Rabbi Mark H. Tannenbaum

New York, N. Y. 10022

Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

At the risk of becoming a nuisance, I would like to add my invitation to the one extended to you by Diane Hahn, Secretary of the Milwaukee Chapter, American Jewish Committee, to be a principal speaker at our local celebration of "Nostra aetate" on Sunday, October 13, 1985. I know I am also expressing the desires of our Archbishop, Rembert Weakland, who has been very much involved in the activities of the Catholic/Jewish Dialogue here in our Milwaukee community.

As Ms. Hahn has undoubtedly explained in her telephone calls to AJC Headquarters, the October 13th celebration flows quite naturally out of the observance of the 21st Anniversary of the issuance of the Vatican II Document on Ecumenism which is scheduled for Saturday, October 12. As a follow-up to our celebration of "Nostra aetate", we will, on October 14, mark the 10th Anniversary of our local Catholic/Jewish Dialogue.

We are very much aware of the many demands that are made on your time, especially in connection with the AJC observance nationally of the Vatican II document. I am sure, however, that I need not explain how important to our planning and the attendant publicity, your acceptance of our invitation will be.

May we hear from you at your earliest convenience so that our plans for this important observance can be firmed up?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Mulroy,

Thank you for your kind letter of July 10th.

I wish to confirm my acceptance of your thoughtful invitation to take part in your October 13th observance of the 20th Anniversary of Nostra Aetate.

I am delighted that a long-time friend, Father Tom Stransky, will be sharing the platform.

I would like to get, as early as possible, an outline of the program for that evening.

With warm good wishes to you and to Archbishop Weakland, I am,

Cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

Thank you for accepting our invitation to participate in our October 13th observance of the 20th Anniversary of "Nostra aetate". We are delighted that you will be able to join us.

Sharing the platform with you will be Father Tom Stransky whom I am sure you know.

As more details of the program are finalized, I will make certain that the planning committee will keep you informed. Diane Hahn of the local AJC will usually have the answers to any questions you may have and be fully aware of all of the program details.

I shall look forward to meeting you in October.

Sincerely,

Bert C. Mulroy
