Dear Rabbi Silver,

It is my privilege to acknowledge on behalf of Mr P. Bernstein, Chairman of the General Zionist Party, your kind message of greetings, which was warmly hailed by our National Convention.

I also have the honour of calling to your attention the resolution which was unanimously adopted by the Convention. The resolution says : "The Convention conveys its feelings of esteem to the outstanding Zionist leader, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, for his indefatigable efforts on behalf of the State of Israel and the Zionist Movement. The Convention looks forward to an early date when Rabbi Silver will again hold an exalted position in the Zionist Movement".

Yours sincerely,

Isaac A. Matalon

לכבוד
הרב ד"ר אבא הלל טילבר,
קליבלנד.

הרב ד"ר טילבר היקר,

כפי שכבר הודענו לכבודו, הננו מוציאים עכשיו קובץ מאמרים של נשיאנו מר פרץ ברנשטיין ליובלו ה-70, בעריכת ד"ר יוסף נדבה.

מאד היינו רוצים, כי תואיל לתרום את חלקך בספר זה על ידי חברי הערכה לבעל היובל. יודע הנך, ד"ר טילבר היקר, יפה את מר ברנשטיין ואת זכויותיו בתנועה הציונית הן בהולנד והן במשך שנים רבות בארץ-ישראל ובמדינת ישראל. חושבני שרשימתך היתה מוסיפה משקל וערך לספרו היתה משמשת הבעת כבוד למנהיגנו הדגול.

הספר כמעט כולו מוכן להדפסה ואנחנו מחכים לרשימתך. לכן הנני פונה אליך עוד הפעם בבקשה, כי תואיל למלא את משאלתנו בהקדם האפשרי.

ברגשי כבוד,

חיים לבנון

Dear Dr. Silver:

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that our Party in Israel has nominated me as their representative for North America.

In this "oldnew" capacity as General Zionist Representative I have set up a modest office in New York from where I am going to conduct my activities.

You, dear Dr. Silver have always been a good and great friend of ours and always well disposed towards me personally.

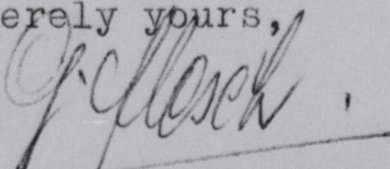

No need to say that I at all times much appreciated and deeply cherished this friendly personal relationship. I am therefore looking forward to your continued advice, guidance and friendship - in my new function.

At the earliest opportunity I shall try and call on you in Cleveland to give you more firsthand information. Should you by any chance contemplate a visit to New York, I would appreciate if you would let me know in advance so that we could arrange to meet and talk.

Let me say again that I wanted you to hear about this new office not in a round-about way, but directly and personally from me, and I am looking forward to meeting you soon.

With warmest personal regards to you and Mrs. Silver, I remain

Sincerely yours,

George Flesch

My dear Mr. Levanon:

Enclosed please find a brief statement for inclusion in the Festival Volume to Dr. Peretz Bernstein. If all the material to be included is to be in Hebrew, please have this translated.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,
