Instructions

If you want the original of this application returned to an address other than shown on page 1, please complete the section below:

O.	Name Peter W. Schmidt c/o Willkie Farr & Gallagher
Print or	Number and Street 153 East 53rd Street
Type	City or town, State, and ZIP code New York, N. Y. 10022

- 1. Who may file.—You may use this application to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed under line 1, page 1.
- (a) An extension of time to file a seturn, unless it specifies otherwise, does not extend the time for payment of tax due. The law imposes a penalty for late payment of tax other than estimated tax figured at one-half percent a month or fractional part of a month, unless you can show reasonable cause for failure to pay when due.

Interest, which accrues from the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid, is charged whether or not an extension is granted. The interest will not be excused even if you show reasonable cause. The law provides freeindic adjustments of the interest rate.

- (b) An extension of time for filing a partnership return will not apply to the individual income tax returns of the partners. If a partner desires an extension, the partner must file a separate application on Form 4868.
- 2. When to file.—You must file the application in sufficient time for the Internal Revenue Service to consider and act on it before the return's regular due date.
- 3. How and where to file.—Complete this form in triplicate and mail to the

Internal Revenue Service Center where you file your return. If you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States, file this application with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

4. Reasons for extension.-The Internal Revenue Service will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return if you file a timely application that establishes you are unable to file the return by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control. Generally, an application will be considered on the basis of your efforts to fulfill your own filing responsibility, rather than on the convenience of anyone who assists you. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond the practitioner's control, to file the return by the due date, and to circumstances in which you have been unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

You should clearly describe on line 4 the circumstances which will cause unavoidable delay in filing the return. Applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations, will not be approved. If it is clear that a request for extension was made for no important reason, only to gain time, the Internal Revenue Service will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

- 5. Extension period.—Except where an estate elects to pay tax in installments, an extension of time on an original application will generally be limited to not more than 60 days. For an estate paying tax in installments, an extension to the due date of the second installment may be allowed. A longer period of time will not be granted unless sufficient need for that extended period is clearly shown. In no event will an extension of more than 6 months be granted to an applicant within the United States.
- 6. Payment of tax.—The total amount of tax estimated to be due on Form 4720, 5227, 990—PF, 990—T (trust), or 1041 filed by a trust, must be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return. The total tax estimated to be due on Form 1041 for an estate may be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return or in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of the 4th, 7th, 10th, and 13th months following the close of the taxable year.
- 7. Blanket requests.—Blanket requests for extensions will not be granted. Submit a separate application for each return.

$ U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE : 187-0-235-148 $8-040-1110

(Regarding Question 3): On May 9, 1978, an Application for Extension of Time to file Form 990 was submitted by the organization for the calendar year 1977. However, on July 27, 1978, the Board of Directors changed the organization's accounting period to the fiscal year ending March 31. Since the organization was incorporated on April 27, 1977, the Board of Directors felt that the new fiscal year would more accurately reflect the activities of the Organization during its first year of operation.

A copy of the notice which granted an extension until August 15, 1978, is attached hereto.

Howard S. Kritzer, Esq. Willkie Farr & Gallagher 153 East 53rd Street New York, N. Y. 10022

Dear Mr. Kritzer:

This is in response to letters of August 8, 1978 and November 15, 1978 wherein you request an exemption from the New York City Commercial Rent or Occupancy Tax for The American Friends of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center (hereinafter referred to as the Organization).

A summary of the information as gathered from the data submitted in your letters and attachments thereto indicates:

- The Organization is a type B Corporation organized under Section 201 of the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of New York State.
- 2. The purposes of the corporation are to conduct its activities exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes. More specifically, the Organization is to receive funds to be used exclusively for charitable purposes in the support of educational institutions, primarily of the secondary school level, by grants to such institutions and by grants to students who attend such institutions.
- 3. The actual activities of the corporation consist of raising funds for the promotion and support of specified educational institutions. Additionally, the Organization plans to grant scholarships to individuals who demonstrate the potential and ability to benefit from studying at such institutions.
- 4. The Organization was granted an exemption from Federal Income Tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

-2-December 22, 1978 Howard S. Kritzer, Esq. 5. By a letter dated August 25, 1978, the Organization received an exemption from New York State and local sales and use tax. 6. There is no evidence of any income or profit enuring to the benefit of any member or individual. Based on these facts and the supporting data from which they are derived and provided their present operations continue unchanged, it is the opinion of this office that the Organization is exempt from the New York City Commercial Rent or Occupancy Tax. Any changes in the character of the corporation, its purposes, or method of operation, must be reported immediately to the Department of Finance in order that their effect upon the exempt status may be revaluated. Very truly yours, Morris B. Raucher Director VR: jmf

THE JERUSALEM SOCIETY for the ADVANCEMENT of EDUCATION AND CULTURE 17 Abarbanel Street Jerusalem, Israel

Tel: 02-67728

4 Sept. 1977

With this letter, the Jerusalem Society for the Advancement of Education and Culture (hereinafter the "Society") hereby applies to The American Friends of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center for a grant in the amount of $ 6,558.27.

The Society is an Israeli charitable organization, which is recognized by the State of Israel as an exempt organization for tax purposes. A copy of the ruling by the Ministry of Finance, Department of Taxation, is attached. The exemption number is 4505731 and the validity is until 31 March, 1979. The Society will erect and maintain the Jerusalem Academy, an independent secondary school for gifted youth, which will be geared to promoting creativity and academic excellence. In addition, the Society will build the Conference Center on the Academy's campus. The Conference Center will offer a broad range of cultural activities and provide facilities for sports and social events.

Out of the funds requested herein by the Society, $ 6,558.27 will be used to reimburse Herbert Friedman for the expenses he has incurred in establishing an office for the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center. Funds have been expended by Mr. Friedman for such items as a full year's rent, telephone installation, brochures, postage, and a secretary's salary. A detailed list of expenditures is attached.

The Society is requesting additional funds in the amount of $ 15,000-, which are necessary to permit the continuation of the preliminary work that must be done prior to the actual construction of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center. These funds will be used for such items as architect's out-of-pocket expenses, on-site testing (eg rock-boring and water), surveying, aerial photography, licenses and leasehold payments. With respect to the office described above, funds are also needed for furniture, maintenance, and the printing of brochures and pamphlets.

As with all other grants, the Society will submit to the American Friends of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center a detailed report showing how these funds are actually spent.

AMERICAN JEWISH A R C H I Very truly yours,

Herbert A. Friedman

The source of financial support of the American Friends of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center (the "Corporation") will be contributions from members of the general public, including but not limited to contributions from other charitable organizations. is presently anticipated that no portion of the receipts will be derived from the earnings of patents, copyrights, or other assets (excluding stocks, bonds, etc.). #### Part III.—Activities and Operational Information (Continued)

3 Give a narrative description of the activities presently carried on by the organization, and also those that will be carried on. If the organization is not fully operational, explain what stage of development its activities have reached, what further steps remain for the organization to become fully operational, and when such further steps will take place. The narrative should specifically identify the services performed or to be performed by the organization. (Do not state the purposes of the organization in general terms or repeat the language of the organizational documents.) If the organization is a school, hospital, or medical research organization, include sufficient information in your description to clearly show that the organization meets the definition of that particular activity that is contained in the instructions for Part VII—A on page 3 of the instructions.

The Corporation is presently in the early stages of development and does not as yet conduct any activities. The Corporation expects to become fully operational upon receipt of the ruling request herein. At that time, the Corporation's activities will consist of raising funds for the promotion and support of educational institutions, particularly those of the secondary level. In carrying out these activities, the Corporation will distribute funds to institutions maintaining an academic environment in which intellectual achievement, creativity and the development of leadership qualities are stressed. In addition, the Corporation will grant scholarships to selected individuals who demonstrate the potential and ability to benefit from studying at such institutions.

Although the Corporation's Board of Directors will maintain absolute discretion over the distribution of the Corporation's funds, it is anticipated that the Corporation will distribute a significant portion of its funds to the Jerusalem Society for the Advancement of Education and Culture, an Israeli charitable organization which is engaged in the type of activities which would further the Corporation's exempt purposes. (An official translation of the Society's charter is enclosed with this application.) The Society will erect and maintain The Jerusalem Academy, an independent secondary school to be located outside of Jerusalem, Israel, which will be geared to promote creative and academic excellence in an atmosphere of small classes, independent study and student/faculty dialogue. It is expected that the Jerusalem Academy will offer a high quality education to a carefully selected student body composed of both local and foreign individuals. In addition, seminars, exhibits and workshops will be conducted at the Conference Center, which will be built by the Society on the Academy's campus. The Conference Center will also offer a broad spectrum of cultural activities and provide facilities for sports and social events. Because of its proximity to Jerusalem - an area of tremendous cultural and historical significance - persons from all parts of the world are expected to benefit from its programs and facilities.

When applying to the Corporation for a grant, any organization (including the Society) will be required to state in its request the specific use to which the funds will be put. The Corporation will maintain full control over the distribution of its funds and have complete discretion in determining which grants will be made. The recipients of funds will be required to periodically furnish an accounting to the Corporation to demonstrate that the funds are being expended for the approved purposes.

It is anticipated that after the Corporation has approved a grant for a specific project or purpose, it may solicit funds expressly for the grant to the specifically approved project or purpose. However the Corporation shall at all times have the right to withdraw approval of the grant and use the funds for other exempt purposes.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1)

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period. This advance ruling period begins on the date of your inception and ends on the date shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods. Also, if you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your inception for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and donors may rely on the determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. If you submit the required information within the 90 days, grantors and donors may continue to rely on the advance determination until the Service makes a final determination of your foundation status. However, if notice that you will no longer be treated as a section organization is published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, grantors and donors may not rely on this determination after the date of such publication. Also, a grantor or donor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section organization.

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

Generally, you are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. If you have paid FICA taxes without filing the waiver, you should call us. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $10,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

This letter supersedes our letter dated August 19 1977 yours,

CUSTOMER'S AGREEMENT

Gentlemen:

I agree to the following with respect to my account(s) with Bear, Stearns & Co., its successors or assigns for the purchase and sale of securities and commodities. I understand that if my only account is a cash account, the provisions of Paragraph 3(a) shall not be binding upon me until I enter into a margin transaction.

- 1. All transactions for my accounts shall be subject to the provisions and regulations of all applicable federal, state and self-regulatory agencies including but not limited to the various commodity exchanges, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the constitution, rules and customs as the same may be constituted from time to time, of the exchange or market (and its clearing house, if any) where executed.
- 2. #### MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of The American Friends of The Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center was held, pursuant to notice, on June 4, 1979, at 11:15 a.m. at the offices of Willkie Farr & Gallagher, One Citicorp Center, 153 East 53rd Street, New York, New York.
The following directors were present:

Charles J. Bensley Herbert A. Friedman Moses Hornstein Stephen Peck Stanley Sloane constituting a quorum for the transaction of business.

Leonard D. Bell, Hertzel Fishman, Magda S. Leuchter and

Gordon Zacks were unable to attend the meeting.

Also present at the invitation of the Board of Directors were James Klutznick, Howard Kritzer and Moshe Leshem.

Dr. Friedman acted as Chairman and Mr. Bensley acted as Secretary of the meeting.

The records of the Corporation were produced and remained open for inspection.

The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors, held on November 13, 1978, and upon motion duly made and recorded, the same were unanimously approved as read.

The next order of business was the election of Officers. After full discussion and upon nomination duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that the following persons:

Herbert A. Friedman - President
Magda S. Leuchter - Secretary and Treasurer

are re-elected to the office or offices set forth after his or her name; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that Moshe Leshem is elected Assistant Secretary of the Corporation.

The next order of business was the establishment of an Executive and Finance Committee. Dr. Friedman pointed out that the recent expansion of the Board of Directors has increased the need for such a Committee, which will exercise all of the powers of the Board, including the monitoring of the Corporation's financial affairs, during the interval between Board meetings. After full discussion and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that Article VIII of the Corporation's By-laws shall be amended to delete all references to an "Executive"

Committee" and to substitute therefor the name "Executive and Finance Committee", but such Article VIII shall otherwise remain the same in all respects; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that pursuant to Article VIII of the Corporation's By-laws, Stanley Sloane, Herbert A. Friedman, Moses Hornstein and Steven Peck are hereby designated an Executive and Finance Committee of the Board of Directors, with Mr. Sloane as the Chairman of such Committee, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.

Dr. Friedman then explained that the Corporation from time to time receives donations in the form of stocks or bonds. As of the date hereof, all such stocks and bonds have been sold by Dr. Friedman pursuant to the authorization granted by the Board of Directors in its Unanimous Written Consent dated October 21, 1977. In connection with such sales, the Corporation has opened accounts with various brokers pursuant to resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors on July 27, 1978 and November 13, 1978. After full discussion and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that the sale of such stocks and bonds and the opening of such brokerage accounts are ratified and approved in all respects; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the authority granted to Herbert Friedman and Hertzel Fishman in the Unanimous Written Consent dated October 21, 1977 shall continue in full force and effect.

The next order of business was a review of the Corporation's activities during the past year, and a preliminary report of the Corporation's Auditor and a Budget Compliance Report (attached hereto as Exhibit A) were distributed to the Directors. Dr. Friedman explained that the Budget Compliance Report was prepared on a pro rata basis for the eight-month period ending April 30, 1979, but that future reports will coincide with the Corporation's fiscal year. Mr. Bensley noted that the Corporation's actual operating expenditures during this eight-month period were $16,675 below the corresponding portion of the Budget approved at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on July 27, 1978.

Dr. Friedman reported that the Corporation submitted an application in September of 1978 to the Agency for International Development (hereafter, "A.I.D.") for a $1.8 million grant under the assistance program for American Schools and Hospitals Abroad. Dr. Friedman has met with the responsible officials at A.I.D. and expressed optimism that they would recommend the application to the Sub-Committee on Foreign Operations of the House and Senate where the final decisions will be made. Fully-documented applications have also been submitted by the Corporation to the Charles H. Revson Foundation in New York and the Bernard van Leer Foundation in The Hague for grants of $1 million and $1.5 million, respectively.

The Board then considered the Projected Operating Budget of the Corporation (attached hereto as Exhibit B). After full discussion and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that the Projected Operating Budget of the Corporation for the year ending March 31, 1980 (attached hereto as Exhibit B) is approved in all respects.

The next order of business was a review of the activities of The Jeruslaem Society for the Advancement of Education and Culture (the "Society"). Dr. Friedman reported that the town-planning and site-utilization plans of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center have been approved by both the Local and District Zoning and Planning Commissions. Pursuant to Israeli law, these plans were published in three newspapers on May 12, 1979. Objections to these plans may be filed during the three months following publication. By the end of this period, if no objections are raised, the architect must submit detailed drawings in the scale of 1:100 to the Local and District Building Commissions in order to obtain a building permit. Dr. Friedman pointed out that, to develop these plans, the architect will require the services of a mechanical engineer, sanitary installation engineer, a security/fire engineer and a road-planner. Since the Commissions may take up to three months to approve these plans, the Society hopes to obtain a building permit by approximately November 15, 1979.

In addition to obtaining a building permit, the Society's activities during the next several months will include the construction of pre-fabricated prototypes of dormitory rooms (two units) to determine whether pre-fabrication will be technologically feasible and economically advantageous. The Society will also develop detailed drawings and data which will be used in obtaining bids from building contractors and in actual construction.

ARCHIVES

In connection with the Society's request for additional funds, a Time-table for Stages, Dates and Finances (attached hereto as Exhibit C) was presented to the Board of Directors. After full discussion and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that the Time-Table set forth in Exhibit C is hereby approved and that the Corporation shall make expenditures on behalf of the Society of up to $120,000 for the six-month period ending November 30, 1979.

Dr. Friedman reported that the Israel Lands Authority (hereafter, the "Authority") has agreed to lease 31.25 acres of land to the Society for the site of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center. The lease is for a term of 49 years with an option for a 49-year renewal. The rental charge is $320 per acre per year

(for a total of $10,000 for the 31.25 acres), which charge is fixed for the entire life of the lease and is not subject to any increase as a result of inflation, re-appraisal or any other factor. It is anticipated that the lease will be executed within the next two months. The Authority has also made a commitment regarding the land needed for subsequent phases. The entire parcel of land, which totals 112.5 acres, will come into the possession of the Society in four phases, over a five-year period, as it is needed for construction. Dr. Friedman also noted that the Society has retained an attorney, Josef Kokia, to represent it before the Authority and other governmental agencies. After full discussion and upon motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, that the Corporation approves the lease to be entered into by the Society with the Israel Government Land Authority for 31.25 acres of land located in the Region of Match Yehudah for a term of 49 years, with an option to renew such lease for an additional 49 years, at an annual rental of $320 per acre.

Mr. Sloane noted that, at the present time, the Corporation's Board of Directors is able to monitor closely the Society's finances since the Corporation directly pays most of the Society's expenses. Eventually, however, the Society will make requests for grants from the Corporation and administer its own funds. To ensure that the Corporation will continue to be able to carefully review the Soceity's use of its funds, Mr. Sloane suggested that some of the Corporation's directors should also serve on the Board of the Society. Because several of the Corporation's Directors customarily travel to Israel on a frequent basis, Mr. Hornstein was of the opinion that Mr. Sloane's suggestion could be easily carried out. Dr. Friedman offered to discuss this proposal with the Board of Directors of the Society. The Directors of the Corporation agreed to give further consideration to this issue after they receive a response from the Society.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

> The American Friends of the Jerusalem Re: Academy and Conference Center

Dear Sir:

On August 11, 1977, The American Friends of the Jerusalem Academy and Conference Center (the "Organization") was issued Employer Identification Number 13-2901910 (Exhibit A, attached hereto).

On August 17, 1977, the Organization was issued Employer Identification Number 13-2903200 (Exhibit B, attached hereto).

On the Form 990 filed by the Organization for its fiscal year ended March 31, 1978, it notified the Internal Revenue Service that it received two Employer Identification Numbers. In addition, the Organization indicated that its address had been changed to: 77 East 55th Street, Suite 501, New York, New York 10022.

Despite such notification and my subsequent telephone calls to your office, the Organization has not been advised as to its correct Employer Identification Number. Moreover, the pre-addressed label attached to Package 990-2, which includes returns for 1978, contains Employer Identification Number 13-2903200 and the Organization's old address (Exhibit C, attached hereto).

> ACKNOWLEDGED LY EXT. & SORTING DO NOT DETACH

Please advise the undersigned as to which Employer Identification Number is the proper one. In addition, please acknowledge that you have recorded the correct address and fiscal year (March 31) of the Organization.

Please initial the enclosed copy of the letter and return the same to the undersigned in the envelope provided.

Yours truly,

Howard S Kinger Howard S. Kritzer

- 1. Who may file.—You may use this application to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed under line 1, page 1.
- (a) An extension of time to file a seturn, unless it specifies otherwise, does not extend the time for payment of tax due. The law imposes a penalty for late payment of tax other than estimated tax figured at one-half percent a month or fractional part of a month, unless you can show reasonable cause for failure to pay when due.

Interest, which accrues from the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid, is charged whether or not an extension is granted. The interest will not be excused even if you show reasonable cause. The law provides for riodic adjustments of the interest.

- (b) An extension of time for filing a partnership return will not apply to the individual income tax returns of the partners. If a partner desires an extension, the partner must file a seperate application on Form 4868.
- 2. When to file.—You must file the application in sufficient time for the Internal Revenue Service to consider and act on it before the return's regular due date.
- 3. How and where to file.—Complete this form in triplicate and mail to the internal Revenue Service Center where you file your return. If you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States, file this application with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

4. Reasons for extension.-The Internal Revenue Service will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return if you file a timely application that establishes you are unable to file the return by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control. Generally, an application will be considered on the basis of your efforts to fulfill your own, filing responsibility, rather than on the convenience of anyone who assists you. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond the practitioner's control, to file the return by the due date, and to circumstances in which you have been unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

You should clearly describe on line 4 the circumstances which will cause unavoidable delay in filing the return. Applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations, will not be approved. If it is clear that a request for extension was made for no important reason, only to gain time, the Internal Revenue Service will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

- 5. Extension period.—Except where an estate elects to pay tax in installments, an extension of time on an original application will generally be limited to not more than 60 days. For an estate paying tax in installments, an extension to the due date of the second installment may be allowed. A longer period of time will not be granted unless sufficient need for that extended period is clearly shown. In no event will an extension of more than 6 months be granted to an applicant within the United States.
- 6. Payment of tax.—The total amount of tax estimated to be due on Form 4720, 5227, 990—PF, 990—T (trust), or 1041 filed by a trust, must be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return. The total tax estimated to be due on Form 1041 for an estate may be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return or in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of the 4th, 7th, 10th, and 13th months following the close of the taxable year.
- 7. Blanket requests.—Blanket requests for extensions will not be granted. Submit a separate application for each return.

$ U.S. SOVERHENDE PRINTING OFFICE : 167-0-235-145 58-040-1110

(Regarding Question 3): On May 9, 1978, an Application for Extension of Time to file Form 990 was submitted by the organization for the calendar year 1977. However, on July 27, 1978, the Board of Directors changed the organization's accounting period to the fiscal year ending March 31. Since the organization was incorporated on April 27, 1977, the Board of Directors felt that the new fiscal year would more accurately reflect the activities of the Organization during its first year of operation.

A copy of the notice which granted an extension until adjust 15, 1978, is attached hereto.

- 1. Who may file.—You may use this application to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed
- (a) An extension of time to file a return, unless it specifies otherwise, does not extend the time for payment of tax due. The law imposes a penalty for late payment of tax other than estimated tax figured at one-half percent a month or fractional part of a month, unless you can show reasonable cause for failure to pay when - due.

Interest, which accrues from the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid, is charged whether or not an extension is granted. The interest will not be excused even if you show reasonable cause. The law provides for periodic adjustments of the interest rate.

- (b) An extension of time for filing a partnership return will not apply to the individual income tax returns of the partners. If a partner desires an extension, the partner must file a separate application on Form 4868.
- 2. When to file.—You must file the application in sufficient time for the Internal Revenue Service to consider and act on it before the return's regular due date.
- 3. How and where to file.—Complete this form in triplicate and mail to the

HODI AV AN ANTON WEL where you file your return. If you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States, file this application with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA

4. Reasons for extension.—The Internal Revenue Service will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return if you file a timely application that establishes you are unable to file the return by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control. Generally, antapplication will be considered on the basis of your efforts to fulfill your own filing responsibility, rather than on the convenience of anyone who assists you. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond the practitioner's control, to file the return by the due date, and to circumstances in which you have been unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

You should clearly describe on line 4 the circumstances which will cause unavoidable delay in filing the return. Applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations, will not be approved. If it is clear that a request for extension was made for no important reason,

Internal Revenue Service Center only to gain time, the Internal Revenue Service will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace

- Extension period.—Except where an estate elects to pay tax in installments, an extension of time on an original application will generally be limited to not more than 60 days. For an estate paying tax in installments, an extension to the due date of the second installment may be allowed. A longer period of time will not be granted unless sufficient need for that extended period is clearly shown. In no event will an extension of more than 6 months be granted to an applicant within the United States.
- 6. Payment of tax.—The total amount of tax estimated to be due on Form 4720, 5227, 990-PF, 990-T (trust), or 1041 filed by a trust, must, be paid in full on or before the norma due date of the return. The total tax estimated to be due on Form 1041 for an estate may be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return or in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of the 4th, 7th, 10th, and 13th months following the close of the taxable year.
- 7. Blanket requests.—Blanket requests for extensions will not be granted. Submit a separate application for each return.

(Regarding Question 3): On May 9, 1978, an Application for Extension of Time to file Form 990 was submitted by the organization for the calendar year 1977. However, on July 27, 1978, the Board of Directors changed the organization's accounting period to the fiscal year ending March 31. Since the organization was incorporated on April 27, 1977, the Board of Directors felt that the new fiscal year would more accurately reflect the activities of the Organization during its first year of operation.

A copy of the notice which granted an extension until August 15, 1978, is attached hereto.

- 1. Who may file.—You may use this application to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed under line 1, page 1.
- (a) An extension of time to file a return, unless it specifies otherwise, does not extend the time for payment of tax due. The law imposes a penalty for late payment of tax other than estimated tax figured at one-half percent a month or fractional part of a month, unless you can show reasonable cause for failure to pay when due.

Interest, which accrues from the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid, is charged whether or not an extension is granted. The interest will not be excused even if you show reasonable cause. The law provides for periodic adjustments of the interest rate.

- (b) An extension of time for filing a partnership return will-not apply to the individual income tax returns of the partners. If a partner desires an extension, the partner must file a separate application on Form 4868.
- When to file.—You must file the application in sufficient time for the Internal Revenue Service to consider and act on it before the return's regular due date.
- 3. How and where to file.—Complete this form in triplicate and mail to the

Internal Revenue Service Center where you file your return. If you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States, file this application with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

4. Reasons for extension.-The Internal Revenue Service will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return if you file a timely application that establishes you are unable to file the return by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control. Generally, an application will be considered on the basis of your efforts to fulfill your own filing responsibility, rather than on the convenience of anyone who assists you. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond the practitioner's control, to file the return by the due date, and to circumstances in which you have been unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

You should clearly describe on line 4 the circumstances which will cause unavoidable delay in filing the return. Applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations, will not be approved. If it is clear that a request for extension was made for no important reason, only to gain time, the Internal Revenue Service will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

- 5. Extension period.—Except where an estate elects to pay tax in installments, an extension of time on an original application will generally be limited to not more than 60 days. For an estate paying tax in installments, an extension to the due date of the second installment may be allowed. A longer period of time will not be granted unless sufficient need for that extended period is clearly shown. In no event will an extension of more than 6 months be granted to an applicant within the United States.
- 6. Payment of tax.—The total amount of tax estimated to be due on Form 4720, 5227, 990—PF, 990—T (trust), or 1041 filed by a trust, must be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return. The total tax estimated to be due on Form 1041 for an estate may be paid in full on or before the normal due date of the return or in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of the 4th, 7th, 10th, and 13th months following the close of the taxable year.
- 7. Blanket requests.—Blanket requests for extensions will not be granted. Submit a separate application for each return.

Gentlemen:

Based on the information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization of the type described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1).

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period. This advance ruling period begins on the date of your inception and ends on the date shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization so long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If, however, you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods. Also, in the event you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your inception for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and donors may rely on the determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. In addition, if you submit the required information within the 90 days, grantors and donors may continue to rely on the advance determination until the Service makes a final determination of your foundation status. However, if notice that you will no longer be treated as a section *** organization is published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, grantors and donors may not rely on this determination after the date of such publication. Also, a grantor or donor may not rely on this determination if he was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section *** status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section *** organization.

**** 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions concerning these taxes, please let us know.

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, you should let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If the yes box at the top of this letter is checked, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $10,000 $$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$. The return is due by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file the return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.
