ELLIOTT WHITEMAN MEMORIAL LECTURE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1982, 8 P.M. RABBI MARC H. TANENBAUM TO SPEAK

The Second Annual Elliott Whiteman Memorial Lecture will take place on Sunday, November 28, at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Centre. This Annual Lecture is being provided by the late Elliott Whiteman's family as a continuing tribute to his memory.

Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum

The guest lecturer will be Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, national interreligious affairs director of the American Jewish Committee, who has been a pioneering leader and thinker in interreligious relations and social justice movements during the past thirty years.

Elliott Whiteman

He has been a major force in the promotion of social justice and human rights. At the invitation of the International Rescue Committee, he joined delegations of prominent American leaders to carry out fact-finding investigations of the plight of Vietnamese "boat people" and Cambodian refugees. He has organized many relief efforts for victims of war, refugees, and the starving.

Recently he served as the consultant to the NBC-TV nine-hour special "Holocaust" and earlier was consultant to the special "Jesus of Nazareth." President Carter appointed Marc Tanenbaum to serve on the Advisory Committee of the President's Commission on the Holocaust.

Rabbi Tanenbaum was the only rabbi at Vatican Council II, and he is a founder and co-secretary of the Joint Vatican International Jewish Consultative Committee as well as of a similar liaison body with the World Council of Churches. He also participated in the first official audience of world Jewish leaders with Pope John Paul II.

He has lectured at major universities, seminaries, religious and educational bodies in the United States, Europe and Israel, and at numerous national international conferences. Rabbi Tanenbaum is the author or editor of several published books and of numerous articles.

A question and answer period will follow and refreshments will be served. Dr. Gabriel Whiteman, Elliott's brother, will introduce Rabbi Tanenbaum. There is no admission fee and the community is cordially invited.
