FROM RABBI PRIESAND

Over the years, the ceremony of Confirmation has become one of my favorite moments on the Jewish calendar. Indeed, I look forward to it all year long, not only because it represents the continuity of our people, but also because it seems to ignite that spark of holiness which is so often missing from our lives. To watch our students stand before the congregation, share their thoughts on issues of importance to the Jewish community and express their commitment to the survival of Judaism and the Jewish people is always a moving experience, a moment of joy and spiritual satisfaction that touches the heart and creates a memory that will last forever.

Memories are important. They play a significant role in the life of every person as well as that of the community. The Confirmation pictures that adorn the wall outside our Temple library remind all who enter our building of the special place that this ceremony holds in the history of our congregation and our Movement. Notice that we do not record with pictures on the walls of our Temple every Bar and Bat Mitzvah. That's an individual ceremony, a sign that children are growing up and beginning to think about what it means to be Jewish. But Confirmation is more than that. It represents on the part of our young people an understanding of the covenant our ancestors made at Sinai and a desire to become part of the community with all the rights and responsibilities that such membership entails.

This year, Confirmation will be held on Sunday afternoon, May 15, at 4:00 PM. I hope you will make a special effort to be here to support our confirmands and to rejoice with them and their families. Through their participation in this service, and all the months and years of preparation that have led to this special day, they have shown us that they know something about commitment and what it means to follow through. They could have dropped out after Bar/Bat Mitzvah, but they chose instead to keep their word and honor a commitment that they made. We thank them for their diligence and hope that the satisfaction they feel in achieving this goal will remain with them in years ahead, spurring them on to greater efforts and encouraging them always to say "yes" to Judaism and the many opportunities it offers for enrichment and joy, personal growth, a sense of belonging and the chance to make a difference in the world.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

There are a number of events coming up this month of which I would like to make you aware and heartily invite your participation.

First, is our Service of Confirmation which will be held on Sunday afternoon, May 15. Confirmation is always a marvelous service. I never cease to be impressed by the thoughts put forward by the participants. The Confirmands and their parents are to be commended and congratulated for their achievement and commitment to Judaism and its survival.

On Friday, May 20, there will be a special Oneg Shabbat to honor Claire Metzger prior to her investiture as a Cantor (May 22) and to thank her for the job she did serving our congregation for the past two years. Her warmth and enthusiasm will not easily be replaced. I know you all join me in wishing Claire a hearty mazel tov as well as all good things for the future.

Finally, Saturdays during May and June will be very busy with a great number of Bar/Bat Mitzvahs. A couple of years ago the Minyon Corps was formed mainly to help attendees not familiar with our service more actively participate. I feel that the service would be even more meaningful to the family and B'nai Mitzvah with a strong congregational participation. One of the Mitzvot of Judaism is to welcome the stranger. What better way to welcome visitors than to offer rich and rewarding participation at Shabbat services.

I hope to see you all at one or all of the above events.

Shalom,

-----Baldwin Davidson

REFLECTIONS

I am a Jew
because the faith of Israel
demands no abdication of my mind.

I am a Jew
because the faith of Israel
asks every possible sacrifice of my soul.

I am a Jew
because in all places
where there are tears and suffering
the Jew weeps.

I am a Jew
because the message of Israel
is the most ancient and the most modern.

I am a Jew
because Israel's promise
is a universal promise.

I am a Jew
because for Israel
the world is not finished;
people are completing it.

---Edmond P. Fleg

ARTS FESTIVAL

The show is being set as this goes to press.
We thought you would enjoy this poem, written by Dolores Phillips.

ODE TO FESTIVAL '94

Another opening of another show,
is not without its pitfalls you know.

Hang that picture here, no! put it there,
it can't go just anywhere.

We don't get much sleep,
we're in this much too deep.

The artists make us crazy.
The rooms are getting hazy.

We have aches and pains,
some stress and strains.

In case you don't feel perfectly fit,
feel free to use the first aid kit.

Although we will be put through the test,
this year will be the very best.

----Semmes Brightman

BITTER MEMORIES

The following poem was written by one of our college students, Dana Schwartz, after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington.

*his eyes are what drew me in intense and angry, full of life—
for the moment.
kneeling down on the cold rocky ground,
above him mindless droids posing as human men, holding deadly weapons
below him a pit of freshly murdered
bodies, too soon for rigor mortis
still warm, a memory of life buried in a pit of dirt
and mud
he was to be joining them soon—
and he knew that.
those eyes, brimming with grim determination,
determined not to show any weakness in front of the enemy
his eyes looking far off into a corner of the world
that we, the audience, cannot see.
what is he searching for?
does he see the blue sky, the burning orange rays
of the sun setting on a world full of chaos
and evil, or perhaps a bird flying away
free
or maybe he sees the curdles of smoke rising from
a not so far away building,
his eyes burning from the acrid odor, watching his fellow mankind slip away into the cloudless sky.*

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to all of you who helped Marilyn in the office with mailings and bulletins during the absence of her helper, Karen Fisher.

When making donations to the Temple, please include your name and fund contributing to on the slip when you write down the information needed for the card to be sent. Occasionally the slips get separated from the checks and it is then difficult to match a donation with a name. Thank you.

SOCIAL ACTION NOTES

Thanks to everyone who helped out at The Children's Peace Fair at Brookdale College. An entertaining and worthwhile Sabbath was had by all, including those workers who had to switch gears and sell, sell, sell at The Arts Festival Gala that same evening.

On a more serious note, there's no need to remind all those Moms out there that your day will be arriving; a bagel breakfast in bed, some flowers, maybe a little present for those endless 24-hour shifts we put in, every day of the year. I'd like to suggest that this year, along with the breakfast, your family consider making a donation to Mother's Voices. This is a non-profit AIDS awareness and advocacy organization. Since the CDC reported that AIDS is the leading cause of death in men aged 25-44, and the fourth leading cause of death in women aged 25-44, and the incubation period for this virus is around ten years, it's a simple arithmetic. Teenagers and young adults are the new risk group, and I mean all our children. Mother's Voices is fighting for education, services and a CURE. So please sign our Mother's Day card to Congress after services and make your checks out to the Mother's Voices, 165 West 46th Street, Suite 1310, New York NY 10036.

The Center in Asbury Park is a hands-on way to help people infected with the HIV virus and their families. They are looking for volunteers to help cook and serve a hot meal once a month at their facility, deliver a food basket or a cooked meal to the home-bound, or just assist their clients with transportation or laundry. They will also start a training program for hospital visitors. If you have any time to give, please call Jeff Willard 583-2256 or Chris Rosen 224-9007. Tikkun olam, the improvement of the world, can begin with one small step.

Shalom,

---Chris Rosen
