125 PM Rabbi Silver out of town
Saturday is the Passover. Impossible for Rabbi Silver to be away from Cleveland day

April 6th, 1920

Mr. Frank Muhlhauser,
New Willard Hotel,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Muhlhauser,

~~Upon my justification~~ I found your telegram of March 31st. I shall, of course, be happy to serve as a member of the Executive Committee on Community Organizations, if you so desire it.

I am sorry that I could not attend your conference in Washington. We are in the midst of the Passover season.

If at any future time I can be of service to you, please call upon me.

With kindest regards, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,
