Mr Cohen

Dear Sir

I found your letter awaiting me on my arrival at home a few days ago. From my memory of Col S's affairs I could not certify that he had with him a servant not one enlisted man - nor could I certify he had a horse with him at the time of the disaster on Red River. He had sold a horse just before embarking on the boat at Baton Rouge, and my impression is that he had but the one - It may be, however that he had one, as he was talking of buying one. Perhaps Lt Col Slocum, now at Ashland, O.

could make the desired affidavit.

Very Respectfully your obedt servt
