends a warm welcome to all of our members who joined our family. New members represent the growth and future of our Temple. If you have a friend who is interested in joining our "family" at Anshe Emeth Memorial Temple, please call Carol Adelman at 238-3477 or Ginny Belowsky at 257-6704, and they will be glad to send them a membership packet.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

September 1992

The summer of '92 is almost over, and I hope you have spent it enjoyably and in good health.

This summer has brought us an important addition: Our new cantor, Gershon Silins, started on August 3rd. He has been busy getting acclimated to his new responsibilities as well as the many names and faces in our Temple family. When you get the opportunity, I am sure you will want to introduce yourself to Cantor Silins and welcome him into our community.

We have many new programs planned for next year. One of the most innovative, tentatively called "Year of Sharing," will expand the interfaith dialogue between Anshe Emeth and two New Brunswick churches: United Methodist and Mt. Zion AME. Our three congregations will work together throughout the year on numerous social, educational, and spiritual events for both adults and children. You will hear much more about "Year of Sharing" as specific details become available. I encourage everyone to participate in this exciting program. For further information, you may contact Gerald Horn, chairman, or Rabbi Jack Paskoff.

Roberta and I look forward to another wonderful year with all of you at our very special synagogue.

TORAH STUDY

Rabbi Miller's Torah Study Class

begins on Saturday, September 19.

This class is held every Saturday morning that Religious School is in session in the Conference Room.

BACK TO THE BASICS

This class, taught by Rabbi Paskoff will resume on Saturday morning, September 19. This is a hands-on class for all those who want to discover or re-discover the origins, meanings, and how-to's of our various traditions - including holidays, life cycle events, ritual objects, and more. New comers are always welcome.

TEMPLE TRIP TO ISRAEL SUMMER '93

Rabbi and Mrs. Miller will be leading a trip to Israel in the summer of 1993.

If you are interested in joining this group, please call the Rabbi's secretary at the Temple office.

Brochure will be mailed in the fall.

VISIT OUR JUDAICA SHOP TO PREPARE FOR THE HOLIDAYS

With our holidays rapidly approaching, our Judaica Shop is here to help you! We have prayer books, cook books, New Year cards, challah covers, Talliesim, yarmulkes, gift items, etc.

We are open Friday evenings after services, Saturday and Sunday mornings 10a.m. to noon, and by appointment. Please stop by or call Rose Dreier at 257-7868 or Judy Rothberg at 828-4845.

PLEASE NOTE...

The following are corrections from the 1991-92 Directory:

Dr. Jane Hochman's correct phone number is 390-0134.

Gloria Cohn no longer uses Florida address.

Henry Scharf is "Dr."

Joyce Morris is "Dr."

Gartenberg, Gary and Debbie (Dr. & Mrs.) should be: Gartenberg, Dr. Gary and Deborah Sands-Gartenberg.

Dorothy and Richard Bruskin's correct phone number is 828-3299 and there is an "H" after PH- in their address.

SCRIP IS AVAILABLE NOW!

If you would like to fund raise for the Temple and feed your family and guests for the High Holidays at the same time, you can! BUY SCRIP!

Mayfair Foodtown and Pathmark scrip is available and easy to obtain. Just contact Ginny Belowsky during the day (201) 589-9162 or in the evening (908) 257-6704 or the Temple office or any of the area captains listed below:

Hedy Brown (E.B.)	238-2462

PROVIDE-A-MEAL FLOURISHES

Two dozen Anshe Emeth members have volunteered to help with our monthly meal-making for local homeless families. In fact, with so many people we can work in teams, asking most of the volunteers to help only every second or third month. Thanks to all who helped with the shopping, cooking and serving in June, July and August.

The families at the shelter enjoyed the first menu so much, they've asked to have it repeated. Right now what we need most are contributions of food:

White Rice
Onion Soup Mix
Wholeberry Cranberry Sauce
Catalina-type Salad Dressing
Varied Salad Dressings
Soda (Coke, Pepsi or Sprite)
Apple Juice

These items should be brought to the Temple office, where a box marked "Provide-A-Meal" will be waiting for them.

We also welcome financial donations to purchase the chicken, vegetables, and other perishables that will be used for these meals.

And if you would like to shop, cook or serve, we still can use your help! Please call Deborah Cherniss, 985-9384, or Lee Livingston, 821-9757.

CALLING ALL COOKS AND GOURMETS!

Come to our meeting!

Monday, September 14, 1992 at 8:00 p.m. here at the Temple.

Help us get our Cookbook underway.

We need lots of people to support this

Tzedakah project -- to make it a great success.

Proceeds will go toward the purchase of Scrip to benefit the hungry.

Please join us.

For more information call:

Paula Masciulli at 609-497-1133
or Lee Livingston at 908-821-9757.

Tzedakah Collection Box to Benefit LIFELINE FOR THE AGED

Lifeline for the Aged, in Jerusalem, offers opportunities for elderly men and women to maintain their self-respect by making attractive and useful products. This is not a "make work" place, but a place to do meaningful work.

The program began 25 years ago, and has been so successful that it has outgrown its space in old Jerusalem. Now it must turn away elderly people seeking work there.

To help Lifeline's efforts to expand, we are making it the first recipient of donations to our new Tzedakah Collection Box. The giving of tzedakah is traditionally part of honoring the Sabbath and so our Collection Box will be outside the Sanctuary on Friday nights. Each month the money donated will be given to a different organization.

For the next months these organizations are:

- |            |  |
|------------|--|
| September: | Lifeline for the Aged   |
| October:   | Dorot (a NYC organization serving elderly homeless Jews)  |
| November:  | American Jewish World Service (offering development programs around the world that build local people's self-sufficiency) |
| December:  | HIAS (support services for newly-arrived Jewish immigrants)   |

If you know of a group that you think should be part of this list, please call Deborah Cherniss, 985-9384, or Lee Livingston, 821-9757.

Religious School News

I hope you have all had a wonderful, relaxing summer vacation! We are all looking forward to beginning the new school year on September 12! Rabbi Miller, Rabbi Paskoff, Cantor Silins and I along with our religious school teachers have planned a very exciting year for students and their parents; please come and celebrate being Jewish with us throughout the year.

We have just mailed the Fall Packets which include the Parent Handbook and other pertinent information about our school. If you don't receive your packet by September 4, please call the religious school office and we will send one out to you at once. Also, it is imperative that you have your child(ren) registered before the first day of religious school in order for them to attend.

First Day Schedules

Please meet your teachers in the appropriate rooms as listed below:

First Day Program

Students in grades K-6! Please remember to bring your baby toys for the Parent Infant Care Center on Saturday, September 12. Also, don't forget to bring in your filled tzedakah boxes! Once again, we will all work together to make the world a better place to live in. Remember: "Together, we can!"

Seventh Grade Parents Meeting

If you have a child who is entering seventh grade, you are invited to attend a "Morning Coffee And..." on Sunday morning, September 20 at 10:15. We strongly encourage all of our seventh grade parents to attend this program concerning the Bar/Bat Mitzvah year. Please call the religious school office, 545-6484, and let us know that you will be coming.

New Parents Meeting

If you have a child who is just beginning formal religious education in our school, you are invited to attend a "Morning Coffee And..." on Saturday morning, September 26 at 9:30. This is a good way for us to meet you, to acquaint you with the curriculum for your child's grade and to answer any questions you may have about the school and Temple. Please call the religious school office, 545-6484, and let us know that you will be coming.

NEWS FROM THE GAN...

The children at Gan Yeladeem Day Care/Pre School are looking forward to a fantastic new school year. Our new four year old classroom is big, bright and filled with activities. The children are enjoying all of the learning stations and the flexibility of the room. Our program will continue to focus on individual needs of the children and offers an array of learning experiences which are age appropriate and encourage positive physical, social, emotional and intellectual growth. The Jewish cultural content of our program will enable each child to learn something about our rich heritage.

If you are looking for quality childcare or pre school in a warm, loving environment, please come visit our program or call 545-6555. We have spaces available for children 6 weeks to 4 years old.

The office will be closed on Monday, September 7, 1992 for Labor Day.

We recommend that you use the following reading prepared by the UJA Rabbinic Cabinet during home celebration of Rosh Hashanah.

ROSH HASHANAH 5753 HOME CEREMONIAL READING

During the course of the festive meal on Rosh Hashanah evening, pieces of apple that have been dipped in honey are distributed to the participants and the following is read either in unison or responsively.

For centuries, Jews have celebrated Rosh Hashanah by eating apples and honey. We express our hopes and prayers that this year ahead may be especially sweet for ourselves, our loved ones and all the Jewish people around the world.

Seated at the festive table, we remember our precious heritage. We understand that the new year is a sacred time for reflection and hope, as we pray for guidance to meet the challenges of the coming year.

The beginning of year 5753 is marked by extraordinary events.

We are witnessing the redemption of Ethiopian Jews in the land of Israel. May their memories of famine and danger fade, as they experience the joy of reunification with their families.

We are witnessing the emigration of more than 250,000 Soviet Jews who have been isolated from the mainstream of the Jewish world for decades. May they find empathy and caring as they establish new homes among the people of Israel.

We are witnessing – where there had been repression – the resurgence of Jewish vitality in Eastern Europe. May these communities gain new strength and success in their endeavors.

We are witnessing, through Operation Exodus, an outpouring of compassion and generosity for all Jews in need. May we be thankful for our religious freedom and the ability and opportunity to extend help to others.

Now, on this Rosh Hashanah, as we once again dip our apples into honey, we recite the age-old words of our tradition. May we enlarge our horizons, pledging to ourselves that this year we will do even more to reach out to Jews in distress, wherever they may be.

Kol Yis-ra-el ah-ray-vim zeh ba-zeh. כל ישראל ערבים זה בזה.

All Israel is responsible for one another.

This year may all Jews know a new measure of sweetness.

May each of us continue to grow in our commitment to our people and our faith.

Ye-hi ra-tzon mil-fa-ne-ha,

Ah-do-noy Eh-lo-hay-nu vay-lo-hay ah-vo-tay-nu, she-te-ha-desh ah-lay-nu sha-nah to-vah u-me-tu-kah.

יהי רצון מלפניך, ה' אלקינו ואלקי אבותינו,
שתחדש עלינו שנה טובה ומתוקה.

May it be Your will, O Lord our God and God of our ancestors, to renew for us a good and sweet year.

OFF TO COLLEGE...

but not out of touch with Anshe Emeth. Please send to the Temple office the names and addresses of those in your family who will be away at school this year. We will see that they receive Temple bulletins and know what's happening with their Temple family. Students who are not able to be home for the High Holy Days may attend services at any Reform congregation at no cost if they contact the congregation in their area...

...if your child would like to attend services at a reform congregation where he is attending college, call the Temple office for more information.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult Education - Mini Mester I begins Monday, October 26.

The full Adult Education brochure will be mailed early in October.

BABYSITTING COMMITTEE

We'd like to introduce ourselves to new members, and re-introduce ourselves to older friends. A few years ago the babysitting committee was formed when a few of us felt that our spiritual needs could not be postponed until our children had reached a more civilized age. With the sympathetic support of Anshe Emeth, babysitting services are now provided once or twice a month during services, mornings during High Holiday services, and occasionally during special events, such as meetings of the Keepers of Jewish Excellence. Watch your bulletin for times when sitting is available.

Here's how it all works. College students stay with children from 6 months on up in one or two rooms in the religious school. Parents drop off diapers, snacks, anything else the child may need. Children play freely, though often there are games or crafts on Jewish subjects. The parent who drops off the child picks the child up at the end of services.

We like to keep our child/sitter ratio to 1/4, and so if at all possible interested parents should call either Anne Thayer-Cohen, 819-0580 or Susan Jacobs, 247-7683, about a week before the event. We understand that this is not always possible, but reserve the right to turn drop-ins away if conditions become too crowded.

If there is an event that does not have sitting scheduled, try calling us to see if arrangements can be made. If enough people are interested, we can often work something out.

Sitting for high holidays should be reserved by now. However, if you have not registered, please call one of us to see if a place would be available. Have a good year!

The members of AETY, the senior youth group, will be delivering lox boxes to your home!

50% of all money raised will be given to Tzedakah!

Help AETY make money to pay for our trip to Baltimore and eat breakfast in bed - almost!

Send $12 to AETY in care of the Temple office to reserve your lox box.

Bagels, lox, cream cheese and doughnuts.

NEW FUND ESTABLISHED

The Special Children's Education and Day Care Fund was recently established to provide funds for materials, equipment and programs for children with special needs and for our day care - pre school students. This and the already existing funds are an especially meaningful way to honor family and friends on birthdays, anniversaries, milestones and to memorialize loved ones.

HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

The Rabbis and Cantor visit Robert Wood Johnson and St. Peter's Hospitals regularly. However, the hospitals don't always tell us when our congregants are there. If you or a member of your family is going to be in the hospital, please call the Temple office -545-6484, so that we can visit.
