Jerusalem,
Israel.

Dear Herb,

Thank you for your kind note. Belatedly, but nonetheless wholeheartedly, I would like to thank you for your help and guidance in making the visit of our Delegation to Yad Vashem the most perfect and moving event I have ever been associated with.

I only regret that I did not have a little more time at the Dinner to exchange a few words with Frances and yourself. I hope you understand.

Yours

Dear Mr. Goodman,

As I am sure you know by now, the suggestion regarding Mr. Adolph Likierman has worked out. He received the letter of invitation from Mayor Kollek and responded affirmatively, indicating that he was "looking forward with pleasant anticipation" to receiving the invitation.

He is currently in Jerusalem and I have taken him around the city for many hours myself. In addition, Mayor Kollek's staff of engineers has involved him in visits to various industrial parks. I am positive he will return to London from this trip in a very good mood.

The ball is now in your court. Good Luck!

Dear Herb,

I would like to thank you personally for the help you gave us with the Knesset Dinner Mission. As you yourself saw it was a great success and we are most grateful to you for the help you gave in planning it, and particularly for organising the ceremony at Yad Vashem.

Looking forward to seeing you soon and with kindest regards to Francine and yourself.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Teddy:

Enclosed is the draft of the letter about which I spoke to you. The purpose of the letter is to make Mr. Likierman feel good. After he has received it, Mr. Goodman will call him and urge him to accept your invitation. Should he actually do so, something good will probably result. Should he not accept the invitation, at least Mr. Goodman will have a better chance to work on him in London.

Have the letter typed, of course, on official Jerusalem stationary, and Mr. Goodman's copy should go to him at

My Dear Mr. Likierman:

Although you and I have not met personally, I am writing to you at the suggestion of Mr. Lewis Goodman of Marks and Spencer, ~~who is a loyal friend of Israel, and upon whose advice I would rely.~~

The City of Jerusalem is growing rapidly, taking in large numbers of new immigrants and developing large new housing estates to accommodate them. We must, at the same time, develop industrially and commercially in order to provide employment.

We need people like you to help us with advice on industrial and commercial development. I would like to invite you to come over for a week or ten days, with travel expenses at your own initiative, to look at what we are doing and to offer us any suggestions which might come to mind, out of your own long and successful experience.

Looking forward to your affirmative reaction, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Teddy Kollek

Dear Mr. Shipton:

When I saw you at the JPA Lawyers' Committee Meeting at the Carlton Towers Hotel, and you asked me to call you, I did not realise at that moment that I would be thoroughly engaged, without a moment to spare, literally, and was then scheduled to leave England two days later. These facts account for my not having called.

Upon returning to my desk here in Jerusalem and going over my notes, I realised I had not called you. I have no idea what it was you wanted to see me about, but if it is anything that could be conducted by correspondence, I would be delighted to hear from you.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Herb,

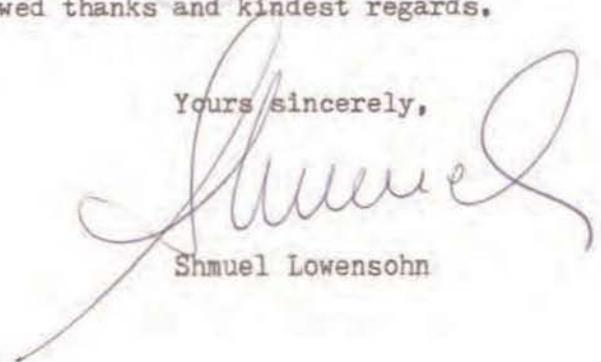

I am writing to thank you most sincerely for addressing the final evening of our recent J.P.A. Young Leadership Study Mission to Israel on the 10th November 1971. It was very kind of you to find the time from your busy schedule to be with us on that evening.

You will be pleased to hear that the Mission itself was an unqualified social and financial success. The 1972 contributions of the Mission participants exceeded their 1971 contributions by 88% which I think is a very good achievement.

I do hope we will have the pleasure of your company on future Missions.

With renewed thanks and kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Herb,

May I thank you for your address to the "Ambassador's Mission" which, as you know, was the opening shot of the 1972 JPA Campaign.

Regretfully I could not be with the members of the Mission at their meeting with you, as I had to leave for London unexpectedly the same morning on a very urgent business assignment.

The results of the Mission were most encouraging and I am sure you will be delighted to know that we secured 19 out of a possible 23 contributions whilst in Israel. These totalled an amount of £1,429,000 compared with £1,139,200 from the same donors last year.

The 80 participants on the Mission returned to Britain inspired by your words and equally important, factually equipped in respect of the needs. I am sure they will strengthen our ranks of honorary workers for the hard task ahead.

Yours sincerely,

Michael

I am sorry I have not yet seen you during my stay in Israel. I understand that you have ~~good~~ reasons for not being present at the Meetings of the Jewish Agency.

I wanted to ask you, on our behalf, and especially on Michael Sacher's request, if you could help us in the 1973 J.P.A. Campaign by coming to London in the second half of October for two weeks, for our "OPERATION LEADERSHIP 1973".

I am still in the country until one day after Rosh Hashana.

May I also take this opportunity to wish you and yours אני טוב.

ALL CLOTH FLANNELGRAPH SERIES

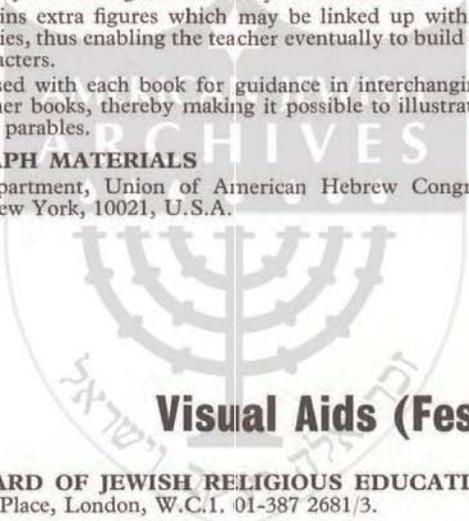

Series of all-cloth, full colour flannelgraph cut-out figures. No backing or pasting is necessary and the figures are ready to cut and use.

Each book contains extra figures which may be linked up with the extras in the rest of the series, thus enabling the teacher eventually to build up a complete set of Bible characters.

A chart is enclosed with each book for guidance in interchanging the figures with those of other books, thereby making it possible to illustrate many other Bible stories and parables.

TO: HAF

Mr. Barzilay called from London to say "thank you" for the wonderful speech you made. He was absolutely delighted. He says that many of his people who had already previously made up their minds as to their gifts, were induced to increase as a result of your persuasion. Nineteen contributors gave 1,489,000 (sterling) as against 1,151,000 last year and he says you had a great deal to do with this substantial increase.

Mr. Barzilay said he is bringing a group of "key workers" on November 11 and wanted you to address that group. Paul Beer tells me you have already made a commitment to them for November 13.

NOVEMBER 4 — 11 1971

ITINERARY IN ISRAEL

Dear Friend,

I have pleasure in extending a cordial welcome to your mission on behalf of Mr. Ezra Z. Shapiro, our Chairman, who is abroad at the present time and on my own behalf.

If there was ever a time for the entire Jewish people to close ranks and present a united front to the world at large, that time is now.

Israel, whose future is so closely linked with that of Jewish communities everywhere, finds itself in the midst of a crisis of uncertainty. No one can tell whether the present situation of "no peace, no war" will continue or whether we shall have to take up arms for the 4th time in less than a quarter of a century.

Whichever way the die is cast, it is clear that the Jews of the world will have to assume enormous and inescapable obligations.

In the meantime we must proceed with our tasks of strengthening the State of Israel, of consolidating and building, of encouraging the Aliyah of Jews who need to come from the shackled Jewish community of Soviet Russia and other countries of stress, or those who want to come from the free Jewish communities of the world; of closing the gap between the "haves" and the "have nots" in Israel.

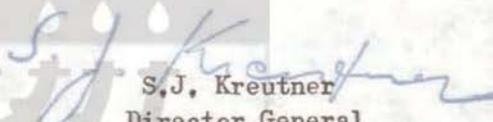

The implications of Israel's complex situation are manifold, but I would like to stress two of them: a sufficiency of funds to meet the daily needs of our human resources and a sufficiency of voluntary workers around the world to approach each and every Jew for his decisive participation.

In this work Young Leadership can not only make an important contribution but can also set a shining example for others to follow.

I hope that as a result of your mission you will be able to convey to the entire Jewish community of the United Kingdom how much depends upon the successful outcome of your 1972 campaign.

I wish you a very pleasant stay among us.

המגבית המאוחדת לישראל

משלחת עיון
של

דור ההמשך מאנגליה

4 - 11 בנובמבר 1971

תכנית בישראל

ידיד יקר,

יש לי העונג לקדם בברכה את משלחתכם בשמי אני ובשם מר עזרא ז. שפירא
היו"ר שלנו, השוהה כעת בחו"ל בשליחות קרן היסוד.

אם אי פעם היה צורך לעם היהודי כולו להתרכז ולהורות חזית מאוחדת מלוכדת
כלפי העולם הרחב, הרי זהו הזמן הנוכחי.

מדינת ישראל אשר עתידה קצור קצור הדוק כל כך עם הקהילות היהודיות בכל
אתר ואתר, נמצאת בעידן של אי-בהירות. אין לדעת אם המצב הנוכחי של "לא שלום
ולא מלחמה" יימשך או אם נהיה נאלצים להלחם זו הפעם הרביעית בתקופה של פחות מ-25 שנה.

יפול הגורל איך שיפול, ברור הוא שהיהודים בעולם כולו יהיו נאלצים לקחת
על עצמם התחייבויות כבירות שאין להתחמק מהן.

בינתיים עלינו להמשיך בתפקידנו לחזק את מדינת ישראל כדי שתוכל לקיים את
פעולות הבנייה וההתבססות, לעודד את עלייתם של היהודים הנאלצים לצאת מרוסיה
הסובייטית שם נהפכו חיייהם לחיי תופת ומיתר ארצות המצוקה, או של אותם היהודים
הרוצים לבוא אלינו מארצות החופש בעולם. עלינו גם לצמצם את הפער הקיים בין
בעלי היכולת ואלה הסובלים מחסור במדינת ישראל עצמה.

ההשלכות של המצב המסובך השורר בישראל הן מרובות. אולם ברצוני להדגיש
שתיים מהן: אמצעים מספיקים כדי לקיים את הצרכים היומיומיים של המשאבים
האנושיים שלנו, ומספר מספיק של פעילים בעולם כולו כדי שאפשר יהיה לשתף כל
יהודי ויהודי בנטיאת העול ולהביא אותו להסתתף במפעל זה.

בפעולה זו יש לאל ידה של ההנהגה הצעירה לא רק לתרום בצורה מכרעת אלא
אף לשמש דוגמא לאחרים.

אני תקווה שכתוצאה מהסקר שלכם תוכלו להעביר לקהילה היהודית כולה
בבריטניה עד כמה אנו תלויים בתוצאה המוצלחת של המגבית שלכם ב-1972.

אני מקווה ששהותכם בתוכנו תהיה גם מהנה וגם מאלפת.

Dear Herb,

First of all may I say what a great pleasure it was meeting you, both at the Young Leadership Retreat and at the Chicago Conference. I found our chat on Saturday evening, or was it Sunday morning, in Chicago most useful.

I obviously saw and learnt a great deal at the Retreat, and I have written a report on my visit and have made recommendations to implement some of the ideas from the UJA Young Leadership in this country. I will, of course, send you a copy when it is ready.

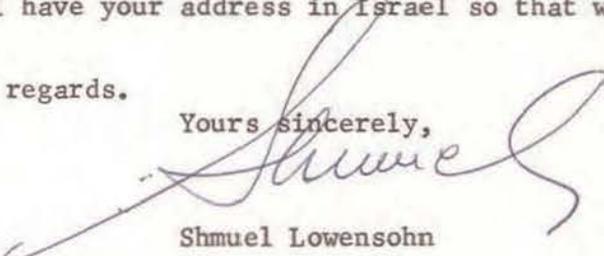

Thank you for sending me the photostat of Phoenix Nest so promptly, it will come in very useful over here.

I have discussed your visit to London with Trevor Chinn. At the moment we cannot give you a definite date because I am still in the process of making up our calendar, and in November, which is the month we were thinking of in Chicago, we have a Mission to Israel. We shall be discussing this again in greater detail in the near future, when I will write to you again.

Finally may I extend to you my sincere good wishes on your forthcoming Aliyah and wish you all the best in your new home. May I have your address in Israel so that we can keep in touch.

With kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

Shmuel Lowensohn

SUGGESTED PLAN FOR THE 1972 JPA CAMPAIGN, DISCUSSED
AND APPROVED BY THE HONORARY OFFICERS AND SUBMITTED TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE BY M. BARZILAY

This plan has some basic departures from the pattern used in previous years, at the same time built into this plan are the good money raising features of the past.

1. We advocate and plan for rating sessions.
2. We have to convince, cajole or tempt our 130 £ 20,000 plus top donors to participate in the VIP Mission, invited by Dayan.
3. The Workers Mission, where we are aiming for 200 participants, will be preceded by a Young Leadership Group who will then join the Workers Mission and who will help in soliciting the participants.
4. The pre-campaign functions in November are restricted to the £ 10,000 and over donors and small dinner parties or luncheons will be planned. About 100 donations and donors are involved in this phase of the Campaign. At the same time, the first canvassing of the pace setters of £ 5,000 and over will take place, ending with a top donors' dinner at the Dorchester on the 14th December. A maximum of 250 invitee, which means that there will probably not be more than 100 donors sitting down to dinner, the majority of whom would have already been approached for donations.
5. The Key Workers Conference at the beginning of January 1972 will be organised on the lines of the 25th April National Progress and Report Meeting.
6. From mid January to mid February 1972, the Trade Committees A and Provincial Committee A will have their campaign period. The new pattern is that we are suggesting having the dinners and functions at the end of the main effort instead of the beginning, as it was up till now.
7. The same goes for London Districts A & B and Trades and Provinces B, up to Pesach, which next year is very early - 30th March, 1972.
8. Another innovation is that the manpower force of the Organisers will be reallocated and will be redeployed for each phase of the Campaign, according to the needs.

Obviously there are many details to be filled in, and it is up to the Honorary Officers to suggest amendments or accept the plan.

Dear Mike:

The Lawyers group concerning which you spoke in your letter of 26 May is being planned by New York City UJA. I spoke with Ernest Michal today, and he told me that the group is postponed until December.

Concerning the question as to whether your Lawyers Committee could join with this group, Ernie's reaction was positive. I suggest you write to him directly and make your own arrangements, remembering always that you have the responsibility of clearing with Jerusalem.

Dear Herb,

I understand from Mr. Abe Kramer, the Chairman of our Lawyers and Accountants JPA Committee, that an American Jewish Lawyers Group or Conference is being planned for July in Israel. Has the UJA any part in this? - Are any of the leaders or active works of the UJA involved in this?

Could you please let me have this information. Our Lawyers and Accountants Committee would like to join up with this group or organise a similar group in order to be in Israel at the same time.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Herb,

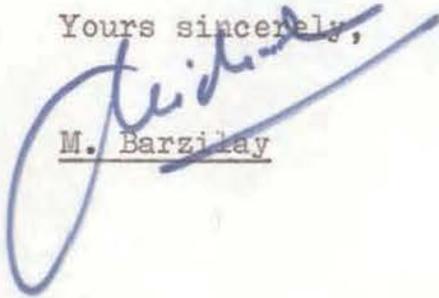

Just to start the ball rolling I am sending you a suggestion for next year's Slogan and Platform. How does it strike you? I have given copies to Louis Pincus and Minister Sapir. I am also sending one to Mr. Kreutner.

The suggestion comes from the Chairman of our Entertainment division, Mr. Harry Saltzman, the Producer of "Battle of Britain" and of the "Bond" films. He was one of the top publicity people of Madison Avenue before going into films. I am telling you this to make you realise that this is not the braichild of my office, but I think that something on the lines of "Peace is more expensive than War" and "Let's prepare Israel for Peace" would be a welcome change from "Survival and Emergency".

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Best personal regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mike:

I think the slogans are terrible. "Help Israel Make Peace" sounds as though Israel doesn't want peace, and we have to help her (i.e. force her). Or else, it sounds as though she can't do it by herself, and needs outside help, for some reason.

The sudden blossoming of the dove gives the impression that a change of policy has taken place - i.e. before we wanted war, and now we want peace.

The whole conception is wrong, in my judgment. Slogans must reflect realities. What will be the reality of our situation for 1972? The way it looks to me - there will be no agreement or treaty; negotiations will go stumbling along; there will always be the possibility of renewed fire; and military purchases will be at least as high as 1971. Is this peace?

Dear Mike:

I received your letter concerning the request of the Young Leadership for a dinner meeting on the 27th of May. Of course, I will be happy to do this.

As you have undoubtedly heard from Mr. Klein, I had several comments about the program you were suggesting in your first letter. I did not find it satisfactory principally because there was not enough time to do the job for which I originally agreed to come. I do not want to make a speech, but rather to hold a work-shop.

Therefore, I await from you an altered program. Looking forward to hearing from you, I am,

As ever,

Dear Herb,
Re Meeting Friday, 22nd January 1p.m. at Michael House

Re your queries. We called a meeting of the Administrative Committee plus all the Chairmen of our 'A' Committees in London, Trades and Provinces, which will bring the attendance to about 100 people.

I would suggest that your address should be between 30 - 40 minutes, allowing time if necessary for questions.

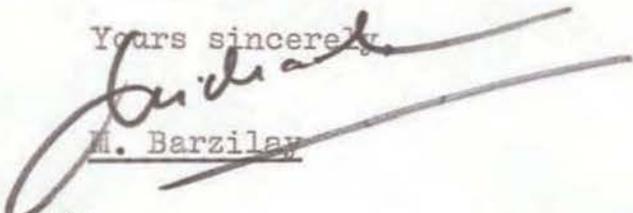

We want to use your presence in London to inspire our leadership with the type of message only you can deliver.

We have reached close to 7 million and now the really hard slogging for the other half has started.

Looking forward to seeing you personally,

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Trevor:

I haven't got a clue as to when this letter will reach you, but I assume that some day the postal strike will be finished and the backlog will be delivered.

First of all, I appreciate more than I can say, the beauty and warmth of your handwritten note of sympathy. If ever the phrase "Man proposes and God disposes" had relevance, it certainly applied in this instance. Here we made our plans months in advance, and suddenly this sad event occurred. Your words were very comforting and again, I want you to know how much I appreciate them.

I am delighted with the report Matthew brought back. He was extremely enthusiastic and almost unbelievably complimentary about you and your influence. He says you are a true leader, in our terms. You are able to reach people who are aloof, and to convince them.

I am thrilled that the Conference went off as well as it did, and I certainly shall accept your invitation to address the J.P.A. Young Leadership later in the year. As your program becomes more firm, let us discuss actual dates.

Matthew tells me that you are planning a Young Leadership mission to Israel some time in April, and I would like to say very simply that if you feel he can be of any value to you in helping you lead and inspire the group, I would be very pleased to make him available to you in Israel.

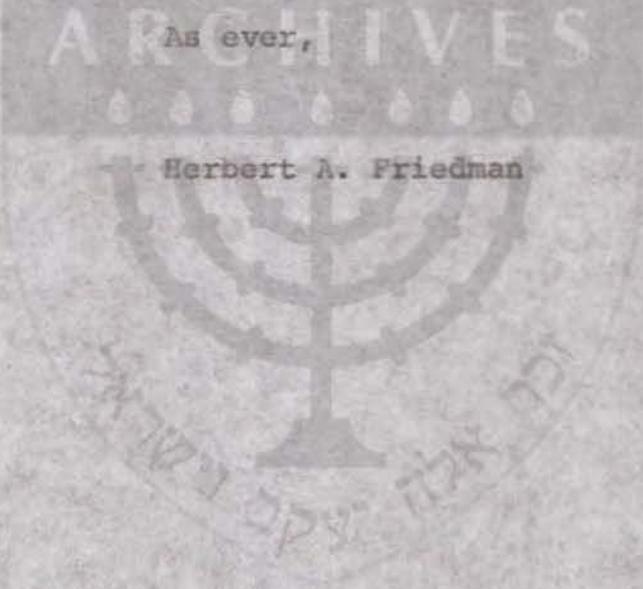

26 January 1971

He also reported that you had something in mind to try to do with the leading banks of the City and in this connection you were inquiring about the possibility of Gus Levy coming to London some time. I don't know whether this would be a Young Leadership function or something which the General Chairman of the campaign would be planning. I would have no hesitation in asking Gus Levy if he would go to London, but I would think Michael Sachar would have to be involved. If, therefore, you come up with some very precise and specific function which you think Gus Levy could perform, let me know and I would be pleased to put the request to him.

Again, with thanks for your understanding and looking forward to seeing you as soon as possible, I am,

As ever,

Herbert A. Friedman

Dear Irving,

I must thank you most sincerely for your help last week in arranging for Matthew Simon to come to London at such short notice in place of Herb.

Matthew was most successful and he spoke extremely well at our Conference yesterday. Furthermore, he acted superbly as a catalyst bridging the gap for many people between interest and action. He made an excellent impression here and was largely instrumental in bringing about the success of yesterday's meeting and taking the Young Leadership in this country a further stage forward.

Thank you once again for all your help.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Herb,

Thank you very much for your note dated 29th January which reached me only today due to the nice, long postal strike. You know the Hebrew saying? ד' ענין

it is a very difficult thing to answer.

I used to have a job and title which occupied my time roughly ten hours a day, seven days a week and twelve months a year.

Now I have an additional title and additional work which means, that in order to cope with all the paper work, I usually get up at 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, work for two or three hours, go back to sleep for an hour or two and then my ten hours a day begin.

If this is the answer to your question, you have it.

Anyway thank you very much for your kind words. I am looking forward to seeing you in London. Are you coming on your own?.

Dear Herb,

Having past the first hurdle the results are acceptable. We distributed 62 letters, of which there were 56 possible gifts. Some families we had to invite all the members,

4 Rothschilds
3 Wolfsons
2 Morrisons
2 Bernsteins
2 Lyons
3 Delfont - Grades
3 Tesco Cohens, etc.

The letters were delivered by hand by the Embassy Senior Staff.

Ady Yaffe followed up the letters with a 4 day visit, speaking personally to all the invitees.

At the end of his visit we have 23 acceptances
1 refusal. Two are in hospital.

For the sake of comparison and guidance could you let me have the list of your invitees to the first and second flight, and also the results of the soliciting in Israel in the follow up.

Dear Herb,

Re: P.M. Flight

Finally the wise men of Jerusalem agreed and I received today the signed letters from the Lady, which are being distributed by the Senior Staff of the Embassy to the invitees.

On the 8th April the special Emissary is arriving in London to follow up on the fifty odd names, which were invited. Obviously we have for every five participants one inside man available.

I will keep you informed.

Dear Herb,

Thank you very much for your letter dated February 9th which reached me on Friday.

For your information I am attaching copy of a letter from Mr. Michael Sacher to Dultzin, which speaks for itself.

I am expecting the letter of invitation from Israel for the P.M. Flight to reach the Embassy in London tomorrow. I have not yet had a written reaction from my letter to Pincus.

I will probably have to fly home for a few days as soon as we know the approximate number of participants.

I will keep you informed and thank you again for your kindness and guidance.

Mr. L. Dultzin,
Treasurer, Jewish Agency,
P.O.Box 92,
Jerusalem, Israel.

Dear Mr. Dultzin,

I am shocked, appalled and discouraged by the quotation attributed to you by Mark Segal in The Jerusalem Post of 29 January in regard to the J.P.A. I attach a copy of a telex I have sent to the Editor of The Jerusalem Post for early publication.

I have no idea what figures you are quoting, but once again, in the hope that this time you will absorb them, I would remind you that the following amounts have been pledged to the J.P.A.

1967	1968	Estimated 1969
£17,606,000	£4,680,000	£4,985,000

I am surprised to hear that you are holding meetings to discuss what can be done! Certainly I am, although Chairman of the J.P.A., unaware of such meetings. With whom are they being held?

You are probably also unaware that the first results of this year's Campaign show a marked increase on the net insignificant sum raised in 1969.

Our efforts to help Israel are far from being assisted by the strange prejudice which you and some of your colleagues appear to have against the J.P.A.

Yours sincerely,

Who is coming to do the job which Arnon did for the P.M. Flights of the UJA, is it Gershon or will it be somebody else?

Finally, I would like to have your agreement to the last paragraph in order to be able to ask Herb Friedman to request Chaim Vinitzky accordingly.

Dear Mike:

Re your inquiry concerning Dultzin, as soon as I returned from London, I made arrangements for us to cut short his stay here, in order to make him available to you. He is finishing here on 24 March, approximately a week early. It is now up to you to make your own arrangements with him for England.

I have a copy of your letter to Pincois concerning the proposed Prime Minister's flight from England. As soon as you tell me that agreement has been reached in principle, I will request Mr. Vinitsky to arrange the itinerary exactly as we had it. We must be very specific on the timing. Our itinerary, applied to you, would work as follows (if it is not satisfactory to you, please let me know immediately):

Sunday, March 22

8:00 a.m. Arrive at Lydda

(you will recall we discussed leaving London 2:00 a.m., with a rendezvous somewhere at midnight, preferably at the Embassy, a glass of champagne before departure and limousines out to the airport)

8:15 a.m.

Depart Lydda for air base somewhere in Sinai desert. Meet with Chief of Staff, unless he is involved in Cabinet meeting which usually takes place on Sunday morning. Depart from base in helicopters for visit to front line points along Canal.

Mr. A. L. Pincus,

Dear Mr. Pincus,

Re: P.M. Flight from England

After deliberations we decided to initiate and organise a project similar to the UJA flights to Israel, November 1969 and February 1970.

We had detailed consultations with Herb Friedman and we agreed to follow exactly the pattern he has worked out.

I discussed this possibility with Mr. Pinhas Sapir, who agreed to secure the agreement of Mrs. Golda Meir. Our aim is to get from each participant a minimum of a £100,000 donation. Our leaders joining the trip, one to each five prospects, are briefed and agreeable to be the pace setters.

Attached is a suggested draft for the Prime Minister's letter and a list of invitees. The letter to be individually typed, preferably on a IBM typewriter, should be returned to Mr. Aharon Remez, to be delivered by one of his staff personally to each recipient.

Contd. . .

We are suggesting that on Friday, February 25th, Ambassador Gershon Avner, should come to London and contact individually each prospect, using the Embassy as his head quarters. Could you please speak to him and get his agreement.

Finally, Herb Friedman kindly put at our disposal his staff and know-how, Israel end, for this operation. I am sure you will agree that his team who have the experience of handling two flights can do it for us too.

Very kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dear.....

In view of our mounting problems in the field of finance, economics and not least public relations, I would like to meet you personally in order to discuss with you some of these problems.

I write to you, therefore, inviting you to be my guest and to meet with me and some members of the Cabinet on Sunday and Monday, 22nd and 23rd March.

I am sending a plane to London which will leave for Israel in the early hours of Sunday morning. This same aircraft will bring you back to London late on Monday night.

My personal emissary, Ambassador Gershon Avner, will be calling you in the next day or two to work out all the details.

As a sincere friend of Israel, you know that we are passing through difficult days. I want to explain to you exactly what our position and situation is and ask you for your counsel and help. To start with I am asking you for these forty-eight hours.

Yours sincerely,

Golda Meir

Understand you received request from Trevor Chinn to handle their young leadership mission quote where Keren Hayesod unable to organise right type programme and adequate personalities unquote stop Barzilay cabled Vinitzky and asked him to reconfirm with you stop consider request firstly entirely ~~unjustified~~ unjustified because Keren Hayesod serves over 30 missions annually including England and is absolutely capable give British young leadership mission

all required stop secondly contrary to excellent relations you and ourselves stop would appreciate it if you inform Trevor Chinn and Vinitzky to leave matters with Keren Hayesod and confirm to me cordially
