August 27, 1933.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
Ansel Road and E. 105 Street,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:

The Executive Committee of the Jewish National Fund Council at its last meeting held August 24th discussed plans for the Fund's activities during the coming year. It was unanimously agreed to inaugurate the year's activities with a dinner to be held on Tuesday evening, September 12th, at the Jewish Center. It was likewise decided that a Regional Conference of all National Fund workers in the state of Ohio be called in the near future to consider extensive plans of activity.

The Executive Committee enthusiastically adopted a motion to invite you, dear Rabbi, to be the principal speaker at our inaugural affair of September 12th. It is needless to state that your acceptance of this invitation will be most heartily appreciated and will be regarded as an auspicious beginning for the year's work.

The Jewish National Fund Council relies at present solely upon its own resources, as it does not receive the due support from the official Zionist leaders of this city. In view of this unfortunate situation, it would be most encouraging to know that we enjoy your support.

With highest personal regards and Zion's greetings, I remain

Respectfully yours,

Herman Chazyn
Chairman, Dinner Committee
