MIRACLES IN ISRAEL

"Keep the Miracles Coming" is the theme of Monmouth Jewish Federation president Arnold Gelfman's special talk at our annual Federation Sabbath on Friday evening, January 31.

Gelfman, who has taken four special trips to Israel in the last 18 months, will give us extraordinary first-hand insight on the miraculous Israeli absorption of Soviet and Ethiopian Jews, on the miracle of the Persian Gulf War's ending on Purim, and on prospects for peace in the Middle East.

He will also discuss the crisis in American Jewry and why Federation and our Temple, as well as all temples and synagogues, must work together more than ever. He will emphasize the unprecedented significance of the UJA-Federation's February 9 Super Sunday.

Gelfman, Brookdale College's planning and special projects director, resides in Wayside, Ocean Township. Having been on the latest Israel mission with him in November, I can assure you that January 31 will be a fascinating evening. You will want to be there. You will have an opportunity to ask questions after Gelfman's talk and at the Oneg Shabbat.

Meanwhile, if you can help with any aspect of the February 9 Super Sunday drive—telephoning for a couple of hours that day, helping with refreshments or other functions—please phone me at 542-5323. It is vitally important that our temple members support the UJA-Federation campaign to the utmost.

LIBRARY BOOK FAIR A SUCCESS!

The library book fair, held in November, was a great success, thanks to the great selection of books provided by Fair Haven Books and our many MRT members who made purchases. Part of the profits of the book fair are returned to the library in books, so we were able to add some excellent adult and children's titles to our collection. Thanks also to the members of the library committee who helped staff the book fair: Karen Karl, Gary & Vallerie Hersch and Sheila Sachs. The book fair will be back in time for next year's Hanukkah shopping!

MUSIC IN THE LIBRARY

Shebball. Brabbarla

Thanks to those of you who contributed to the Donald Fink Music Fund, the library has recently purchased many new tape cassettes, in particular, several children's tapes by Cindy Paley, Fran Avni and Jackie Cytrynbaum. We also added Klezmer music, Israeli songs, and 2 tapes by Safam, a great Jewish rock group. In addition, we bought the 3 Kol B'seder tapes by Jeff Klepper and Daniel Freelander and 3 of Debbie Friedman's latest tapes. We put away our old closed tape cabinet and now have the tapes on an open rack so it's easy to see what's available. If you want to preview a tape before you take it home, we have a tape player with headphones on the table. Come and browse and take home some good music! We would appreciate it if you would take only one tape at a time; the collection is still small and we'd like everyone to have a chance to take home a tape. For those of you who still have working phonographs, we have a large record collection on the cabinet near the big window. Come and visit us-we're user-friendly.

FROM RABBI PRIESAND

The defeat of David Duke in Louisiana's gubernatorial race brought sighs of relief from every corner of our country, but the very fact that a supporter of Adolf Hitler was able to attract national attention and gain a following among hundreds of thousands of voters should continue to strike fear in the heart of every American. Better a sound of alarm than a sigh of relief, for Duke's political career is surely not over. He will persist in spouting his offensive theories which not only encourage hatred and bigotry but also add fuel to that fire of frustration which so many Americans feel in this time of economic instability and unemployment.

What lessons can we learn from Duke's rapid rise to political prominence? First and foremost, it serves as a reminder that racism continues to exist in our country, and that because we have allowed mainstream politicians to run codeword campaigns, racism has become more respectable. We can no longer be silent in the face of such tactics. We must train ourselves and others to decipher the code, and we must call to account those who would lead us. Racial appeals have no place in our political system.

Second, in the words of Thomas Jefferson, eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Let's not be fooled into thinking that the David Dukes and Patrick Buchanans of our country are kooks on the fringe of society and that if we ignore them they will disappear. While we turn out backs in disgust, they are busy peddling their propaganda and touching people's feelings—feelings that often have little to do with the facts.

Third, now is the time to build coalitions of people—Jew and non-Jew, black and white, conservative and liberal, individuals and organizations—who are prepared to champion the cause of freedom and protect those civil liberties which the founders of our nation bequeathed to every American citizen. What better way to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of our Bill of Rights than by making certain that it will continue to exist for another generation of Americans?

Fourth, remember the advice of Edmund Burke: All that is necessary for evil to triumph is for good people to do nothing. May we hear and heed. FRC

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Much to the Board's surprise Cantor Ellen Sussman has tendered her resignation effective June 30, 1992. In a letter dated November 9, 1991 she cited the long commute between her home and Temple and its effect on her family as the reason for her decision.

In the years she has been with Monmouth Reform Temple, Cantor Sussman has worked to enrich our music programs in the sanctuary and in religious school. All of us are grateful for her efforts and her fellowship.

We will honor Cantor Sussman at an oneg shabbat in the spring. An announcement will be sent to the entire congregation. I know everyone will want to attend and wish her well.

The process of finding a new cantor has begun. A committee has been formed under the direction of Barry Miller, chairman of the Ritual Committee. If you have comments or suggestions to share with the search committee, please contact Barry or me as soon as possible.

SOVIET JEWS TURN TO IRAC

Several hundred thousand Soviet Jews will arrive in Israel this year, and inevitably, many will have trouble with the absorption process. Some will not understand government regulations and the benefits to which they are entitled; others will feel they have been unfairly treated by absorption officials. Many will have difficulty getting identity cards which state that they are Jewish. Where can these immigrants turn? To the ARZAsponsored Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC) in Jerusalem.

IRAC offers a Hot Line service, staffed by a full-time Russian-speaking worker. The Hot Line helps Soviet immigrants with their problems at no charge. Recently, the Hot Line intervened with government authorities on behalf of a woman immigrant who could not get registered as a Jew, even though her mother and grandmother were Jewish. The woman even had documents from the Orthodox Chief Rabbi of Moscow, certifying that she was Jewish, but Orthodox authorities in Israel were still not satisfied. IRAC has taken the case and agreed to go to court on the woman's behalf. In another case, IRAC assisted a Soviet immigrant whose daughter had Down's syndrome, and was having difficulty adjusting to Israel; the Hot Line located a Russian-speaking physician who specialized in Down's syndrome, and who treated the daughter for her depression.

IRAC and its Hot Line are sponsored by ARZA—the Association of Reform Zionists of America. Your dues to ARZA support the Hot Line and its vital work. For information on joining ARZA, contact Steven Schwartz (671-3913), our ARZA chairperson, or the Temple office.

ATTENDANCE AT SERVICES BY GRADES 4, 5 AND 6 NOW REQUIRED FOR PROMOTION

Since familiarity with the Shabbat Service and experience on the bema is an inherent part of the Hebrew curriculum, students in grades 4,5 and 6 are now required to attend annually 3 Shabbat Services and participate in their class Shabbat Service on the bema. One or both parents must accompany the student at services. To receive credit, all services must be attended at Monmouth Reform Temple. Attendance at family and holiday services does not satisfy this requirement.

Two services must be attended during the fall term, the remaining service may be attended during any part of the school year.

NURSERY SCHOOL

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

Many thanks goes to our grade six children and their teacher, Evelyn Kornberg, for their well prepared and thoroughly enjoyable Shabbat service on December 6th. The children, having rehearsed with Cantor Sussman, appeared comfortable with the Service prayers and showed superior poise on the bema in front of their family and friends—A JOB WELL DONE!!!

I would like to share with you my pride in our Religious School children as they fulfilled the mitzvah of Bikur Cholim, visiting the sick. On Sunday, December 8th, approximately 100 students in 25 cars left Monmouth Reform Temple in different directions to visit four area nursing homes.

During their thirty to forty-five minute visit, our children lit a Chanukah menorah, chanted the holiday blessings, sang several songs and chatted with the residents. Mrs. Sandy Weingroff baked large cookies at home and made bouquets of paper flowers with several classes for us to bring as gifts.

The children came back to Monmouth Reform Temple with mixed feelings regarding their audiences. The older children have participated in years past and were not surprised by the poor health of many of the residents. The younger children were concerned for the residents and expressed their happiness at the opportunity to make the "old" people smile. Our adult chaperones came back with obvious feelings of satisfaction as well as several wonderful suggestions for our next year's trip. Regardless of age, each participant had a better understanding of Bikur Cholim.

No Chanukah celebration would be complete without menorahs, music and latkes. Upon their return to Temple, the children and adults formed a huge U shape around tables in the social hall to light their family menorahs in a ceremony led by Rabbi Priesand and Cantor Sussman. Holiday music was led by Cantor Sussman and Eric Rosenberg, a Temple member, and his friends from Bell Labs and Bell Core. Latkes by the hundreds, applesauce and cookies were served by Betty Welt and her committee. Special thanks go to Al Paley for buying, delivering and donating the latkes, a mitzvah he has performed for many years.

Our students, teachers and parent volunteers are to be commended for making this year's Chanukah celebration especially joyous.

January's Mitzvah of the Month is SHABBAT.
