Dear Rabbi Schindler:

Thank you for the copy of your powerful letter to Edward Rosenthal of the JNF. I've just heard from a local rabbi who called him that the dinner is off.

It's not clear why, but President McPherson has asked for his honor to be postponed for two years. The JNF, however, now has no plans to re-offer the award to him at that time.

Your letter made us very proud to be Jewish, and proud of the Reform Movement.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rosenthal:

I learned from some members of one of our congregations in the Michigan area of your intention to give the "Tree of Life" award to President Peter McPherson of Michigan State University.

I do not know what President McPherson's accomplishments are which merit such a distinction, but I understand some of his views clash sharply with the stance which the Reform movement has taken on issues of concern to our society. Specifically, so I have been told, he has single handedly blocked domestic partner benefits for gay and lesbian faculty and staff at Michigan State University - and this despite the overwhelming faculty approval and the strong recommendation of the University Task Force.

Mind you, this is not merely the feeling of the Reform Jewish community which, after all, is the largest stream of Judaism on the North American scene. Even the President of Yeshiva University and despite pressures from his religious right, took a liberal stance regarding an issue in this sphere.

When we honor people whose way of life clashes with our traditions, we run the risk of alienating the younger generation who are inclined to be Jews primarily because of our commitment to justice and civil rights.

With cordial greetings, I am

Sincerely,

Alexander M. Schindler

Dear Rabbi Schindler:

As proud, committed Jews who belong to a Reform congregation (Shir Tikvah in Troy, Michigan), and who admire the Reform movement's position on gay issues, we are writing to ask for your support. Next March, the Jewish National Fund will be honoring President Peter McPherson of Michigan State University at a "Tree of Life" dinner in the Lansing area. This is appalling news because the President hates gays.

President McPherson has single-handedly blocked domestic partner benefits for gay and lesbian faculty and staff at Michigan State University. This, despite overwhelming faculty approval and the strong recommendation of a university task force. McPherson's resistance to domestic partner benefits is especially disturbing because two other universities in Michigan grant such benefits.

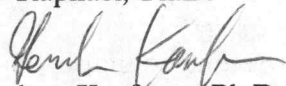

We feel that Jews should not be honoring a homophobe in any way. Gersh and I have been writing letters of protest to the organizers of this event as well as to the JNF. A letter from the UAHC would be an enormous help. Please send a letter urging that Peter McPherson not be honored by the JNF to:

Edward Rosenthal
Jewish National Fund
17100 W. Ten Mile Rd.

We have admired your outspokenness on gay rights in the past and feel that your intervention could be crucial in averting a shameful episode in the Jewish community, whose commitment to justice and civil rights has always been exemplary. Thank you for your time.

Dear Rabbi Warshaw:

I was pleased to receive the most recent edition of the National Rabbinic Advisory Council Newsletter. Enclosed in the mailing was a lovely small card with "significant dates" listing the Jewish holidays for 5754.

Unfortunately, the calendar you sent gives only the dates for Orthodox and some Conservative observance of holidays. Any Reform Jew using this calendar will be misled with respect to Yizkor, for Passover and for Shavuot. There can be only two possible explanations for the printing of the calendar which is misleading; either this was done intentionally or unintentionally. If it was the intent (and I am sure it was not) to ignore the Reform Movement's practices, then I do not wish to be associated with the Jewish National Fund. If the omission of the Reform observance was unintentional, it can only be either out of ignorance or irrelevance. If the staff of the Jewish National Fund, with the large number of rabbis on the advisory council, still is unaware of differences in practice, then there is a serious problem with the organization. On the other hand, if the existence of the Reform Movement is simply an irrelevancy to the Jewish National Fund, and, therefore, it did not even occur to check not only the dates for the Orthodox community but for my community as well, then no purpose can be served in my participating in JNF activities.

I am most distressed that the Jewish National Fund, an institution which I had always thought to be pluralistic would insult the Reform Movement in this way. For this reason, I can no longer participate in the fund raising activities for the JNF, and you will note by the cc at the bottom of the letter that I am urging my national bodies to do similarly.

I hope that 1994 will be a year of learning for the Jewish National Fund's staff and National Rabbinic Advisory Council so that Reform Judaism and Reform Jews can, in the future, feel themselves embraced by rather than rejected by the Jewish National Fund.

From: Moshe Rivlin

Recently, on February 25, we were honored to host you in the Beit She'an Valley, where, as guests of the Jewish National Fund, you received a first-hand glimpse of JNF's work, with particular regard to developing regional water facilities.

You saw the Nitzan reservoir near Kibbutz Maoz Haim and we spent some time in the reinforced theater which was built in the throes of the War of Attrition in the Seventies. During our brief time together, construction work forged ahead on other reservoirs, both near and far, at Gesher and Hamadiya and in the Besor riverbed in the northwestern Negev. Additional reservoirs are about to be completed and work on new reservoirs and dams is about to begin. Of course, this extensive undertaking in the field of water development proceeds alongside JNF's ongoing activity in afforestation, land reclamation, drainage, tourism infrastructure and roadbuilding, as well as its extensive work in education.

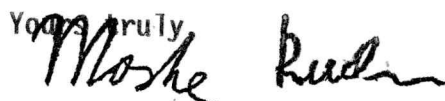

I take pleasure in sending you a video cassette as a memento of your visit to JNF's works, in the hope that you will find it of interest.

As I write these lines, approximately 1,000 employees including new immigrants and demobilized soldiers, who only a few days go ranked among the unemployed, can be found at JNF work sites around the country. About six months ago, we hired some 500 jobless. This week, we have taken on another 1,000. In the coming weeks, the total number of unemployed earning a livelihood through JNF will grow to 4,000.

In the best JNF tradition, they have been hired at the request of the Minister of Labor and Welfare, Ms. Ora Namir, who asked JNF to help alleviate the country's severe unemployment problem.

The government request posed a serious challenge. Nevertheless, once again, JNF rose to the occasion and will show itself equal to the task.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and all Beit Israel a happy Passover.

Yours truly,

Moshe Rivlin

Enclosed, you will find a copy of a letter that I have recently sent to Dr. Sam Cohen of the JNF. It concerns an order for trees that my partner and I just placed.

Once again, thank you for everything.

Dear Dr. Cohen,

I know it is unusual for someone to send an order for trees directly to you, but this is no ordinary order. You see, until recently I was one of the JNF's most outspoken critics.

It was I, who in 1990, first conceived, organized and named the Lahav Project. I was the one who was instrumental in the organization of the UAHC efforts on behalf of the Lahav Project and along with my friend Rick Sholl in Boston, the primary tactician for the entire Project.

Now that the plague is up and this issue has been settled, I feel that it is important for me to publicly renew my support of the wonderful work of the JNF.

My partner, Vincent Guccione and I, have decided to plant trees for each other this year. Vincent is the most important person in my life, and I would never entertain the thought of honoring him in a place that would be unfriendly to either of us. It is that sentiment that should speak most highly to you of the regard in which I hold the work of the JNF and my commitment to that work.

I would like to add, the excitement that I see in Vincent's eyes when he talks of visiting the Guccione tree in Israel, is beyond all price for me.

In closing, I'd like to say, I can think of no better way to end the Lahav Project by putting a copy of this letter into my files of the project and sealing it up.

Thank you. I look forward to a new relationship with the JNF for many years.

Phil Meltzer and I were at the JNF Administrative Committee meeting yesterday and were delighted to hear Sam Cohen's report on the matter of the grove planted by the World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations some years ago. A solution has been reached which has met with the approval of Barrett Brick of the World Congress, as well as JNF here and in Israel.

A marker bearing the date and the name of the World Congress will be placed at the grove. Everyone agrees it is best to wait to do this until after the Israel elections. All concerned also agree that there is to be no press and/or public statements for additional publicity would be counter-productive both here and in Israel.

The Board of the World Congress meets in Atlanta in July and the marker will probably be set in place at Lahav after that meeting.

Dear Sam:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the gay and lesbian issue. Needless to say, I am glad that you will continue to have conversations with Barrett Brick in hope of arriving at some mutually agreeably compromise.

Nonetheless, I must tell you that I am most firmly in sympathy with his point of view. You wonder whether any major universities and hospitals and like facilities in Israel have such markers? They do in America, of course, and I for one would not be at all embarrassed, nay, I would be proud to have such a marker on our buildings. Moreover, a donor has every right to be identified by his proper designation, that is to say, by the name by which he calls himself.

But of course you ask whether other institutions in Israel are ready to do this sort of thing. Well, wouldn't it be wonderful if the Jewish National Fund were to be a progressive force in this sphere. L'maan hashem, gay and lesbian Jews are not people from another planet, they are not foreign creatures! They are our own, flesh of our flesh and bone of our bone, they are our brothers and sisters, our sons and our daughters and they do not deserve to be excluded. We have no right to make them invisible.

What I am really saying to you is that whatever compromise is acceptable to Barrett Brick and his companions will be acceptable to me, but if it is not acceptable to them, you will find me in their camp. In this instance I speak not only for myself personally, but for the entire Reform movement.

Dear R'Alex:

I hope that all is well with you and that you're in good health.

I'm sure that Edie Miller told you about our conversations a few weeks ago about the World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations, and our recent communications with Barrett Brick.

Last week, while in Israel for the Presidents' Conference mission, I had the occasion again to review the problem and its ramifications. We studied the resolution adopted by the General Assembly of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations about the Lahav project and, frankly, are very disappointed that this resolution was passed. We're taking a bum rap, which we don't deserve, because the problems of an identification marker with the name, "Conference of Gays and Lesbian Jewish Organizations" goes far beyond the Jewish National Fund. We wonder whether any of the major universities, hospitals or other such facilities in Israel are prepared at this time to have such markers put up. Even some of the people who seem supportive of the idea, with respect to the JNF, when asked if their own institutions would do this said, "absolutely not." Frankly, we're not sure of the meaning or impact of the resolution, if any. As a matter of fact, we received a total of four letters from rabbis protesting our position.

We want you to know that we, nevertheless, continue to have discussions with Barrett Brick, and will most likely be meeting with him before the July conference of his organization. We would like you to know, also, that we will continue to have dialogue with him in a serious effort to find some sort of accommodating compromise that we can all live with, and we would very much appreciate your conveying this to your colleagues.

We're committed to finding an appropriate resolution to the problem. You know, of course, that our colleagues in Israel have asked us to come up with a solution that would be acceptable to all of the parties.

With warmest good wishes, and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Congregation Sha'ar Zahav is a reform synagogue with a special outreach to gay and lesbian Jews, their families, friends, and community. We are also a founding member of the World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations. I am sure that you are familiar with the JNF's refusal to honor its original agreement with the World Congress to place a plaque at the grove of 9,000 trees planted at Lahav by the World Congress some years ago. Until the JNF honors this commitment, we cannot in good faith participate in JNF activities.

I would appreciate hearing from you that the JNF has agreed to honor its original commitment and we will then be glad to renew our participation in JNF programs.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Rabbi Warshaw:

It has been recently brought to my attention through a resolution which has been adopted by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations that a woodland of 3000 trees has been planted by the National Conference of Gay and Lesbian Jews. It is my understanding that to date this woodland has not been properly acknowledged. I feel that this is an injustice and this problem should be remedied immediately.

The holiday of Tu'B'Shvat is approaching quickly and in the spirit of renewal, I am sure that the Jewish National Fund would want to positively respond to this resolution.

Dear Rabbi Warshaw:

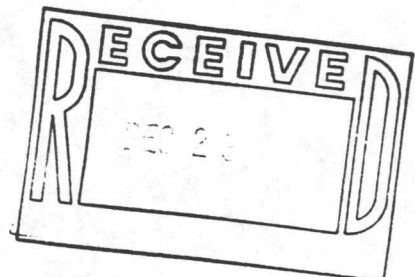

Perhaps you will remember my writing to you in August regarding the enclosed resolution, which has since been passed by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in November.

Tu B'Shvat is approaching and our large pre school and Hebrew school have always supported the JNF. However, this year we are not planning a drive. We feel badly about this because we want to support Israel and the JNF. There needs to be a response from JNF on this matter. May we hear from you?

Dear Sam:

Your letter of January 15th has just reached the office. I write to advise you that Alex is still traveling and not due back until the end of this month. I do know that he and Moshe Rivlin were trying to connect when Alex was out in Los Angeles, but I don't really know if they ever had an opportunity to speak.

I know Alex will be grateful for the information you shared in regard to Ron Frank of SET Productions. I don't believe that there is any possibility of a UAHC documentary film, inasmuch as we have just completed a major film undertaking to tell the story of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Much of the footage was filmed during our Biennial Convention in Baltimore and we expect to have a screening for our Executive Committee meeting early in February. If Ron Frank's name comes up in connection with any other film project here at the Union, we will certainly keep in mind your fine recommendation of this young man.

On a personal level, Sam, I am very pleased to be representing ARZA on the JNF Administrative Committee. I had been looking forward to attending my first meeting when the flu put me down. I do hope to be at the meeting on January 20, albeit I will have to leave a bit early for a previous engagement. It will be nice to see you again, it has been far too long.

With warm regards, I am

Dear R'Alex:

I hope that all is well with you and that you're in good health and in good spirits.

You know, of course, that our friend, Moshe Rivlin, is here until February 4th. I know that he tried reaching you.

I am writing to you in behalf of Ron Frank of SET Productions, a young man who has been doing our videos for several years now. He's terrific. Ron and his colleagues have put together a series of very attractive videos that now appear on television programs throughout the United States and have been extremely valuable in awakening people's interest in the JNF. From what I understand, he's now working on a proposal for a documentary film that he hopes will be done in connection with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. I know nothing whatsoever of your needs or interests along these lines. All that I can tell you is that if you are in the market for an outstanding filmmaker, selecting Ron Frank would be a wise and beneficial choice.

With warmest regards and very best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Samuel I. Cohen

Dear Moshe:

Unfortunately, I couldn't come to Israel. We had a Biennial convention scheduled for the last weekend in October and the preparations for it pre-empted my time and energies. It was a successful convention, over 4000 people were in attendance, men and women, young and old the spirit was superb.

Be that as it may, this convention kept me from being in Israel and kept me - to my greatest regret - from seeing and being with you.

As a matter of fact, it is because of the convention that I now turn to you. One of the resolutions which was adopted by our assembled delegates is addressed to the Jewish National Fund and I enclose it herewith.

The moderate language of the resolution, amended in deference to the Union's long standing relation with the JNF, should not be misunderstood as reflecting anything less than the total support of the 4000 delegates from across the North American continent who were present and voting.

In conveying this resolution to you, I also request a formal response so that I can share it with our leadership.

Mr. Moshe Rivlin

LAHAV PROJECT

BACKGROUND

In 1977 and 1987 the UAHC resolved to support and defend the civil and human rights of gay men and lesbians and in recent years has reaffirmed in even stronger terms the dignity and authenticity of the contribution of gay and lesbian Jews. Gay and lesbian Jews have helped to enrich Judaism throughout the ages and have fought for and given their lives for the establishment of Medinat Yisrael.

In 1979 the International Conference of Gay and Lesbian Jews planted a grove of 3000 trees in Lahav, Israel, as a living memorial to the lasting contributions of countless gay and lesbian Jews to the people and the State of Israel. However, the Jewish National Fund has refused to permit the placing of a fitting memorial plaque directly naming the grove donor - The International Conference of Gay and Lesbian Jews - at the site of the grove.

THEREFORE, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations resolves to urge the Jewish National Fund to:

1. Place a plaque at the site of the grove bearing the inscription:

"The 4th International Conference of Gay and Lesbian Jews"

And, 2. Forward to the Conference's successor, the World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations, the certificate with the wording:

"A woodland of 3000 trees planted by: the International Conference of Gay and Lesbian Jews honoring the countless homosexual men and women in the Golan and in Israel who gave of themselves to build and defend the land of Israel and who are struggling to bring Security, Torah, Ahavat Am Yisrael and Eretz Yisrael to Jews everywhere.

Dedicated July 22, 1979
at Lahav Israel."

This was a particularly gratifying occasion for all of us at the Jewish National Fund, as well as for our Keren Kayemeth colleagues in Israel. It is only fitting that your dedication and leadership should find such a living and growing expression in Israel.

I hope that you and your family will look at these photographs and remember the dedication with pleasure.

Dear Moshe:

You and Sam Cohen have been exceedingly supportive of our efforts to create playgrounds for the youngsters of our communities at Har Halutz and Kibbutz Yahel. You have been a great source of strength and support.

I could not permit your assistance to go un-noticed, and write that you may know all of us of the Reform movement are deeply appreciative of your strong support. I thank you on behalf of the UAHC and, of course, personally as well.

I hope all is well with you and look forward to seeing you when I am in Israel in June. Until we meet, warmest regards and every good wish.

The playgrounds at these two communities are critical to the well-being of the residents and their children and while they are a departure from the planting of trees, they are part of the planting of roots for our people in Israel.

Re: Estate of Mortimer Salzman

Dear Dan:

I am writing in reply to your letter of April 24, 1990 to the Executors of the Estate of Mortimer Salzman. I am pleased to advise you that the Executors have approved a contribution of $50,000 from the Salzman estate in order to allow the UAHC to renovate and refurbish the cabins used for adult Jewish study and training at the Kutz Camp in Warwick, New York. The contribution is made on the following conditions:

1. The cabins will be used as a facility for adult Jewish study and training.
2. The twelve cabin site will be named "The Salzman Village for Adult Jewish Studies" and an appropriate plaque, satisfactory to the Executors, will be placed at the site.
3. If at any time the facility is no longer used for the contemplated purposes or is sold, alternate memorialization in a manner satisfactory to the Executors will be provided at some other UAHC facility.

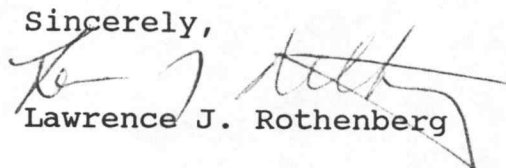

I would appreciate if, in due course, the Executors

Alex,

Five pieces of Good news:

J.N.F. RELATED

1. On May 2nd, Kibbutz Yahel dedicated a new playground, built with funds solicited by J.N.F. from a major donor we don't know. They did the work as a gesture of good will.
2. On May 2nd in Indianapolis, $50,000 from the dinner in Indianapolis in honor of Jeff Smulyan, (44 years old, member of Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation, owner of Seattle Mariners) was designated to build a playground at Har Halutz. Construction will begin as soon as the funds are transferred to Israel.

Assuming that Roland Gittelsohn and David Polish agree, the proceeds from their events will also be recognized in this project.

FOLLOW-UP

Please send letters to Moshe Rivlin and Sam Cohen, thanking them for their support of these efforts.

3. On May 3rd, Larry Rothenberg informed me officially of a $50,000 gift to the UAHC to refurbish the Torah Corps cabins for adult programming. The funds will be in hand before July 1st, with 15% going to "F.R.J.-Special Grants."

FOLLOW-UP

Please drop Larry a note of thanks, both on this and for spearheading and chairing the Peter Yarrow dinner. The New Leadership program really turned him. He's bright, a doer, generous, and anxious to serve on the Board.

4. Rivlin has given his blessing to an international Movement project through J.N.F. to benefit our settlements. This will not be limited to trees, but may be targetted for roads and infrastructures, so long as it falls within J.N.F. guidelines. The Vorspan Forest will continue, but this will enable us to help the settlements through a central Keren Kayamet fund from every progressive Jewish community. Again, they are the fund raisers, we the recipients. All we have to do is give it our blessing. Once the initial project is specified, ARZA and the World Union can publicize.

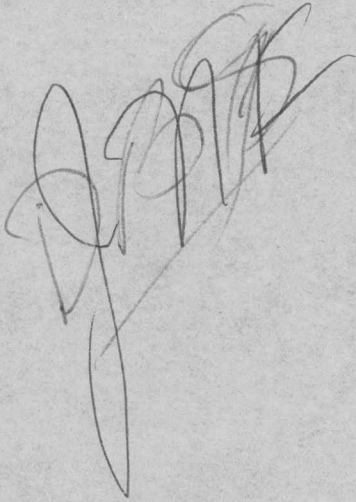

No follow-up required at this point. It will be a real morale boost for our kids in Israel.

5. Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream has "adopted" a Lotan cow through the "Moo-tual Fund". It's small dollars ($750.00) but a point of entry into their corporate giving program. I will fly up to Burlington this summer with Dave Camner to meet them, thank them, and see what domestic UAHC efforts they might support.

No follow-up required at this time.

6. Leonard Kleinman, Executive Vice-President of the New York Yankees and George Steinbrenner's right hand man, is a member of our congregation in Tampa. He and his fiancée, Susan are being married by Richard Birnholz in August, after which they will relocate to Ardsley. He is a gentle, good guy, who cares about Judaism. He'd like to have dinner with us and have us to a game whenever we'd like. I will pursue again, the potential for corporate giving is there. Youth suicide may be one possibility, NFTY programs another. He loves kids.

Dear Sandy:

Thank you for your caution in regard to mailings which result from the projects now being undertaken by the UAHC and ARZA in cooperation with the (JNF.) In most of these programs the brochures are printed by the JNF and since they fund no projects beyond the Green Line they do not show same on their maps.

Be assured your message is being taken to heart and, as a matter of fact, we have already made contact with the JNF to share your sentiments and to underscore our own desire that they use maps showing the Green Line for all projects in which we are involved.

It was good of you to take the time to write. We are all grateful to you.

Dear Alex:

The most recent mailing from the Union brought me a large packet of fascinating materials of great interest. But included in that mailing was one that disturbed me considerably. There is a lovely folder with beautiful graphics dedicated to projects of the Reform Movement in Israel which have been launched in cooperation between the UAHC, ARZA and the Jewish National Fund. The projects, one of which is named after you, all are most worthy and certainly deserve our support.

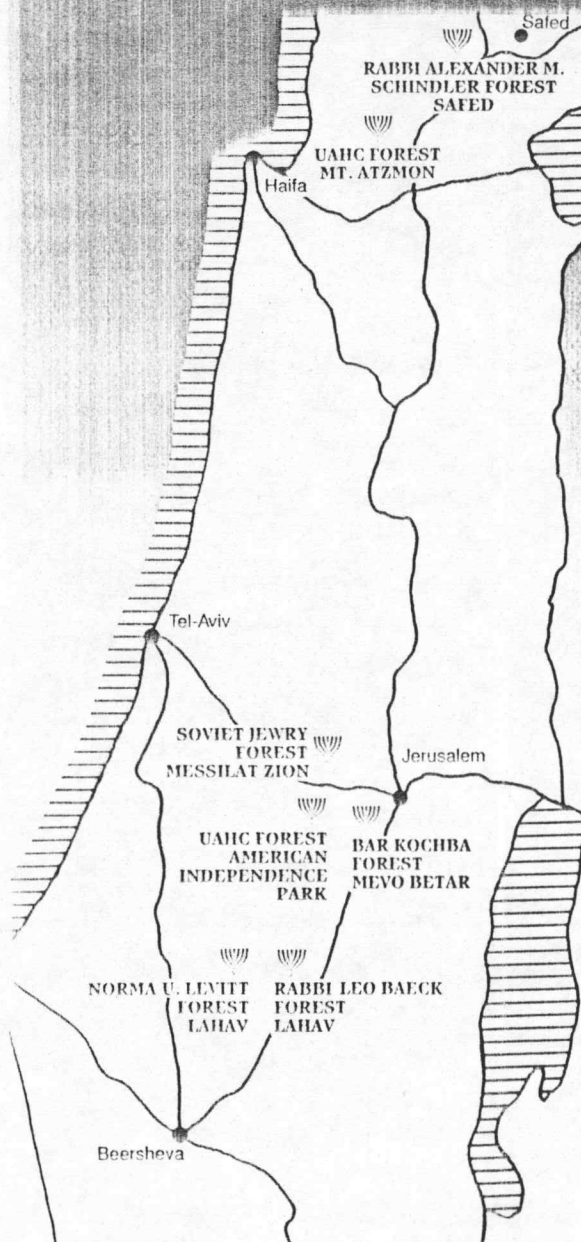

What troubles me deeply is the fact that the map which is prominently displayed in this folder contains no reference whatsoever to the "green line," and by implication, shows the occupied territories and Gaza as if they were an integral part of the land of Israel. I can understand when maps such as this appear under the auspices of Mr. Shamir and his political associates. I think it is unseemly, to say the least, for our Movement to use such graphics. When we do so we demonstrate a tacit acceptance of the political program of a retrograde political program that many of us believe is dangerous to the peace and security of the State of Israel.

With every good wish,

Sanford

PROJECTS OF THE REFORM MOVEMENT

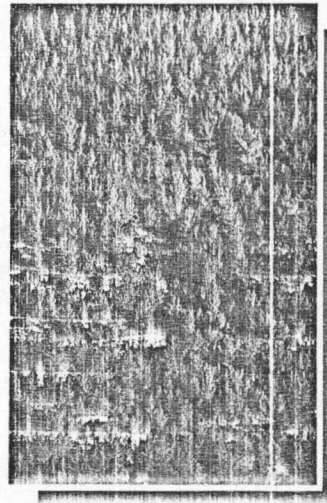

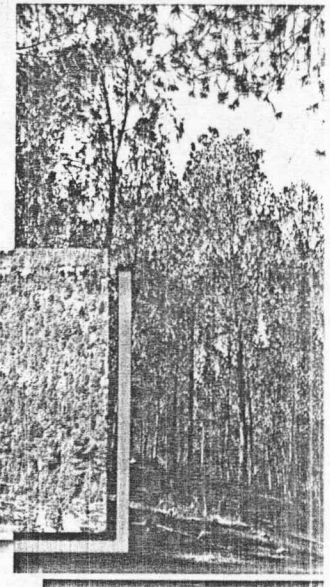

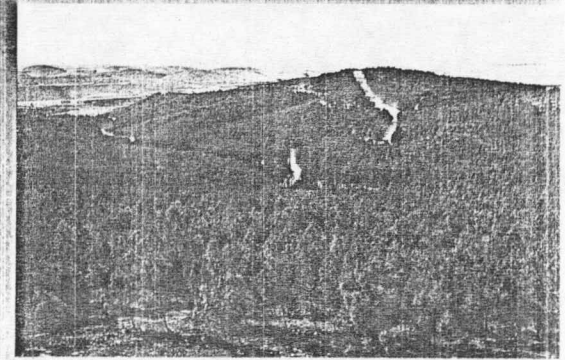

The JNF and the Reform Movement: a partnership born of a shared commitment to the redemption of the Land of Israel. This fruitful relationship has resulted in seven significant forests that are part of JNF's "blanket of green." Members of the Reform Movement have contributed generously to create these havens of peace and natural beauty which breathe new life into the environment and enhance the lives of Israelis throughout the Jewish homeland.

Reform Movement leaders and members are proud of their JNF projects which have enriched the Land of Israel. And they anticipate eagerly the results of a new, higher level of cooperation between JNF and their Movement: a development which promises a further abundance of blessings for Israel's land and people.

Regarding the JNF request, as I told you, while I have no objection in principle to having JNF monies channeled through the UAHC, this process would place an extraordinary burden on the UAHC -- administratively as well as financially. Literally hundreds of checks would have to be processed, orders transmitted, and then completely handled. My judgment is that it would probably take a full-time person to handle all of this, nevermind the complaints which would have to be dealt with as well.

In other words, I would never consider this manner of handling unless some profit were to be made by the Union, and a substantial sum would have to be taken out of the gross receipts. JNF is not giving us a gift here. They are merely trying to get rid of an enormous burden.

Thank you.

The Jewish National Fund has asked that we consider having all J.N.F. funds from our congregations come directly to the UAHC rather than its local and national office.

The procedure would be as follows:

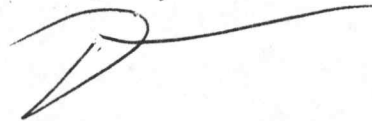

1. The check arrives here.
2. The tree order is sent to J.N.F.
3. We deposit the money and have the cash flow and/or interest.
4. We issue a single quarterly check to J.N.F.

Obviously, J.N.F. will save a great deal of staff accounting time. The questions are:

1. Is this something we wish to do?
2. Does it make sense cost wise for us to assume the staff burden, given the cost flow advantage and interest income?

I'd appreciate your counsel.

Dear Alex:

As I mentioned to you when we met at the airport a few weeks back, just before the WZO Actions Committee and Jewish Agency General Assembly meetings in Israel, all of us have reason to be very pleased and very proud of the responses to the Reform Movement's campaign to establish the Rabbi Alexander Schindler Forest at Sefad. To date, approximately $500,000 has been realized for this forest, making it the most successful drive for a forest in the history of the Jewish National Fund. Generally, when there is an organizational or community campaign to raise funds to establish a forest, the responses are anywhere from $50,000 to $150,000.

There's no question but that your personal prestige and popularity, and wholehearted identification with the project, guaranteed its success.

We're delighted that the Jewish National Fund played a role in this wonderful, everlasting tribute to you and your leadership; and we're also extremely gratified at this demonstration of accelerated support for the JNF on the part of the Reform Movement.

Moshe Rivlin, Dr. Sternstein, and Charlotte Jacobson, join me in extending to you and to Mrs. Schindler, to the leadership of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and to your professional staff, our congratulations, our warm greetings, and our deep appreciation.

Dear Rabbi Schindler:

We are pleased to inform you that you have been officially elected to serve as an Honorary Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Jewish National Fund of America at our Biennial Meeting held on Thursday, December 17th, 1987, for 1987-1989. Please accept our warmest wishes and expressions of congratulations.

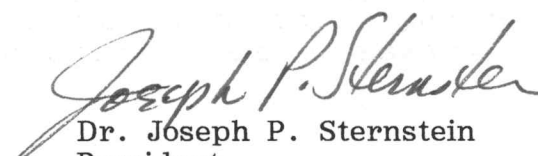

You are among the leaders of an organization in the midst of tremendous strides in fund-raising activities on behalf of the afforestation and reclamation of Israel's land. Consider the following: JNF has more than tripled its income over the past ten years; holds fund-raising dinners all over the country, featuring honorees who are considered elite members of the business, political and entertainment communities; employs sophisticated media campaigns to gain increasing support from all sectors of American society, and is gaining interest among up-and-coming young business and professional leaders in major U.S. cities. Our efforts ultimately benefit a wide variety of life-sustaining work on behalf of the Jewish homeland, now thriving with forests, urban greenbelts, parks, agricultural communities and industrial areas.

This impressive record only inspires us to further accomplishments in meeting the challenges that lie ahead. In anticipating the future, we look forward to the commitment and enthusiasm which you will undoubtedly bring to our historic Zionist work. We urge you to be active, to attend meetings regularly, and thereby help strengthen our work in behalf of Israel.

It pleased me to learn that I have been elected as an Honorary Chairman of the Jewish National Fund Board of Directors for 1985-87. I am very happy to accept.

The work of the JNF is impressive and important for the State of Israel. I hope that it will be possible for me to attend Board meetings but I do want to clarify the fact that my travel schedule is extremely heavy and I will not always be available for meetings. Please do not misconstrue my absence as disinterest on my part, I assure you it will be caused by time constraints and extensive travel on my part.

Dear Alex,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been officially elected to serve as an Honorary Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Jewish National Fund of America for 1985-1987, at our biennial meeting held on Thursday, December 12, 1985. Please accept our warmest wishes and expressions of congratulation.

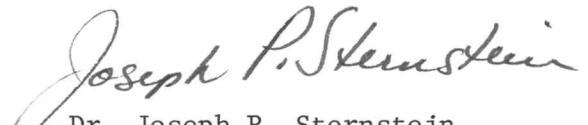

On December 29th, the Jewish National Fund will be celebrating its 84th birthday. Founded in 1901, at the Fifth Zionist Congress, the Jewish National Fund has served the Jewish people with great success over the years. Our accomplishments are to be seen throughout the length and breadth of modern day Israel. Visit any kibbutz, moshav, farm, settlement, industrial park, educational or cultural facility, indeed, virtually every municipality, and you will learn that at one time or another the area benefitted from the tractors and bulldozers and workers of the Keren Kayemeth Leisrael.

We take great pride in the historic Zionist achievements of the JNF, and we urge you to take an active interest in our work. We invite you to attend our meetings regularly, to join in our deliberations, and to help strengthen our continuing work in the afforestation and reclamation of land for the State of Israel.

Dear Sam:

Thank you very much for your letter summarizing the results of our religious community's effort in behalf of the Jewish National Fund. It certainly is nothing to be ashamed of, quite the contrary, we're all of us exceedingly pleased and proud. And, of course, we will do everything we humanly can to increase that contribution.

On another related matter, you ought to know that we are taking a leadership mission to Israel, come next May and, of course, we will be swinging by Haifa and Safed. I wonder whether it might be possible to schedule a dedication of our forest at that time. It might be a nice ceremony and will impress our leadership with the importance of JNF. I imagine that we'll have only about two or three bus loads but the quality is exceedingly high. The foremost leaders of our national constituency will be involved.

If you're at all agreeable to this idea, please be in touch with Rabbi Daniel Syme, the Union's Vice-President who will be planning our Board Mission.

With warm good wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Alex:

From time to time, we take inventory of the amounts raised for JNF projects by various constituent and related agencies and organizations. In connection with some discussions that we had with Ken Rosett this summer, we initiated a review of the amounts recorded as having been raised for the Jewish National Fund by the Reform Movement. The results are fascinating and I'm sure that you will be very pleased with the following data:

| Name of Project | Location | Am't Raised | Dates |
|--|-----------------------------------|---------------------|--------------|
| UAHC Forest | Mt. Atzon, Shefer | $ 65,472 | 1953-1961 |
| Bar Kochba Forest | Mevo Betar | 253,125 | 1962-1968 |
| UAHC-Soviet Jewry Forest | Messilat Zion (Near Jerusalem) | 100,000 | 1969-1974 |
| UAHC Forest at the Amer. Ind. Park | (Near Jerusalem) | 100,000 | 1969-1974 |
| Rabbi Leon Baeck Forest | Lahav | 79,500 | 1975-1980 |
| Norma U. Levitt Forest | Lahav | 77,463 | 1980-1985 |
| Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler Forest | Safed | 286,606 | 1983-1985 |
| | | $ 962,166 ===== | |

Permit me several pertinent observations that you may want to share with colleagues at the UAHC. First, the facts speak for themselves, and we all have reason to be pleased with the fact that over the years the Reform Movement's synagogues and schools have raised nearly $1 million for the JNF. Secondly, when one considers that the Reform Movement's JNF fund-raising efforts have for the most part been modest and low key, it's clear that there exists within your movement a tremendous potential for increased income for the JNF, -- and I'd like to discuss this with you sometime. Thirdly, there's another "fact" that should not be overlooked: The Reform Movement has now sponsored seven significant forests in Israel. And lastly (Achron achron chaviv,) the forest in your honor was a spectacular success by any standard, and certainly a great tribute to you.

Alex, from all of the above indications it would seem that the timing is right for your office to encourage greater and more widespread support for the JNF. If one were to break down the above listed incomes on a per year basis, it would appear that the current recorded annual income for the JNF from the Reform Movement is approximately $75,000. It could and should be much higher.

I hope that you'll have opportunities to convey to the leadership of the UAHC, the important progress and achievements evident in our partnership, and the hope that we will have this fruitful association for many, many years and generations to come.

With my compliments and warmest wishes to you personally, as well as the official appreciation of the JNF, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear Charlotte:

I have just received the first copy of a new UAHC publication for primary grades, entitled Joshua's Dream.

The book relates the story of a little boy who dreams of building the land of Israel as did his great-aunt at the turn of the century. The book concludes with Joshua planting a tree in Israel as his personal first act as a builder of Israel.

I've enclosed the book with my compliments. I hope that you will enjoy it. Certainly you will find its message in harmony with the central thrust of the JNF program.

This gift is not entirely altruistic for it occurred to me that you could well use this book for JNF purposes. If so, generous discount rates for quantity purchase could be arranged.

May I take this opportunity to wish you a sweet New Year.

When the news broke in the New York Times about Representative McKinney being involved in Arab Boycott activities, we immediately contacted the community and suggested the dinner be "postponed." The leaders refused to do this as they claim (verified by AIPAC) that Representative McKinney is a strong friend of Israel.

Right now, we are in a "holding position" until we can document the facts.

Dear Charlotte:

I am writing to call to your attention an item which appeared in the New York Times of February 23, Section B - Page 2. It pertains to Representative McKinney.

It appears that he has participated in the Arab boycott and has been responding to letters in two different ways. Someone by the name of Hoffman wrote to him and obviously the wrong button was pushed, Hoffman received an anti-Israel response rather than a pro-Israel letter. I bring this to your attention for I recall having seen somewhere, but I can't remember exactly where, that McKinney was to be honored by JNF at a dinner. In view of the article, perhaps you will want to look into this matter.

ABOUT THE GALILEE

Quiet has returned to Galilee. After the summer's defensive action, residents of northern border towns no longer sleep in shelters. Houses have been repaired, factories reopened, forests replanted, and fields are once again bearing fruit.

Since ancient times, the Galilee has occupied an important place in Jewish history. The land which was apportioned to the tribes of Asher, Naftali, Issachar and Zevulun, was also the home of Jewish patriots, prophets and zealots. Joshua won his great victory "at the waters of Meron," Deborah triumphed at Mt. Tabor, and Jonathan the Maccabee fought the Greeks at Hazor. In addition, following the fall of the Second Temple, the Sanhedrin, the supreme Jewish legislative body, moved from Yavne to Galilee, where both the Mishna and the Jerusalem Talmud were written.

Later, Safed became the center of Jewish mysticism, while Peqi'in boasts continuous Jewish settlement since the days of the Temple.

Galilee sites are also mentioned in the New Testament, as Nazareth and the Kinneret played a prominent role in the life of Jesus.

MOUNTAINOUS HEARTLAND

Mountainous Galilee includes almost 1.5 million dunams, bordered by Lebanon on the north, the Jezreel Valley on the south, the Kinneret on the east and Haifa Bay on the west. The 300,000 Jews who live in the north are centered in and around Haifa, Nahariya, Akko, Safed, Tiberias and Upper Nazareth. By comparison, the region's 280,000 non-Jews live primarily in the remaining rural areas, which cover more than one million dunams.

Recently a settlement drive has started, aimed at increasing the Jewish population of Israel's rural north.

Modern settlement began in the late 1800's. In 1920 the heroic defense of Tel Hai on the edge of the Hula Valley was part of the fight to keep northern Galilee within the area the Balfour Declaration opened for building a Jewish National Home.

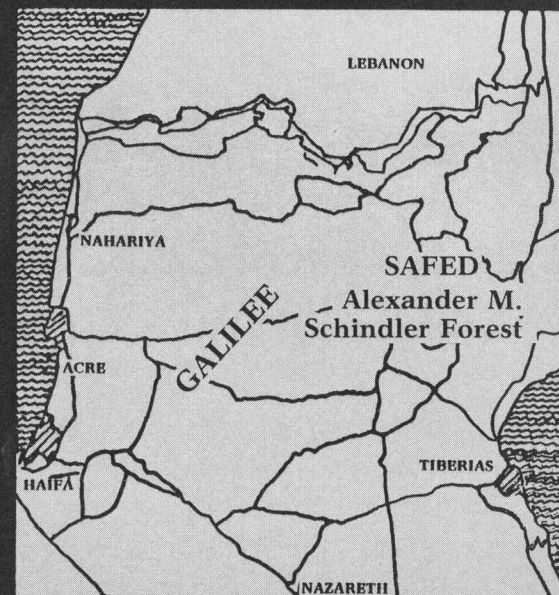

However, little could be done in the region's central hills, as virtually no land was accessible or ever for sale. At the height of the Arab riots, 1936-39, the JNF acquired land for outposts on the Lebanese border, where the first tower-and-stockade settlements were built, foremost among them Hanita.

During the War of Independence, despite heavy attacks, the Galilee remained part of the emergent State of Israel, and most of the non-Jewish inhabitants stayed in their towns and villages. Jewish pioneers took to reclaiming the rocky hillsides.

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations

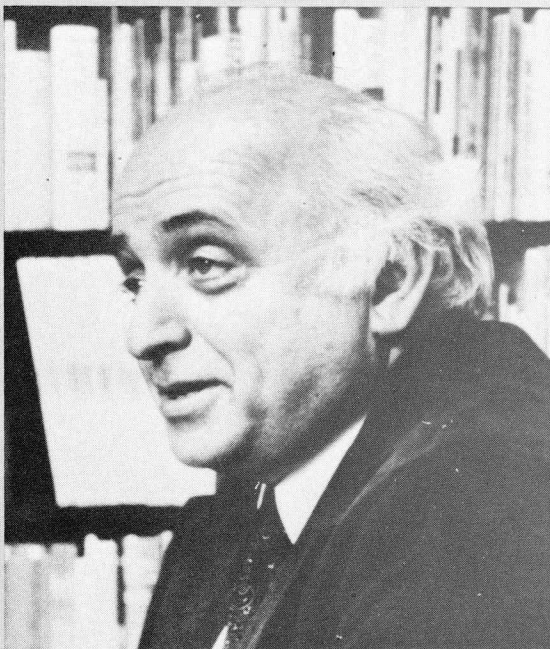

RABBI ALEXANDER M. SCHINDLER FOREST

at Safad, Israel

Here in this beautiful area in the North of Israel, the rugged but glorious Galilee, at Safad, we will establish the UAHF Alexander M. Schindler Forest. Our Goal is to make this the largest forest we have ever planted.

For 1000 trees or more you are entitled to a plaque with your name placed on the dedicatory wall of the forest at its site in Israel.

"No place is more dear to me than Israel, the Holy Land, and Jerusalem, the Holy City. Its space is filled with the voices of the past, its stones are the frozen echoes of Jewish history. It is the place where we learned how to wait for God and where the hope for lasting peace was born."

Rabbi Alexander Schindler is President of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. He has been called "the most prominent spokesman for America's disparate Jewish groups".

He has headed the synagogue movement of Reform Judaism in the United States and Canada, composed of 1.3 million men and women in some 750 Synagogues, since 1973.

Under his dynamic and creative direction, Reform Judaism has become one of the fastest-growing, most vigorous and influential forces in American religious life.

Eloquent, outspoken and fearless in the face of controversy, Rabbi Schindler has led the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and its affiliates in conducting social action programs on behalf of world peace, economic and social justice, religious pluralism, civil rights and civil liberties.

From 1976 to 1978 Rabbi Schindler served as Chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations (a representative coalition of leaders of 34 Jewish secular and religious bodies). He became a confidant of Israel's Prime Minister Menachem Begin who hailed him for his "courageous and outstanding leadership" and as one "who has written his own name into the pages of the Jewish people's story of freedom, dignity and strength.

For his services to the Jewish people, Rabbi Schindler was awarded the coveted Bublick Prize by the Hebrew University in 1978, an honor earlier bestowed on Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion and President Harry S. Truman, among others.

Born in Germany in 1925, Schindler and his family left the Nazis, arriving in the U.S. when he was 12. He earned a Purple Heart as a Skitrooper in World War II and graduated from the City College in New York before his ordination as a Reform rabbi at the Hebrew Union College. He is married to the former Rhea Rosenblum. The Schindlers have five children and live in Westport, Connecticut. pf

DETROIT — A two-year program of planting trees in what will be the Schindler Forest has been launched by the Reform Movement.

Rabbi Lane B. Stinger, of Temple Emanu-El, announced that his congregation has undertaken to plant 2,000 trees in the new forest, which has not as yet been announced nationally. I was truly delighted to receive your response to my recent inquiry. Needless to note, your answer made me very, very happy. There has been a long history in Israel of referring to Reform rabbis as Doctor. Thus, knowing what the inscription on the marker in Safed says is indeed a source of pleasure to me as a member of the Reform community.

With appreciation for your understanding and with warmest regards,
I am

Sincerely,

Dear Sam:

One of my colleagues wrote to inquire as to the designation of the forest in my name in Safed. He reminded me that in previous tributes to Reform rabbis, the forests in Israel did not bear the title Rabbi but rather Doctor. His quiry moves me to ask about the forest which is being planted in my honor. Will it indeed bear the title the Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler Forest? The brochure carries this designation. I was just wondering how it will appear at the forest itself.

Needless to note, it is my fond hope that my title Rabbi will be used. I would appreciate hearing from you.

With warmest regards, I am

Dear Herman:

On my return from Poland -- I got back late last night and this is my first morning at the office -- I was pleased to hear from you. I am deeply grateful to you for letting me know about what happened to the forests of other Reform rabbis. I will insist that it be called the Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler Forest.

In re Poland, the events are far too recent for me to allow for any meaningful reaction. Perhaps when we see each other I will have a chance to give you my impressions. Obviously I did not return with a light heart.

Fond good wishes to you and Adele in which Rhea joins me.

Dear Alex,

Your Secretary informs me you are in Poland. Trust you were able to find a few Jews. When I was there in 1936 there were Jews everywhere. Those were the "good days" with misery, hunger, and unbelievable brutality all in the name of "love." When I returned home I was unable to eat (literally) losing weight --how to take a morsel of bread while seeing the spectre of starvation.

For several days Rabbi Silverman of Hartford (my roommate and bedmate while in Warsaw) and I met each morning starting at five with the JDC Executive (who was a later martyr in the ghetto) and Jewish leaders from all of Poland. The government had launched a careful program to disenfranchise Jews from the industries which they had pioneered and developed, and to destroy the Jew economically (as endorsed by the newly created "saint"). Altho there were Jewish plumbers, for example, they now had to secure a license first endorsed by a Master Plumber--but no Jew was permitted to be a Master Plumber.

It was cherry season. People (young and old) bought the cherries, and delighted in spitting out the pits into the faces of bearded Jews who only wiped the spittle-off their faces with narry a word or glance of protest. A young Jewish journalist came late to our hotel--bedraggled, beaten-up. He had seen a Jew being beaten, and called attention of a policeman on the opposite corner who grabbed the reporter and began beating him "It is you who cause all the trouble" --and felt fortunate to have been able to wrestle-away and escape.

I covered all of Poland. In Lublin, visiting the College, graciously shown about by a couple of Nuns, when I asked where the Jewish students sat, the reply came without a moment's hesitation, pointing to the back of the room, "They sit on those six chairs"

My understanding is that the situation is still the same--only a fewer number of Jews to suffer. Would be interested in your report. At that time I visited through all of Eastern Europe--Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Russia, Prussia, Danzig Frei Stat (Wollie Kaelter home on vacation from HUC). My Yiddish proved an international language--even on trains. In Moscow even had a private car

Do let me know of the status of your forest IN ISRAEL. That is where it counts.

Be well and stay well.

Dear Rabbi Snyder:

Your letter of April 12 reached our office today. Rabbi Schindler left on a UAHC mission to Poland just last night. I know that on his return he will be delighted to find your note awaiting him.

I do not know how the forest is to be publicized in Israel, but I enclose herewith a copy of the brochure produced by the Jewish National Fund. You will note that the outside cover does indeed say the Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler Forest. While on the page with the map of the various UAHC forests the title rabbi is not included, it was included in the biographical data.

Dear Alex,

Much too long being in touch with ypu and family.
Trust all are well.

The reason for my writing . . .

I rejoice in the high honor paid you in establishing a forest in your name in Israel.

BUT I wonder whether it is uses your title "Rabbi" or "Doctor."

My observation has been that in Israel whatever is named for Reform Rabbis are always Doctored. Thus with Abba Hillil Silver, Stephen S Wise, Judah Magnin. On my trips to Israel our truly knowledgable guides were always shocked to learn that these men had been Rabbis!

If your forest is named "Rabbi Alex Schindler Forest" and so recorded and publicized in Israel, that would be a "break-through."

Love to all the family.

I would like to have someone from the New York Federation and possibly one of your lay people who is involved with our Youth Division, for that department does work closely with the JNF, with assistance for Yahel etc. Please let me have your suggestion so that we may make the necessary arrangements.

Dear Rabbi Schindler:

I am pleased to inform you that you have been officially elected as an Honorary Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Jewish National Fund of America for 1981-1983, at our biennial meeting held on Thursday, December 3, 1981.

Please accept my warmest wishes and expressions of congratulations. I'd like to extend to you a cordial invitation to take an active role of leadership in behalf of our historic work in the land of Israel.

As you undoubtedly know, the JNF, now in its 80th year, has emerged as Israel's major land reclamation and land transformation agency. Our work has never been more important. We need new population centers in the Galilee and in the Negev. We are involved in the preparation of sites for new settlements. There is a continuing need for new access roads to, and from, these settlements and the ongoing work of afforestation, land drainage and land reclamation have taken on a new momentum. Your interest, your counsel and your participation are, therefore, vitally needed.

With warmest wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
