Dear Rabbi Tannenbaum:

In September and October we are launching a series of weekly lectures followed by questions and discussion on the theme: "Faith, Justice and Human Development!" The series is to be ecumenical in nature and we hope to have such speakers as Robert McAfee Brown, Denis Goulet, Rev. Richard McBrien and Gary MacEoin each addressing the theme a different week.

We would be most honored to have you open the series and relate to the theme under the particular topic of MORAL VALUES AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT. This I would envision would be substantively the content of the talk which you gave at the Time Consultants Religious Education meeting held in Washington in February of this year. I personally found it a magnificent address and know others from both the Christian and Jewish communities in this lower Westchester area would find it inspirational and helpful also.

Would you let me know by telephone or mail if the date, MONDAY, September 13th at 7:30 p.m. is convenient for you? If not and you are interested in participating would any of the following dates be better for you?-- all Monday evenings--
Sept. 20th, 27th, or Oct. 18, or 25th or Nov. 1st.

The audience we expect will be both undergraduates and adults from the academic and civic communities.

Please have your secretary call me at 914-NE 2-5300, 5301 or at 914-969-5350 regarding your response.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Resnick:

Would you be so kind as to send me as soon as it is convenient for you some information from your Public Relations file on Rabbi Tanenbaum. We would like to do several press releases prior to his speaking engagement here on Sept. 20th as well as have some up-to-date material for his introduction. If you have a picture we could use that also.

Nearer to the date I will contact you about his travel arrangements. If he will be in the N. Y. area or N. Y. airport area we can arrange for a car to bring him to New Rochelle. The lecture begins at 8:00pm. If he would like to come for dinner we would be delighted to have him come for that--around 6:00 or 6:30 would be fine.

As soon as the brochure for the over-all series is ready I will send you a copy of that for him.

Enjoy the rest of the summer.

Sincerely,

Sr. Phyllis Hinchcliffe
