BAR/BAT MITZVAH PROFILES

ALEX REISNER

Alex, whose Bar Mitzvah takes place on October 10, is in seventh grade at Middletown's Thompson Middle School, and participates in the gifted and talented program. His favorite subject is math. Although he feels overwhelmed with school homework at this time, Alex takes tennis lessons and enjoys playing. He also collects baseball cards and likes golf, bowling, basketball and photography. On family trips he has enjoyed taking color photographs, especially of scenery. In preparing for his Bar Mitzvah, Alex found that the work book took a lot of time and learning his haftarah portion was the most difficult part. He is looking forward to seeing relatives and friends from Florida and Connecticut, and the opportunity to renew his relationship with a friend who is coming from California. We all join in congratulating Alex, parents Rosalind and Gerald, and brother David.

LESLIE BETH HERSCHENFELD

October 16 will mark the big day for Leslie Herschenfeld, who is also a seventh grader at Thompson Middle School where her favorite subject is math. This athletic young lady plans to try out for the school basketball and softball teams, and also enjoys playing soccer with the town's recreational team. Leslie enjoys all kinds of music and her favorite is "classic rock", especially the Beatles. Leslie indicates that she has worked hard and enjoyed preparing for her Bat Mitzvah and is proud of the fact that she is moving into the adult Jewish world. She looks forward to seeing cousins and other family who will be coming from California, New York and Connecticut. Mazel tov to Leslie, brother Greg, and parents Neal and Roberta.

COME & BRING A FRIEND

JESSICA GOLDBERG

Jessica Goldberg will become Bat Mitzvah on October 24. The daughter of Linda and Richard, Jessica is in the eighth grade at the Markham Place School in Little Silver, where her favorite subject is science. She takes both ballet and modern dance, has performed in "Nutcracker" at the Count Basie Theater in Red Bank and expects to do so again this season. Jessica plans to attend college and hopes to major in psychology. She talks on the phone a lot and enjoys classic rock music and realistic fiction. Learning the Hebrew and practicing has been the most difficult part of her Bat Mitzvah preparation, but she has enjoyed it, and feels that she is a role model for her brother and sister, Adam and Sandy. The family dog, "Moses", celebrates his first birthday on October 24 as well. Relatives from Montana and Iowa will join in the celebration. Congratulations to Jessica and family.

FROM RABBI PRIESAND

Recently, I discussed at Services the case of Jonathan Pollard, suggesting that this man has suffered a miscarriage of justice which can no longer be ignored. The following is a summary of my remarks: in 1985, Pollard, a U.S. Naval intelligence officer, was arrested and charged with spying for Israel. Motivated by ideological reasons, he had transferred to Israel information that was regional and tactical, most of it having to do with PLO bases, the development of nuclear weapons by Pakistan with funding from certain Arab countries and the location of Iraqi poison gas facilities. This information should have been made available to Israel under the terms of an agreement approved by President Reagan and Congress in 1983.

No one denies Pollard's guilt. He committed a serious crime by breaking the laws of our country. It should be remembered, however, that he spied in the United States and not against the United States. He spied for an ally, believing he was protecting Israel from a threat that has since proved frighteningly real. He acted because he believed the United States was not living up to its commitment to provide Israel with necessary and valuable information. None of this excuses his crime, but it does suggest that his punishment was unusually cruel.

No trial was ever held. The government offered a plea bargain according to which Pollard agreed to plead guilty in return for an implicit promise that he would be treated with leniency. Pollard cooperated fully and completely, admitting his crime and expressing remorse, but our government reneged on its part of the agreement, and Pollard was sentenced to life in prison without parole. No spy for a friendly power has ever received a life sentence in the United States. In peace time, such a sentence is imposed rarely and only on those spying for America's enemies. Remember John Walker and his family? For seventeen years, they engaged in espionage, selling some of our most vital NATO secrets to what was then the Soviet Union for three-quarters of a million dollars. John Walker will be eligible for parole in five years, even though he was directly responsible for the deaths of Navy pilots and U. S. intelligence agents..

Pollard has been languishing in solitary confinement for nearly seven years. Stories about the inhuman treatment he has received sound like things we read about in other countries where the government is repressive. Never have we imagined that such things happen in America. Pollard's sentence was clearly disproportionate to his offense. No one denies that he should be held accountable for his deeds, but his punishment was unduly harsh.

I urge you to communicate with President Bush on behalf of Jonathan Pollard, asking for a commutation of his sentence to time served. Although we do not condone acts of espionage nor support any violation of our country's laws, we need to express our belief that Pollard's sentence was grossly inconsistent with the punishment given to other Americans convicted of comparable or even worse crimes. What we have here is a double standard, the case of a Jew being punished more severely because he is a Jew who spied for Israel. The time for justice is now. We can no longer remain silent.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

While it is difficult and often impossible for many of us to attend the national UAHC biennial, it is much easier to go to the regional convention. The 19th biennial convention of our region will be held Friday, November 13 to Sunday, November 15 at the Sheraton International Crossroads Hotel in Mahwah.

The convention is open not only to officers and trustees but to all congregation members. The weekend is filled with workshops, which run the gamut from "Bringing God Back Into Our Lives" to "Fundraising for Lean Times," and each attendee can participate in several. There are Shabbat worship services and addresses by leaders of the reform movement.

Most of all the biennial is an event one shares with hundreds of other Jews striving to make their practice of Judaism more meaningful to themselves and their families. It is an opportunity to learn about the problems facing other congregations, to share experiences, and perhaps, to find new ideas.

Participation at a biennial is a gratifying and enriching experience. If you would like more information, please call me, 747-7019, or the Temple office.

REFLECTIONS

This is my understanding of hell. No little red men with pitchforks, not fire and brimstone, but to live a life as a human being, perhaps the only life we will ever have, to live all of that life and never understand what it means to be a mensch, never to know the experience of self-control, never to know the satisfaction of using your power to sanctify, never to know what it feels like to be unselfish, to be loving or to be generous—to come to the end of your life and realize that you had a chance to be all these things—and you blew it, and that you will not get that chance again—that's hell.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

Many words of thanks must go out to our students, teachers, Student Cantor Metzger and parents for the Religious School's extremely smooth first few sessions of 92-93.

Also, the Religious School Committee was delighted with the parental response to our Parents' Meeting held on opening day. Our speakers provided much information, but mostly they imparted a sense of warmth and caring. MANY THANKS!

Religious School personnel are always pleased when the High Holidays arrive late, as they do this year. Teachers tend to go about their teaching duties in a more relaxed manner knowing that there is ample time to develop holiday lessons with your children as well as cover the basic curriculum.

Our teachers will utilize this year's calendar to spend extra time on the reasons for celebrating each holiday, without being too redundant in the older grades. It is my contention that for children the holidays define who we are, where we came from and what we believe. It is for these reasons that Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Simchat Torah and Chanukah are so much a part of MRT's Religious School and source of so many positive memories.

Although, every student will have the opportunity to perform the mitzvah of Layshayv BaSukkah (to dwell in the Sukkah) during Religious School, I encourage Temple families to join Rabbi Priesand as she eats in the Temple's sukkah each evening during Sukkot. Your Religious School children will especially enjoy the experience.

ATTENTION ALL FAMILIES OF NEW STUDENTS

Rabbi Priesand will invite your children to the bema for a blessing during the Simchat Torah service on October 18, beginning 7:00 PM. While on the bema, each new student will receive a special gift. This service follows the 6:00 PM Family Dinner.

 Please remember to have all books covered; I recommend clear plastic contact paper on the soft covered books.

 Regarding dismissal—All students are dismissed from the rear of the parking lot. Children are not allowed to enter the parking lot without an adult. Please do not call children from your automobile. Thank you for your cooperation.

-----David Levinsky

ADULT EDUCATION NEWS

The Adult Education Committee welcomes you back from your summer pursuits.

You'll be happy to know that over the summer, the committee was solidifying its arrangements with Professor David Ellenson from HCU-JIR, Los Angeles. He has agreed to join us as Scholar-in-Residence during the February 19, 1993 weekend. Plan right now to join us for this wonderful event.

We are thrilled to be able to bring Rabbi Ellenson here this year. It is possible, in part, because of the generous contributions to the Joan Goodman Fund since last year. I hope you will continue making the Goodman Fund a special objective for your philanthropy during the year. As it grows, we can better afford to provide a rich variety of other programs through the '92-'93 year. Thank you.

Also, please consider joining the Adult Education Committee if you like our kind of programming. We are a noble, brave, courageous and hard-working crew, but a little small. Many hands make light work, it is said, but we have relatively few. Won't you please give me a call, 747-9256, and sign on for this year's excitement?

THE FIRST ADULT EDUCATION SERIES will begin Thursday night, October 29th and continue on November 5th, 12th and 19th. The object of our studies will be selections from the American Reform Responsa edited by Walter Jacob. Each evening, beginning at 8 pm, we will read selected Responsa aloud. Afterward, a member of the Adult Education Committee will lead a discussion and provide additional resources. Some of the topics planned are kosher laws, Shabbat candle lighting practices, abortion, and the thorny problem of what to do when discovering a "pretender." Keep an eye on the mailings for our flyer!

The 19th Regional Biennial Convention of UAHC will take place November 13th thru 15th, 1992. It will be held at the Sheraton International Crossroads Hotel in Mahwah, NJ. The Theme of the conference is "Reform Judaism, the First 150 Years. Who We Are—How We Got There." The Keynote Address will be given by Rabbi Daniel Syme. Registration forms are available in the Temple office.

Finally, a flyer outlining the full year of Adult Education programing, "OPPOR-TUNITIES," is being prepared and will be available for the next mailing. Use it to mark your personal calendars and save those days and nights for Jewish study and discussion at MRT.

Any suggestions for programs and events are certainly welcome. Call me or leave a note in my mailbox in the office.

----Joel Morgovsky
