Dear Rabbi Silver:

Opening our 1940 campaign, the Community Fund Festival will take place in Music Hall of Public Auditorium at 3:00 P. M., Sunday, November 17. The program will include music by The Cleveland Orchestra and the Orpheus Male Chorus. It is expected that the radio stations will broadcast the entire, two-hour program. Mr. Percy W. Brown, Fund General Chairman, and I earnestly hope you will find it possible to accept our invitation to be the principal speaker on this occasion, when a vast number of radio listeners are added to a capacity, visible audience.

In these chaotic times, our contributing public needs the most impressive reminder of the continuing importance of the voluntary community welfare and health services. We can think of no one better qualified than yourself to emphasize the Community Fund's 1940 keynote: "Let's give all we can!"

Due to radio requirements, we find it necessary to observe a time schedule, which includes twenty minutes for the principal speaker.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth Sturges

BRIEF FACTS
ON YOUR COMMUNITY FUND

For:

SPECIAL CAMPAIGNERS AND SOLICITORS

22ND ANNUAL CAMPAIGN
NOVEMBER 18-28, 1940

GIVE ALL WE CAN

REAL people in real trouble need your help. Disease and despair, sickness of body and spirit batter against them. Idleness and lack of opportunity drag them down. That is why 100 Community Fund health and welfare agencies unite in a joint appeal during the 22nd annual Community Fund campaign, November 18 to 28.

Through your gifts, the services of these agencies must reach out daily to thousands of real people in real trouble who have no other way of being helped.

Five weeks after the close of the 1940 campaign, every contribution made in November, 1939, will be used up completely. Let's give all we can NOW and supply real Community Fund help to the poor, sick and needy of Greater Cleveland for the whole year to come.

By typical day's service of your Community Fund agencies, 40,000 persons are helped. These are real people with real troubles:

Needy persons and families	7,150
Dependent children	4,790
Sick, injured in hospitals	2,800
Persons needing help, advice	1,700
Blind and other handicapped	1,800
Hospital dispensary patients	1,350
Children, mothers needing health care	1,250
Sick poor aided by visiting nurses	460
Aged	450
Young people aided by settlements, etc.	18,250

Many must have continued help in the year to come. Thousands more will turn to Community Fund agencies for the first time. Do not fail them.

HELP REAL PEOPLE

The 100 Community Fund organizations together ask only one generous gift now for all of next year. No longer are costly, separate campaigns conducted by these agencies. Through one gift you help on 100 fronts. Campaign costs are only 2½ cents per dollar raised, guaranteeing every penny possible to help real people in real trouble.

How much shall I give? Many persons ask this question when they make their Community Fund pledge. Circumstances alter cases and there can be no hard and fast rule. It is believed that many Community Fund donors share in this manner:

Annual Income of $ 1,500	Share ½ of 1%	$ 7.50
Annual Income of 2,000	Share 1%	20.00
Annual Income of 3,000	Share 1½%	45.00
Annual Income of 5,000	Share 1¾%	87.00
Annual Income of 7,500	Share 2%	150.00
Annual Income of 10,000	Share 2½%	250.00

Almost 500,000 citizens of Greater Cleveland annually give to the Community Fund, knowing they make possible the work of 100 agencies such as these:

- 9 for needy persons, families and homeless
- 11 for physically handicapped, nursing of sick and health promotion
- 22 for young people in settlements, recreation, etc.
- 3 for personalized guidance of boys and girls
- 18 for hospital and dispensary care
- 21 for dependent and neglected children
- 8 for general service, central and community planning
- 8 for care of aged

Remember: sharing through the Community Fund means sharing with real people in real troubles through 100 different organizations. Long after you have forgotten your gift, it is doing a job for you, spreading to countless places, helping people you could never have reached yourself.

IN REAL TROUBLES

EVERY dollar counts. The Community Fund campaign goal is the result of hours of careful study to determine the least amount by which Community Fund agencies can help the crippled, blind and aged, the sick, those who suffer from idleness of mind or hands, those whose lives are shut away from opportunities for happiness and growth.

Human needs cannot wait. Every penny less than the goal cuts into vital health and welfare services. People always suffer if agencies are forced to retrench.

Let's give all we can. Unmet needs exist. Necessity for expansion of services is apparent on every hand. Agency budget committee estimated $3,700,000 is required to operate, allow for service growth, and extend help that must be given. The goal is an objective, not a limitation!

GOAL $3,350,000

The 1940 budget for the 100 Community Fund agencies, based on the campaign goal, is as follows:

Service to Families, Children and Homeless	$1,096,600	32.7%
Recreation and Neighborhood Centers	735,305	21.9%
Hospitals and Dispensaries	484,465	14.5%
Child Care Institutions	394,928	11.8%
Health and Home Nursing	246,445	7.4%
Central Services	242,290	7.3%
Campaign Expense	88,541	2.6%
Homes for Aged	50,306	1.5%
Contingent Funds	11,120	.3%

Now is the time. Let's give all we can to help real people in real trouble—through the Community Fund!

DID YOU KNOW?

A COUNCIL of 40 business, civic and community leaders directs the Community Fund, serving voluntarily without pay. They and 15,000 Community Fund volunteer solicitors give their services gladly to help real people with real troubles through the Community Fund agencies, as do the 2,000 representative citizens who are trustees of the Community Fund organizations.

Hospitals and dispensaries of the Community Fund constitute more than half of the local facilities in this field; the balance are largely public institutions. In 1939, sick and injured received 939,448 days of bed care in Fund hospitals. Others had over 475,000 clinic treatments.

In the past year, Day Nursery Association gave small children 11,717 days' care, doubling the amount of service given six years ago.

More than one-half of all dependent children receiving institutional, boarding home or similar care in Greater Cleveland are served by 21 Community Fund children's institutions, foster homes and day nurseries, with over 4,700 boys and girls cared for daily.

This summer, over 10,000 boys and girls, mothers and babies were given healthful aid in the out-of-doors at 18 Community Fund agency camps.

Community Fund agencies for recreation, character-building and the like provide about 75% of all local services of this type. There were over 107,000 members in Scouting organizations, Christian associations and settlements last year.

In recent depression years, public, governmental agencies have expended vast sums for family unemployment relief, providing bare subsistence. Community Fund family welfare agencies, striving to get needy families back on their own feet, are maintaining a volume of service almost equal to that of pre-depression years.

Goodwill Industries, with its motto, "Not Charity, but a Chance," made possible over 210,000 hours of employment for needy, aged and handicapped people last year as they worked for clothing, furniture or wages.

During 1939, about 3,500 families and individuals with serious problems were assisted by Travelers Aid Society. Special information and direction was given to several thousand more strangers.

The Social Service Clearing House, central index to client records of 140 Community Fund and public agencies, last year answered 200,000 inquiries by agencies as they "cleared" cases for service, helping to avoid duplication and possible chiseling.

Brief health facts: Almost 500 visits a day to sick poor in their homes are made by Visiting Nurses. Child Health Association conducted 1,248 prenatal classes for expectant mothers last year. Handicapped persons at Association for Crippled and Disabled had over 15,000 occupational and physiotherapy treatments in 1939.

Worth noting: Association for the Hard of Hearing conducts employment service for persons with impaired hearing, using the slogan, "Judge the hard of hearing by their ability, not their disability." Children at Fresh Air Camp gain a total of a ton and one-half of weight each year. Days' attendance for blind men working in the broom shop of Society for Blind doubled since 1934.

Disease and despair, sickness of body and spirit, batter against them. Idleness and lack of opportunity drag them down. Theirs are the problems that spread and strangle — the problems that undermine healthy community life and sap a city's strength.

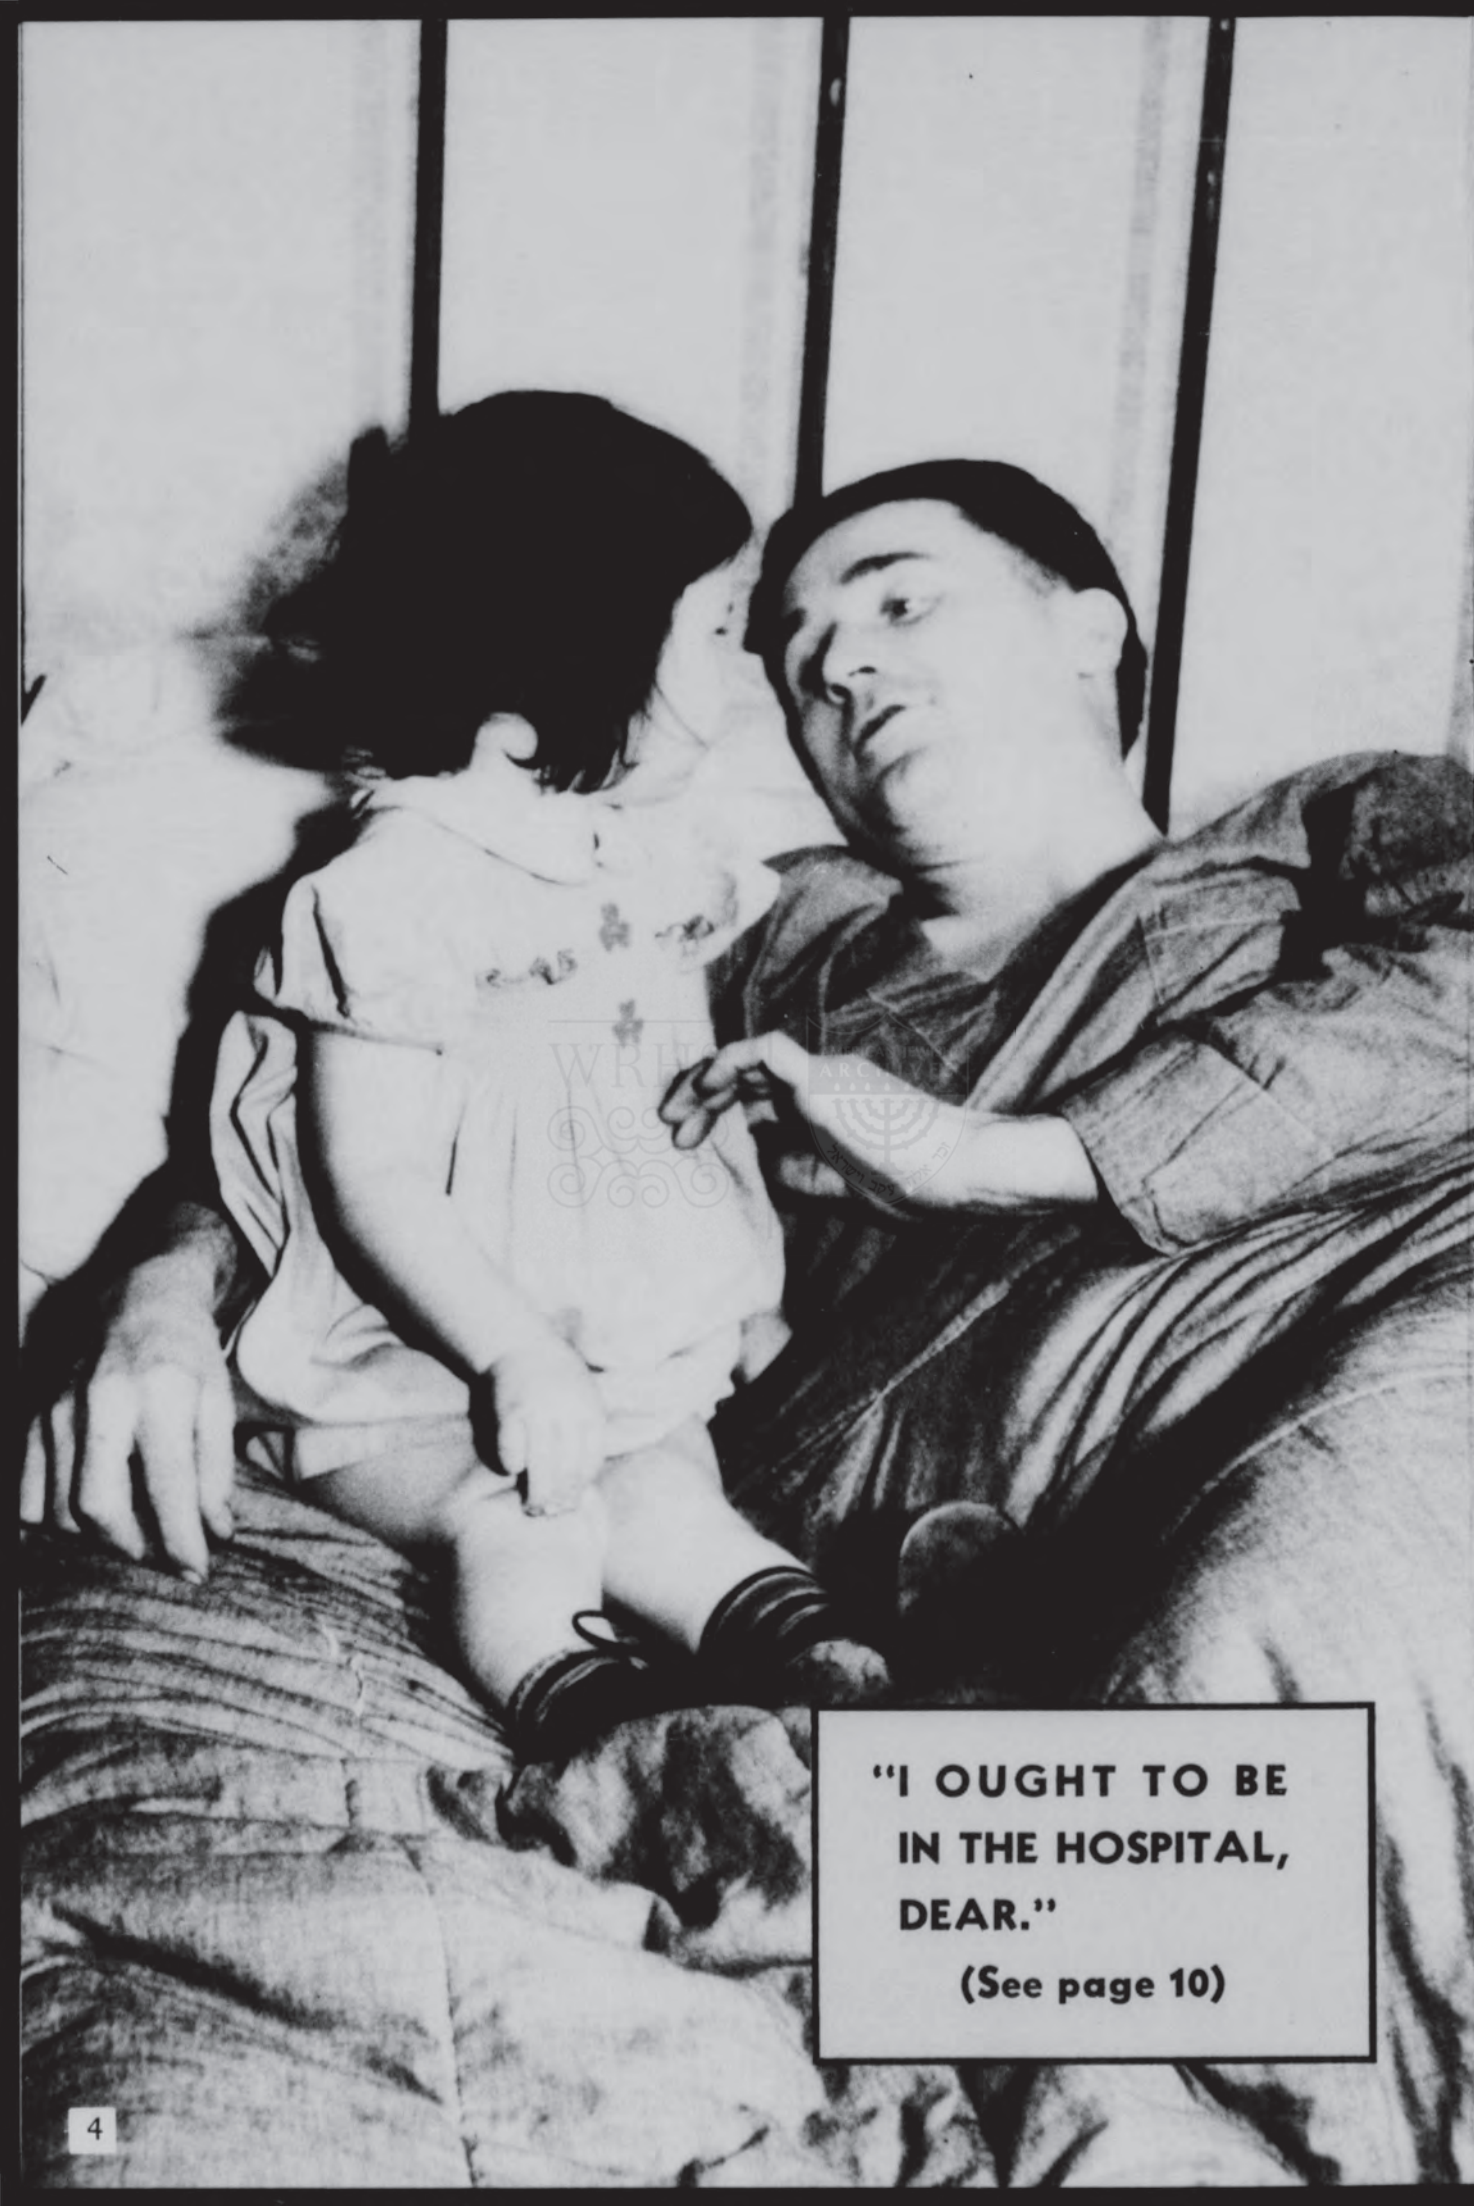

And the shadow of their lives is dark across our own. Help them NOW. One donation will give real people in real trouble the vital aid 100 Community Fund organizations alone provide. Let's give all we can.

YOUTH WITH PROBLEMS . . .

Problems born of idleness and lack of opportunity . . . Familiar problems of life and living. Boys and girls need something to try for, the chance for healthy mental and physical life, constructive outlets for youthful energy.

America's tomorrow is built on the youth of today. All young people, as well as your own, need guidance and direction, sane understanding and advice.

Show them you care — share through your Community Fund.

GIVE GLADLY --- GIVE GENEROUSLY!

WHEN SICKNESS STRIKES . . .

Young and old need the expert care and attention that Community Fund hospitals and dispensaries provide.

Disease and accidents hit suddenly.

There are those who must be cared for NOW and in the year to come.

GIVE - - - THAT THEY MAY LIVE

TROUBLED TIMES!

Smashed family life in the wake of long unemployment and discouragement. Children victimized by parental death, desertion or divorce. Old folks alone and friendless. Days of stress and strain. Troubles that drag people down.

Thousands face these problems now! What will it be: faltering families and lost lives — or — wholesome existence? Your Community Fund pledge is the answer.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of the Community Fund Council,
Cleveland Community Fund,
Cleveland, Ohio.

We have examined the statement of receipts and disbursements of the Cleveland Community Fund for the period from November 20, 1939, to September 30, 1940, relative to the 1940 fund as subscribed to in the campaign of 1939 and have reviewed the system of internal control and accounting procedures of the Fund. The following comments relate to the scope of our examination:

Balances of demand deposits and savings accounts as of September 30, 1940, were reconciled with amounts reported to us by the depository banks, and office working fund and cash and checks for deposit were counted by us on October 1, 1940. U. S. Treasury note in the principal amount of $100,000.00 was reported to us by The Cleveland Trust Company as being held in safekeeping for the account of the Fund at September 30, 1940. The Fund also owned certain other securities at September 30, 1940, which were acquired principally in settlement of pledges. It is the practice of the Fund to include the proceeds of such securities in cash receipts when the funds are realized. Claims against closed bank were reconciled with balances reported by the liquidator. Cash receipts for the period from November 20, 1939, to September 30, 1940, as shown by daily listing sheets, were traced, by totals, to deposits as shown by bank statements on file. Canceled bank checks were examined in support of recorded cash disbursements for the period from November 20, 1939, to September 30, 1940, except those outstanding at the latter date and not returned at October 2, 1940. Authorizations for appropriations and for payments thereof, vendors' invoices, pay roll summaries or other data on file were examined as a further test of recorded disbursements. A summary of receipts and disbursements, applicable to the 1940 fund, follows:

REAL PEOPLE — REAL TROUBLES

Loretta^{*}

AT CHILDREN'S FRESH AIR CAMP

Loretta is one of those people to whom everything happened—mostly the wrong thing. When she was born, she had to have a blood transfusion. Her father gave his blood to keep her alive.

Things weren't so bad for Loretta and her folks until she was four years old. Then Dad mortgaged his home to buy a gas station. One night a gangster attacked a neighbor boy in front of the station. Loretta's father was stabbed to death trying to protect the boy.

From then on, Loretta has known nothing but hardships. Her mother had no source of income. They lost the gas station and house. First, they lived in a small apartment. Then, even a barn was home for a while.

Hard luck kept right after Loretta. Measles, chicken pox, whooping cough and all the other weakening diseases of childhood struck her in terrifying succession.

Her mother's health has been such that she couldn't provide the kind of care a frail, young girl like Loretta needs. That is why Loretta was 20 pounds underweight when she came to Children's Fresh Air Camp in August.

In September, she was taken to St. Luke's hospital for an adenoid operation. Now back at the Fresh Air Camp, she will rebuild her health, following the routine of rest, fresh air and nourishing food. In a little while she must have several teeth extracted for they are painful snags.

Loretta is a fine, brave little girl. You'd like her. She has a long, long way to go. Good health isn't achieved in a minute. That's why Loretta and other youngsters need such Community Fund agency services as the Children's Fresh Air Camp. Let's give all we can—NOW!

"Life's so terrible, Dolly, since Daddy's dead and Mommy's been so sick."

Artificial sunlight for Loretta at Children's Fresh Air Camp.

Rest and good food go hand in hand in building Loretta's health.

LET'S GIVE ALL WE CAN!

Helping real people with real troubles. This is the work of your 100 Community Fund health and welfare agencies. Among them are ten agencies primarily aiding the disabled and handicapped and promoting community health.

Children's Fresh Air Camp, now helping little Loretta regain health and vigor, is typical of these agencies. Each maintains various services not otherwise provided. They account for about 36 per cent of each year's local expenditures in the health field.

Working for the health and welfare of those they aid, these agencies, with 10 more public and private health organizations, form the Cleveland Health Council. Important was their share in helping Cleveland secure first award in the Inter-City Health Conservation Contest.

As a Council during the past year, they report the following results: Obtained special consideration for infectious cases of syphilis at hospital clinics and other institutions; aided public health nurses and lay groups in better understanding new principles of nutrition; supported development of a permanent health exhibit for this community; published basic facts on infant mortality and on patient admissions to State hospitals; helped to maintain a well-balanced and effective local public health program.

Interesting are these brief but vital facts on services by some of these health agencies in 1939. Over 15,600 occupational and physiotherapy treatments were given to handicapped individuals at the Association for Crippled and Disabled. Over 500 persons were given hearing tests at Association for the Hard of Hearing. Blind persons received over 5,000 visits by social service staff of the Society for the Blind.

Expectant mothers attended 1,248 prenatal classes of the Child Health Association. Anemic, malnourished and convalescent children had 22,107 days' care at Children's Fresh Air Camp. Almost 26,000 attended health and parent education and social hygiene classes of the Family Health Association. Indigent sick had 155,000 home visits by nurses from the Visiting Nurse Association and University Nursing District.

On the basis of the 1940 Community Fund goal of $3,350,000, these 10 agencies have been tentatively allocated $246,445 to carry on their health services for the community in the year to come.

Such services as these help real people in real troubles—people who have no other way of being helped. That is why 100 Community Fund agencies ask ONE gift now so that they may continue their vital work in the year ahead.

REAL PEOPLE—REAL TROUBLES

Bill*

ALL THE MAKINGS OF A REAL MAN

Bill is a fine boy with all the makings of a real man. A few years ago he might not have had a fair chance. He was born and reared in one of those dark spots on our city map where ramshackle houses predominate, where unemployment is greatest and wages are lowest.

Almost all of the boys in that region were organized in gangs. Remember Filkowski and how under such an environment he grew from rowdiness to petty thievery, to banditry and murder? That's what might have happened to Bill.

In 1936, the Boy Scout Council with the aid of the Juvenile Bureau of the Police Department transformed many of those gangs into Boy Scout troops. Bill joined. His first scoutmaster, Sergeant Klinger, became Bill's advisor and friend, helping to take the place of the father Bill had lost.

He was helped in finding a job, worked loyally, first as an usher, this summer as a life-guard at a camp. Bill has earned 21 merit badges as a scout. They include first aid, physical development, personal health, civics, safety, and life saving. Last March, he was awarded Scoutdom's highest award, the Eagle Badge.

A marijuana ring had been peddling the vicious dope to neighborhood boys and girls. As the trusted confidant of his scoutmaster, Bill did a splendid piece of service to his community in helping detect enough marijuana for a million cigarettes, which was seized and burned.

Next year Bill will graduate from high school and is in line for appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point. Encouraging him and advising him are George E. Green, scout executive, and Patrolman C. H. Cochran, his present scoutmaster.

Proud of his progress, Bill's widowed mother is deeply grateful for what Scouting has meant to her son. "With so many people on my side, how could I let them down?" Bill asks.

"Why not? Nothing else to do." Bill once found his companionship in a street-corner gang.

Fundamental to Scouting are the right knots—and proper ties in life.

Bill's Scoutmaster helps him find a job in a neighborhood theatre.

*Second of a series about real people in real troubles—helped by your Community Fund gifts.

LET'S GIVE ALL WE CAN!

Helping real people with real troubles. This is the work of your 100 Community Fund health and welfare agencies. Among them are 22 organizations serving young people, providing healthful recreation and other constructive outlets for youthful energy.

Young people need guidance and direction, sane understanding and advice. These agencies strive to meet such needs, seek to help boys and girls with problems born of idleness and lack of opportunity, with familiar problems of life and living. What Scouting has done for Bill is typical of the work of these agencies.

Today, juvenile delinquency is being reduced steadily. Public officials have cited the constructive efforts of Community Fund settlements, Christian Associations, and Scouting agencies. These agencies provide over 76 per cent of all such local services for character building, recreation and summer camping.

Many of these agencies are nationally prominent for their work: Hiram House for its many new developments in the settlement field; Karamu House for achievements of its Negro dramatic groups; Y.M.C.A. for pioneering with its vocational employment department, which today is geared to meet modern industrial and national defense requirements.

Eleven Community Fund settlements conduct over 1,100 clubs and classes each month for 21,500 boy and girl members, 55 per cent of whom live in the lowest two economic tenths of the city. In 1939, settlement attendance exceeded 1,550,000.

Over 12,000 boys were registered in 311 Boy Scout troops last year. Girl Scouts had over 4,000 members; Camp Fire Girls, 2,800.

Through 16 branches widespread in all parts of Greater Cleveland, the Y.M.C.A. offered a variety of activities to 37,000 members in 1939. The Y.W.C.A. had 14,900 girls and young women enrolled in its seven branches.

This summer, healthful aid in the out-of-doors was given to over 10,000 boys and girls, mothers and babies at eighteen Community Fund agency camps.

Based on the Community Fund campaign goal of $3,350,000, these 22 youth and recreation agencies have been tentatively allocated $735,305 for the coming year. Let's give all we can, to reach this goal. Remember—your one gift helps to better the lives of thousands of young people through their association with these agencies.

REAL PEOPLE—REAL TROUBLES

Lois[★]

AT ROSE-MARY HOME

Lois is eight years old. She has never walked without crutches.

Her troubles began when she first saw life as a tiny, premature baby weighing three pounds. No one knew it then, but the brain cells that control the use of her legs had not developed.

Her parents despaired when she neither crept nor walked at the age of two. People said that babies often don't walk until they are three years old.

When Lois was three, a specialist examined her, found she was suffering from spastic paralysis. Improvement might come about by teaching other brain cells to take over the job of those that never grew, he said. With surgical operations and excellent medical supervision, she might do better some time.

Lois was taken to Rose-Mary Home. An operation followed. There, the long, long fight to help her walk has continued unceasingly.

As a result of this care, Lois can stand alone now. She's so proud of it, even though standing alone means lifting her hands for a few seconds from iron rails on each side of her in the treatment room.

Her father and mother both work, paying all they can for the care Lois is getting. They both know it would take every cent they earn to give her this type of care, if your Community Fund gifts did not make possible such institutions as Rose-Mary Home.

Lois must go on in her brave struggle. At the Home are other little boys and girls, just as brave with an equally hard fight ahead. Many of them have no fathers or mothers to work for them. It is to help children such as those at Rose-Mary that your Community Fund gifts are used. That's why one hundred health and welfare agencies ask your ONE generous gift now. Let's give all we can.

LET'S GIVE ALL WE CAN!

Helping real people with real troubles. This is the work of your 100 Community Fund health and welfare agencies. Among them are 21 organizations for child care, chiefly serving dependent and neglected children. Three others offer personalized guidance for boys and girls.

Over half the children in the community receiving protective or foster care are aided by Community Fund agencies, which serve more than 4,700 boys and girls daily in institutions and foster or boarding homes.

The capacity of local public child-caring institutions being very small, Fund institutions for the purpose have almost the entire load. Increasingly, they are required to care for children with health or behavior problems. Many are used for specialized services, such as the care of crippled children provided at Rose-Mary Home.

Cleveland Children's Bureau has primary responsibility for selecting needy or neglected children for institutional care. The task of child placement in private boarding or foster homes is shared by the Humane Society and the Welfare Association for Jewish Children, with some participation by Children's Bureau.

Approximately 95 per cent of all children selected for placement have health defects needing correction. Children's Bureau Medical and Dental Clinic at Lakeside Hospital provides health services to almost all dependent children in the community under supervision of both public and private agencies. Yearly, about 3,000 youngsters are given medical treatment; 2,000 receive dental care.

Institutions such as Parmadale, Bellefaire, and Cleveland Christian Home protect and care for children without adequate means of support or without proper care or supervision.

Other institutions such as Children's Aid Society, Catherine Horstmann Home and Sisters of the Good Shepherd serve dependent adolescents who need special care or treatment, due to difficulties arising from their surroundings or from within themselves. Still other institutions provide for unmarried mothers and their babies.

On the basis of the 1940 Community Fund goal of $3,350,000, the Community Fund child-care institutions have been tentatively allocated $394,928 for their work during 1941.

These are services for real people in real troubles—boys and girls who have no other way of being helped through the misfortunes in their lives. That is why 100 Community Fund agencies ask your one generous gift now, so that all may continue their vital work in the year ahead.

LET'S GIVE ALL WE CAN—NOW!

ELMER* was rushed to Fairview Park Hospital following a serious accident two years ago. In the corridor, his wife and three little children anxiously awaited word of his condition. Then the disheartening report came—serious fractures of the leg—months in bed. It would be a long time before he could work again and the family was entirely dependent on his modest wages.

For six months, Elmer lay in a hospital bed. His system lacked calcium and the bones would not set properly. Special care was necessary. Later, Elmer was taken home, returning to the hospital each week for X-ray, orthopedic and heat treatments which would hasten use of the injured leg. The hospital secured cooperation of a relief agency in caring for his wife and children.

When the cast was removed from Elmer's leg 22 months after his accident, arrangements were made for him to receive treatment at the Association for Crippled and Disabled. There, his weakened leg was strengthened. He was given instruction in woodworking and toy making. The hospital furnished necessary medical supplies to enable his recovery.

He was doing well until the last week in August when his leg gave out as he stepped from the sidewalk to the street. He was put back to bed for several weeks. Now he is back at the Association for Crippled and Disabled, continuing the care which one day will help him to become self-supporting again.

Help for real people in real trouble. This is what your Community Fund gift provides. Among the 100 Community Fund organizations are 18 hospitals serving the sick and injured. Typical of their work is the care Elmer received from Fairview Park Hospital.

Community Fund hospitals and dispensaries provide more than half the local facilities in this field, the volume of their service greatly outweighing that of public institutions for indigent sick, and contagious, mental or tuberculous cases. Expenditures of the Fund's hospitals are over 55 per cent of the combined total for local public and private hospitalization and clinic services.

Annually, thousands of men, women, and children are nursed back to health in these hospitals. Last year, over 939,000 days of bed care were given, almost 20 per cent of this number being free. The nine Community Fund hospital dispensaries, caring for people with a myriad of ills, gave over 475,000 treatments.

*Last of a series about real people with real troubles—helped by your Community Fund gifts.

More than 11,000 babies were born in Fund hospitals last year.

To meet hospital needs of the community and to promote efficiency and cooperation between the various hospitals, these organizations are united in the Cleveland Hospital Council. Among the Council's many services is its central purchasing bureau which buys most of the equipment, supplies, and commodities for member hospitals and many other social agencies. This large-scale buying promotes standardization of supplies and safeguards quality and quantities, as well as effecting substantial savings.

Based on the 1940 Community Fund campaign goal, these Community Fund hospitals and the Hospital Council have been tentatively allocated $484,465 for the coming year.

These are vital services for real people with real troubles—people to whom such care often means the difference between life and death. Let's give all we can!

REAL PEOPLE WITH REAL TROUBLES HELP THEM THROUGH YOUR COMMUNITY FUND

JAMES*, father of four young girls, has had a full share of life's bad breaks, but he has fought off discouragement because he has "such a nice family."

He operated a small market stall and huckster route until expense of his wife's long illness made it impossible a few years ago for him to pay rent. His old truck broke down and he could not afford to have it repaired.

His oldest daughter is just 14; the youngest, six. James experienced days of hard work and dismal evenings of returning to do cleaning, cooking, and other household chores. Troubled times crowded in. There was no work to be found. Although he didn't want to, he had to go on public relief.

Last spring, he came to Associated Charities Institute of Family Service. If his truck were fixed, he could keep his family together, he explained. He offered to do any kind of work to get the money. He wanted desperately to get into business again, to be independent.

Associated Charities placed a housekeeper in his home, taking the strain of household duties from his shoulders. During the bad weather, he worked as a maintenance man at the Charities' Sewing Center. He saved carefully. A special committee of the agency, which furthers family rehabilitation by helping idle people become self-supporting in suitable occupations, gave him a small cash grant.

With his truck repaired, James has resumed his huckster's route. The housekeeper continues her homemaking duties for his family, but James has paid back all the original cash grant he received. This winter, he plans to board up his truck and transform it into a portable grocery and market. He knows now that he can make his way.

It is to provide sound, constructive services such as these of Associated Charities for real people in real trouble that you are asked to make your Community Fund gifts.

Among the 100 Community Fund agencies are nine organizations providing service to families, needy persons and homeless. Eight additional agencies give care to aged men and women.

In recent years, public, governmental agencies have expended vast sums for family unemployment relief, providing bare subsistence. Community Fund family welfare agencies, striving to get needy families back on their feet, are maintaining a volume of service almost equal to that of pre-depression years. A typical day's service of these agencies reaches 7,150 needy individuals and families, 1,700 persons requiring help and advice.

Last year, Associated Charities and Jewish Social Service Bureau helped 8,361 families, including 12,783 men, women and children who were given intensive service, with or without relief. Regular aid of these two family agencies—consultation and assistance in family, personal and marital problems—is supplemented by special help such as home economics advice, homemaking service for motherless families, work relief projects for therapeutic purposes, and employment information and consultation.

Interesting are these 1939 service facts on other agencies in this group. Legal Aid Society gave counsel to 6,306 needy persons. Veterans Claims Bureau helped 1,300 veterans with problems on claims, compensations, etc. Goodwill Industries made possible over 210,000 hours of employment for needy, aged and handicapped people. About 3,500 families and individuals with serious problems were assisted by Travelers Aid Society.

On the basis of the 1940 Community Fund goal of $3,350,000, these agencies for needy persons, families and homeless have been tentatively allocated $1,096,600 for the coming year; homes for the aged, $50,306.

Such services as these help real people in real trouble—people to whom a helping hand will mean useful, wholesome living. That is why we are asked to give all we can. Remember—your ONE generous gift NOW provides the services of 100 Community Fund agencies every day in the year ahead.

TO THE RABBIS OF THE SYNAGOGUES OF GREATER CLEVELAND:

The Women's Committee of the Cleveland Community Fund has been asked to contact the rabbis, ministers and priests of the different synagogues and churches in this City in an effort to have the message of the Community Fund emphasized in every synagogue and church in Greater Cleveland on Saturday, October 18 and Sunday, October 19, which is being officially proclaimed Community Fund Sunday by Mayor Edward Blythin. This day precedes the Campaign which starts Monday, October 20. The Community Fund wishes no open solicitation in the synagogue.

Enclosed in this letter is a copy of the schedule of "Open Houses" being sponsored by the Women's Committee, which we would greatly appreciate having included in your Saturday, October 11 or Sunday, October 12, Church Bulletin. A message from you to your congregation announcing these Open House dates would be very helpful in stimulating a large attendance. We hope, in this manner, to give citizens of Greater Cleveland an opportunity to view present-day problems in social welfare needs and also to see how their Community Fund, through their contributions, is working toward a solution of these problems.

The Community Fund Fall Festival Rally, usually held on the same day as Community Fund Sunday, is being held, this year, on Wednesday, October 15, at 8:30 p.m. in the Music Hall of the Public Auditorium. There is no admission charge for, nor solicitation of funds made during the Festival program.

We would greatly appreciate your announcing this Festival to your congregation on Saturday, October 11 or Sunday, October 12.

As in the past, we are again sending you a reply card which we hope you will fill in and return to us.

A large part of the success of the past Community Fund Campaigns has been due to the splendid cooperation of the rabbis, ministers and priests in Greater Cleveland through their spiritual understanding. The Women's Committee is hopeful that you will wish to continue this support and that you will bring our message to your congregation on Saturday, October 11 or Sunday, October 12, and the Saturday or Sunday preceding the Campaign.

May we look forward to the same cooperation this year as we have had in the past?

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Reginald D. Wells

Rabbi Abba H. Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

The Social Protection Committee of the Welfare Federation has authorized the appointment of a subcommittee on legal procedures and has asked me to be the Chairman.

I am writing to ask you to accept membership on this committee.

The purpose of establishing this committee is to effect a closer cooperation among all agencies, both public and private, concerned with the legal repression of prostitution and related activities.

The first meeting of this committee will be held on Thursday, February 11, at 3:30 p.m. in Room 302 of the Community Service Building, 1001 Huron Road. For your convenience I am enclosing a post card on which I hope you will indicate your willingness to serve on this committee and also to attend the first meeting on February 11.

Yours sincerely,

David Meck

David C. Meck, Jr.
Chairman, Subcommittee on Legal Procedures

"If this war is in fact a war for the liberation of peoples, it must assure the sovereign equality of peoples throughout the world, as well as in the world of the Americas. Our victory must bring in its train the liberation of all peoples. Discrimination between peoples because of their race, creed, or color must be abolished."

.....Sumner Welles, Memorial Day Speech at Arlington

This war for liberation must be won. And with the Victory must come Peace and Freedom for all mankind.

The youth of Cleveland, both Negro and white, are striving for Victory. We have spotted the Hitler Axis as Public Enemy Number One. Together with Joe Louis, American Soldier, we know that "there are a lot of things wrong with America — but Hitler won't fix them."

We know that our country and the United Nations must be victorious in this greatest of battles for freedom. But we also know that Victory does not come of itself. It must be fought for and worked for by everyone. This is total war. Only a united nation can wage total war. And the shame and the danger of America today is that we still tolerate those within our ranks who would divide our nation from within and separate it from its allies without and thereby bring all of us down to our knees as slaves of defeat.

A small clique of defeatists still practice their un-American trade of dividing the Negro and white citizens of our country. They try to retain their stranglehold on the South with the Poll-Tax laws. They imitate Hitlerism by lynching free Americans, some of them boys in the uniform of their country. They oppose the formation of mixed regiments in our army. They advise owners of major league baseball teams not to hire Negro players. They continue to violate the President's Declaration of Fair Employment Practices and refuse to hire Negroes and other minorities in vital war industries.

This is not the America which will win the war. And we must win!

Negro youth and other minority groups realize, in the words of the recent convention of the NAACP, that "Victory is Vital to Minorities." And all American youth are learning the truth expressed by President Roosevelt to that convention, "Minorities are Vital to Victory."

This conference on "Unity for Victory" has been called in order to guarantee our nation in its hour of crisis that not a single American youth in the City of Cleveland will be left standing on the sidelines because of discrimination against his participation in our common war effort. It is called for the purpose of helping our nation and our city eliminate those undemocratic practices which hinder our marching forward as a United Nation toward Victory. All youth who are determined to win "this war for the liberation of peoples" are urged to participate.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Community Chests & Councils in New York City, which you will recall, is the national organization which represents all of its member Community Chests and Councils of Social Agencies in the United States of America, is preparing a brief piece of printed matter to be used in support of Community Chest campaigns this Fall. This printed piece will carry brief quotations of fifty to seventy five words from prominent American citizens.

The Community Chest movement had its origin in Cleveland and you had a part in that beginning. I have been told of a stirring speech which you made at one of the first gatherings of Community Chest leaders in Cleveland. In view of your rich background in Community Chest service, we are hopeful that you would be willing to prepare a brief quotation of fifty to seventy five words, which you could sponsor in the publication as planned.

We have telegraphed New York requesting that they would hold the final draft of this printed piece until we can learn if you are willing to prepare the quotation.

The publication will have national circulation in support of the entire Chest movement.

I shall telephone your office within a few days to learn if you are willing to prepare the indicated statement.

Sincerely,

TGG/arb

UNITED APPEAL OF 101 COMMUNITY CHEST — RED FEATHER — AGENCIES

May 19, 1948

One of the noblest and most American institutions in our country is the Community Chest. It is the inspiring symbol not alone of American generosity and its deep concern for the protection of the underprivileged and for social justice and progress, but also of the fundamental unity which pervades American life and which asserts itself whenever Americans are engaged in deeds of goodness and mercy.

I have been connected with the Community Chest of Cleveland from its very inception, and the movement had its origin in Cleveland. Our Community Chest has helped to make Cleveland a wholesome city to live in.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Rabbi Bernstein was not able to accept our invitation to address the Opening Meeting of the Metropolitan Division on September 13th, although he tried very hard to arrange his schedule.

We agreed that Rabbi Eisendrath would be an excellent choice and in a phone conversation today, he indicated that he probably will accept.

I do not think he needs any pressure, but I am sure a word of encouragement from you would be helpful.

Cordially yours,

E. V. Rasmussen, Chairman

My dear Rabbi Eisendrath:

It was nice talking to you on the phone and I am delighted that you plan to be at Timagami this summer. I sincerely hope that my plans will be such that I can get up there and we may have a visit.

Confirming our conversation, we should like to invite you to be the speaker at the Opening Meeting of our Metropolitan Division of the Cleveland Community Fund on Thursday evening, September 13th, at 6:30 in the Main Ballroom of the Hotel Statler. I believe I explained that I was Chairman of this Division. This meeting is really the "kick-off" for the work of our Metropolitan Division which enrolls some 7,000 workers and secures in the neighborhood of 70,000 gifts from homes and small businesses.

Last year, this Division became inspired and did such an outstanding job that they helped save the Campaign, and we are anxious to use every legitimate means to uphold our end again this year.

One of the great factors of the Cleveland Community Fund has been the marvelous inter-faith cooperation, for nowhere that I know of do Jews, Protestants and Catholics work so harmoniously together and have such high respect for each other. It is my considered judgment that one of the factors which really makes Cleveland a great city is the influence of our Community Fund. Over the years, we have been blessed with outstanding leadership, both lay and professional, and the best folks in town regard it as their responsibility, as well as their opportunity, to serve.

Our meeting on the 13th will be composed of our twenty-two Vice-Chairmen, ninety-eight Section Chairmen and Captains. Obviously, it is impossible to have all of our workers together in one place. We do get them together, however, in meetings in their own neighborhoods.

It will make us very happy, and you will be giving us a great lift, if you will accept this assignment. If you will let me have your final affirmative word within a few days, it will be appreciated. Will you also have your Secretary forward three glossy photos (3 x 5) and some brief biographical information?

With all good wishes.

Cordially yours,

E. V. Rasmussen, Chairman
Metropolitan Division,
Cleveland Community Fund.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

On January 7, 1913, there was created in Cleveland a new organization which was destined to have far-reaching effects on the sound development of this community and on the lives of thousands of its citizens. This was the Federation for Charity and Philanthropy, predecessor of our present great Welfare Federation of Cleveland.

To mark these 50 years of service and to strengthen our spirits for the work that lies ahead, the Federation is planning a major observance of its Golden Jubilee. As his first major post-presidency assignment for the Federation, Harry T. Sealy has accepted the chairmanship of a Citizens Committee which will be the principal sponsoring group for this civic celebration. I earnestly hope you will agree to serve as a committee member.

The schedule of special events will get under way early this fall with the premiere showing of a film on the work of the Federation. Financed by a special gift and now in production, it will be the first film of its kind ever made. In January, 1963, the Citizens Committee will sponsor a Golden Jubilee Banquet; in March the Federation's traditional Health and Welfare Institute will be held, and the observance will conclude with the National Conference on Social Welfare holding its 90th Annual Forum in Cleveland in May, 1963.

Newspapers, radio and TV, a speakers' bureau and other means will be utilized throughout the anniversary year to tell the story of the Federation, to pay tribute to the thousands of volunteers who share in its work, and to enlist the support and participation of still more citizens.

Although I am new in the job of president of the Federation, I have been closely involved in its widespread activities for several years. From this experience I can testify that this organization is performing a magnificent job in its twofold mission: helping to meet the needs of people, and working to solve this community's social problems.

I trust you will join with me and the Citizens Committee as we try to make the 50th anniversary observance a springboard for even greater service to the community in the years ahead. We expect to convene the committee in the early fall. Since small working groups will be handling the details of special projects, it probably will not be necessary for the full committee to meet more than once or twice. There will be no solicitation of committee members for financial support.

Please indicate your acceptance on the enclosed card.

Sincerely yours,

The signature is written in a cursive, handwritten style. It appears to read 'Fred M. Hauserman'. There is a faint circular stamp behind the signature, which contains the text 'AMERICAN NEW YORK' and some Hebrew text.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

As you may know, the National Conference on Social Welfare will hold its 90th Annual Forum in Cleveland May 19-24, 1963, bringing to our city more than 5,000 top social welfare leaders from the U. S., Canada and many other countries.

The Conference was officially invited to Cleveland by the Welfare Federation to tie in with the observance of the Federation's 50th anniversary. This will be the seventh time the Conference has met in Cleveland, the earliest being in 1880 and the most recent year being 1953.

Mrs. Ralph S. Schmitt, who has long been active with the Welfare Federation and numerous other Cleveland agencies, and who is chairman of the Visiting Committee at Western Reserve University School of Applied Social Sciences, has accepted chairmanship of the Cleveland Sponsoring Committee for the Annual Forum. Mrs. Schmitt and I hope you will be willing to serve as a member of the Sponsoring Committee.

The committee will undertake several activities in connection with the Annual Forum, such as a reception, arranging agency tours, staffing a hospitality booth at Public Hall, providing volunteers and other duties. Responsibility for most of these specific assignments already has been accepted by several people. Your service on the committee would not be burdensome and we would not expect to convene more than one meeting.

Please let us know on the enclosed card whether we may include your name on the Sponsoring Committee. May we hear from you within a week or so? Thanks very much.
