Cleveland, metropolitan government, 1927.

City of Cleveland
Office of the Mayor

JOHN D. MARSHALL
MAYOR

November 29, 1927.

Rabbi A. H. Silver,
The Temple,
Ansel Rd. & E. 105th St.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

You have received an invitation to be present at the meeting in the Lattice Room of the Hotel Statler on Thursday when the question of organizing a committee to make a study of the borough plan of government for the Cleveland metropolitan district will be discussed.

May I ask you to make a few remarks on the general subject during the progress of the discussion? I am asking three other prominent Cleveland citizens also to make short talks.

A brief address by you will greatly help in starting this movement off in the right manner.

Very truly yours,

John D. Marshall
Mayor.

Dec. 2d, 1927.

Mr. John D. Marshall,
City of Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Marshall:-

On my return from Baltimore this morning, I found your kind letter inviting me to say a few things at the meeting which was held yesterday, in behalf of the proposed borough plan of government.

I assure you that I would have been delighted to have attended this meeting and to have participated in the discussion, if I were in the City. Please feel free to call upon me at any time.

With kindest personal regards, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

AHS/IR
