

VT-881

ABC Special Report, "The Pope in America." 27 June 1990.

Full transcription is not available.

Marc H. Tanenbaum segment at (01:46:15-01:47:00)

F: Rabbi Marc Tanenbaum, a leader of the American Jewish Committee.

TANENBAUM: It'll be the first time in nearly 2,000 years that the Vatican and a Pope has lifted up to the highest level of teaching authority of the church the idea--which this Pope has declared in the past--that no one can consider himself or herself a devout believing Catholic and be an anti-Semite at the same time.