Dear Herb:

I am writing this letter just before tomorrow's elections in Israel, and although you will not receive the letter until after the election, I just want to wish you good luck. I know how hard you and others have worked and whatever happens you have the satisfaction of knowing that you did an excellent job and made a real contribution towards the future development of the country and its political structure.

I would appreciate it if you would advise me whether the financial condition of the party will permit my firm to render a small bill for its services in connection with the registration in the United States and related matters. Quite apart from out-of-pocket costs, the time spent in looking into and arranging the necessary filings was substantial and some payment might be appropriate, depending upon the situation. I would not, in any event, expect to charge our usual fees, but would, if appropriate, suggest some small fraction of our usual fees. I want to stress that this is not anything other than an inquiry.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Kenn

Dear Herb:

I am enclosing for your information a booklet containing the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938 as amended and the rules and regulations of the Attorney General. I also enclose a set of the forms which should be filed. It appears to me that the activities would fall within the technical definition of political propaganda as used in the Act.

By the time you receive this material, we will have spoken by telephone.

Dear Ken:

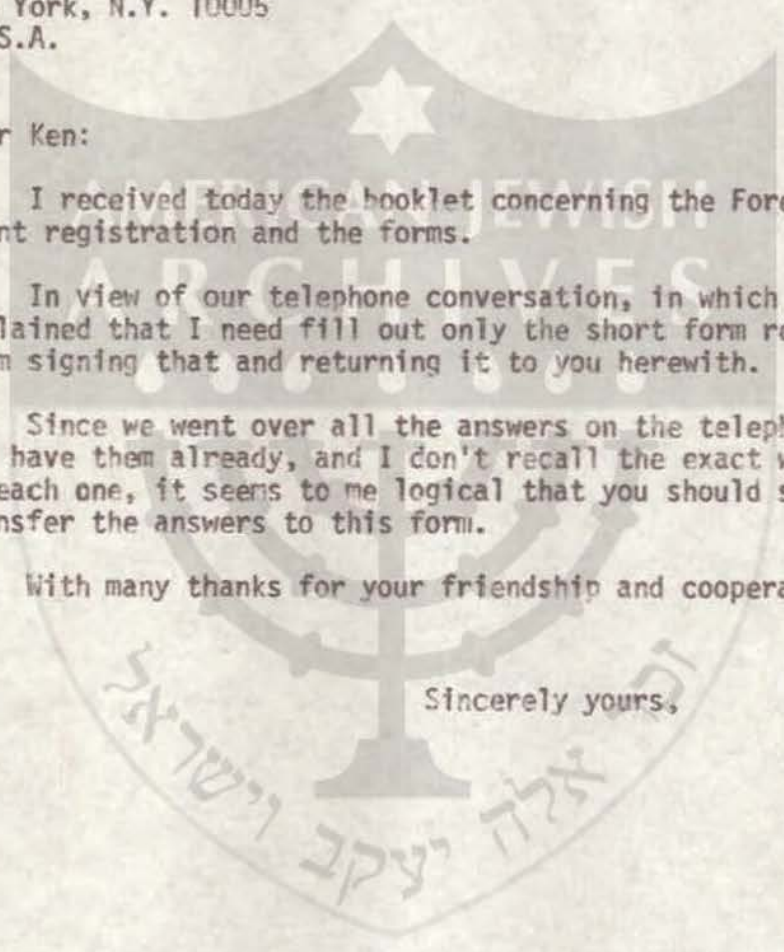

I received today the booklet concerning the Foreign Agent registration and the forms.

In view of our telephone conversation, in which you explained that I need fill out only the short form registration, I am signing that and returning it to you herewith.

Since we went over all the answers on the telephone and you have them already, and I don't recall the exact wording of each one, it seems to me logical that you should simply transfer the answers to this form.

With many thanks for your friendship and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sirs:

There are enclosed herewith duplicate original copies for filing pursuant to the Foreign Agents' Registration Act of 1938, as amended, a registration statement on behalf of the Fund for the Democratic Movement for Change. Included in the registration statements are Exhibits A and B, and certain related attachments. Exhibit C is not applicable. Exhibit D is also being filed herewith, in duplicate. However, it is respectfully requested that Exhibit D be granted confidential treatment and not be placed in the public file without prior notice to the registrant and an opportunity to dispute any proposed publication. The reason for this request for confidentiality is to preserve the rights of privacy which registrant would like to accord to those persons who made contributions to it. Registrant does not believe there is any legitimate public interest in the United States in the identity of persons supporting registrant's interests in Israel.

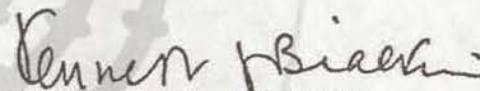

Also included in the filing are short form registration statements on behalf of Messrs. Daniel Doron, Merrill Hassenfeld, Herbert Friedman and Mrs. Rena Button. In the case of Mr. Friedman, his registration statement has not as yet been signed but it has been read to him and he has authorized its filing. Mr. Friedman is presently in Israel and a copy of his statement has been sent to him for execution. As soon as it is received by us we will forward it to you in substitution of the unsigned copy being submitted herewith. In the meantime, we are authorized by him to advise you that the information therein is correct. This filing relates to conversations previously had with Mr. Frederick Close of your staff by the undersigned and by Adrian Morchower, Esq. of the Washington, D.C. Bar. As you have been advised, the failure to make an earlier filing was wholly inadvertent and in good faith, as explained to Mr. Close. Registrant is acting on an entirely voluntary and uncompensated basis.

If you have any questions concerning this filing, please feel free to contact Mr. Morchower at 1775 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006 (telephone: 202 293-4740), or the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

Kenneth J. Bialkin
