Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Leutner:

Dr. Hugo Bergmann, Rector of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem, is to visit the United States the end of March and will also visit Cleveland on Sunday evening, April 4. The Cleveland Committee for the Hebrew University, of which you are an honored member, is arranging a reception to welcome Dr. Bergmann. It will be in the nature of a banquet at the Cleveland Hotel.

The Committee would deeply appreciate it if you would extend greetings to Dr. Bergmann in the name of the academic circle in the city.

Dr. Bergmann, besides being the Rector of the University, is internationally known as a scholar and author. His field is Mathematics and Philosophy.

The Committee would be deeply grateful to you for your contribution to this evening's program. I shall be glad to send you some additional information about Dr. Bergmann as well as about the University.

With all good wishes, I remain

My dear Rabbi:-

Just a few lines letting you know that the English and Jewish papers in this country are full of the news about you making the keynote speech at the English Zionist Convention.

Elmer Louis our publicity man got a very fine job in Toledo.

Dr. Shubert committed suicide last Sunday. On Sunday I am going over to Mr. Evans and make arrangements for our picnic. We will talk it over with the Executive Board.

The news about the Royal Commission report is very sadening and they are all saying, let's see what our Jewish leaders will do at the congress.

Hope you are having a very fine time with your dear family and are taking a well deserved rest.

Respectfully

My dear Rabbi,

Enclosed you will find the membership card and dues for Mrs. Ben Freed. I am sending them to you personally because I am anxious to recommend Mrs. Freed as a member of the Board. She appears to possess considerable ability in organization work and has expressed the desire to cooperate with us. I would also like to suggest Mrs. J. D. Zupnick and Mrs. M. Lackritz.

I hope these names will meet with your approval and that of the nominating committee.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Dr. Wise:

I am sorry that you are not free to accept our invitation for the Cleveland Centennial Celebration. It would have been a fine thing for the community if you could have come.

I have another request to make of you. The annual Chanukah banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society, which is its outstanding affair of the season, will be held on Sunday evening, December 5. This will be the third annual affair. The first one, two years ago, was addressed by Rothenberg who was at that time President of the ZOA and Judge Lewis. The second one was addressed by Dr. Mossinsohn. The Chanukah banquet climaxes an effort to raise an annual scholarship to the Hebrew University and offers an excellent opportunity among other things to popularize the work of the University. These banquets have been highly successful, filling the largest banquet hall in the city to capacity.

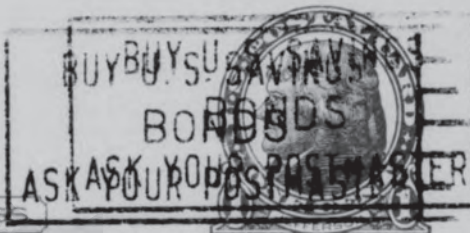

The Cleveland Zionist Society would be greatly honored if you would accept its invitation to be its guest and speaker that evening. I hope that you will be able to come. The Society - the largest single Zionist unit - should have the pleasure of welcoming the President of the Zionist Organization of America at least once during his term of office.

I will make a bargain with you. If you will come to us on December 5, I will come to the Free Synagog some Sunday morning in January or March.

I have another proposition in connection with this invitation. On December 6, 7 and 8, The Temple will present to the community a symposium on "Religion Speaks". There will be a luncheon meeting on Monday at which the subject, "The Church speaks on Communism, Fascism and Democracy" will be discussed; on Tuesday evening, "The Church speaks on Economic Justice; and on Wednesday evening, "The Church speaks on cooperation between religions for a better social order." For the Monday noon meeting, we have already procured the services of Dr. Reinhold Niehbur who will speak from the Christian viewpoint. We would be delighted to have you remain over for Monday noon and speak on the same subject from the Jewish viewpoint. Bishop McConnell and Dr. Fineshriber will speak on Tuesday evening and Dr. Bernard Clausen and I will speak on Wednesday evening. The symposium will be open to the entire community and the leaders in religious and civic life will be invited.

There is a small honorarium of $150.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver
The Temple
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Silver:

Thanks so much for your letter which I much appreciate. I would have been happy to have had part in what I am sure will be your great Cleveland Centennial Celebration.

As for December 5th and the Chanukah Banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society, here is how I am situated, and you can see for yourself how impossible it is. In the morning I preach in the chapel of the Chicago University as you do from time to time. In the afternoon I am to speak at a Chanukah festival of the Student Convention under the auspices of George Fox, and in the evening I have promised to speak for the first time at a convocation of Northwestern University; so that date is out of the question.

If you really wish me to do so I think I could come to you for that noon meeting of Monday. I would leave Chicago at night speaking for you at noon together with Niebuhr, who is a great person, and then perhaps I could fly home in the afternoon.

I am so happy to get that glowing message about your visit to Tulsa. Would it be possible for you to go to Rochester? I wired you about it today.

With warmest greeting and looking forward to being with you on Monday, December 6th at noon, I am,

Faithfully yours,

Stephen S. Wise
National Chairman

Dr. Stephen S. Wise,
40 West 68th Street,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Dr. Wise:

Let me acknowledge your letter of October 13.

I understand fully that you cannot be with the Cleveland Zionist Society on December 5. I am, however, delighted to learn that you will be able to be with us for the Symposium on Monday noon, December 6.
It will give us all great pleasure to have you. You will share the program that noon with Dr. Niebuhr.
Each speaker will have about thirty minutes. This will enable us to close the meeting by two o'clock.
The subject for the Monday noon Symposium, which I indicated in my last letter to you, is "Religion speaks on Communism, Fascism and Democracy".

With reference to Rochester, the situation is as follows: I am scheduled to address a New York State Teachers' Convention in Rochester on the afternoon of October 28 and another such meeting in New York City the next day. If there is a train out of Rochester late at night, and if the community can arrange its meeting for the evening of October 28, I shall be glad to address it.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

Mr. Samuel Ismach, President,
Jewish National Fund Council of Cleveland,
10104 South Boulevard,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Ismach:

I have been instructed by the Cleveland
Zionist Society to write you this letter.

We understand that Mr. Morgan Jones is to be the guest of the Jewish National Fund Council of Cleveland on Sunday, November 14. Furthermore, that at a meeting of your arrangement committee, it was announced that a luncheon is to be held before the Conference for Mr. Jones under the auspices not of the Council itself but of some member organization of the Council and that a resolution was unanimously adopted at this meeting that Mr. Jones was to appear only under the auspices of the Jewish National Fund Council. We approve of the action of your committee and we hope that it will be endorsed by the Council itself at your Monday evening meeting. If any luncheon is to be arranged for Mr. Jones while he is in Cleveland, it should be arranged under the auspices of the Council itself, in which all constituent members will share. Otherwise the Cleveland Zionist Society, which has been given by the Council the largest quota to raise, would request the privilege of having Mr. Jones at a luncheon which it would arrange. We feel that this is fair to all concerned.

With Zion's greetings, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Flora Rohrheimer,
1351 East Blvd.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Flora:

I think we ought to get busy on the Chanukah Dinner of the Cleveland Zionist Society. The date is Sunday evening, November 28. The place has not yet been chosen but I would suggest that you contact with the Cleveland Hotel. Our experiences with the Hollenden, last year, were not very satisfactory. Try to get the dinner for $1.50 although you have leeway up to $1.75. The tickets will sell for $2. The difference will go to pay the expenses of the program, speakers, music and so forth that evening. The affair will be in the nature of a dinner dance.

I would suggest that you get together with Virginia and within the week arrange for a meeting of thirty to forty women of the Society just as was done last year to plan the affair and to arrange for the distribution of the tickets. The success of the affairs of the last two years insures a ready sale of tickets this year. The arrangements should proceed at once. I shall be ready to help you in every way.

With all good wishes, I remain

As ever yours,

Mr. Paul Friedman,
Friedman Brothers & Company,
E. 103rd and Harvard Avenue,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Paul:

Last year you did a grand job for the Hebrew University and for the Cleveland Zionist Society. Through your leadership, close on to a thousand dollars was raised among the members and friends which made it possible for our Society to send a $500 scholarship to the Hebrew University and to carry on the splendid program of cultural meetings last year, a program which has received the enthusiastic praise of the community.

We are planning our Chanukah banquet and celebration again this year. It will be held at the Cleveland Hotel on Sunday evening, November 28. At this time we should like to announce the 1937-38 scholarship to the University. We would all profoundly appreciate it if you would assume chairmanship, again this year, of a small committee on patrons which will solicit contributions to this fund. I am confident that those who gave last year will in almost every instance be glad to renew their contribution this year so that the pioneering work which you had to do then will not have to be done again this year. I will, of course be very happy to help you in every way.

Please do this work for the sake of the Hebrew University whose Rector we had the honor of welcoming, you may recall, last April at the Hotel Cleveland, in the presence of all the leaders of the cultural and educational life of our community. The Hebrew University looks upon the Cleveland Zionist Society as one of its strongest supports in this country. I am enclosing herewith the program of last year's Chanukah celebration which contains the names of the patrons who contributed to the fund.

With all good wishes, I remain

Rabbi Harold Goldfarb,
Community Temple,
241 Euclid Avenue,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Goldfarb:

As you know, the Cleveland Zionist Society will hold its Annual Chanukah Banquet on Sunday evening, November 28. This will be another gala affair. The speaker will be Mr. Ludwig Lewisohn.

We would all be grateful to you if you would deliver the invocation this year.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

Rabbi Israel Goldstein,
Congregation Bnai Jeshurun,
270 W. 99th Street,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Goldstein:

I was sorry that you could not come to us for our Chanukah Banquet but I fully understand the reasons.

I am writing this early for your appearance before the Cleveland Zionist Society in December or January. Set your own date. We would like to have you come in December, say Wednesday, December 22. If that is not convenient, could you come to us in January, say January 4 or 11 or on Wednesday, January 19? Whichever date you can come, we will have a great meeting for you and we will make your stay in Cleveland a very pleasant one. Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

New York, N.Y.

My dear Dr. Lewisohn:

I am delighted to know that it will be possible for you to be the guest of the Cleveland Zionist Society on Sunday evening, November 28. This is the annual Chanukah Banquet and Dance - a gala affair - of the Society. The affair is in the nature of the celebration of Chanukah and we try to create a mood congenial to the spirit of Chanukah - joyous rather than somber.

We recall with pleasure your last visit to the Cleveland Zionist Society at which time you spoke on "The Jew and the World". I would appreciate receiving from you the subject of your address early so that we may announce it.

I have no suggestions to make relative to the length of the address other than that in view of the nature of the program, an address of about thirty-five to forty minutes would be about right.

If you plan to arrive in the city anytime before Sunday noon, it would give Mrs. Silver and me great pleasure to have you for Sunday dinner at our home.

With all good wishes and looking forward with eagerness to your coming, I remain

Most cordially yours,

AHS:BK

The Honorable Mayor Harold H. Burton,
Cleveland,
Ohio.

My dear Mayor Burton:

You graced the annual Banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society in previous years. We would feel honored if you could be our guest again this year. The Banquet will be held on Sunday evening, November 28 at the Cleveland Hotel. You must be tired after a strenuous campaign, but if you can come, we shall be delighted.

It gave Mrs. Silver and me great pleasure to have Mrs. Burton in our box last Monday evening and particularly to have her in our home after the lecture of Mrs. Roosevelt.

With all good wishes, permit me to remain

Dear Dr Silver: ZIONIST ORGANIZATION

I enclose our usual final notice for Dr Ludwig Lewisohn's engagement in Cleveland on Sunday, Nov. 28th.
Will you kindly sign and return one of the copies.

Please fill in the hour of this meeting, the place where it will be held and the subject you are announcing.

The contract for this date was sent you two days ago, and this may now be on the way back to us giving the above information. If this is not the case we hope you will let us have these details on the enclosed sheet as soon as possible, so that we may give full particulars to Dr Lewisohn.

My dear Dr. Silver:-

Thank you for your kindness in inviting me to deliver the invocation at the Annual Chanukah Banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society. I regret exceedingly that another engagement prevents my acceptance.

I trust that the occasion will be as beautiful and as inspiring as last year's Chanukah celebration.

Extending my best wishes for a Happy Chanukah to you and your family, I am

We take pleasure in submitting the revised menu for the CLEVELAND ZIONIST SOCIETY dinner and dance that is to be held Tuesday, December 15th.

You will note I made a change in the dessert, which is practically the same dessert we had on the menu, except it is served in one piece per table. I think it makes a nicer showing than served individually. Kindly advise if this meets with your approval.

Will get in touch with you at a later date as to the final details.

Dear Silver:

I cannot at this time write you any definite word in reply to your kind invitation, except to say that December and January are both very unlikely months. My free time in December will be taken up by a trip to the coast, which will require me to fly both ways because of the limitation of time. My free time in January will have to go to the UPA Conference in Washington and the preparations for it.

With February, I commence my lectures in Homiletics at the Seminary, which will take away one day out of every week.

It is my hope, however, that in connection with one of the out of town lecture engagements which I have already on my calendar, I may be able to route a visit to Cleveland, so as to economize on the time overhead. Some-time before the end of the year, I hope to be in a position to make a definite suggestion of date.

You must bear with me, considering that I have no assistant rabbi as you have, that I preach Saturdays and Sundays, and that I am giving a tremendous amount of time to the day-to-day administrative work of the Jewish National Fund.

Cordially yours,

DR. ISRAEL GOLDSTEIN

My dear Leon:

I would appreciate it if you would give good publicity to the Chanukah Banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society which will be held next Sunday evening at the Cleveland Hotel. Our guest speaker will be Ludwig Lewisohn and the subject of his address will be "Chanukah and the Road to Zion." The second $500 scholarship to the Hebrew University will be presented that evening. Emanuel Rosenberg will kindle the Chanukah Lights and sing a group of Palestinian songs. I shall act as toastmaster.

Judging from the response which we have already received, the affair promises to be a very large and gala occasion. I hope to see you there.

Dear Rabbi Silver: CLEVELAND ZIONIST SOCIETY

Thank you for returning the final notice for Dr
Lewisohn's engagement in Cleveland on Nov. 28th.

In my letter of the 18th when sending this notice sheet to you I asked if you would give us the subject for Dr Lewisohn's lecture, but you have not answered this question.
Perhaps you have written to Dr Lewisohn direct and arranged this matter with him. If not will you please let us know by return mail as Dr Lewisohn will want to know what subject you have announced for this lecture next Sunday.

I note that you ask if Dr Lewisohn would like you to reserve a room at an Hotel, and you suggest the Wade Park Manor.
As this Hotel is out at 107th St. and your meeting is held at the Hotel Cleveland, which I understand is a down town hotel close to the New York Central station, I should imagine Dr Lewisohn would prefer the Cleveland Hotel so that he would be right there at the time of your meeting. However I am writing him about this, and if he wishes a reservation made we will let you know later.

As the hour for your meeting is 6.00 p.m. we assume it is a dinner meeting.

THE PERMANENT HORIZON

AFTER an absence of ten years Ludwig Lewisohn returned to the United States in 1934 to settle permanently with his family and it was soon found that his years of observation and reflection abroad had led him to become a crusader against stereotyped civilization. His humanism stresses the values of the past and calls for wider horizons.

With a message that was timely it was not long before the invitations began to come in like a flood tide and his promise to speak on a lecture tour for a period of five weeks was extended and re-extended again and again until he had covered the country from Coast to Coast in a twenty-five week tour. Wherever he went he was acclaimed not only for his eloquence and power but above all, by men and women of the most varied religious and political beliefs, as one whose message is profoundly needed in a confused and difficult age.

Because of Dr. Lewisohn's very real success as a speaker we have persuaded him to again interrupt his creative work, to drop his pen and devote at least part of his time to the lecture platform.

Born in Berlin, Dr. Lewisohn was eight years old when his parents brought him to South Carolina, and except for his extended travels in Europe and the near East he has lived his life in America. He was educated at Columbia University, was instructor in German at the University of Wisconsin for five years, and professor of German literature at Ohio State University.

Dr. Lewisohn has written some of the most beautiful prose known to English literature as well as some of its most pungent criticism. During the period of his editorial work for The Nation there was a demand to see and hear the man and he accepted invitations to speak in most of the principal cities east of the Mississippi. The success of those earlier speeches was in a large measure responsible for the immediate demand for him in 1934.

"Humanism" is the only proper name for a certain rich and noble philosophy of life. By right it belongs not to the lay parsons who claim it but to those who have first familiarized themselves with "the best that has been thought and said." Today in his study Lewisohn works with his shelves lined with American, English, German, Hebrew, French, and Latin volumes, and he is loyal not to one race, one creed, or one political faith but to all that have touched him. He has sought to be a citizen of the world though by choice paying his taxes to Uncle Sam.

THE PRESS

N. Y. TIMES, Oct. 21, 1934 (Review of the Permanent Horizon)—“... in this hard-hitting, uncompromising defense of the middle class, offers us a way out of our spiritual and material morass.”

MONTREAL GAZETTE, Nov. 19, 1934—“To an overflow audience at the People's Forum, Church of the Messiah, yesterday . . . it was a smashing attack upon worldiness, cruelty, acquisitiveness, subjection to 'Warrior Gods,' and the pagan love of conquest. . . . His address was a sermon—and a good one.”

AND FROM COMMENTS BY MAIL

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.—“There isn't any question in our minds but that Dr. Lewisohn sent us off to a grand start.”

Baltimore, Md.—“The whole community was thrilled with your address.”

Hartford, Conn.—“People are still talking about your lecture.”

Washington, D. C.—“May I congratulate you on the fact that Mr. Lewisohn is appearing under your auspices. He gave a remarkable address here last night.”

Omaha, Neb.—“He proved to be one of our most popular speakers . . . he showed great depth of thought.”

Chicago, Ill.—“I want to congratulate you upon giving one of the finest addresses I have heard this season, in a long time in fact.”

San Mateo, Calif.—“I wish I could adequately pass on the enthusiastic and appreciative responses I am receiving to your lecture.”

Detroit, Mich.—“I want to tell you again how much we appreciated your lecture on 'The Meaning of Marriage.'”

Cincinnati, Ohio—“When an event is remembered by a fickle public after some weeks have passed and a discussion of the subject matter still continues and lovely things are said to me concerning it, then it is a great pleasure to transmit the bouquet to the one who deserves it.”

In Youngstown, Ohio—Dr.
Lewisohn caught unawares.

Dr. Lewisohn offers the following wide range of subjects for the ensuing season:

THE MORAL DILEMMA OF LIBERALISM
A LIBERAL LOOKS AT CAPITALISM
THE STATE AND OTHER MYTHS
THE MEANING OF MARRIAGE
WHY NOT RELIGION?
THE MAN OF LETTERS IN AMERICA
CONFESSIONS OF A NOVELIST
THE CHANGING NOVEL
THE FUTURE OF THE AMERICAN JEW
THE FAITH OF ISRAEL: WHERE DOES IT STAND TODAY?
THE JEW IN MODERN LITERATURE

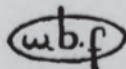

The following subjects which enjoyed an extraordinary popularity during 1934-35 on a Coast to Coast tour are also available:

THE CRISIS IN CIVILIZATION

MEMORANDUM CHANUKAH BANQUET - CLEVELAND ZIONIST SOCIETY
Held at Cleveland Hotel - Sunday evening, Nov. 28, 1937

- (1) Many other organizations held important affairs on the same evening - Heights Temple, Jewish Center, etc.
- (2) Hotel Cleveland very satisfactory.
- (3) Arrangements of the Banquet - menu, tables, etc. were in the hands of Flora Rohrheimer. Tickets in the hands of Mrs. Morton Bialosky. Both did a very fine job.
- (4) Mr. Evans presented the Hebrew University Scholarship. Mr. Katz spoke for Jewish National Fund.
- (5) Preparations for the Affair should begin at least six weeks ahead of time as well as the fund-raising for the Hebrew University which was again, this year, in the hands of Paul Friedman.
- (6) Irwin Greene, chairman of the Hebrew University Committee, did not help nor did he attend the Banquet.

Rabbi Milton Steinberg,
Park Avenue Synagog,
50 E. 87th Street,
New York, N.Y.

My dear Rabbi Steinberg:

I am sorry that you could not accept the invitation of the Cleveland Zionist Society to attend its Chanukah Banquet. We had a very successful meeting with Dr. Ludwig Lewisohn as the speaker.

Would it be possible for you to come to us sometime in January to deliver a lecture on some Zionist theme? You would have a very large and interesting audience to address. Our meetings this year have averaged around a thousand. We could set the meeting either on the fourth, tenth or nineteenth of January. I hope that you will be free on one of these dates to come to us. We shall, of course, be very happy to offer you an honorarium for your services.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

I was very much pleased with the Affair of last evening. It was one of the nicest we ever had and I thank you for the presentation which you made and for the work which you put in to make the Affair a success.

We ought to follow up immediately and who have not renewed this year.

Again - we must now get busy on our membership. With all good wishes, I remain

My dear Falkman:

In fixing my dates for the month of December, I have set aside Tuesday evening, December 21 for a meeting of the Board of the Cleveland Zionist Society. About a week prior to the 21st, please send cards to the members of the Board.

On the bills which you send out for dues, please have prominently placed somewhere my name as president of the Society because there seems to be considerable confusion among our membership between the Cleveland Zionist Society and the Cleveland Zionist District. Our members have been approached by someone from the District and some of them have sent their dues to the District - Mr. Abe Feder, for example. Mr. Feder is asking for a return of his check. I think other members have been similarly approached.

Please have a report ready for the meeting on the exact number of members who have paid up for the year 1937-38.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

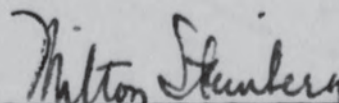

I regretted fully as much as you did my inability to attend the Chanukah Banquet of the Cleveland Zionist Society. It was just one of those unfortunate possibilities, with a calendar hopelessly full at a particular time.

Of the dates which you suggest, only one is open on my program but that is ideally open. I am free on Monday, January 10th. As a matter of fact, I am to speak in Canton on Tuesday, the 11th, so that my appearance before the Cleveland Zionist Society would be not only a pleasure in itself but a most convenient one.

May I hear from you at your earliest convenience, ~~in~~ confirming the date of Monday, January 10th.

With the magnificent appeal of Ludwig Lewisohn at the beautiful Chanukah Banquet of our Cleveland Zionist Society still ringing in our ears, it seems to me that we ought to make an effort immediately to enroll more Jews of Cleveland in the Zionist movement. I think that if a concerted effort were made by each member of our Board to bring in one or two new members each month, we would be aiding the movement materially at this time as well as strengthening our own Society.

A substantial number of new members joined us on the night of the Banquet. Many were so enthused that they volunteered to get new members during the month. I am requesting each member of the Board to try to procure two additional members in time for the next Board meeting which will be held on Tuesday evening, December 21st. I would be grateful for your cooperation.

Dues, as you know, are four dollars per annum. This includes the subscription to the "New Palestine", the Shekel to the World Zionist Organization and dues to the Zionist Organization of America. Husband and wife may have two memberships in the Society for seven dollars ($7).

With all good wishes, permit me to remain

ABBA HILLEL SILVER

The Temple

December 30, 1937.

Dear Friend:

May I invite you to join the Cleveland Zionist Society, of which I am President?

This Society is today the most potent force for Zionist education and effort in our community. Organized three years ago, it is today the largest Zionist society in the United States.

The Cleveland Zionist Society has carried on a cultural program of high merit. Its monthly meetings which attract capacity audiences to Mahler Hall have brought some of the foremost national and international figures in Jewry to Cleveland. Professor Franz Oppenheim, Erika Mann, Ludwig Lewisohn, Dr. Hugo Bergmann, Marvin Lowenthal, Pierre Van Paassen, Dr. Ben Zion Mossinsohn, U. S. Senator Royal S. Copeland and many others have graced our platform.

The Cleveland Zionist Society organized a Committee for the Hebrew University on Mount Scopus. Among its many activities is the contribution of an Annual Scholarship of Five Hundred Dollars to the University. Among the members of this committee are Dr. George W. Crile, Dr. W. G. Leutner, Dr. T. Wingate Todd, Dr. Henry M. Busch, U. S. Senator Robert J. Bulkley and many other outstanding non-Jewish leaders in the educational and professional fields, as well as many Jewish leaders.

The Society is engaged in an extensive program of youth education, arranging each year prize essay contests and oratorical contests among the Jewish young people of our city.

I feel that you would enjoy belonging to our Society and that you would profit from it. Your affiliation with us would strengthen the cause of the up-building of Palestine where a magnificent Jewish life is now developing. Tens of thousands of our fellow Jews from lands of persecution, from Germany and Poland, have found, in the last few years, a haven of refuge in Palestine. Thousands of Jewish children, driven from their homes in Germany, are finding a new home and a new hope in Eretz Yisrael. Progressively more and more American Jews, heretofore indifferent towards the movement, are coming to discover in it a practical solution for many pressing problems of Jewish life. They see in modern Palestine also an epic of courage, vision and achievement of which Jews everywhere can be justly proud.

I would greatly appreciate if you would join our ranks by becoming a member of the Cleveland Zionist Society. Membership is four dollars ($4.00) a year which includes your subscription to the New Palestine, the official weekly of the Zionist Organization of America. Two memberships for husband and wife are seven dollars ($7.00).

Will you please fill out the enclosed membership application and mail it to me?

Very cordially yours,

Abba Hillel Silver

Weeks Here Feb. 18

Writer Slated to Speak Here

Pierre Van Paasen, writer and student of Jewish problems, will speak Feb. 18 at 8 p. m. in the Collingwood temple.

Mr. Van Paasen, whose subject will be "A Christian Looks at the Jewish World Scene," is being brought here under auspices of the Toledo Zionist district.

Mr. Van Paasen is of Flemish descent, his family having lived on the same piece of land in Flanders since the ninth century. He was educated at the Athenaeum of Antwerp and at the Erasmian gymnasium in Rotterdam. He was wounded in the World war and was decorated by King Albert of Belgium. After the war he went to Canada, where he entered journalism.

He has been a feature writer for the Detroit News and the Atlanta Constitution. After working on the New York World he went to Europe as a columnist for the Evening World. He is well known in the ghettos of Europe and is one of the few non-Jews who is an honorary citizen of Tel Aviv. He also is an authority on the Hitler regime in Germany and on the Soviet Union. He was with the Ethiopian forces in the resistance against Italy and has just returned from Spain.

News Photographer Doubles as Preacher

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 15 (AP)—Week days Lee Krupnick is a news photographer, on the job, wherever a story is breaking. Sundays he is a layman preacher traveling hundreds of miles to deliver his message to church congregations.

A Jewish convert to the Christian faith, Krupnick has spoken to thousands of persons of all denominations in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

Krupnick accepts no money for his sermons. Because of his
