My dear Friend:

I received your telegram. I have been on the go most of the time the last few weeks, and my schedule is pretty crowded until the 16th. of this month. I could come to Washington on that day if that is convenient for you.

With warmest regards, I remain

Very cordially yours,

ABBA HILLEL SILVER

Dear Dr. Silver:

I would be delighted to see you here on May 16 if that date suits your convenience. I hope that you will join us for lunch at the Embassy residence on that day.

There have been important developments in talks with a mutual friend and we should welcome your reaction and counsel.

Yours very sincerely,

Abba Eban
