Dear Dr. Silver:

Our South American Office is now preparing a booklet on Bonds for general distribution throughout Latin America, and they have asked us to obtain from you a statement to be included therein.

I am enclosing a suggested draft which incidentally, is based in large on your speech at the September National Mobilization Conference for Israel Bonds at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

If this meets with your approval, may I ask you to please have Miss Levine call me to confirm the text, so that we can dispatch a copy of the statement to South America immediately.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Message from Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

The creation of the State of Israel in our time is a fact that impinges on our daily lives, and on the relationships between the various Jewish communities of our hemisphere and of the world. Out of all the centuries of frustrated hopes, it has been given to our generation to witness the fulfillment of our ancient hope in the re-establishment of the State of Israel.

We are on the threshold of the tenth year of its establishment. We have reason to be proud of the achievements of these years, the manner in which the Israelis built and defended their state, and the manner in which the Jews of the world cooperated.

I cannot recall a single decade in Jewish history which was so replete in monumental achievements, so creative, so glorious in enterprise and valor as this last decade. It began, you will recall, in chaos, in the anarchic abandonment of Palestine by its Mandatory government, in attempts at armed invasions, in attacks all along its borders. The decade began in fear and insecurity and in the failure of the United Nations to come to the aid of the besieged state - the first of a series of such failures.

But this decade closes in an upsurge of strength, in an increased sense of security, thanks to a superb army which has been tested under fire, and in a remarkable tempo of growth and progress.

There has never been a time in Jewish history when our support and our help counted so heavily in the balance of the present and future destiny of Israel. There has never been a time when they find a more effective expression than they can find now, through State of Israel Bonds. Let us remember that this instrument of economic partnership was created by the Jews of the world in solemn deliberation with the leaders of Israel.

If we wish to continue to find spiritual and cultural inspiration in Israel then we, in turn, must continue to channel to Israel the vital economic means which made Israel's first decade so fruitful and creative. Our task, through Israel Bonds, is to assure that Israel shall not lack the economic strength which she needs as she enters upon a new decade of fulfillment.

My dear Mr. Helvarg:

The President of my congregation, Mr. A. M. Luntz, and his wife, will be leaving on the same plane with me for Israel.

I am sure that you know Mr. Luntz who has been very active in all fine Jewish causes and very generous in his personal contributions to institutions in Israel.

This will be the Luntz's first visit to Israel. I would appreciate if you would ask our friends in Israel to make the same reservations for them as they have made for me.

With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

My Men's Club would like to know about the availability of Moshe Koussevitsky for a concert program on Tuesday, April 1st. The Men's Club has engaged The Cleveland Symphony Orchestra and they would like a vocalist also on the program.

Some members of the Club said they have heard that Mr. Koussevitsky's voice is not what it was. I understand you have been using him for Bond meetings. Let me know what you think of it and also what his honorarium would be.

Koussevitsky was here for a Temple program some seven years ago.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver
E. 105th St. and Ansel Rd.
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Dr. Silver:

Following our conversation yesterday, I looked into the matter of the hotel reservations for you and Mrs. Silver made by our people in Israel and find that we have definite confirmation of the following:

APRIL 14 - 21	SHARON HOTEL
APRIL 21 - 28	KING DAVID HOTEL

I trust that this dispels any confusion re. the above dates which might have inadvertently arisen.

I should also like to note that similar reservations have been made for Mr. & Mrs. A.M. Luntz, as per my letter to you of Nov. 29th.

With kind personal regards, I am

Cordially,

Max Helvarg, National Director
Community Leadership Division

Dear Dr. Silver:

The conference in Miami was successful beyond my most optimistic expectations and I feel that in large measure the spirit that was aroused was due to the effectiveness of your address. I want you to know that I am deeply grateful to you for this.

We have made an excellent beginning and I feel confident that despite the current economic situation and other obstacles that face us, we shall be able to give a good account of ourselves in the months ahead in terms of Bond dollars.

With many thanks again for your valuable contribution and with kindest personal regards, I am

Cordially,

Dear Dr. Silver:

Chairman, Guardians of Israel

SAMUEL J. SUGAR

In my capacity as the 1958 Chairman of the Washington Committee for Israel Bonds I was privileged to hear your magnificent address at the recent Miami Bond Conference, which will serve as a continuing source of inspiration to me in the new task which I have undertaken. Your eloquent remarks have also emboldened me to relay a request to you on behalf of our leadership in Washington.

Chairman, Council of Organizations

DR. SEYMOUR ALPERT

We are currently engaged in laying the groundwork for the Ball honoring the Ambassador of Israel and Mrs. Eban. This affair, which will be held in the Nation's Capital on May 31, will pay tribute to Israel's great spokesman in our country and to the State which he so ably represents.

Each year the widest cross-section of official Washington, as well as the diplomatic corps and outstanding Americans from all parts of the country attend this event. You may recall that you, yourself, graciously consented to serve on the Honorary Committee for the Ball last year. This event also serves as the climax of our spring campaign for Israel Bonds and has been responsible for a very substantial amount of investment capital accruing to Israel.

In keeping with the high character of this affair, we are eager to name as Honorary Chairman an outstanding personality and, after many discussions, have come to the conclusion that if the consent of Chairman Lewis Strauss of the Atomic Commission could be secured, we will indeed have attained our goal.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver

February 26, 1958

We fully realize that Chairman Strauss' agreement to serve in such a capacity is not easy to obtain. However, knowing of the great esteem in which you are held by Chairman Strauss and his warm friendship for you, we believe that he would more readily acquiesce to your request than to that of any other individual.

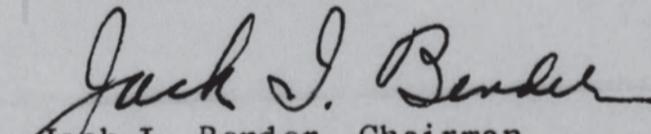

You understand, of course, that such acceptance will entail no obligation of any kind on the part of Chairman Strauss. I might add, further, that no Bond activity of any kind takes place at the Ball, itself.

Should you feel that an invitation extended to Mrs. Strauss to join with Chairman Strauss in the Honorary Chairmanship of the Ball would advance consideration, please feel free to be guided by your own feeling in the matter.

Will you agree to make this request to Chairman Strauss on our behalf?

Thanking you for your cooperation and with the expression of my deep personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Jack I. Bender, Chairman
Washington Committee for Israel Bonds

P.S. I enclose a copy of the 1957 Ball Program for your perusal and you may wish to call Chairman Strauss' attention to those who served as members of the Honorary Committee in the past.

My dear Max:

I requested the Bond people in Israel to pay my bill at the Acadia Hotel and to send the amount to your office in New York so that I could reimburse you. I hope that you have by now received the bill and I would appreciate if you would let me know the amount so that I may send you a check for it.

I paid the bills in all the other hotels where I stopped in Israel.

With warmest regards and all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,
