June 19, 1978

14 Sivan, 5738

The Board of Rabbis of Greater Philadelphia comprises more than 100 rabbis in the Greater Philadelphia community serving in some 80 congregations and other related fields of Jewish life. It is the only Jewish religious body in Philadelphia representing the four major religious viewpoints, Orthodoxy, Conservatism, Reform and Reconstructionism, united in one organization.

The function of the Board of Rabbis is, in its broadest sense, to enhance the religious values and significance of all Jewish communal endeavors in furtherance of the historic character of the Jewish people as a religious community.

The Board of Rabbis of Greater Philadelphia is a Constituent of the Federation of Jewish Agencies.

Dear Marc:

I was delighted to see that you will be speaking in Philadelphia on June 19, 1978. My wife and I will be attentive listeners. Incidentally, we are members of Rodeph Shalom where you are speaking.

I am sure you will have a hectic schedule. However, Liz and I would be delighted to have you join us for dinner that evening should your schedule permit.

Cordially,

Rabbi Marc Tanenbaum
Director of Interreligious Affairs Department
The American Jewish Committee
165 E. 56th Street
New York, New York 10022

Dear Marc,

Our Executive Committee was delighted to learn of your acceptance of our invitation to be the principal speaker at the Annual Convocation of the Board of Rabbis of Greater Philadelphia, on Monday, June 19, 1978, at noon. This letter is to confirm your acceptance formally and to ask you to send to this office your bio and a glossy print. If I remember correctly your address will be titled, "A Heshbon Ha-Nefesh on Jewish/Christian Relations."

5/18

It was so good to talk with you. As a if not the pioneer in the field of interreligious relations in depth, you will find an audience eagerly awaiting your Heshbon Ha-Nefesh. The occasion will include the rabbis of the community as well as other members of the Jewish family. I brought your coming to Murray Friedman's attention and he will suggest names of the American Jewish Committee to be invited.

I want to express personally my deepest gratitude for your understanding of our budgetary limitations within which, of course, we shall do our very best.

With all good wishes for a חג שמח,
I am

Cordially yours,

Morris
