MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

You're Invited to the Wedding

On October 20, at 4:00 P.M., Temple B'nai Or will be celebrating a very special event and we hope that you and your family will be there. It is a wedding, but not just any wedding. This wedding is part of the drama being played out in the world Jewish community as we welcome our new Russian brothers and sisters from the Soviet Union with their Jewish heritage and the beauty of Jewish life.

One way we are doing this is through this celebration. This will be the second wedding for our wedding couple, Jacob and Alla Garner - two of the sweetest people you will ever meet. Their first was in a Soviet municipal building, under the portraits of the leaders of the Soviet Revolution. Unable to learn about or practice Judaism freely, their lives were lived as people of Jewish nationality, with none of the wisdom or comfort offered by the Jewish heritage. But this time it will be different. This time they will "retake their vows," under the chuppah as they put their lives and their love under the protective shelter of Jewish life.

And on that same day, dozens of Russian couples will celebrate their first Jewish weddings as part of the Jewish Federation's Exodus II Project. They will share their joy with their new Jewish families in New Jersey and thus call attention to the tremendous work that is still to be done in the resettlement of the former "Jews of Silence" who are silent no more.

Exodus II, the campaign to raise the funds needed to house, train and educate the Russian Jews, is in need of our constant support. Imagine your own grandparents, or whoever came to the shore of this country as immigrants. What would you have done to help them, given the opportunity? Our generation has the opportunity -- and the sacred obligation -- to give of ourselves and be part of the ongoing work of the redemption of the Jewish People right here in our own backyards.

So come celebrate and participate in this joyous event in the life of our Temple! And give what you can to make the American Jewish dream a reality for these new immigrants.

There are so many who have helped to put this wedding together and to support the families that have been under Temple B'nai Or sponsorship. Of special note are Elaine Menkes and Fran Stern, who have worked diligently to do what they could to make the lives of these families as comfortable as was possible. Thanks to you all!

— Rabbi Don Rossoff

P.S. In the category of "so much to do and so little time," let us not forget that earlier on October 20, will be the annual Morris County Crop Walk to raise consciousness and money for the hungry of our community. I encourage you to join the Crop Walk and then meet us later at the Temple for the Wedding.

THOUGHTS FROM THE CANTOR

Our year is underway and I hope that to date it has been a good one for you and your family. It was a thrill and pleasure to be with you and to meet many of you over the High Holiday period. I now have a fuller picture of the B'nai Or family. Thank you for your warm reception.

It was an honor to share the bimah with Rabbi Rossoff and I want to thank him for his kindness and help. I also want to thank Alice Maleski for her help in preparing the High Holiday music and her unfailing assistance at the organ, and the professional Choir for their outstanding singing and musicianship. Hopefully you have noticed my flyer and bulletin ad concerning the Adult Volunteer Choir. I hope many of you will consider joining what promises to be a community of its own. In the choir we shall sing, learn and pray. It will be a fun way for us to get to know one another as we create together in a warm, relaxed setting. All you need to join is the desire to sing and learn. It's not about great voices and musicianship, although along the way I shall be glad to teach you some of that if you want. If you are not sure if the choir is for you, come and try it out for a couple of weeks and then decide. Regardless of whether you join the Adult Volunteer Choir or not, I shall leave you with some words which, as seeds, you are to plant in your minds and mouths:

Sing, O Congregants of B'nai Or!

Be joyful, O Congregants of B'nai Or!

Break forth into song, O Congregants of B'nai Or!

— Cantor Deborah Staiman

feeling of what it was like being Jewish at other times and in other places. Just as the Haggadah and Passover create and re-create the experience of the Exodus, The Jewish Experience will create an "I also..." exploration of that which has been the history of our people. By having learners participate in the "root-experiences" which affected our ancestors, students will come to see how what happened then affects us today as Jews. With this new knowledge we are certain that as our students mature they will be able to make more informed decisions which will help to ensure the survival of the Jewish people.

In addition to The Jewish Experience, new curriculum has been developed in Grades Five and Six. A new Life Cycle curriculum has been introduced in the Fifth Grade which focuses on life cycle events as observed within the Reform tradition. As a part of the preparation for Bar/Bat Mitzvah, students in Grade Six will participate in a program entitled, "Thirteen Mitzvot" in which students and their families will work together to achieve thirteen mitzvot during the year in three categories: Torah, Worship and Acts of Loving Kindness.

We are in the business of helping to create educated Jews. This is an evolutionary and lifelong process. In Deuteronomy 4:9 we are told, "Just as a person is required to teach his child, so, too, is he required to teach his grandchild, as the verse states. And make these things known to your children and to your grandchildren." We hope that through the ongoing re-evaluation and improvement of our curriculum, and with your continued support we will join together to fulfill this commandment.

EDUCATION IN ACTION

Erich Fromm tells us, "Education means to acquaint the young with the best heritage of the human race. But while much of this heritage is expressed in words, it is effective only if these words become reality in the person of the teacher and in the practice and structure of society. Only the idea which has materialized in the flesh can influence man." We learn in the Talmud that "Whoever teaches his son teaches not alone his son, but also his son's son, and so on to the end of generations."

Because we believe in this philosophy, the Religious School of Temple B'nai Or has restructured the curriculum of the Seventh Grade. We have created The Jewish Experience, a new and exciting course of study which teaches that the central problems of Jewish life, today in America, remain fundamentally the same as they were for our ancestors. It begins by having the student focus on what it feels like to be Jewish in the 1990's and then poses the question, "How did we get to be what we are?" Through the use of simulation, games, role-play, film clips, investigation, discussion and other methods of informal education, we hope to conjure up the

KIDDUSH CLUB MEMBERS

Would you like to participate in a Friday evening service by leading the congregation in Kiddush? Did you know that leading Kiddush is a mitzvah and a Kavod (Honor)? A new program, sponsored by the Religious School, and open to students in Grades four, five, six and seven, The Kiddush Club is for those students who can demonstrate their ability to read or sing the full Shabbat Kiddush using a copy of the text Hebrew only (no transliterations). Students who complete this challenge successfully will be able to add their name to the listing of Kiddush Club Members, will receive a Kiddush Club Membership Card, will have their name printed in the Bulletin and will be eligible to sign up to lead Kiddush at specified Friday night services. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Gaidemak for further details.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Freshly transformed and inspired by the High Holy Days as well as the celebration of Succot, we are likely to return to our regular routines. Happily, for a growing number of Temple members, regular weekly activities frequently include participation in Temple programs...programs as varied as Tot Shabbat on October 12th to the Brighton Beach evening out on October 26th.

This year, you will be able to take advantage of more opportunities to make Temple B'nai Or your second home. As Rabbi Rossoff has noted, our theme for the year is "COME HOME TO TEMPLE", and we will be working very hard to encourage you to be an active member of the congregation.

Just consider the possibilities and join us for services that renew the spirit of Torah and activities that teach, sing, inspire, assist, challenge, broaden, and plain enjoy. The only real limitation is the loss by non-participation. We offer so much and ask only that you join us...and for your help as an active member of a committee of your choice. By "Working Together" we can work wonders. Join us as a volunteer in the office or as part of a favorite program...the choice is yours. As it is said in the Talmud:

Be wise not only in words, but in deeds.

OUTREACH

The Commission on Reform Jewish Outreach has stated, "From the 1950's until now, there has been an increase in the rate of intermarriage. Some researchers say that the figure is as high as 40%. As a response to this reality, the Reform Movement initiated its Outreach Program in the late 1970's. Outreach is a concerted effort on the part of the Reform Movement to welcome and support those individuals who choose to identify as Jews by reason of a Jewish parent, by conversion, or by identification with the Jewish community via a spouse, relative, or individual decision." Our Temple B'nai Or Outreach Community is in desperate need of both a committee chair person, and those interested in volunteering their time to this very important area of Jewish life. Please contact Rabbi Rossoff at 539-4539.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Rabbi Rossoff served on the faculty this summer at the Reform Movement's Camp Harlam and was Dean of the Jersey Federation of Temple Youth (JFTY) Summer Conclave.

Elaine B. Gaidemak, Director of Education, recently attended CAJE (Coalition for Alternatives in Jewish Education) held at Hofstra University. Participating in workshops given by some of the foremost Jewish Educators in the country, she has brought back many new programming ideas for the further enrichment of our Religious School.

YOUTH GROUP

Meet Our New Youth Group Advisor

Temple B'nai Or. is pleased to announce the appointment of MS. SUE M. HANOVER as Advisor to the Temple's Senior Youth Group (high schoolers) and the Junior Youth Group (seventh and eighth graders.) Ms. Hanover will also serve on the faculty of the Monday Night High School.

We are indeed fortunate to have someone of her character, background and experience working with our youth. Ms. Hanover received her B.A. at Emory University (Developmental Psychology and Judaic Studies) and her Masters of Education at Temple University (Recreation and Leisure Studies). For the past two years, Ms. Hanover has served as Assistant Director of the Reform Movement's Camp Harlam where she had also been the Athletic Director. During this time, she also had tremendous success as the NFTY Advisor to the Pennsylvania Area Federation of Temple Youth (PAFTY.) In addition, she has extensive teaching experience with seventh and eighth graders and worked as Youth Group Advisor at Temples in Atlanta and Cherry Hill. As Youth Group Advisor, Sue will work with the Boards of the Senior and Junior Youth Groups to create a well-rounded program for each group which will combine social activities, fun, informal Jewish learning, fun, social action and fun. She will also work closely with our own Temple's Youth Committee, now in formation. If you would like to make sure that your child(ren) is on the Youth Group list and/or would like to be part of the Youth Committee, please call the Temple.

SISTERHOOD IN OCTOBER

AUTUMN ACTIVITY ABOUNDS

Our PAID-UP DINNER is only a week away and our excitement has really been building! Thanks to Susie Schub's planning, CINDY ADAMS will be here to share the scoop on the lifestyles of the rich and famous! The Cooking Committee, headed by Stacey Schlosser, has been busy arranging hors d'oeuvres, entrees and desserts for everyone to enjoy that evening. A Chinese Auction, under Fran Rossoff's direction, will be a ball! Please plan to be with us on October 8th at 6:30 p.m. so that you don't miss any of it. RSVP's are MANDATORY, so call the Temple office immediately. Though Cindy Adams may be the star that night, the paid up VIP's are YOU, our Sisterhood members, so come and enjoy the party we've planned to honor and thank YOU!

Speaking of memorable meals, the GOURMET CLUB kicks off Oct. 19th. Call Vicki Nelson at 455-1056 for details of this great group now in its 2nd delicious year!

What's PARENTING CENTER? Glad you asked! The Parenting Center is a new program at B'nai Or and it will be defined by the needs of our members. To kick off, Bonnie Hyken, Temple member and social worker, will present a participatory workshop on BUILDING YOUR CHILD'S SELF-ESTEEM. This will take place on Tuesday, October 15th. Following that meeting, there will be a sign up for parenting groups, which will meet the next 4 Tuesdays. These groups will have both a Parent Education component and also give an opportunity to find support with other parents of similarly-aged children. We are trying to form groups for parents of school-aged children, parents of adolescents, and parents of pre-schoolers. Our fliers give you more detail on enrollment and attendance and any other questions can be answered by Bonnie, Pat Schreiber, or myself, Barbara Ackerman.

Joint Events begin in earnest this month with Deb Sprung coordinating Sisterhood's efforts. And how those efforts pay off in October for us all! First, Men's Club, Renaissance and Sisterhood team, through the enthusiasm of Judy Jaffe and Marcia Schran, to bring you an evening in Brighton Beach at Little Odessa on October 26th.

Family Breakfasts with the Men's Club begin on October 27th at 9:30. Babysitting will be provided after a sumptuous family meal so that you can really sink your teeth into the speaker.

The whole MetroWest community is involved in a joint celebration on October 20th at a congregational Russian Wedding. Plan to join us at B'nai Or for this wonderful event. If anyone would like to help in Sisterhood's effort to provide an oneg table of baked goods, please get in touch with Stacey Schlosser.

Re: "Teacher For An Hour" Program

Our 11th/12th Grade Program, called ORIM -- Lights, meets on the second Monday of each month in conjunction with Senior Youth Group. During the first hour students meet, eat and socialize as they discuss Youth Group business; the second hour is spent with a member of the clergy studying Jewish philosophical thought; and, the third hour is devoted to the study of topics of interest to the students themselves. The last hour will utilize knowledgeable members of the Temple community as discussion leaders who will become a "Teacher For An Hour".

Developing the ORIM curriculum is a time consuming and detailed procedure. Our goal is to create a program of learning which will be progressive, ever expanding, age appropriate yet non-repetitive. At the same time we hope to provide the broadest knowledge base possible for our students in conformance with the precepts of Reform Judaism. We cannot teach our students to become scholars--time does not permit--but we can do our best to provide them with the best opportunity for education.

We urge you to search your talents and skills to determine if you have an area of expertise which will not only interest our ORIM students, but which you would be willing to share with them. If you have not already submitted your name to us, please take time to complete the form below and return it to the school office as soon as possible. We will keep your skills on file and use them to help plan our program.

FAMILY SERVICES IN THE SANCTUARY

If you haven't been to a family service yet, you do not know what you are missing! Our congregation fills the sanctuary, and its balcony, with generations of its many families. The service itself is shorter, abundant with music and singing. We wish all our members with birthdays our heartiest wishes by calling them to the Bima. Then the children join the Rabbi & our new Cantor on the Bima, after much joyous marching around the Temple with the Torah. With each passing month, the children look forward more and more to this special service but, if you attend, you will see the people smiling the most proudly, the most excitedly, are the parents. It is their children who are sharing in, and being shown, some of the best of what being Jewish is about!

OCTOBER 6TH

BREAKFAST WITH RABBI ROSOFF

Join us in attending this delightful morning breakfast series where parents and children can hear about an issue of importance in Jewish life and discuss it with our Rabbi.

OCTOBER 13TH TOT SHABBAT

Do you have a child up to 5 years of age? Then we have a wonderful service geared to you and your family! The Tot Shabbat program will be held the 2nd Saturday of each month this year, in conjunction with our Pre-Kindergarten.
