FROM RABBI ROSOFF . . .

WITH MY THANKS...

As we say good-bye to the "old" Temple Board of Trustees and welcome the "new," I want to extend my thanks to Jack Piermont, outgoing Temple President. Jack has served Temple with distinction and dedication for many years; and as President, these qualities truly shined. These last two years have witnessed continued growth of our Temple, financial stability, and new projects which will serve us well for many years to come, not the least of which is our newly rebuilt Samuel Hollander Memorial Garden. My thanks go as well to all those whose dedication and donations are making this dream a reality.

I also want to express my appreciation to the Temple Board of Trustees, those who have completed their terms of office and those whose terms are not yet up. It is your concern, your ideas, your energy and your dedication to Jewish life which help make this Temple what it is.

WELCOME to incoming President Phyllis Feinblum and the officers and trustees who will serve with her. Phyllis has been involved in Temple life for many years, both in Morristown and in Westfield. Part of her wisdom has been in availing herself of the wonderful resources available through the regional and national conventions of the UAHC, Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the national Reform movement. She has helped bring new ideas to the Temple, especially in the areas of worship and membership. We look forward to her vision and her leadership.

I also want to extend my thanks to all those at Temple who help to make it "the warm Reform congregation in the heart of Morristown." The people who work at the Temple to make sure that what needs to be done is done: Secretaries Margaret Murray and Doris Hofman; bookkeeper, Michael Prianti; maintenance staff Dennis Cronk, Jose Modler, and Albert Cronk. They are headed by Carole "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No" Goldberg, the hardest working and most caring Temple Administrator with whom it has ever been my pleasure to work. Temple would not be the same without her warmth and gentle wisdom.

David Iskowitz and all the teachers in the Religious School have given us another wonderful year. Those of us who were led in a beautiful Shabbat Service by our Fourth graders, all of whom were reading their Hebrew from the Siddur, or heard our High School Seniors share their experiences during their graduation from the ORIM program, know that real learning is going on within the walls of our school. And those who will be with us for Confirmation will be equally impressed at the ease with which our students present themselves on the Bima. We are so pleased that the position of Temple Educator has been restored to a full time position, meaning that we will have a great deal more of David's deep commitment both to Jewish learning and to our Jewish families. My thanks go, as well, to Vivian Gibilisco, Junior Youth Group Advisor, and Sheri Gropper, Family Education Coordinator.

Dee Cohen and the teachers in our Pre-School have surpassed themselves once again. Dee's creative and loving presence has brought so much to the Nursery School Families and to the Temple.

And last but not least, Cantor Bruce Benson has added so much on the Bimah, with the Youth Group, with the Bar/Bat Mitzvah students and in so much more.

President's Message

This article will be my last presidential column. I have been president for two years and it has been a pleasure serving Temple B'nai Or in that capacity. In the last two years Temple has continued to grow by leaps and bounds. Our finances are sound as is indicated by the balanced budget approved by the Board in April and presented at the Congregational Meeting in May.

Mitzvah Day was a tremendous success with over 200 members participating. The Goods and Services Auction held last month was a terrific evening and a good time was had by all. There is a new spirit here at Temple partly brought on by the infusion of many new members in the last few years and partly due to the good feelings that emanate from all that we do here from Nursery School through Adult Education and from pre-kindergarten religious school through Renaissance Club. The people planning functions no longer have to fear poor attendance for their events. But we cannot rest on our laurels. There is so much more each and every member could be doing for Temple and I don't mean in just a financial sense. Temple is a building populated by the spirit of its members. Each one of us should try and do at least one extra thing for Temple whether it be attend a function, volunteer time to help in the office, make a donation to one of our funds, plan on attending Friday night services regularly, or join and get active in one of our auxiliary organizations. The potential list is too long to go into here, these are just some ideas.

In the last two years we have been able to bring Cantor Benson and David Iskovitz, our Religious School Director, up to full time professional employees. This has been done without busting the budget due to our membership growth. In turn we believe our growth is due to the stability in our professional leadership not to mention the skill with which they perform their jobs. I wish to acknowledge publicly and thank Rabbi Rossoff, Cantor Benson, Carole Goldberg, David Iskovitz and Dee Cohen for making my job relatively easy over the last two years. They truly are a team of professionals and we are lucky to have such fine people.

I keep saying this, and I hope it's true, that ground will be broken in a few days on the new Courtyard and Hollander Garden. While we experienced some unexpected delays, we are still on target to have it completed before Rosh Hashanah. This and the new sound system are the two major physical changes we have made during my term and these things were accomplished thanks to wise budgeting and the overwhelming response to the appeal on the courtyard. Both areas needed attention for a long time and we were fortunate to be able to deal with them.

This month we say good-bye to Alice Maleski Levy who has been our musical director for twenty years. A special Friday night service has been planned in her honor for June 20th. Obviously the music will be very special and I guarantee that it will be a very fulfilling evening. Please plan to attend a very special celebration.

Finally I wish to say it has been an honor serving as your President. Over the last two years I have met and talked to presidents and officers of other Temples and compared notes. I wouldn't trade our Temple for any of the others nor our staff for any of theirs. Congratulations and good luck to Phyllis Feinblum, our new president. I look forward to working with her to continue to serve Temple B'nai Or.

Jack Piermont

Calling all Shofar Blowers and those who would like to learn!

We will never forget the stirring sound of the Shofar at our Rosh Hashanah services as Fred Bernstein and a cadre of Ba-alay Shofar (Shofar blowers) he has trained. Fred has once again agreed to work with anyone (age 10 through adult) who would like to learn to blow the shofar and perhaps even participate in next year's High Holy Day Services. You must own your own shofar.* If you are interested, call Fred at 201-287-6215.

*If you would like to participate but do not have a shofar, call Fred or Rabbi Rossoff who can help you secure one.

From the Rabbi (Continued from page one)

You, the members of Temple B'nai Or, have blessed me with a wonderful, creative and devoted staff, and for this, I am truly grateful.

In the year ahead, Temple will put an emphasis on Israel, culminating with our Temple Pilgrimage to Israel. During the year 5758, Israel will be 50 years old! With joy and thanksgiving, we will celebrate the miraculous rebirth of the Jewish people in the Jewish homeland. Part of that celebration will be a renewed commitment on our part to rebuild the spiritual life of the Jewish People by doing more and more to stand up for the rights of Reform Jews in the Jewish State and to nurture Reform Judaism there.

Be prepared.

Rabbi Don Rossoff

P.S. Remember – Shabbat Evening Services will be held during July and August, most beginning at 7:30 PM. The summer services provide us an opportunity to worship in a less formal way and to experiment with expressions of spirituality.

From the Desk of the Administrator. . .

As summer approaches, endings and beginnings seem to intertwine. Our fiscal year is one example. June 30 marks the end of the 1996-97 year and July 1 marks the beginning of our 1997-98 year. Please be sure that all of your Temple financial obligations for the current year have been addressed, either through mailing a payment or speaking with Mindy Zaziski, our financial secretary.

Statements for the first quarter of the 1997-98 year are mailed during the first week in July. As a reminder, Temple policy states that all financial obligations must be met, or arrangements made, before High Holiday tickets can be mailed.

During the summer months, information concerning High Holiday services and tickets will be mailed to you. Please look for these mailings by the first of July, and contact us promptly if your address changes.

IMPORTANT REMINDER:

All Fair Share pledges for the 1997-98 fiscal year need to be received in our Temple office as soon as possible.

Please call me if you have any suggestions, or questions.

Women of Reform Judaism/ Sisterhood of Temple B'nai Or

We thank Susan Aidekman for overseeing our Family Skating party held on May 4. All those who attended had a grand time. We were also appreciative of Stacey Schlosser and committee members for preparing the appetizing Bagel Boxes. Lastly, thanks for all the mouth-watering brunch dishes at the Gourmet Breakfast on May 18.

As our term as Co-Presidents comes to a close, we are extremely grateful for having had the opportunity to serve Sisterhood and the Temple. We tend to be reserved and prefer the sidelines, so this was a growing, as well as a learning experience for us.

We have a vital, flourishing and spirited Sisterhood. We look forward to seeing rewarding programs in the years ahead. As we congratulate our outgoing Sisterhood Board, we wish the one installed June 13, the best of luck, good health and comradeship.

Have a restful summer.

TEMPLE B'NAI OR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

CHILDREN OF TORAH AND LIGHT

As the Religious School year is ending, plans are being made for the 1997/1998 school year. If your child is currently registered in the Religious School, you will receive your registration forms in the mail. If your child is NOT in our school, please call the Temple office and we will be glad to mail you the form.

Our Religious School has a little known jewel lying amongst the treasures of Jewish education. We are all very proud of the Religious School, our High School Confirmation classes, and ORIM (post Confirmation). The one component of our school that doesn't receive the recognition it deserves is our Pre-K class.

The Pre-K program is a unique blend of learning and doing for these delightful and challenging four year olds. The class holds monthly sessions from 9:15 to 10:45 AM where children are involved with hands-on projects, interactive activities and many wonderful approaches to discovering the joys of being Jewish. Something very special takes place as these youngsters join in Shabbat services with Rabbi and Cantor. The oneg that follows concludes the morning program with treats that are enjoyed by all.

Please consider enrolling your four year old son or daughter (or tell those people that have a child this age) in our "entry" level Religious School class. Young children are very eager to learn and our program communicates to them that they are an integral part of the Jewish faith and its people.

If there are concerns or questions you would like to discuss, contact the Temple office and I will be glad to meet with you.

I want to wish everyone a restful and healthy summer.

David Fskovitz

Senior Youth Group

This has been a tremendous year for our Senior Youth Group. We hosted the Regional Homecoming Dance in November, organized a fantastic Purim Carnival and enjoyed events throughout the year together.

We are proud that many of our members have been able to attend Regional Winter and Spring Conclaves this past year. Next year our Temple B'nai Or Youth Group will host Hagigah, an arts oriented weekend for regional youth group members.

We congratulate our newly elected 1997-98 officers:

President: Ariel Weintraub
V. P. Programming: Kathy Ellis
V. P. Religious: Shira Fernbach
V.P. Purim Carnival: Steve Fried
V. P. Social Action: Garrett Szibdat
Publicity/P.R. Chair: Lisa Ellis
Secretary: Jennifer Ginsberg
Treasurer/Carnival Co-Chair: Adam Sarasohn

Class representatives will be elected at a later date.

On Friday, June 6th, our SYG members will be conducting a creative Shabbat Service as they install their officers for the 1997/98 year. After the Oneg, everyone is invited and encouraged to join in a NFTY-GER Song Session. Please come and find about what Youth group energy can do to a songsession. If you grew up in the youth movement, this will be a wonderful chance to see how the movement has grown since the GOOD-OLD-DAYS and if you didn't, you won't believe what you will see.

Finally, next year, one of our primary goals is to double the size of the youth group with active participants. Encourage your teen to give it a try. Have them talk with one of our active members. You won't regret it and, most importantly, neither will they.

NURSERY SCHOOL

The end of the school year makes us stop to think about the year behind us and the year ahead. We've been so busy with day to day nursery activities as well as extra programs, trips, visitors, projects and events. If I had to focus on the basic theme, I'd have to say it was working together.

The POPS group (Parents Of Pre-schoolers) reorganized itself every time we had a school project or program. Each time there was a core of parents who met to help brainstorm ideas, goals and strategies. Together we had a Shabbat dinner, a Fall Family Festival, a Book Fair, and a Child I. D. Program among other activities. There were always those who took leadership responsibilities and those who handled some of the many sub-committee activities. I always felt I had support and extra hands for whatever was happening in the school. From parents who used their great artistic skills to those who used their great organizational skills to those who helped set up for a Seder or clean up after a tea or Mothers' Day Breakfast, we worked together so well.

Our teachers spent lots of time and energy planning and preparing programs and curriculum for the children. The assistants were always ready, willing and able. The real bonus is that our staff worked well with each other. There was such a willingness to exchange ideas, lend a hand and share a giggle. The teachers have attended a record number of workshops, lectures and enrichment programs this year. Cooperation abounds.

Parents have offered ideas, suggestions, criticism and praise. We knew we could depend on parents to support our programs, drive on trips, plan individual Shabbat projects and read our bulletins. Conferences were held and follow up by parents and teachers meant children's best interests were in the forefront.

Our Nursery School Committee met monthly to monitor, support and brainstorm. Alise Ford, as its chair, was always there for us in body and spirit. Our committee members in many different ways added a lot to our organization.

Working together meant that our school year at Temple B'nai Or Nursery was fun, exciting and successful. Thanks to one and all.

Dee Cohen

'97 Goods and Service Auction Truly AN Enchanted Evening!

We are thrilled to report that our '97 Goods and Services Auction was a huge success. Rave reviews have filled the air. Our auctioneer, Brian Jaffee, certainly entertained us while helping us reach deeper into our pockets to help Temple. At presstime, we can approximate that our net earnings will be in the $27,000-$30,000 range.

A tremendous TODAH RABAH from our congregation to the many people who worked so hard to make the auction such a success, to our members who donated a variety of items to tempt us, to our supporters throughout our community for their contributions, and to everyone who attended! Thank you all!

Have you obtained your monthly supply of $CRIP?

If not, make the call today. The dollars to Temple really add up over a period of time. This is an easy, no cost, way to financially support our Temple.

Using $CRIP is easy:

Once a month, call Kathy Kesner at 201-539-7002 to place your $CRIP order.

Make a check out to Temple for the amount of $CRIP you want.

$CRIP will be given to you in the denominations you order, and can be used at Kings, Foodtown or ShopRite.

Remember, $CRIP is also available at the Temple Office. We will be here July and August, too!
