BAR MITZVAH PROFILES

MARK DWOSKIN

Mark Dwoskin celebrated his Bar Mitzvah on May 20th. Mark is a 7th grade student at Shrewsbury Boro School where math is his favorite subject. Mark plays baseball with the Shrewsbury Recreation and is a 3rd baseman. When he has spare time he enjoys playing the guitar and riding dirt bikes. His future plans are uncertain. Although he found it hard studying for his Bar Mitzvah, he does admit it will be worth his efforts. Mazel tov to his mom Ellen and brother Jeff.

GREG MARTINEZ

Greg Martinez will be celebrating his Bar Mitzvah on May 27th. Greg is an 8th grade student at Markham Place School in Little Silver. Reading is his favorite subject. His spare time might find him hanging with his friends and playing sports. He enjoys basketball just for fun and plays baseball for the Little Silver Recreation. Although Greg's future plans are undecided, he does want to do something that is fun and that will benefit others. Studying for his Bar Mitzvah proved not as bad as he thought, and he is definitely looking forward to his special day. Mazel tov to his parents Kevin and Lorraine, brother Ryan and sister Sasha.

NURSERY SCHOOL NEWS

This year the Tinton Falls Nursery School is celebrating its twentieth anniversary. Activities for this year's anniversary included guest storytellers, field trips, and visits from community professionals. This month the children will visit Huber Woods for a "Nature Walk for Little People". The school year will end with our annual picnic and pony rides.

Housed in the education wing of the Monmouth Reform Temple, 332 Hance Avenue, Tinton Falls, the nursery school has been providing quality pre-school education for children from all of the surrounding townships. Over the past years, the program has expanded to include three year old, four old, and pre-K classes, a "Mom and Me" program, and an extended care program. This summer it is also offering a six week summer program. To meet the needs of the area, in 1995 the Nursery School will offer both a cooperative and non-cooperative program. The school is under the direction of Kathie Ramsay (747-3990).

CANTORS CORNER

VOICES IN HARMONY

To sing in a mini-choir concert on the bema at the end of a Shabbat Service is a privilege, especially when the performers are members of MRT, who formed our volunteer choir. To listen is no less a privilege.

After the Arts Festival enchanted our eyes with so much diversity in painting, sculpting, photography and other visual arts, let's enchant our ears with the aural magic created by our choir. The performers' intention is to enhance our Shabbat Service and to show their love for Jewish music. Their participation is a measure of their dedication and commitment to our Temple Family.

The cantor extends to you a warm invitation to come and hear our choir at our Shabbat Service on May 12, 1995.

WAYS AND MEANS

The Goods and Service Auction was a huge success. We had 100 people attend, many who walked away with rare and wonderful items. Our talented auctioneer, Ed Ryterband, earned us over $4,000 in our live auction, plus we took in over $1,000 in our silent auction. We want to thank all those who donated items as well as the purchasers who made the evening what it was. I also wanted to thank members of my committee as well as those members of Sisterhood who put in a lot of time and effort to raise money for the Temple.

The sale of food certificates has been doing well. We have 10 new families purchasing monthly which is keeping our sales over $10,000. We are hoping in the coming months we can increase it to $11,000. We hope you will take advantage of earning extra money for the Temple by purchasing either A & P, Acme, Foodtown, Pathmark or Shop-Rite food gift certificates. If you shop Rickles you can use the Pathmark certificates. Remember this does not cost you anything extra. We earn 5% on anything you purchase. Joanna Charnick is in the Temple lobby on Sunday mornings.

The Nursery School is now registering for the September enrollment. We also have a 6 week summer program. Call Kathie Ramsey at the Temple for more information.

FROM RABBI PRIESAND

Ever since the State of Israel was founded in 1948, non-Orthodox Jews have known discrimination. What is taken for granted by Christians and Moslems - the right to worship freely and have one's religious leaders officiate at life-cycle events - has been denied Reform, Conservative, and Reconstructionist Jews. ARZA (the Association of Reform Zionists of America) is fighting to change this situation.

Founded in 1977, ARZA has been the strongest voice for religious pluralism and social justice in Israel. Many of its efforts have been successful: Jews-by-choice, converted by Reform rabbis in America, are recognized as Jews in Israel; non-Orthodox burial is now permitted in the homeland of our people; and non-Orthodox institutions, like the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, are finally receiving government funding.

Recently, ARZA has undertaken a two-year campaign called Operation Equality, aimed at obtaining legitimacy for Reform Judaism and its rabbis in the State of Israel. Working through the ARZA-sponsored Israel Religious Action Center, a bill will soon be introduced in the Knesset giving Reform rabbis the right to officiate at marriages. Passing the legislation will be exceedingly difficult, but if we can succeed in this legislative effort, other discriminatory legislation will soon begin to collapse.

In order to generate public support for this legislation, ARZA needs our help now. I hope that every member of our Temple family will join ARZA and thereby express in a meaningful way our love for the State of Israel and our concern for the future of religious pluralism. Thanks in advance for your cooperation. This is a real opportunity to make a difference.

MONMOUTH FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

The 25th anniversary year of the arts festival was a success!

Art sales were at a record high, as was Temple participation. The financial results will be announced at the annual meeting on Sunday, May 7 in the Social Hall.

On behalf of the arts festival, we extend thanks to everyone for their contributions to this successful year.

Semmes Brightman

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The results of the mail balloting for ratification of the revised Constitution tentatively approved at the March 5th Special Congregational meeting are; 83 votes for, 0 votes against. Not voting is considered as approval of the tentative action taken. Therefore, the revised constitution is ratified. My sincere thanks to the committee charged with the task of revising the Constitution. It was chaired by Rich Goldberg. Stu Tuchband and Bob Goodman were the other members.

This is my last article as President of MRT. It has been an honor and privilege to serve. My task was made easier because of the help of a conscientious Board of Trustees and the cooperation of all of our members that worked so hard to make our Temple the wonderful institution it is. Heartfelt thanks to you all.

Shalom,
Baldwin Davidson

ISRAEL TRIP

The United Jewish Appeal and the New Jersey Federation are planning a special trip to Israel October 23 to Nov. 1 for all-inclusive price of just $1,299 per person. This trip, called Gesher II, will take participants behind the scenes for an inside look at what is happening culturally, politically, and in the peace process and will show how Israelis are meeting the current challenges.

This is a trip you won't want to miss. For full details, please call the Jewish Federation of Greater Monmouth county at 531-6200 or 780-1440.

Charles Bernstein

When making donations to the Temple, please include your name and the fund to which you are contributing when you write the information needed for the card to be sent. Occasionally notes get separated from the checks, making it difficult to match a donation with a name.

Also please return your statement along with your check when paying dues to assure proper credit to your account. Thank you.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

UPCOMING EVENTS

On Sunday, June 4, at 10:30 AM, we will have the honor of worshipping with five 10th grade students when they affirm their faith and allegiance to Judaism. The Confirmation ceremony is my favorite service at MRT. The morning revolves around the confirmands as they mark the conclusion of their formal Jewish education in a ceremony that is always inspiring, upbeat, thought provoking and emotional.

Prior to their bar/bat mitzvah, children in grades 4-6 are expected to attend at least one Confirmation service with a parent. I know that the fulfillment of this requirement will be a wonderful experience for each family.

Mrs. Bell's fourth grade class has been working for weeks in preparation for its turn to conduct the Friday evening Shabbat service. Our congregation will have the opportunity to marvel at the children's accomplishment on May 19 at 8:15.

Second grade parents are invited to travel with their children on May 7 as Mrs. Millman makes her annual visit to Israel via EL-AL. Children and parents will visit the Western Wall and share Israeli foods. Of course, each youngster will be issued his/her own passport. Departure time is 10:00 AM from our social hall.

Our last day is on Sunday, May 21. Concluding day assemblies will begin for K-2 students and their families at 10:00 AM in the sanctuary. Refreshments and report card distribution will follow the program. The final assembly for grades 4-9 will follow at 10:30 AM, and then refreshments and report card distribution.

THANK YOU

Our school has grown considerably in the past two years. School wide functions involving all of our students and their families require the assistance of many non-staff personnel. The planning, organization, setting-up and take down of each activity is dependent on parental assistance.

Last month's model seder demonstrated the school's dependency on such support. I want to express my gratitude to the volunteers who worked before, during and after each activity to provide our children with lasting holiday experiences.

The chief Religious School volunteer of all is stepping up soon to accept the post of senior vice-president. For three years, Gerald Reisner has served as the Religious School Committee chairperson. In that time, he closely scrutinized my vision for our school, tirelessly sought to improve the curriculum, gave many, many hours at school functions, represented the school at Board meetings, got on the telephone to encourage people to join the Religious Education Committee and guided committee members to assume larger roles in school affairs. Thankfully, Gerald will remain on the committee while taking on a larger role in Temple affairs.

Susan St.Lifer will succeed Gerald as chair of the Religious Education committee. In past years, Susan has been an invaluable presence at school functions and at Religious Education committee meetings. I am delighted that she has agreed to take over such a demanding Temple position.

Shalom,
David Levinsky

Reflections

In a shabby log cabin on a deserted farm in northern Maine, there lived an old farmer. He was so old and had lived in the same place for so long a time that he had become an object of curiosity and even a tourist attraction. Estimates of his exact age ranged upwards of one hundred and ten. In spite of his highly advanced years, the old farmer retained a youthful disposition and a sparkling sense of humor.

Once a curious passerby engaged him in a lengthy conversation in the course of which he posed many questions. "Have you lived here all your life?" asked the inquisitive tourist. "Not yet, not yet," snapped back the smiling farmer.

Reminder....

Those who have the responsibility of filling the bema assignments for Friday services should do so and have the information given to the Temple office no later than one week in advance. The reason for this is that reminder notes have to be mailed. This will help our Temple run more smoothly.
