FIRST NIGHT OF CHANUKAH --SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9 CONGREGATIONAL CHANUKAH CELEBRATION - FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL NIGHT ...

THE FOLLOWING WERE RABBI SOLOMON

GREENBERG'S REMARKS AS HE INSTALLED RABBI SANDFORD KOPNICK AS VALLEY TEMPLE'S NEWEST SPIRITUAL LEADER.

Sandford -- not only it is an honor, but a pleasure to be a part of this unique and very meaningful ceremony of installation:

FIRST: To be a part of the Magnus family's lifetime involvement with Valley Temple --as your inlaws, Carol, and especially Julian -- was a significant fact in y being hired here -- and guiding me as a young rabbi -- and serving as President and instigator and proder in the building of this facility.

SECOND: To be a part of your life on a personal level -- from your camping days at GUCI, through your HUC days, your marriage to Nancy in this sanctuary and now --

THIRD -- To be a part of the Rabbinic continuity of this very special congregation -- a congregation that is open minded, accepting, inclusive and respectful.

The ancient Europeans have a belief that the touch or laying on of the hands by one who was of Royal decent could actually heal a sick person. And this is what gave rise to the idea of the divine right of kings. Since God gave the King power not just to rule, but to heal -- which was a practical and visible proof of God's transference of Power.

In our Bible (Numbers 27:18) when Moses knew he was about to die -- he prayed to God to send a successor -- and so, when Joshua came forth -- Moses placed his hands on Joshua - and by this act of laying on of hands -- leadership was transferred.

Dear Sandford -- I'm not royalty -- and I'm certainly not Moses -- and surely I'm not worthy of transferring God's power-- But, I am one who has been blessed to have seen a friend, and colleague become an outstanding Rabbi. In these worrisome times, we need good rabbis. Sandford -- you are sensitive, intelligent, caring, warm, knowledgeable and have a wonderful sense of humor and you will be up to the task. You are a good husband, father -- a good son -- a most importantly A REAL MENSCH -- it is my honor to place my hands upon you and pass the spiritual leadership of the Valley Temple to you.

RABBI SANDFORD KOPNICK'S RESPONSE

It is a very humbling experience to have so many of my teachers present at this wonderful occasion. Tonight is a night where one you call rabbi is formally placed here, and yet it is on the shoulders of many rabbis that I stand tonight, accepting your good wishes but challenged by the example they have set.

That we could have so many from the Hebrew Union College community, is indeed, a very special and somewhat frightening honor. That Rabbi Sam Joseph, my trusted friend and confidant and teacher could both represent them and connect with you this night is very special.

The last time two very important teachers named Rabbi Ron Klotz and Rabbi Sol Greenberg and I were on this bimah together, Nancy was the main attraction—my radiant bride. They did great work that night, for they helped us seal a bond that has only grown since that moment to a wonderful journey of love, laughter, and parenthood—and, therefore, more laughter.

Ron, thank you for being here—and for being such a wonderful friend. You are a rabbi to thousands, and have led the greatest insurance policy to a Jewish future in the mid-west for more than 25 years. Your rabbinate is a marvel.

Rabbi Greenberg, Sol, myself included, have missed your presence on this bema. This will always be your bema-and as tonight it is formally made our bema; please know that you are always welcome here, to share, to celebrate, and to continue to teach. Your rabbinate has been highlighted by the remarkable relationships you have made with so many—the help you have given them and the hope of a Jewish future. That Nancy and I can both be counted among your students who have been inspired by your love of Jews and Judaism is a pleasure we will always cherish. That I could stand on the shoulders of such a tremendous talent and caring rabbi is, indeed, very humbling and a profound challenge. They tell you when changing jobs to follow a jerk, but they're wrong. I'd prefer to follow a beloved rabbi like you, whose kindness and love are examples to so many.

Tonight we are all blessed by our musicians. Bob, Charlene, and Tom. I truly appreciate your presence here, your on-going help with this transition, and how you graciously share the musical opportunities with my friends from Fort Wayne.

There are many here tonight whose presence touches us deeply. My parents are here tonight to share, as they always have, in a wonderful moment for our family. But the presence of the Hazemir choir of Fort Wayne is filled with past presidents, religious school teachers and committee chairs, the director of education, the national president of the guild of Temple musicians, members of the ritual committee, past and present chairs of that committee, and wonderful friends, all of them. They are among my rabbis, to be sure. I said during our first high holy days in Fort Wayne was that the best part of the Hazemir choir is that they give of their soul to the music they interpret in prayer. They give voice to the psalmist when he said, "come before God's presence with singing." Leaving Fort Wayne was not easy, and tonight, your presence here tonight is testament to the graciousness that you showed as you allowed this transition to occur. For that and so much more I will always be grateful.

This sanctuary is also filled with many more of my teachers. My prayer is that tonight you will feel that you have another person from whom to learn, celebrate, mourn, and laugh—that is me. But I also pray that you will be my teachers, helping me to know your needs, teaching me from your experiences, and allowing us to share this wonderful journey we call Judaism. As the psalmist says, "zeh hayom asah Adonai, this is truly the day that God has made," and with your help we can finish the phrase—nagilah v'nismecha vo—let us be glad and rejoice in it. Shabbat Shalom.

CHECK OUT TORAH STUDY!

Most Saturday mornings, our Temple sponsors a 9:30 a.m. Torah Study followed by an informal Shabbat Service. The Torah study uses our weekly Torah portion as a jump-off point for lively discussions about events of the day, how to incorporate Torah into our active day, and what does the Torah mean when it says....

No previous experience is expected. Rabbi Kopnick and Jeremy Barras lead the discussion—and you need not have been the week before in order to get meaning and enjoyment out our timeless Torah. Be a part of the group and join us!

POSTERS FOR PEACE FAMILY ED ON DECEMBER 2

Children in grades 5-8 and their parents will participate in a special program called Posters for Peace on Sunday, December 2, 2001 at 11:00 a.m. Dr. Steve Sunderland, a professor in the Department of Psychology at the University of Cincinnati will facilitate the program with our own Helen Habbert.

Dr. Sunderland has been asking people to make artistic posters to depict their thoughts and feelings regarding the riots in Cincinnati and the September 11 terrorist attacks. The groups have ranged from school groups to college kids to adults. The results have been remarkable. This program is intended for children and their parents—and will hopefully be helpful in processing the difficult events of the last few months. Rabbi Kopnick and Jeremy Barras will also be on hand to present some Jewish roots to the program.

For more information, call Rabbi Kopnick at 761-3555

THINKING OF YOU DURING YOUR RECUPERATION

MARTY LEVY -- Special note: For those of you who don't know, Marty Levy, our Shofar Blower and friend had major surgery in Milwaukee. He is recuperating, but at a very slow rate. His wife, Helen, is, of course by his side. They have already received numerous get well wishes and notes and these have been extremely important to them during this time. Since their time away from home is still uncertain, they would appreciate continuing to hear from us. Cards and notes can be sent to them c/o St. Mary's Hospital, 2323 Northlake Drive, Milwaukee, WI 53211. May he be blessed with R'fua Shlema -- complete healing.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

GARRETT AND SUSAN LEVY AND THEIR CHILDREN, ANNELISE AND AARON BRITTIE AND BRIAN WILES NANCI AND MICHAEL VESIO

REFORM JEWISH HIGH SCHOOL ENDING SEMESTER

The Cincinnati Reform Jewish High School will end its first semester this month. Valley Temple has a record 28 students enrolled in the High School this year. Aside from our large freshman class, we have five seniors currently in the program.

Rabbi Kopnick is in his first semester back at the High School since 1988, when he coordinated the Madrichim (teacher aid) program and the Senior Seminar. Currently, Rabbi Kopnick is teaching our Confirmation Class and a class focusing on Jewish responses to contemporary issues.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL COMMITTEE DISCUSSING EVENING HEBREW AND MAJOR CHANGES IN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE CURRICULUM

At the meeting held on November 19, the religious school committee considered a proposal to significantly change the way the seventh and eighth grade programs are conceived. Both in response to space considerations and the needs of our students, the proposal has various alternative meeting times and places. The curriculum will focus on God, Social Action, Comparative Religion, and Mitzvah. Students will be asked to attend two retreats (one in the fall and one in the winter) for a weekend, a few Friday after services programs, a few extended sessions on Sunday mornings, and a few Saturday morning teaching services, one of which has students invite their non-Jewish friends in order to promote better understanding of Judaism.

In addition, a proposal is on the table to include a monthly chat-room with Rabbi Kopnick and a few guest participants—some in anticipation of their visit to the Valley Temple to work with the program in person.

Our Hebrew program will be moving to Tuesdays and Sundays as of next fall. The program will be on Tuesdays, with optional pizza dinner at 6:00 p.m. and an hour long class for all students in grades 4-6 from 6:30-7:30 p.m. In addition, those studying in seventh and eighth grades for Bar/Bat Mitzvah will attend a Bar Mitzvah class on Tuesdays at the same time. There will be consideration to those families where car pools cannot be arranged, or educational considerations warrant an alternative approach.

DETROIT AREA YOUTH GROUP TO VISIT DURING SHABBAT MORNING ON DECEMBER 15

60 members of the confirmation class of Temple Israel of West Bloomfield, Michigan will accompany their rabbi, Joshua Bennett to Cincinnati as part of their confirmation class trip. The students will have a program at the Temple at 9:00 a.m. and then join in a creative service at 10:30 a.m. at the Temple. David Snyder will be on hand to lead music for the 10:30 service. Valley Temple students studying for B'nai Mitzvah and Confirmation are encouraged to attend with their families—a good way to get service credits!

PRESIDENT AND RABBI GO TO BOSTON FOR UAHC BIENNIAL

President Mark Sass and Rabbi Sandford Kopnick will represent the Valley Temple at the Biennial Meeting of the Union of American Congregations in Boston, MA. Workshops on synagogue management, education, Judaic studies, and much more will be offered to the participants. Rabbi Kopnick will lead a workshop on creating a youth program for small congregations and will attend meetings in his capacity as chair of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Youth Committee chair. The Convention is December 5-9, 2001.

JEREMY BARRAS ON MISSION TO ISRAEL

Jeremy Barras, our Rabbinic Intern, will travel to Israel the week of December 2, 2001 as part of the Cincinnati Jewish Federation Mission to Israel. Jeremy will be in Israel for a week. Upon his return, Jeremy will brief us at Shabbat Services regarding the situation as he saw first hand. N'siyah tovah—travel safely!

REMEMBER TZEDAKAH CAUSES AS THE TAX YEAR ENDS

The events of September 11 have made it difficult to focus on the larger community when making charitable donations. As the enormity of September 11 is put into some perspective, we hope that you will remember those organizations and tzedakah funds that have benefited from your support and largesse prior to the recent tragedy.

Those working in Heart Disease, AIDS, Lung Disease, Cancer research, and more still need our generous support. The Jewish Federation, our Temple funds, and other Jewish organizations need to hear from you, too. We are commanded as a people to support our community, to help those in need, and to save lives when we can.

Chanukah December 9-17, 2001

Blessings...

On the first night, place one candle on the far right of the Chanukiyah (menorah for Chanukah), let the Shamash (helper candle), light the candle and recite all three blessings. On nights 2-8, place the candles in the Chanukiyah from right to left and light the candles from left to right, and say only the first two blessings after all of the candles are kindled.

בָּרוּדְ אַתָּה יִיָ אֱלֹהַינוּ מֶלֶדְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשֶׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצְוֵנוּ לְהַדְּלִיק וֵר שֶׁל חֲנַכָּה.

About Chanukah...

Chanukah is an eight day festival that we don't find mentioned in our Bible. The word Chanukah means re-dedication and commemeorates the victory of Judah the Maccabee and his followers over the forces of the Syrian king, Antiochus IV. When Judah and his brothers recaptured the ancient Temple in Jerusalem in 165 B.C.E., their eight-day rededication ceremony was the first Chanukah. The story is told in the First and Second Books of the Maccabees, which form part of the Apocrypha--sacred literature of Judaism that is post-Biblical. The Temple had been Hellenized--transformed from uniquely Jewish practices to heavy Greek influence. The Maccabees cleaned house, rededicated the Temple and brought back the Jewish customs. It is this we celebrate at Chanukah.

There is a legend that in rededicating the Temple, a cruz of oil could only be found to last for one night--but it miraculously lasted for eight nights, and that is why Chanukah is celebrated for eight nights. While most love this story, other theories of why we celebrate for eight nights surround the festival of Sukkot, which was thought to be the festival used (albeit late) for the rededication of the Temple service.

Light is a symbol of most holidays that are found in the middle of winter. Light is associated with God's presence, and the lights of the festival help us bring God's presence into this ceremony. Gift giving is a borrowed custom, not originally associated with the holiday. In fact, in the state of Israel, this holiday is minor and subtle.

1 have a little Dreidel...

Dreidel is a wonderful game of chance that uses a four-sided top with four Hebrew letters. Each person "anties" a piece of chocolate gelt (coin) or peanuts. Upon spinning the Dreidel, the player must respond to the letter upon which the Dreidel lands.

Many of these kids assist her throughout the year with small tasks she cannot perform for herself. Mary Ann sees this is as a way of paying them back and ensuring a more positive future for them.

Please bring your gently used children's books to the Temple. Look for the collection box near the Gift Shop. New books and cash donations are also welcome. Call Helen Marks Waits at 242-0066 with any questions. Thank you!

INTRODUCTION TO JUDAISM CLASS OFFERED

An Introduction to Judaism Class co-sponsored by the Midwest Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Reform Rabbis of Cincinnati will be held at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, 3101 Clifton Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio 45220.

The sessions will be from January 9, 2002 through May 1, 2002 on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. The enrollment fee is $125.00 per registration (single or couple) and includes materials and books. Any individual wishing to take the course must be referred by a Reform rabbi from one of the local Reform congregations. (Please contact Rabbi Kopnick if you wish to take this course.)

Many students who enroll in the course do so for the ultimate purpose of conversion, but both Jews and non-Jews who simply wish to enhance their knowledge of Judaism are welcome to attend. While completion of the course does not constitute conversion, many rabbis require the course as partial fulfillment of their conversion requirements.

Fourteen sessions will cover the basic elements of Jewish history, theology and practice. Individuals wishing additional information should contact a local Reform rabbi or HUC-JIR (513) 221-1875.
