AN EVENING TO BE REMEMBERED

"The hearts of the parents shall be turned toward the children and the hearts of the children toward the parents," is a biblical quote which was as truthful as it is poetic on a Friday evening celebrating the twenty-second birthday celebration of Israel's Independence.

True, there was joy because of the occasion. But a very special quality of warmth and affection permeated the service and the celebration that followed. Parents and children sang together and danced together and chatted and even quipped with one another. It was delightful.

I think of similar opportunities that are provided here at Temple and are so often wasted, when the so-called generation gap can be literally obliterated for at least an hour or two. The memories, however, often linger on in the hearts of parents and in the hearts of children, perhaps for a lifetime.

MORE ON RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

We are very proud of our 17 Religious School teachers (there is still one position to be filled). Five of our teachers are professional, fully qualified to teach in secular school, six are certified by the U. A. H. C., and three of these satisfy both categories. We have one guidance counselor, one lawyer, one law school student, a director with the Jewish Welfare Board, one Israeli, one artist, one vocational guidance counselor and several are working towards certification in secular and/or religious school teaching. There are times when our children require extreme patience and understanding. Have you said, "Thank you," to a dedicated teacher lately?

Our 6th Graders and several children from other grades saw "Fiddler On The Roof" on May 17th. Many parents were surprised that they reacted so positively to the subject. The children were prepared weeks ahead of time for the play. There were discussions in class of Shalom Aleichem, the pogroms, shtetl life, the Jew's personal relationship to God, and they listened to the recording of "Fiddler". On May 24th this unit of study will culminate with a "shtetl" party. There will be Jewish foods, the children will be in appropriate dress and some Yiddish will be spoken.

Our 9th Graders have enjoyed a most exciting year. They honored their teacher, Mr. Myron Berezin, by asking him to continue their course of study beyond the official school closing date. He not only accepted, but offered to do this on a voluntary basis. We are all very grateful.

We look forward to welcoming several new members to our Religious School staff: Mr. George Grant, Mr. & Mrs. Marc Staenberg, and Mrs. Alan Kaufman. Mr. Grant is an elementary school teacher in Parsippany with 14 years experience teaching religious school. He will be one of our 5th Grade teachers. Mr. Marc Staenberg comes to us highly recommended by Cantor (Rock Service) Aronson of Sharey Tefilla. He will begin Rutgers Law School this year and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is very enthusiastic about his 7th Grade assignment. Mrs. Staenberg has just completed work on her Master's Degree in History at Rutgers and will be teaching at the Morris County Community College. She will be another one of our 5th Grade teachers. Mrs. Kaufman is a vocational counselor and working towards her Master's Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling. She will be our 3rd Grade Hebrew Specialist.

We also welcome as office assistants for next year, Marc Ward and Ian Miller.

Our New Principal And School Administrator

We are proud and pleased to officially announce that Pauline Tannenbaum has already assumed her post as Religious School Principal and Administrator. Pauline needs no introduction. She has won the affection of the overwhelming majority of our pupils as well as adults. We feel confident that she will, as she has in the past 11 years of being associated as a teacher and Hebrew Specialist, bring her dedication and talents to enhance and develop our Religious School program both in spirit and content. Pauline is one of our first teachers to be certified, has acquired a B.A. and M.A. and is also licensed by the State of New Jersey.

Now that we have such a fine person at the Religious School helm, we would ask of our membership that they help her to conserve her energies by refraining from calling her at her home on Religious School matters. She will be at the Temple every day from 1 - 5 P.M. as well as on Saturday and Sunday mornings. She can be contacted here.

We wish Pauline much success in her new post.

ISRAEL BOND DINNER

A large attendance from Temple B'nai Or membership is expected at the Annual Dinner of the Morristown Campaign for the State of Israel Bonds. The Dinner will be held on Sunday, June 7th at 6:00 P.M. at the Saltz Hotel in Mt. Freedom. There will be a cocktail reception at 5:30 P.M. Sam Hollander and Justin Wayne are the co-chairmen for Temple B'nai Or. Mr. David Schoenbrun, the noted foreign correspondent, will be the guest speaker. The event will be a testimonial in honor of Dr. Edward I. Kessler. Reservations and further information are available through the Temple office or a member of the campaign committee.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN NOTE

If information about your Temple activities was not included in this month's Bulletin, please understand that we waited anxiously until the deadline - the 13th of the month. We were disappointed not to have heard from you.

SUMMER SERVICES

Friday, June 26th, will mark the last formal Friday evening service of the year. Shabbat services will, however, continue, but in abbreviated form. This year we shall introduce a new format so that the service, while remaining brief, will also be interesting.

We hope you will continue your friendships within the class as well as with the Temple.

WE LOVE YOU - BUT . . .

We wish to have our building busy and bustling at any hour of day and evening because we love people. Our library, sanctuary, and rooms are always open. We ask that you not visit the outer office except for business purposes. Our secretary is overworked and overburdened and wishes to use her limited time to the best advantage.

HIGH SCHOOL - COLLEGE MAILING

Because we want very much to keep in touch with our young people when they leave for college, we ask that you send to the Temple office (or call in) the name of your youngster who will be attending college next year, the name of their college, and, if known, their new address. Last year Temple B'nai Or Sisterhood sponsored two special mailings to our college youth. At Chanukah time they were each sent a small menorah and candles. For Pesach they were each sent a tin of maccaroons. The lovely and numerous thank you notes indicated that this was a very worthwhile and well received project. We want to be sure that all our college students are included in mailings for next year.

MIDWINTER VACATION

Enjoy a midwinter vacation and participate in a Sisterhood project. A weekend at Homowack should ease midwinter doldrums. Plan on coming to Homowack the weekend of January 29, 1971. You may pay-as-you-go, and Lee Lissak will do your bookkeeping. Mail your checks to her, or call 538-6010, if you need more information. Deluxe accommodations for two are $116. You can't afford to pass it up!

SISTERHOOD INSTALLATION

Sisterhood Installation on May 18th was a great blending of old and new - members who have worked for a numbers of years and those who have recently joined us attended in large numbers. Sisterhood's new President is Mrs. Philip Korman. Wall Street may be worried, but Sisterhood displayed confidence as a $1,000 check was received from the Nursery School and a $4,000 check was presented by Art-O-Rama. In turn, Sisterhood made the first payment of $3,000 on their Building Fund Pledge. Pearl Schlossman received Sisterhood's Golden Award. Mrs. Byron Nierenberg received a warm welcome for her dramatic reading.

SOCIAL ACTION

Young adults of 18-20 are invited to membership in the League of Women Voters. Contact Mrs. Gunther Wertheim of 175 Woodland Ave., Convent, for information or Mrs. Edward Gunther (539-3709). Here's your chance to do something political.

TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP

After Night-Clubbed Supper, eveningsong, Shul-In, Saul Swanger, Dating Game, bi-racial encounter, Broadway, filmfest, Warwick retreat, Fashion Show, Rabbi night, Succah building, day-care affair, service conducting - - - we formally conclude on the 20th of June with a JFTY Shore Blast. Specifics to follow.

In a September 3rd letter to members, I wrote, "The Youth Group must be a forum - vibrant, challenging, fun, sharing - if it is to be at all." As outgoing President, let me affirm that that has been a collective aim - for us as Jewish youth.

Arnie Cheskin, President
Temple Senior Youth Group

JFTY CONCLAVE

On the weekend of May 15-17, five members of our Senior Youth Group attended a JFTY Conclave at Temple Israel in South Orange.

Our own Marc Gruber won the JFTY Sermonette Contest and was also elected to the Board of JFTY. The title of Marc's sermonette is: "For God Said, 'When Thou Givest Sustenance To The Poor, It Is Sustenance Unto Me'." Marc will now enter national competition with his sermon. We're proud of Marc for his wonderful achievement.

NURSERY SCHOOL

Temple Nursery can use a redwood picnic table and benches for the children to use outdoors. If you have one to donate, kindly contact the chairmen.

At this time there are two openings in the morning session and several in the afternoon session for the 1970-71 school year. The committee is pleased to announce that Mrs. Ruth Lieb will return as Director and Mrs. Helen Bernstein, Mrs. Barbara Boyd, & Mrs. Marilyn Katz as teachers. Information on enrollment may be obtained from the chairmen.

Nursery School equipment is being abused and removed from the premises by our young people with spare time in the building. We would appreciate parents impressing upon their children the proper regard for Temple property!

The Grapes of Wrath still grow in California.

The men and women who pick table grapes in California and Arizona earn less than $2,000 a year on the average. Can you imagine raising a family these days on an average income of less than $40 per week?

Please don't buy grapes at your fruit stand or supermarket. Please ask other members of your family and your friends not to buy grapes.

The farm workers are proud people. They do not want charity. They want to work hard picking grapes, but they want a living wage to support their families.

If you see grapes in the store, please protest to the manager.

The protections of the National Labor Relations Act are not available to farm workers, as they are to other workers. The grape boycott is our only weapon to convince the vineyard owners that they must treat grape workers as human beings. $40.00 a week is shameful.

Millions of Americans are expressing their feelings to the vineyard owners by not buying grapes, by protesting to the managers of stores, and by refusing to buy any groceries in stores which continue to offer grapes from California and Arizona.

PLEASE DON'T BUY CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA GRAPES.

Your cooperation in this boycott will force the vineyard owners to pay the pickers a living wage! Thank you for reading this information.
