Dear Dr. Falkman:

The other day Rabbi Silver met a Mr. Seidman in a restaurant who gave him this five dollar bill in payment of his Cleveland Zionist Society dues. The Rabbi doesn't know his first name, but we hope you will be able to identify him and apply the five dollars properly.

A happy New Year to you and Mrs. Falkman!

Very truly yours,

(Mrs.) Ruth M. Sparrow

Rabbi Abba Helled Silver

The Temple

Dear Rabbi Silver,

You may or may not remember that I once brought you greetings from Dr Morris Mark and told you that his daughter is married into our family.

I received the enclosed letter from him today, and don't know what to do about it. Rabbi Stone suggested that I send it to you.

The film he mentions is really worth seeing, and his music is well synchronized with it. As I remember it he recorded some of the music actually as it was played in the parade. It is very colorful, and beautifully photographed.

I am going to Cincinnati Friday, and will simply tell him that I sent his letter to you. He evidently has an exaggerated notion of the importance of my position at the Temple.

Sincerely Yours,
Miriam L. Papert
