JANUARY 2000

TEVET/SHEVAT, 5760

VOLUME 16, NUMBER 5

FROM RABBI WEBER

In the days after Thanksgiving, the newspapers, radio and TV were filled with wonderful stories of people reaching out to feed the poor and the homeless. Soup kitchens had more volunteers than they could handle, as so many people offered their help. Many were quoted as saying that they wanted to share their good fortune with others — a truly noble sentiment.

Since I am writing this a few weeks before Christmas, I cannot know for sure that the story was the same on December 25th, but I bet it was. Both because nothing really newsworthy happens on major holidays and because it's so good to hear good news for a change, I imagine that the lead holiday stories were, once again, about people who heeded the call to make the season a time of "peace on earth, good will toward men [and women]."

I tried to calculate exactly how many people were fed over Thanksgiving, and how many volunteered to feed them, but the reports were too vague. I guess it doesn't really matter how many people had a good meal and got a friendly smile; all that counts is that they did. For people who had little to give thanks for, and had little to be joyous about on Christmas Day, these volunteers brought a ray of light and a glimmer of hope, and I congratulate them and thank them.

But now it is January. The only holiday this month is Martin Luther King Day (well, there's also Tu BiShevat, on January 22, but retailers haven't paid it much attention recently), and the all-American activity for the month is figuring out how to pay for the frenzy of consumer confidence we displayed back in December. Most of our neighbors have taken down their decorations, Christmas trees await their final pickup at curbside, and life is returning to normal. Which means that the poor and the homeless are hungry again.

It would be wonderful if our once-a-year burst of charity could sustain the needy through the whole year, but it doesn't. Even with all the food we bring on Yom Kippur every year, by the time a month has passed, the food is gone and the demand remains. The Monmouth-Ocean County Food Bank reports that in spite of the wonderful economy, requests for food assistance have increased in each recent year. Apparently, their clientele is not impressed by the record-high levels of the Dow Jones Industrial Average.

"For there will never cease to be needy within the land. Therefore I command you, saying, you shall surely open your hand to your brother, to your poor and to the needy in your land." (Deut 15:11) This is our commandment, our instruction from God. We are to open our hands — both to give and to work — to help the poor in our land. Not only on Yom Kippur, not only on Thanksgiving, and not only at end-of-the-year-taking-a-tax-deduction-time, either. Since there will never cease to be needy within our land, we must never stop helping. We are commanded to open our hands to our brothers and sisters especially at the times when no one else is doing it. And winter, after the warm glow of Christmas charity is past, is when no one else is doing it.

How can we help? I give you three suggestions. Do one, do them all, or do something else that helps. The details are not nearly so important as the doing.

The first is the easiest, because we all know how: bring food. The food basket which sits empty in the temple atrium is an unfortunate metaphor for the empty mouths and bellies of people right here in our community. Putting food in the basket is literally putting food in a hungry mouth; there is no "handling charge," and none of it goes to administrative overhead. A can of tuna fish, a box of pasta or even a package of chocolate chip cookies will do so much to nourish a body and a soul, and it takes so little effort to do it!

If you want to do more, there is another receptacle in the atrium. January's goal for our "Mitzvah Crib" is to provide cold-weather items for the poor: hats, scarves, gloves and the like. This takes a little more effort, either to buy them or to find the old ones we are no longer using, clean them nicely, and bring them to the temple. Remember that this, too, is feeding the hungry: when it is cold outside, parents have to decide whether to spend some of the food money to buy hats and gloves for their children. Your gift solves that problem, and puts the money back in the food budget.

Finally, if you really want to feed the hungry, feed the hungry. Our Social Justice Committee has an ongoing relationship with the soup kitchen in Asbury Park, and we would be happy to arrange for you to go there on a Sunday and help serve lunch. They don't need large groups; just a handful of people every week. So, why not ask a few friends and make a day of it? No great skill is required, you don't have to be a chef, and you will have a wonderful time when you do it. To learn more about this, or to volunteer, please call Geri Kaplan, at 972-8197.

Whichever of these you choose — and I truly hope that every Rodeph Torah family will choose at least one — I want you to think about something when you do it. As you place the food in the basket, or lay the gloves in the crib, or hand a plate of hot food to a soup kitchen guest, remember these words:

"For there will never cease to be needy within the land. Therefore I command you, saying, you shall surely open your hand to your brother, to your poor and to the needy in your land."

Please, open your hand to the needy. It is always important, but in January it is critical.

Shalom,
Rabbi Don Weber

GETTING TO KNOW YOU...

Who are the people making decisions for us all at TRT? Are they any different than you or me? Find yourself in their stories. This month we meet Saul Curtis.

Saul Curtis and his wife, Debbie, live in Marlboro with their three children. Their son, Michael, is in 7th grade and will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah this month. They have two other children, Brooke who is in 4th grade, and Steven who is in 2nd grade. The Curtis family joined the temple five years ago. Prior to living in Marlboro, the Curtis' lived in Old Bridge. Saul was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, and Debbie grew up in Fishkill, New York. Saul and Debbie met during their college days at SUNY Albany.

Saul is a partner at PriceWaterhouse Coopers and commutes daily to New York City. In his spare time, Saul likes to spend time with his family and enjoys coaching his son's soccer team. Saul has been Treasurer of the temple since July. Prior to that he was a member of the Finance Committee and is currently serving on the Cantor Search Committee.

When Saul was approached about joining the Board he saw it as a great way to give something back to the temple. "We have been members for five years and I have not been very involved. I had been on the Finance Committee and felt that I could help the temple further by joining the Board." It has been a good experience for Saul. For him, the best part about being a Board member is getting to know and become friendly with the people on the Board, and getting to know how the temple works. "I got to see how much time Board members committed to the temple and how they are looking out for the good of the temple." The most difficult part of being a Board member is the commitment of time. "It is so clear that so much is done by so few people. With so many competing interests, it is challenging to get people involved and to get things like fundraising going at the temple." Saul believes that one of the biggest challenges facing the temple today is getting more people to accept Board positions. "The broader issue is how to get everybody doing something." Saul believes that we need to continue to strive to get as many people involved in the temple as possible. "A great deal of satisfaction comes from accomplishing something for the temple, no matter how big or small."

EDUCATION

Living in two different centuries is quite exciting, but to be fortunate enough to live in two different millennia is most unusual. We are full of hopes, dreams, and no doubt, some anxiety as we enter the year 2000.

On a smaller scale, we, too, at the religious school, will turn the page this month as we begin a new semester. Report cards will be given to all students in grades three through seven during the last week of January. A great deal of thought and time is put into each report card. We ask that parents do the same. In order to make your child benefit from their report cards, it is most important that you spend time and go over all grades and comments together, and ask your child to evaluate his/her evaluations. Ask your child to explain a grade or a comment that does not please you. Discuss and decide together the importance of reaching higher goals, both personally and Jewishly, and develop a system in which to achieve those goals. Please sign and return the bottom stub on the report card. The teachers will welcome any comments you wish to make on this stub.

We just turn the page to another new beginning. Let us not wait for the new to become old before we react. Let's react now!

Wishing you all peace.

Shalom,
Edna Coleman, RJE

HORAIYNU

On behalf of all members of Horaiynu, I would like to wish everyone a happy, healthy New Year. During the new "millennium," our Hebrew School students have many exciting activities to look forward to. The third grade will have a Shabbaton, and the fifth grade will have a T-shirt painting craft.

Once again, I thank everyone who volunteered to help with the Hanukkah Boutique and the fifth grade Hey Happening. A special thanks to Bibi Kohn, Cindy Sarna, and Jodi Zukoff for a job well done. Without the help of our volunteers, these activities would not be possible.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The food drive that Steve Konigsberg ran in November was unbelievable! We collected over 70 turkeys that were given to Open Door in Freehold. The food that was collected was packed, and I do mean packed, in a van. It took three people 35 minutes to transfer all the food to the Monmouth Food Bank truck. They called and thanked us heartily for the 1,800 pounds of food that was collected.

Ed Russin

On Tikkun Olam day, several families from the synagogue, including many children, one baby, and a dog, went to the John L. Montgomery Nursing Home, located in Freehold. Each family chose one or more residents to visit, as we circulated among the three floors of the facility. The residents, both senior citizens and young adults, were thrilled to have our company. In addition, the staff was extremely accommodating and helpful.

The success of our visit was highlighted by the wonderful displays of friendliness, compassion, and selfless lack of fear shown by the children, as well as the incredible patience, gentleness, and affection of the dog.

Thanks to all of the families who participated in this event, and a special thank you to Iris and Irwin Misshula, who had the wonderful idea to bring along their delightful dog, Molly!

We had a second visit to the nursing home on December 5, 1999, for Temple Rodeph Torah's third annual Hanukkah celebration. This was, once again, a resounding success and brought smiles to the faces of the residents and the TRT members who participated. For information on future visits we are planning, please call me at 972-5758.

Sincerely,
Jessica Kahan

The fall Food Drive was held on November 21st. All of our volunteers were enthusiastic and once again we were very successful. We collected almost 70 frozen turkeys which were donated to the Open Door Food Pantry in Freehold. For the most part, people were very generous. We asked people to buy one extra item to help feed the needy. Many people bought and donated large bags full of food. There was joy in their giving and many people thanked us for being there to collect and distribute the food. We will again hold a food drive in March. We hope that you will join us as we continue to collect food to help our local food pantries.

On November 28th, I had the good fortune to work with my daughter, Michelle, as a volunteer at the Asbury Park soup kitchen. It was an incredible experience to help feed over 100 men, women, and children. Everyone was grateful for our help and we both left with very warm feelings. This wonderful experience is available to all.

RTSY - Senior Youth Group

I can't believe it is snowing as I write this article for RTSY! While looking ahead in the Winter calendar, I see some great things happening. Michelle Cooper, our Religious and Cultural Vice President, has edited what is sure to be an incredible creative service on Friday, January 21, 2000. The service will explore "why we do what we do," and should be a great evening.

In February, RTSY will hold our annual Shul-In. We invite other temple youth groups from all over the region to come to our shul and learn a bit, have some great fun, and try to get some sleep.

And coming in the mail in the next week or two: applications for Hagagiah Conclave, which will be held in Nyack, New York, in early March. It is never too early to get the word out!

And don't forget: the Purim Carnival is coming!!!

Please look in the back of this Newsletter for information on the "LOX BOX" fundraiser we are holding in January!

Is your high school-age child looking for an incredible summer program for 2000? Well do I have some ideas you should consider. NFTY in Israel, NFTY Mitzvah Corps, Camp Harlam, and Kutz Leadership Academy are some of the experiences that RTSYites past and present are doing. These are opportunities that only come one time in your life. For more information on these and any events or general questions, please email me at rbear@dti.net.

Hello, Temple Rodeph Torah!

This is JiLL Finkelstein, the Rodeph Torah Senior Youth Group President, reporting on the status of the youth group. I am happy to say that the youth group has had many successful events since the start of the school year. We have done things such as apple picking and pie making (our pies came out wonderful), a Crop Walk, Dinner and a Movie Night, and more. We are currently working on our Creative Service, which will be led on Friday, January 14th. We hope you will attend. We are also planning a youth group sleep-over in the temple, called a Shul-In, for Saturday, February 5 - Sunday, February 6.

I am sorry to have to say that our membership has declined this year. We are working hard to make this year a fun success, but without new members it is very difficult! We want to meet new people. Please consider joining the youth group (or convincing your high school-age child to join). If you want any information or have any questions, feel free to contact me at 972-4577. Looking forward to meeting you!

CARING COMMUNITY

Performing in October, our Traveling Talent Show was at the Liberty Manor Assisted Living Residence in Englishtown. The children and teenagers who volunteered expressed a range of artistic and creative talents. Allie and Brooke Cohen, ages 10 and 8, choreographed their own hip-hop dances along with Samantha and Jessica Breuer. Samantha and Jessica also displayed their artwork and everyone was so excited to see it. Also performing a dance, to a Shania Twain song, was Nicole Landesman. Our brilliant singers included Danielle Feinstein, who sang a variety of songs and led a number of sing-alongs. Jennifer Kaye, 13, sang "Memory" from Cats and some other beautiful songs, accompanied by her mother, Elise, on keyboard. In addition, Marissa Wajngold sang "Because You Love Me," and Laura Davis performed a medley of tunes, including a rendition of "Wouldn't It Be Lovely," English accent and all!

Stephen Rudnick was our vivacious emcee who also kept us organized and motivated. We were also joined by Matthew Davis who enjoyed spending his birthday with us and lending moral support on this happy occasion.

A special thank you to Vivian and Steve Feinstein and Annette Rudnick for all their help on the audio and video portion of the show.

We are in search of new talent. Do you have a picture that you painted or created? Do you have some funny jokes or stories to share with people that would love to hear them? Would you like to sing a little song? We need you! Please call us.

In this Newsletter you will find a form to volunteer for the Caring Community. Please take a minute to see what we need, and how you can help. You will love it if you do!

COLLEGE OUTREACH

The College Outreach Committee has been busy finalizing the address list of our college students and sending out some Hanukkah packages. In addition, we continue to send out birthday cards to our students to let them know that we are thinking of them often. A very special thanks to Lewis Wildman who so graciously donated a large number of birthday cards to the College Outreach Committee so we can keep in touch with our students. We appreciate your support very much.

We hope that school is going well for all of our students. Happy new year to all!

Viewpoint

PEACE – IS THE PRICE TOO HIGH FOR ISRAEL?

Peace is a wonderful word. It conveys a meaning of only good things. Israel is trying very hard to make peace with its neighbors by giving up land. This is unprecedented as far as I know. Countries do not willingly give back what land they have won in a war. Israel is giving back land, but I wonder, what is Israel getting in return?

Israel has made peace with Egypt, but has this been a real peace? In my opinion, when you are at peace with a nation, as we are with Canada, you do not teach your children hatred of the people of the country you are friendly with. Every day in Egyptian newspapers they preach anti-Semitism, hatred of Israel, and have caricatures showing “vile Jews.”

The peace process going on with the Palestinians seems to me to be a farce. Israel is giving up land, but what are the Palestinians giving Israel besides demands? I feel that the United States is pressing a peace that is one-sided. Why has our government not insisted that the Palestinians stop their vicious anti-Israel, anti-Jewish rhetoric? Our first lady stood by and said nothing while Mrs. Arafat was accusing the Jews of a type of blood libel. Hatred of Israel and the Jews is taught in the Palestinian schools, to students of every age. They are purposely raising their children to hate the people in Israel that their government is making peace with. This is a false peace. It will only be temporary. Is Israel ready to give up the Golan Heights and for what purpose? The Syrians shelled Israel from that vantage point. What will stop them from beginning the shelling again?

Jerusalem is a city so sacred to us. We pray every year for “next year in Jerusalem.” When Jerusalem was held by Arabs, they would not let Jews in to our sacred city. Now that we hold Jerusalem, and have opened it to everyone, the Palestinians want a piece of the city. Our government will not recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. They insist we give up a piece of our capital to satisfy the people who supported our enemies during World War II and during Desert Storm. Why are we expected to reward these people with part of Jerusalem?

I want Israel to be at peace. I understand that peace means compromise. It bothers me that the only compromising seems to be coming from Israel.

Torah Today

A Brief Summary of Each Week's Torah Portion

Shabbat 1/1

Parashat Shemot, Exodus 1:1-6:1

Summary by Marc Waldman

Those from the House of Jacob who immigrated to Egypt passed away. The succeeding generations thrived numerically, which frightened the Egyptian rulers. They feared that the Israelites might join potential enemies and bring down the Egyptian kingdom. The rulers took various steps to keep the Israelites down: oppressive labor and population control. In this environment, Moses is born and raised within the Egyptian ruling household. After striking down an oppressor of the Israelites, Moses leaves Egypt. After his encounter with God, Moses returns to Egypt to seek the freedom of the Israelites.

Shabbat 1/7-8

Parashat Va'era, Exodus 6:2-9:35

Summary by Lori Spett

God hears the cries of the Israelites in slavery, speaks to Moses and Aaron, and instructs them to deliver the Israelites from Egypt. Pharaoh will not let them leave, even when God brings the first plagues. Pharaoh sees God's power and Moses asks God to stop. But each time, Pharaoh changes his mind and will not let the Israelites leave.

Shabbat 1/14-15

Parashat Bo, Exodus 10:1-13:26

Summary by Bonnie M. Sugarman

God brings the plague of the locusts to Egypt when Pharaoh refuses to let all the Israelites leave. Pharaoh apologizes, but still refuses to let them take their flocks with them, so God plans the final plague — the slaying of the first-born Egyptians. The Israelites must place blood of a lamb on their doorposts, so God will pass over them when the plague strikes. They are to observe this as a festival, to remember how God brought them out of bondage, and to eat unleavened bread for seven days. The plague comes in the night, and the Israelites quickly depart Egypt after 430 years of slavery.

Shabbat 1/21-22

Parashat Beshallah, Exodus 13:17-17:16

Summary by Cheryl Glasser

God leads the Israelites out of Egypt. Pharaoh finds out, and goes after them. The Israelites see the Egyptians chasing them and fear for their lives. God instructs Moses to split the sea so the Israelites can cross on dry land; and to turn the bitter water sweet, so they can drink it. God tests the Israelites by providing meat and bread so long as they take enough for one day and not save any. When they disobey, the food becomes infested. On the sixth day, they take double so they have enough for the Sabbath and it doesn't spoil.

Shabbat 1/28-29

Parashat Yitro, Exodus 18:1-20:23

Summary by Lois Korman

Moses was responsible for adjudicating all disputes that arose among the people. His father-in-law, Jethro, sees that this was an onerous and virtually impossible task, so he suggests having minor disputes decided by honorable men, with Moses adjudicating only the most difficult issues. Moses does so, thereby alleviating much of his burden as moral guardian.

After traveling for three months, the people arrive at Sinai. Adonai tells Moses to convey, "If you will obey Me faithfully and keep My covenant, you shall be My treasured possession among all the peoples." The Israelites must stay pure for two days. On the third day, as they approach Mount Sinai, there is thunder, lightning, a loud blast, and a dense cloud upon the mountain. Adonai allows only Moses and Aaron to come to the mountaintop to receive the Ten Commandments.

JEWISH LITERACY CHALLENGE

As Rabbi Weber discussed on Yom Kippur, we challenge every temple member to read one Jewish book in the next four months, and join us for a discussion on January 30th.

This program is open to the entire community, without charge.

The Challenge: The Chosen, by Chaim Potok

Few stories offer more warmth, wisdom, or generosity than this tale of two boys, their fathers, their friendship, and the chaotic times in which they live. Though on the surface it explores religious faith—the intellectually committed as well as the passionately observant—the struggles addressed in The Chosen are familiar to families of all faiths and in all nations.

To accept the Literacy Challenge, please complete the attached form and return it to the temple. We will be happy to order the book for you, or you may purchase it on your own.

YES, I ACCEPT THE JEWISH LITERACY CHALLENGE!

This fall's challenge: The Chosen, by Chaim Potok.

I will read the book between now and Sunday, January 30th, and I will come to the discussion group on that date.

The discussion will be from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; refreshments will be served.

TEMPLE RODEPH TORAH OF WESTERN MONMOUTH

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

We are pleased to offer Daytime Adult Education

Mondays, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m.

☆ BEGINNING LEVEL: "LESSONS FROM THE TALMUD FOR EVERYDAY LIVING"

Rabbi Don Weber

The Talmud is the source for so much of what we call Judaism, yet it is also so complex that it baffles anyone who cannot devote a lifetime to understanding it. How do we approach this Jewish treasure, so it does not remain the exclusive world of the yeshiva student?

A new book, Swimming in the Sea of Talmud, offers us the opportunity to begin dipping our toes into this work, without fearing that we will drown. Presented as a series of "lessons for everyday living," it offers a Jewish perspective on our lives — the lives we lead, and the lives we would like to lead. The book explores the relevance of ancient lessons to modern life, and will be our pathway to discussion of both the ancient and the modern in our lives.

If you have always said that you are too old to begin Jewish study, this course will prove that you are only too old if you choose not to learn. Join us as we begin to learn together

Members: No fee. Non-Members: $100. The texts can be purchased online or at Bookeeze, Yorktowne Shopping Center, Manalapan.

Classes will meet on alternate Mondays, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m., beginning November 1st.

To register, please complete this form and return it to the temple office.

Mr. Ed Rusin
Temple Rodoph Torah
P.O. Box 125
Marlboro, NJ 07746

Dear Mr. Rusin:

Please accept our heartfelt gratitude to you and the other participants whose willingness to hold a food drive benefited the FoodBank of Monmouth and Ocean Counties. Your very generous collection of 1,827 pounds of assorted food will be distributed to several of our 285 member charities, which include soup kitchens, homeless shelters, homes for abused or disabled children, church and synagogue pantries and other emergency feeding programs throughout our two counties.

Last year, the foodbank distributed over two million pounds of food to the needy in the communities we serve. It is because of people like you, that we are able to continue to grow and to make a difference in the fight to end hunger in our time.

We are truly grateful to you and the other participants who support the foodbank and its programs. Your commitment to those less fortunate serves as an example for us all.

Sincerely,

Nichele Hostler

Does it matter if your funeral home is independent & locally owned?

It should..At most corporately-owned firms, costs are substantially higher...than the local independent firms, and the large corporations have begun to buy funeral homes right here in our area.... in Manalapan and Old Bridge, in fact!

What is the UAHC?

We see it on our Temple stationery; we proclaim it on our masthead; we are invited to participate in its biennial—what is it?

It is the Union of American Hebrew Congregations known as the UAHC. It is the umbrella organization for over 850 Reform congregations in the United States, Canada, and the Virgin Islands. What does it do?

It, the Union, does many things for us that no individual or small group of congregations could do for themselves.

It links us with other Reform congregations in our area and in North America. Together we find new and effective ways to improve our Temple.

It provides valuable tools and materials about everything from social action programs to synagogue management, from attracting new members to youth programming, from outreach to dues structure.

It provides mechanisms through which we may access our Movement's rabbis, educators, and administrators when we need to hire new staff or get information.

It is responsible for many of the books and curricula we use in our religious school, as well as for a wealth of books, tapes, and videos about Judaism in the synagogue and Judaism in our homes.

It created and now funds the Religious Action Center in Washington, D.C. through which the collective voice of Reform Jews is heard on issues of conscience.

It runs nine camps across the country that provide a fantastic Jewish camping experience for our children.

It sponsors summer educational experiences for adults.

It provides a rabbinic aide training program for congregations too small to have a full time rabbi or for larger congregations where the rabbi needs assistance.

The UAHC is funded by its member congregations. Part of our UAHC dues goes to fund the Hebrew Union College—Jewish Institute of Religion (HUC—JIR). At the HUC—JIR campus, future Reform rabbis, cantors, educators, social workers, communal workers, and administrators are trained. HUC—JIR also offers programs, lectures, and concerts which are open to all.

What we, as individuals and as a temple, gain from our UAHC membership is far greater than what we put in.

How do I become an organ donor?

The completion of a donor card from the UAHC Committees on Older Adults and Bio-Ethics will allow you to become an organ donor. The Uniform Anatomical Gift Act of 1969 (USA) gives you the right to sign such a card. Patients who receive organs are chosen based upon many factors and are matched via need through a computerized system.

Before you sign, please discuss this with your family. Share this decision with them as they are an important part of the process. Discuss the decision with your rabbi. Make sure that your health care providers are informed. Carry the signed and witnessed donor card with you.
