The Meaning of Place

Inside the place we call home many of the strongest human bonds are formed, ideals take shape, love flourishes, goals are set for life, security is established. The place is the center back to ~~where~~ <sup>which</sup> we run for safety, help, healing and rest. The place is real or a dream which still sustains long after we have left it. The place can become <sup>an object of</sup> mere nostalgia and yet even that is sufficient to nourish.

The Board of Yale Hillel would like to extend a special thanks to the speakers, donors, and friends who have joined us for this historic occasion. In addition, we wish to acknowledge Jane Levin and Linda Friedlaender of our Ground Breaking Committee, whose contributions of time and energy were absolutely essential to the success of this event; Alan Slifka, without whose generosity today's event would not have been possible; and Joanna Rose, whose inspired touch added elegance to this day.

We also appreciate the efforts of the following people, who gave us assistance that went far beyond the call of professional duty: Jim Brewczynski, of IN ANY EVENT; Amy Beierle and David Roth, staff of Roth and Moore; Laurie Trotta, Yale public relations officer; Jim Barnett, Yale Law School Dining Hall Manager; and Jon Swing and Lisa Pitoniak of Yale Catering. WORDS OF BEGINNING

Rabbi James E. Ponet '68
Jewish Chaplain

THE INVOCATION

The Reverend Frederick J. Streets, M.Div. '75
University Chaplain

(Minister)

The Lord be with you.

(All) And also with you.

Let us pray.

(Prayer of Invocation)

(All) Amen.

HYMN NO. 60 "Let the whole creation cry" (Psalm 148) (Standing)

THE DAY'S PSALM (104:24–34)

The Reverend Claudia Highbaugh
Associate University Chaplain

(Minister)

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

(All) Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great.

There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it. These all look to you to give them their food in due season;

(All) When you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

(All) When you send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.

May your glory, O Lord, endure forever; may you rejoice in your works—

(All) You who look on the earth and it trembles, who touch the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

(All) May my meditation be pleasing to God, for I rejoice in the Lord.

THE PRAYERS

THE KADDISH (Offered in Hebrew)

Rabbi Herbert A. Friedman '38

Exalted and hallowed be God's great name

Throughout the world which God willed into creation.

May the kingdom of peace be revealed

During the days of your life and the life of us all

Speedily and soon.

May God's great name be a source of blessing throughout eternity.

Hallowed and extolled, lauded and exalted, honored and revered,

Adored and worshipped ever be the name of the Holy One,

Source of all blessings,

Who resides beyond all the praises and songs,

Psalms and hymns which we mortals utter.

May peace abundant descend from the heavens

With life for us, for Israel, and all humankind.

May the One who ordains the harmony of the universe

Bestow peace upon us, Israel, and all humankind.

IN PARADISUM (Offered in Latin)

The Reverend David Baranowski
Roman Catholic Chaplain

May the angels lead you into paradise. May the martyrs receive you at your coming, and lead you into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the choir of angels receive you, and with Lazarus, who once was poor, may you have everlasting rest.

A LITANY

I bid you to pray for all God's people whose lives are shattered by war and civil strife, that they may be sheltered from the blows of the cruel; and comforted, healed, and restored to the ways of peace.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you to pray that justice may prevail in this and every land; that tyrants be converted to righteousness or be overthrown, that truth be freely spoken in the streets, that husbands and wives honor one another and their children, and children have reason and inclination to honor their parents.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you to pray for our nation, that we not grow weary in the cause of freedom, nor set our minds against change, but seek always to be good stewards of our power and courageous in the cause of the poor and the dispossessed.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you to pray for all colleges and universities and for those who teach and learn therein, that there may rise among us men and women provided not only with the useful arts and knowledge, but furnished as well with compassion, integrity, and a commitment to serve in a world which is larger than themselves.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you pray for those communities of faith wherein we bow our hearts to God and receive instruction, that God will hear our prayers and teach us the ways of righteousness, to the end that we may be a source of joy in troubled times and of light in dark places.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you pray that God in mercy will grant healing to those who are sick, comfort and restore those of troubled spirit, and receive those who approach life's ending.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

I bid you to pray for yourselves and those around you, that this day's journeys be made in safety and that God will watch over those much loved from whom we are absent.

(All) Hear our prayer, O God.

For all your gifts, O God, we do give thanks, and for this time of prayer together, to you be honor and glory, now and forever.

(All) Amen.

HYMN NO. 12 "Yigdal elohim chai (The living God be praised)" (Standing)
(Verse 1: Please feel free to sing the Hebrew or the English.)

BENEDICTION (Standing)

Bless we the Lord!

(All) Thanks be to God!

(The Benediction)

(All) Amen.

POSTLUDE Fugue in E-flat (St. Anne)

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

The service, by design, contains prayers, hymns and music distinctive to our respective traditions. It is our hope that you will enter into the service as your practice allows and that our praise, prayer, and thanksgiving will be acceptable to God.

The choir at this service is composed of members of the University Glee Club of New Haven, under the direction of Mark Dollhopf '77.

The flowers are given in memory of the deceased members of the reunion classes.

Summer services begin in Battell Chapel next Sunday, June 6, at 10:00 a.m.
