RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

Under Rabbi Priesand's direction the Religious School has undertaken a year-long program entitled "Mitzvah of the Month." Each month the Rabbi will issue to your children a one or two-page fact sheet concerning a Jewish commandment to be kept in their own three-hole punched manilla folder. These folders were already individually decorated by the students with instructions to discuss the first mitzvah, mezuzah, with you. This program will involve special classroom lessons by our teachers; but, the idea was conceived as a family education project, not just a classroom exercise.

The term mitzvah is often incorrectly translated as a good deed. It actually means commandment; as Jews, it is our obligation to perform certain acts. Those of you not familiar with the Jewish value associated with each mitzvah, chosen by Rabbi Priesand, will be able to share a wonderful learning experience with your children.

Tzdukah was selected as the November Mitzvah of the Month. Usually translated as charity, tzdukah correctly means righteousness. The distinction elevates the term to personal behavior and ethics. (In my own experience, only one person was ever given the honor of being called a "tzdukah," a righteous person.) Without trying to be moralistic, this month's topic can provide families with the incentive to discuss truth/lie, correct behavior/inappropriate behavior, having plenty/having nothing, and giving/receiving.

This program is different in that it goes beyond the simplicity sometimes seen in our holiday activities or the abstract so obvious in many of our rituals. Each piece of explanatory material will answer the "but, why?" of the month's mitzvah for each family. I believe that Rabbi Priesand has hit upon a unique method to raise our Jewish conscience level.

----David Levinsky

MANY THANKS

We wish to thank our Temple Family for its support and all those who made contributions in the name of Lillian Greenfield.

Martin, Debbie & Beth Greenfield

Hilda Schnabolk & her family wish to thank all those who sent cards and expressed sympathy during their recent loss.

CANTOR'S CORNER

On January 17th we will be celebrating Jewish Music Month. The topic this year is Music for the Jewish Wedding. Due to budget cuts there is, unfortunately, no funding for the voices and instrumentalists I have envisioned. If you would like to contribute to making this concert possible, please make a donation to the Cantor's Discretionary Fund.

ATTENDANCE OF SERVICES BY GRADES 4, 5 AND 6 NOW REQUIRED FOR PROMOTION

Since familiarity with the Shabbat Service and experience on the bema is an inherent part of the Hebrew curriculum, students in grades 4, 5 and 6 are now required to attend annually 3 Shabbat Services and participate in their class Shabbat Service on the bema. One or both parents must accompany the student at services. To receive credit, all services must be attended at Monmouth Reform Temple. Attendance at family and holiday services does not satisfy this requirement.

Two services must be attended during the fall term, the remaining service may be attended during any part of the school year.

FROM RABBI PRIESAND

Several weeks ago, you received from me a letter describing a new project we have begun here at Temple which will enable us to reach out and help one another. Included with the letter were two questionnaires, one blue and one pink, which you were asked to complete and return to me. I am delighted to report that the response to this project has been extremely positive. As of this writing, I have heard from nearly 25% of our members, and more questionnaires are coming in every day.

Soon we will begin compiling the information found on the blue questionnaires in order to publish our Human Resources Directory, the purpose of which will be to provide members of our Temple family with information about what other congregants do for a living or regard as a skill. We hope to include the following categories: Art, Business, Computers, Counselling, Education, Engineering, Finance, Law, Management, Medicine, Retail and Sales, Telecommunications, and Travel. If you would like to be listed in our Directory and have not yet returned the blue questionnaire, please do so as soon as possible. A copy of the questionnaire can be obtained by calling the Temple office.

As I explained in my initial letter to you, the information found on the pink questionnaire will remain confidential. Indeed, these questionnaires are being kept at my home rather than in my office. When I feel that you may be able to help a fellow member who is suddenly confronted with crisis, I will call and ask for your assistance. In addition, I hope that if you are in need of advice or counsel, you will not hesitate to call me.

Thanks so much for your support. With your help, we can make our Temple a true caring community.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH FAMILIES

If you have any questions, please call Gene Gilbert 530-9499 or the Temple office 747-9365. We'll try to help.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thanksgiving is just a few weeks away, and I hope you are planning to attend the Interfaith Service that we share each year with the Presbyterian Church at Shrewsbury. This year we host the annual service which is followed by conversation and coffee on Wednesday, November 27 at 8 PM.

For newer members let me explain that this fellowship between Monmouth Reform Temple and the Presbyterian Church at Shrewsbury dates back to the founding of Temple. When Monmouth Reform Temple began, the congregation had no building and the church graciously gave us space in which to conduct services. Their gift has forged a lasting bond between our two congregations.

Our Interfaith Service sets the mood for the holiday when we give thanks for the bounty we enjoy and the good we share. I hope you will be there.

TRADITIONAL SABBATH EVE CANDLE LIGHTING

FROM MOREY & JEAN BERGER

Jean and I send many thanks to you and Monmouth Reform Temple for your kind card of good wishes. This is the first time in all of our moves that a Congregation has noted our departure.

We are busy settling down in a new environment. Tuscon, Arizona is a big city; the climate is hot, dry and arid, and the traffic is even heavier than Monmouth County.

Though we expect to join a local congregation, we miss the cordiality of Monmouth Reform, as well as the meaningful services.

With all good wishes to the Rabbi and the Congregation.

REFLECTIONS

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

1. Speak to people. There is nothing so nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people. It makes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his or her own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you want friends, you must be one.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do is a joy to you.
6. Be genuinely interested in people. You can like almost anybody if you try.
7. Be considerate with the feelings of others. There are usually three sides to a controversy: Yours, the other person's and the right side.
9. Be eager to lend a helping hand. Often it is appreciated more than you know. What counts most in life is what we do for others.
10. Add to this a good sense of humor, a huge dose of patience and a dash of humility. This combination will open many doors and the rewards will be enormous.

WHEN CALLING THE TEMPLE LET THE PHONE RING SIX TIMES

Often times the Rabbi or administrative assistant have to put another caller on hold in order to answer your call. Sometimes people have to go from one area to another in order to reach the phones in the front office or school office—and it's a big building.

Thanks for your patience.

HELPFUL HINT

When you mail a letter or card to a patient in the hospital, use the patient's home address as the return address. That guarantees the card will be forwarded if the patient has left the hospital.
