My dear General Donahue,

It was a genuine privilege to meet you at the National Prayer Breakfast at Fort Gordon.

Your introductory remarks were superb - a cameo of insight and sensitivity.

As promised, I am sending you some background material on the Indochinese refugee problems. After reading the material, if you have any questions, please feel free to write me.

With warmest personal good wishes and my prayers for God's richest blessings over you, your family, and your associates, I am,

Cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Tanenbaum:

We are pleased to be informed that you are available to participate in our National Annual Prayer Breakfast to be conducted at Fort Gordon, Georgia, on Tuesday morning, 22 January 1980; therefore, I extend this invitation with a request that you favor us at that time with your presentation regarding the plight of the "Boat People" of Southeast Asia.

The Prayer Breakfast, itself, is very important to us as we join with American leaders all over the world to reaffirm our religious heritages and reliance upon God's guidance in the affairs of our nation. We are truly delighted to have you share this experience with us and to, hopefully, stimulate a greater interest in the "Boat People" throughout our community.

I invite you to contact the Center Chaplain's Office for any further details. The telephone number is (404) 791-4737 or 791-4683.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM J. HILSMAN
