Series G: Speaking Engagements. 1975-1992

Box 109, Folder 19, Miscellaneous speaking engagements
Undated.

Dr. Marc H. Tanenbaum, Director of International Relations of the American Jewish Committee, has a long and distinguished career in international human rights, world refugee, world hunger and foreign relations concerns. Rabbi Tanenbaum has been designated in a recent national poll as "one of the ten most influential and respected religious leaders in America."

Rabbi Tanenbaum is a founder and leading member of the joint liaison committee of the Vatican Secretariat on Catholic-Jewish Relations and the International Jewish Committee for Inter-religious Consultations, and of a similar body with the World Council of Churches. He was the only rabbi at Vatican Council II, and participated in the first official audience of World Jewish leaders with Pope John Paul II in Vatican City. He was also the first Jewish leader to address 4,000 delegates attending the Sixth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Vancouver in July 1983.
