DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

Sunday, February 27th, 10:00 A.M., at Temple Beth-El

"Strange Cults & Jewish Youth"

Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein and Peter Tipograph (the latter, a former member of the Moon Unification Church community in Berkley.)

This lecture will present a description from a social-psychological perspective of young people who join cults. It will also examine the appeal that makes these cults successful in capturing such youth. Rabbi Saperstein, who served as Hillel Director at the University of Georgia and the University of Illinois, has made a special study of the Moon Church and other cults. Peter Tipograph, a graduate of Washington University, will give his personal observations gathered during the period when he lived in the Moon community in Berkely.

Sunday, March 6th, 10:00 A.M. at Temple Beth-El

"President Carter, Evangelism and the Jews"

Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum

Rabbi Tanenbaum is the brilliant editorial commentator who is heard regularly over station WINS and on many TV panel programs. Executive Director of the American Jewish Committee, he holds doctorates from five Universities. He is one of American Jewry's most dynamic spokesmen. Rabbi Tanenbaum returns to our forum again by popular demand.

Sunday, March 13th, 10:00 A.M. at Temple Beth Abraham

"The Great Jewish Comedians View The Jewish Family"

Dr. Samuel Janus

Dr. Janus is Clinical Ass't Professor of Psychiatry at New York Medical College and a Fellow of the American Institute for Psychiatry, Therapy and Psychoanalysis. He is also the Director of Group Psychotherapy at New York Medical College. In his lecture he will analyze the changing pattern of the Jewish family and will center on some of the great Jewish Comedians of our times, their families, how their humor evolved and what they represent to Jewish interest.

Sunday, March 20th, 10:00 A.M. at Temple Beth Abraham

"Another Unique Encounter with the Lubavitcher Chassidim

Rabbi Eli Lipsker and his group of Lubavitcher Chassidim

By popular request, we bring to our platform another outstanding Chassidic Dance and Lecture-Recital by this colorful group which has received highest praise from our own community and from audiences throughout the country. They are under the direction of Rabbi Lipsker whose vibrant tenor voice and accordian have been heard on many Chassidic recordings including those of Lubavitch, Modzitz and Ger.
