MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

Temple B'nai Or - Our Jewish Headquarters

Friends, it has been a busy year for us all. Here in our Jewish Headquarters, we have shared moments of prayer and of learning, great scholars like Rabbi Gunther Plaut and Mr. Al Vorspan, beautiful and inspiring musical moments, exciting new programs in the Religious School, an expanded interest in the African-American Jewish dialogue, the wonderful programs of our affiliate partners, as well as the personal joys and sorrows that accompanied us through the ups and downs of this sacred pilgrimage called life.

Other than our building, there is no such thing as "The Temple." "The Temple" is really us, the people who make up the B'nai Or Family, lay people and professionals working in partnership towards the realization of our mutual vision of the Temple as a caring community and source of Jewish values. Especially in these times in which the Temple is experiencing serious financial challenges with concomitant cutback in personnel we are all the more grateful to those individuals who have put forth 1,000% in the effort to make our Temple life the best it can be. My profound thanks to our terrific staff, those who make it happen around here: Cantor Staiman, Janis Wyatt, Elaine Gaidemak, Zandie Smith, Debbie McCormick, Alice Maleski, Sue Hanover, Miguel Dominguez and, as always, to Rabbi Levy. My deepest thanks also go to all of those office volunteers who gave so unselfishly of their time.

Todah rabbah, as well, to the leadership and membership of the Board of Trustees, Sisterhood, Men's Club, Renaissance and Youth Groups. I hope that, amidst all the often demanding and frustrating work, you have been rewarded with the intrinsic satisfaction and joy that come from being part of an enterprise that stands for something. Together, we are doing holy work, and for this, I thank you all. A special welcome to all of our new officers and Board members, too!

But know, too, that the year is not over. Even though it is summer, we still live Jewish lives. We never take a vacation from being Jewish and living as serious Reform Jews. Shabbat in the summer is still Shabbat, with our informal Friday evening services during July and August beginning at a more convenient time of 7:30 pm.

As always, we welcome your suggestions, remarks and your help. As the budgetary crunch necessitates the loss of precious support staff, we need to rely on each other - on YOU - for the needed support, understanding, and for volunteer work. We have something special at Temple B'nai Or and a vision of service to our diverse community. Working together, we will continue to find ways to elevate the life of the heart, spirit and mind, making the name "Jewish" not just a label but a life.

Torah Digest

June 5-6

Bamidbar: Numbers 1:1 -4:20

This portion begins the book of Bamidbar (In the wilderness). A census is taken of the Israelites, hence the English title of the book, Numbers. The tribes are assigned their encampment positions for the journey to the land of Israel. At the center of the camp will always be the Tabernacle, the physical token of God's presence in their midst. The Levitical families are given their individual responsibilities in the transporting and functioning of the Tabernacle.

June 12-13

Naso: Numbers 4:21 - 7:89

The initiation of the Tabernacle continues with the census of the Levitical families and a description of their ritual responsibilities. Laws concerning Nazirite vows and the suspected adulteress are also given. The sons of Aaron are instructed to pronounce the "Priestly Benediction" over the people: "May the Lord bless you and keep you..."

June 19 -20

Behaalotecha: Numbers 8:1 - 12:16

The Menorah (candelabra) is made and oil is collected for its use. The Israelites set out on their journeys, guided by God's presence, in the form of a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. The people tire of eating manna and want meat. God provides it, yet the people over-eat and become sick. Moses asks for help in leading the people and a council of 70 elders is formed. Moses' siblings, Miriam and Aaron, express jealousy of their brother's preeminence; yet God responds by defending Moses, the most humble and most trusted of all of God's servants.

June 26-27

Shelach Lecha: Numbers 13:1 - 15:41

The people need proof that the Promised Land is the place for them, so God instructs Moses to send one leader from each of the twelve tribes to scout out the land. All return with the report that it is a land "flowing with milk and honey," and yet ten of them are afraid to bring the people there for fear of the powerful local inhabitants. Only Joshua and Caleb have the confidence in God and the people that these stumbling blocks could be overcome. For not wanting to go to the land of Israel, that generation was fated to wander in the desert for forty years until a new generation would arise to take the Israelites into the Promised land.

URGENT PLEA

Our copy machine has served us well but is now at the point where it needs to be replaced. Our financial situation cannot sustain a purchase of this size, so we ask that if you or someone you know no longer has the need for an office copy machine capable of making double sided copies, please have them call Janis Wyatt at 539-4539.

THOUGHTS FROM THE CANTOR

It is hard to believe that my first year at Temple B'nai Or is drawing to an end. It has been a very full and exciting year for me. It has been a pleasure to get to know more and more of you. Your warmth and friendship have been greatly appreciated.

Highlights of the year included sharing our musical heritage with the grade Kindergarten through grade 3. They are a pure delight. It was also a pleasure to teach and prepare the 1992 confirmation Class. They proved to be a very special group of young adults, and I am so glad that I was able to meet them as they now graduate and continue their Jewish lives in their own chosen ways.

I always looked forward to Wednesday nights with the Temple B'nai Or new Adult Volunteer Choir. Hopefully some of you were fortunate enough to hear this committed group of people sing at services or in the concert. They are truly a joy to work with.

I want to thank all of them for their hard work and commitment during the past year. Yasher kochachem. I want to thank Richard Burgh and the Men's Club for so graciously allowing me to share the morning of their gourmet breakfast and present the cantorial concert of the year.

Finally, I want to thank Rabbi Donald Rossoff for his guidance and friendship during the year. Thanks also go to Janis Wyatt and Elaine Gaidemak for their support. May every one of you be granted a wonderful, restful and peaceful summer, and when we meet again in the fall you may return restored and ready to face the challenges that the new year poses.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fair Share . . . Plus . . . Temple's Critical Need

With the joyous music of Cantor Staiman's "A Sephardic Musical Journey," and the congregation's enthusiastic response just an hour old plus the Teacher Recognition Shabbat the preceding Friday, and the enriching Scholar in Residence Weekend with Mr. Al Vorspan, our temple has just celebrated three special events that make Temple B'nai Or the outstanding temple that it is. The Sephardic musical concert, combined with the Men's Club Gourmet breakfast (with the delicious food prepared by our Sisterhood), created a truly enjoyable Sunday. So many congregants commented on our weekend with Al Vorspan, who added to our understanding of the social action dimensions of Reform Judaism.

Our Fourth Grade Shabbaton on Friday, May 1st marked a special milestone for our fourth graders and recognized our outstanding teachers, particularly Mrs. Neil Nierenberg who is retiring this year after completing 32 years of devoted service to Temple B'nai Or.

These events, plus the High Holy Day Services and other special services and programs throughout the year, have been created for the spiritual, educational, social, and personal benefits of our Congregation. Temple B'nai Or offers to each member of our congregation a full range of services, both as individuals with individual needs, and as families within a diverse congregation. The temple staff and the many volunteers who help in so many ways are dedicated to making our temple a "full service" temple. The temple is always there when needed, and each year we try to meet more of your needs. However, as a member of the Congregation, you have a responsibility to help guarantee that our Temple can function properly. We ask for your participation in our Fair Share dues program. As of May 3, over 200 members of our congregation have not responded to our request for your Fair Share dues for the coming year. Fair Share means that each of us declares our own dues within the guidelines. We do not ask for your tax forms; we rely on your willingness to be a "partner" and a full participant in the income side of the temple. We also recognize the current economic situation which has had an impact on some of our families. This situation means that each of us must fulfill our responsibilities to the temple; we can't expect someone else to make up the difference.

You should know that most temples can not operate only on their dues and that fund raising is a critical part of most congregations.

For the coming year, we will be emphasizing a renewed fund raising campaign that is being led by Dr. Barry Efros. Our goal is $100,000 including the Benefactors and Patrons campaign, the annual Bimah Appeal, and new fund raising projects that you will be learning about, for the 1992-1993 fiscal year beginning July 1, 1992. Our minimum target is $75,000 just to meet our budget obligations and to provide the services and programs that make Temple B'nai Or your "full service" temple. We need your support in terms of working with us and helping on committees.

We need our "Fair Share Plus" and we will be most grateful to all who participate in our many programs.

Irv Gozonsky, Temple President

WRAPPING UP - LOOKING AHEAD OR - DETAILS, DETAILS, DETAILS

It is difficult to believe that another year has come to an end. Students and families are thinking about exciting summer plans; faculty and administration are planning new curriculum and programs; all look forward to a well-deserved rest so they can begin next year with great enthusiasm!

Registration for the 1992-1993 school year is well under way. We are most anxious to complete this process as soon as possible so that we can hire staff and purchase books and supplies. During economically difficult times, it is important to have this information so that we can be as responsible as possible. If you have mislaid your forms, please call the school office and request a new registration packet.

We are proud to announce that Arielle Siebert and Karen Gimson were our first graduates of the Madrikhim Program. We wish them well next year. They have served as wonderful role models and we thank them for their dedication.

It has been a wonderful year. Students, faculty, support staff, school board and administration have worked well together. All have been dedicated to the task of excellence in Jewish education. We can all take great pride in the fact that we have achieved this goal. Have a great summer. School opens on Sunday, September 13th. See you then.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

The African-American Jewish Dialogue will meet at Temple on Monday, June 15th, at 7:00 PM. The tentative program is a 30 minute video on African- American and Jewish relationships, followed by a discussion. For more information call Connie Rubin (267-6553).

Please volunteer a few hours of your time to help host our homeless families July 19 - August 2. Call Norm Schnayer (984-7496) or Connie Rubin.

In the May mailing we listed people who have volunteered their time in the past two years to house the homeless at Temple. We inadvertently omitted a few names and would like to acknowledge those volunteers now: Esther Beck, Edith Epstein, David and Phyllis Feinblum and Noah Goldberg.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Rabbi Rossoff recently spoke for the Hope House Buddies Training Program on spiritual responses to AIDS and was on a panel at Morristown Memorial Hospital discussing the use of living wills.

UPDATE ON OUR NEWEST RUSSIAN FAMILY

In response to a plea for assistance for the Reyzin/Barlan family in last month's Temple Bulletin, a number of congregants have stepped forward. Specifically, we asked for assistance in 3 areas: drivers, employment, and a car. We have been successful in providing assistance in these areas because of the involvement of many people in the congregation.

Through the support of the Aresty and Brauer families, Myron Reyzin has obtained a job and been able to purchase a car. I would like to recognize Richard Burgh for taking the initiative to start up a collection which enabled the Temple to loan Myron the money for the purchase of his car. I would also like to thank our volunteers, including, Buddy Hollander, Mimi Levine, Stacey and Bill Schlosser, Bill Blatt, Mildred Brickel, Larry Litwin and many others, for providing driving and other services for our new Russian family. As always, our team leaders for this family, Ken Parker and Raya Pallington, ably coordinated these volunteer efforts.

There are still additional needs and opportunities for congregants to become involved in supporting the resettlement of Russian Jewish families in our community. If you would like to volunteer, please call Rabbi Rossoff.

As I am moving to North Carolina shortly, I am relinquishing my responsibilities as Temple coordinator for Russian Jewish resettlement. This has been a very fulfilling experience for me. I thank all of our volunteers for their assistance and I thank our new Russian families for their friendship which I very much value. I will miss you all.

Mark Werner, Chairperson

The Membership Committee appreciates the wonderful response of the general membership to our flyer requesting names of prospective new members. Please continue to be our eyes and ears. Names of prospective new members should be submitted to the Temple office. Your efforts are greatly appreciated!

JOB NETWORK

There are Temple members, among them our new Russian families, who are in need of employment. This column is a way for them to reach out to our Temple family in the hope that some of us may know of available positions. Often, an individual would be willing to take a job for which he or she may be "overqualified." If you know of an employment opportunity or would like to have a brief resume anonymously listed, please call Rabbi Rossoff.

MEN'S CLUB

It's time to pause and acknowledge all the people who made possible a successful year of Men's Club events.

Our Sunday morning breakfasts are designed to foster a sense of community among our Temple members. They were clearly a success as evidenced by the camaraderie experienced each Sunday morning. On behalf of the Temple, I'd like to thank the following people whose hard work and dedication made this possible: Matthew Sprung, Alan Ginsberg, Harvey Rubin, Stewart Ginsberg, Michael Kolansky, Arthur Klein, Alan Levy, Joseph Henson, Theodore Largman and Sanford Rems.

Many of the parents who attended the Purim carnival commented on the quality of the food we served. Our thanks are owed to Alan Levy who coordinated and administered the food concession. Not only did it provide nourishment for our hard working kids competing at the games, but it also raised money for the Youth Group.

The purpose of Casino Night was to raise funds for the Temple while providing an enjoyable evening. The success of the evening was made possible through the joint efforts of the Men's Club and Sisterhood. Special thanks are owed to Stewart Ginsberg for organizing the event and to the sisterhood for providing delicious appetizers and desserts.

The Men's Club and Sisterhood Gourmet Breakfast was a tremendous success. Thanks are owed to the Sisterhood for their contribution and special thanks to Stacey Schlosser, the Sisterhood Coordinator. Finally, I'd like to thank Gilbert Adelstein, Gary Aidekman, William Blatt, Lee Brodsky, Ted Mendelsohn, and Alan Sollinger for helping to make the Cantorial concert so successful.

On a personal note, I'd like to thank the Men's Club for honoring me with their trust in asking me to be their President. My involvement with the Temple has created a feeling of belonging from which I've derived tremendous satisfaction. As this year closes, I ask you all to take the next step and actively involve yourself in Temple life. Come and experience what we have, that a feeling of belonging does not arise from attending events, but from cooperatively working together in creating them. I look forward to seeing you at the Temple Picnic on June 24, 11:30 am, at the Loantaka Brook Reservation, South Street entrance. I wish you all an enjoyable summer.

Richard W. Burgh, Men's Club President

SENIOR YOUTH GROUP

May was full of adventure for the high school group at the temple. We began the month by participating in the regional fund raiser for JFTY Urban Mitzvah Corps concert in South Orange. This benefit concert by Debbie Friedman was sponsored by the New Jersey Aids Interfaith Network. It began with a moving Havdalah service at which time we group-presented the guilt piece we made for the NAMES Project AIDS Quilt. It read, "Temple B'nai Or Senior Youth Remembers The Children of Israel," and contained a Jewish star, Shabbat candles and a depiction of a globe. Thank you to all of our guilt-workers and to those who joined us at the concert.

Next, we held our elections for the 1992-1993 Executive Board and welcomed in a new group of leaders from the eighth grade (the officers will be announced in the next edition). The new officers met for several hours at the end of the month to plan for the future and participate in a leadership training program. The month was also wrapped up with a special event to welcome the eighth grade students into the Senior Youth Group. Details to follow.

June holds two special events in store for the group:

June 5: The Senior Youth Group service, at which time we will install our new leaders.

June 14: Our "Finale Event" with a trip to New York City. Hold the date and look for details.

JUNIOR YOUTH GROUP

It has been a great year for the 7th and 8th grade students of the Temple B'nai Or Junior Youth Group, and it culminated with a great "Grand Finale" at the home of Josh Zlotkin on May 17. We celebrated with a pool party, casino games, win-lose or draw games and lots of food. We took time to tend to the business of electing a new Board as well. Finally, we welcomed the sixth graders into the group and bid farewell to the eighth graders as they moved on to Senior Youth Group.

The group is very happy with all that we have done this year and are looking forward to another successful year in 1992-1993. Please plan to join us!

YOUTH GROUP SERVICE

On June 5, the Senior Youth Group will conduct its annual service on the theme of "The Jewish Youth: The Future of Judaism". As part of our service, we will install the new Board of the Senior and Junior Youth Groups as well as bid farewell to the outgoing Boards. Please join us and the leaders of our Youth Groups.
