Dear Rabbi:

I have been wanting to bring to your attention for some time the pledge of Mrs Max Bernstein of Park Lane Villa. You will perhaps recall that during the Campaign you secured one pledge for $100 and then subsequently an additional for another $100. After the first billing of the $200 pledge on June 1st of this year, we received a payment of $25 from her and with an advice that she had pledged only $100. We discontinued billing her since I planned to talk to you about it but the matter seemed always to escape my attention and so I am writing to you about it now.

Would it be worth your while to telephone her to recall the fact to her that she gave you two pledges of $100 each; or are you aware of any circumstances which would warrant our acceptance of the $100 which she wishes to pay?

Sincerely yours,

December 2, 1937

LETTER SENT TO ALL MEMBERS WHO ATTENDED MEETING

COPY

We have tried to set down for the Welfare Fund Division Chairmen and Officers as accurately as possible a record of the suggestions and discussion, which took place at our Meeting at the Oakwood Club on December 1st. The minutes of the Meeting are hereto attached and we are happy to have had the recommendations most of which we hope will be feasible for adoption.

Will you, as one of the Division Chairmen, please follow through at an early date, on the suggestion that you and your co-Chairmen revise the Membership of your Division, eliminating the men who apparently contributed little in the work of the Campaign last year, and substituting others whose interest it will be worthwhile to enlist.

With assurances again of our appreciation of the zeal which you and the rest of the Campaign Organization have given to this undertaking, we are

Sincerely yours,

LETTER SENT TO ALL MEMBERS WHO DID NOT ATTEND MEETING

C O P Y

There was an excellent attendance of the Officers and Division Chairmen of the Welfare Fund at the Dinner Meeting which we held at the Oakwood Club on December 1st; we were only sorry that you were not able to be with us.

As indicated in the attached Minutes of the Meeting, which we hope you will read carefully, many suggestions and ideas were offered for consideration, and certain conclusions and recommendations were adopted. It is the intention of the Officers to apply in our Campaign next Spring, as many of these ideas as seem feasible.

No other Meetings are planned until we begin to organize for the Campaign, but in the meantime will you please confer with your Division Chairmen in the selection at this time of the personnel of your Teams, eliminating those Members who exhibited no interest or activity in behalf of the Campaign and adding others whose cooperation may be more assured. You will recall that we mailed to you recently, with the notice of the Meeting, a list of your Division Members to be used for this purpose.

We look forward this coming year to a continuation of the fine leadership which you and the others contributed in the previous Campaigns.

We are,

Sincerely yours,

(Signed by) Philip Frankel

Minutes of a Dinner Meeting of the Officers and Division Chairmen of the 1937 Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign held at the Oakwood Club on Wednesday evening, December 1, 1937.

1. There were present the following: Philip Frankel, Chairman; Mrs Siegmund Herzog, Mrs Benjamin Levine, Mrs Simon Feiser, Miss Gertrude Woldman, Joseph M Berne, Judge Maurice Bernon, Rabbi B R Brickner, Jerome Curtis, Carl S Felder, Meyer S Fine, Sam M Friedman, Dr Moses Garber, Clarence I Goldsmith, Julius Goodman, Henry Greenberger, Jay Halle, Dr S F M Hirsch, Adolph Keller, Samuel L Klopfer, Jacob B Kohn, George Koller, Jack Lampl, Harry Levy, George Mayer, E J Meisel, Max Myers, George Nachman, J M Pevaroff, Leo Seidenfeld, Michael Sharlitt, Edgar J Sloss, Adolph Weinberger, Charles Weiskopf, Sidney N Weitz and Eugene E Wolf.

2. Following dinner, the meeting was opened by Mr Philip Frankel, Chairman of the Men's Division of the Campaign. Mr Frankel stated that the meeting had been called for a report on the status of the Jewish Welfare Fund of 1937 also comparing present pledges and collections with previous years; to receive the suggestions and ideas of those present with reference to Campaign plans for next year; and to hear from Rabbi Silver a report on the Briarcliff Meeting to which the Rabbi and several representatives from Cleveland had been invited in the latter part of September as the guests of the late Felix Warburg.

Mr Frankel went on further to say that another purpose of the Meeting was to impress upon the Division Chairmen the need of improving the personnel of their Division membership by the elimination of those who had failed to show interest and results in their work and by the addition of new members who would manifest a greater sense of responsibility in the task.

3. The Chairman then called upon Mr Max Myers, the Treasurer of the Fund, who presented figures from the attached statements showing the financial experience of the Fund since the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1st; the detail of appropriations granted for 1937 including those minor agencies and institutions for which allotments have been made through the newly organized Contingent Fund Committee; and a comparison of the collection experience of the Welfare Fund from the time of its establishment in 1931, showing also the improvement which had been made in the various brackets of giving and in the numbers of givers.

Mr Myers pointed to the significant fact that the Fund was able to continue its collection of delinquencies dating as far back as 1931 and as a result of which there was carried over from the last fiscal year, $14,700 of such collections, with another sum of $17,900 collected in since March 1st. This was an indication, Mr Myers said, that the subscribers looked upon these pledges as they do their current business obligations. These delinquent collections have made it possible for the Treasurer to clean up all commitments to the Overseas agencies up to 1936 and for 1936 there remained unpaid only the sums of $2500 each due the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal.

On 1937 account the total collected to date was $196,206 or 67.2% of the total pledged as against 66.2% for the same date in 1936.

Unpaid appropriations for 1937 amount to $112,711 towards which there was cash in hand of $18,000 and pledges yet to be collected, of $95,770. Question was raised about the item of commissions paid on the collection of delinquencies, and it was explained to the members that for the past several years two elderly men had been engaged as collectors on a commission basis; they were given the delinquent accounts only after every means for collection had been exhausted through the mails and through the aid of the Division members who originally secured the pledges. More than half of the delinquent collections were brought in by these two men.

Reference was also made to the long list of Yeshivas and institutions for the care of Aged and Orphans in Europe and Palestine to whom small sums were granted from the Contingent Fund, thus forestalling their annual solicitations in the Community.

The comparison of collections year by year attached hereto indicated an average collection experience for the first six years of the Fund, of 94%. The table of contributions by ranges of giving, showed a splendid increase from 1931 to 1937: $1000 and over rose from 14 in number to 26; $500 to $999 from 21 to 60, etc.; down to the minor gifts up to $49, which had increased in number from 2846 in 1931 to nearly 9000 in 1937.

4. Mr Frankel called on Mr Joseph M Berne, the President of the Federation, who in a few brief words commended the Organization on the interest evidenced by their presence in such numbers at this Meeting; he referred also to the successful results of the past several Campaigns as further indication of the deep interest and fine loyalty of the members in their activity on behalf of the Fund and its many beneficiary causes.

5. Mrs Herzog, as head of the Women's Division, stated that while she had no suggestions to offer, she did desire to present two problems which were of major concern to the Women's Organization in the Campaign: first was the problem of securing more adequate pledges from the small business places particularly in the 105th Street district where the women seemed unable to get proper results; it was Mrs Herzog's feeling that possibly a Special Men's Committee would be of help. The other difficulty was in respect to the pledges of widows and other unmarried women of means but from whom the women solicitors have likewise been unable to secure satisfactory gifts.

6. Mr J B Kohn said that in his experience as one of the Chairmen of the Iron and Steel Division, he had found it advisable for himself and his members to work in teams.

7. Mr Jerome Curtis, the Chairman of the Young Adult Division, felt that while this Division was not expected to produce large money returns, its cultivation of the giving of young people provided a constant source of new prospects for the Men's and other Divisions as the earning capacity of these young people increased; it was evident also that despite the transfer yearly of several hundred such young givers in the other Divisions, the total number of young adult givers continued to grow year by year.

8. Mr Eugene Freedheim, Chairman of the Speakers' Division, said that the number of speakers available for the Campaign had been increased to sixteen during the past year and that they had covered many organizations and groups over a period of six weeks prior to the Campaign. There was question, however, as to the relative effectiveness of younger men chosen because of their ability as speakers as against older men of broader experience in the work and greater prestige, though less effective as speakers. Mr Freedheim also stated that in the course of the recent Community Fund campaign, he had heard the argument used that Jewish giving to the Community Fund had been curtailed because of the demands of the Jewish Welfare Fund. This question was pursued further by Mr Sharlitt who asked if any figures were available indicating whether or not Jewish Welfare Fund contributions affected Jewish giving to the Chest and to what extent.

Mr Goldhamer replied by advising that within the past several months material had been prepared for the Regional Conference in Pittsburgh where the question of Jewish Federation and Community Chest relationship was discussed. It had been possible this year to secure detailed information from the Community Fund files on the basis of which a study was made of the gifts of all individual contributors of $100 and over of both the Community Fund and the Welfare Fund, and covering the period since the establishment of the Welfare Fund in 1931. The study was also extended to a sampling of nearly 600 givers of $10 to $99. Some of the tables in the study elicited the following information:

That while the Community Fund had in 1935, the first year of emergence from the depression, gained 2.1% over 1934 in its total campaign results, and likewise from the $100 and over givers, the Jewish contributors of $100 and over had increased their giving by 5%; for 1936 the Fund itself advanced 4.3% over 1934, all $100 and over givers 4.7% while Jewish contributors of $100 and over raised their giving 12.6%; for 1937 the Fund had gained 12.4%, givers of $100 and over 12.5% while Jewish givers of $100 and over advanced 26.3% over 1934.

Regarding the effect of Jewish giving to the Welfare Fund on Community Fund giving, it was pointed out from another table that while the contributors of $100 and over had pledged a total of $666,374 to the Welfare Fund in the seven years, 1931 to 1937, these same contributors had given the Community Fund $1,061,000 in that period. In the lower brackets of givers from $10 to $99, it was found that a sampling of 560 out of a total of nearly 3000 in these brackets, had given the Community Fund $62,078 in the seven years as against $56,948 to the Welfare Fund.

With respect to this information, it was felt that while the members of the Campaign Organization should be generally acquainted with it, there might be considerable danger that undergivers would avail themselves of this knowledge as a further excuse for giving even less than at present; and that the information must, therefore, be discreetly used.

9. Mr George Mayer, one of the Chairmen of the Builders' Division, expressed the opinion that the meetings of the Divisions did not take place early enough in advance of the Campaign to enable the members to review their cards carefully; and that if the cards were available early enough, two or three meetings of the Divisions might be held rather than one so that the present prospect lists might be supplemented with new names.

10. Mr Joseph Pevaroff, the Vice-Chairman of the Employees Division, felt that the Jewish employees and especially those in the salary brackets, were not sufficiently cultivated with literature about the Campaign to assure the needed willingness and generosity of their giving.

11. Mr Adolph Keller referred to the item of the expense of the Campaign as shown in the Financial Statement and said that while criticism had been made of the amount last year and he had been made a member of a committee to examine into the detail of the expenditures, he had satisfied himself that all of the expenses of the Campaign were necessary and legitimate and that in Cleveland the Campaigns were managed on as low a percentage cost as those of any other cities.

12. In this connection Judge Bernon expressed the feeling that every member of the Campaign Organization ought to be conversant with certain facts about the Campaign expense. For example: that the Statler Hotel accommodations for offices and meetingrooms were given without cost whatsoever from the first of March until the close of the Campaign in the middle of May; that the major cost in the Campaign was for clerical hire for a large force of office help in producing the necessary records and files on the basis of which the Campaign was carried along efficiently and smoothly; that another substantial cost and a legitimate one was the differential between the hotel's charges for meals at the daily luncheons and the Opening and Closing Dinner Meetings, and the amount charged the workers for these meals; other large items were, of course, postage, printing and publicity and telephones. Judge Bernon pointed out, as did Mr Keller, that as the Campaign goal and realization increased, the percentage of cost was reduced.

13. Mr Frankel also submitted to the Meeting letters which he had received immediately after the Campaign closed from Messrs Sam Miller, William Skirball, Adolph Weinberger and William Weisenberg.

Mr Miller suggested that the effort to secure new members ought to be continued throughout the year particularly for the purpose of enrolling those who had recently come to the city. Mr Skirball believed that considerable education was needed to better impress many of those solicited with the seriousness of the situation of the Jews Overseas. Mr Weinberger thought that perhaps experienced social workers might be in position to better solicit certain of the prospects who were inadequately informed of the needs and purposes of the agencies included in the Welfare Fund; and he was particularly disturbed because of the outstanding inequalities of giving of certain firms in the city who he believed would require special cultivation. Mr Weisenberg called attention to the difficulty of resoliciting a prospect whose pledge was already accepted; it was his belief that no pledge should be accepted for less than 75% of the quota on the card.

As a result of a general discussion of these suggestions and recommendations, the following appeared to have the approval of those present:

- (a) that a Special Men's Committee should be organized to assist the Women's Organization in the handling of certain of the smaller business prospects;
- (b) that further effort should be made to stimulate the giving of young adults through the organizations with which they are affiliated;
- (c) that consideration should be given to the use of older members of the Federation and Welfare Fund whose names and prestige might make them more effective as speakers for large gatherings before the Campaign;
- (d) that Chairmen desiring to hold Division Meetings for careful review of their cards in advance of the Campaign, be given adequate opportunity for so doing;
- (e) that copies of the detailed expenses of the last Campaign be provided the Chairmen of the Campaign Organization and the Divisions in order that they may be equipped to answer suggestions arising on this score;
- (f) that the Co-Chairmen confer with one another at the earliest possible time for the selection of the personnel of their Divisions for the Campaign next spring; and that the office be apprised promptly of any suggested changes;

- (g) that some follow-up work be done during the year and in the interim between Campaigns in developing the gifts of those whom it was found had not been properly cultivated in the brief period of the Campaign;
- (h) that Division members be advised not to accept pledges representing less than 75% of the quotas established;
- (i) that attention be given to a more intensive education of workers and prospects with regard to the causes represented in the Fund;
- (j) that work be continued during the year in securing pledges from new people in the city and others who were overlooked in the Campaign.

14. Rabbi Silver was then called upon to make a report of the Briarcliff Meeting and he prefaced his statement with a brief review of the broad interests and activities of the late Felix Warburg for whose place, Rabbi Silver said, there seemed to be no one in present American leadership. While the Briarcliff Conference discussed such specific subjects as Jewish participation in non-Jewish and general activities; a status of the Royal Commission's Report and the Jewish State; the activities of the large protective organizations, and Jewish problems in general, the main purpose and goal of the Conference seemed to revolve around a conscious attempt and willingness of groups and individuals representing every shade of opinion and every movement in Jewish life, to achieve a composition of their views in order that they might more effectively serve the larger cause of Jewish peace and security.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Dear Mr Lang:

In making the appointments of the Chairmen for the 1938 Campaign of the Jewish Welfare Fund which will take place next May, I should like very much to ask you to serve as the Chairman of the Publicity Committee.

Mr Howard Wise finds that he shall be unable to continue in this capacity; and realizing the valuable aid which you gave to this Committee and your helpful service and suggestions in the preparation of our material in the past several years, I would greatly appreciate your acceptance of the Chairmanship.

While organization for the Campaign will not begin until sometime in the spring, it is likely that I shall ask the Campaign Cabinet which includes the Chairmen of the respective Divisions of the Campaign to meet sometime in January to discuss many suggestions and ideas which have come to us from the Chairmen of the Men's and Women's Campaign teams.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr Clinchy:

I am acknowledging for Mr S P Halle the letter which you directed to him several days ago with reference to some further contributions to the National Conference of Jews and Christians.

Mr Halle happens to be also the Chairman of the Budget Committee of the Cleveland Jewish Welfare Fund from which allocations are made annually to many national and overseas protective as well as relief agencies; and it is in this connection that I am replying for Mr Halle and for our Organization.

Our aim so far as possible has been to concentrate the Community's gifts for welfare and philanthropic purposes in either our Cleveland Community Chest, or where the work has a specifically Jewish character, in our Jewish Welfare Fund.

To this end, Organizations and Institutions having a proper claim on Cleveland Jewry for support, are invited to make application for subsidy from our Welfare Fund which may be granted them in lieu of individual contributions for which they must appeal in the Community. If the National Conference feels that its purposes and needs warrant consideration and inclusion in our Fund, we shall be glad to have application made for such support and to submit this application for review by our Budget Committee some time in April when plans are made for the 1938 Welfare Fund campaign.

If such application is presented may we request that it be accompanied with the usual general Statement of Purpose and activity; and a Financial Statement of Receipts and Disbursements for the last fiscal year of the Organization.

It should be understood of course that this invitation to apply for aid does not represent in any sense a commitment on the part of our Fund for the granting of support; and that on the other hand if such annual support is granted, the beneficiary organization is expected to discontinue its individual appeals in the Community.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

S. Goldhamer
Executive Director,
The Jewish Welfare Federation, Cleveland.

Dear Mr Tygel:

In reply to your letter of December 20th and in acknowledgement of the copy of Mr Untermeyer's address, which I had already had the pleasure of reading otherwise, may I say that the attitude of our Federation has not changed with regard to consideration of independent allocations from our Jewish Welfare Fund for work and services already being taken care of by substantial subsidies to existing overseas agencies; and to the extent we are able to secure contributions from our entire community in this joint appeal.

Furthermore, I doubt very much whether our Organization could agree with the suggestion of Mr Untermeyer that more organizations will produce more money for a given purpose. The whole history of the Federation, Community Chest, and Welfare Fund movement denies this premise and it has been found without exception that the year by year continuity of the established joint appeals produces far more money than the sporadic efforts of the individual agencies or organizations.

In our judgment there is far more to be gained if each interested agency would throw the weight of its interest and zeal into the larger effort to aid in producing more generous responses in the respective communities.

While I give you this as my own personal reaction, I believe that I am safe in saying that it represents the expression of most of our Members as well.

I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

A Meeting of the Campaign Council to consider various ideas and suggestions which have been offered with regard to the plans and policies of our Welfare Fund Campaign will be held at Lunch at the Federation Office, Room 1015 - 1001 Huron Road, Thursday Noon, January 20th.

In the attached Minutes of the recent Meetings of the Chairmen of the Men's and Women's Division, are contained some of the suggestions which have been offered and we should like to have you review these before the Meeting.

There will be no further Meetings until the Spring and it is highly desirable therefore that we devote some attention to plans which can be decided upon at this time.

We are,

Yours sincerely,

Co-Chairman,

The Jewish Welfare Fund Committee.

January 11, 1938.

Minutes of a Dinner Meeting of the Officers and Division Chairmen of the 1937 Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign held at the Oakwood Club on Wednesday evening, December 1, 1937.

1. There were present the following: Philip Frankel, Chairman; Mrs Siegmund Herzog, Mrs Benjamin Levine, Mrs Simon Peiser, Miss Gertrude Woldman, Joseph M Berne, Judge Maurice Bernon, Rabbi B R Brickner, Jerome Curtis, Carl S Felder, Meyer S Fine, Sam M Friedman, Dr Moses Garber, Clarence I Goldsmith, Julius Goodman, Henry Greenberger, Jay Halle, Dr S F M Hirsch, Adolph Keller, Samuel L Kloppe, Jacob B Kohn, George Koller, Jack Lampl, Harry Levy, George Mayer, E J Meisel, Max Myers, George Nachman, J M Pevaroff, Leo Seidenfeld, Michael Sharlitt, Edgar J Sloss, Adolph Weinberger, Charles Weiskopf, Sidney N Weitz and Eugene E Wolf.

2. Following dinner, the meeting was opened by Mr Philip Frankel, Chairman of the Men's Division of the Campaign. Mr Frankel stated that the meeting had been called for a report on the status of the Jewish Welfare Fund of 1937 also comparing present pledges and collections with previous years; to receive the suggestions and ideas of those present with reference to Campaign plans for next year; and to hear from Rabbi Silver a report on the Briarcliff Meeting to which the Rabbi and several representatives from Cleveland had been invited in the latter part of September as the guests of the late Felix Warburg.

Mr Frankel went on further to say that another purpose of the Meeting was to impress upon the Division Chairmen the need of improving the personnel of their Division membership by the elimination of those who had failed to show interest and results in their work and by the addition of new members who would manifest a greater sense of responsibility in the task.

3. The Chairman then called upon Mr Max Myers, the Treasurer of the Fund, who presented figures from the attached statements showing the financial experience of the Fund since the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1st; the detail of appropriations granted for 1937 including those minor agencies and institutions for which allotments have been made through the newly organized Contingent Fund Committee; and a comparison of the collection experience of the Welfare Fund from the time of its establishment in 1931, showing also the improvement which had been made in the various brackets of giving and in the numbers of givers.

Mr Myers pointed to the significant fact that the Fund was able to continue its collection of delinquencies dating as far back as 1931 and as a result of which there was carried over from the last fiscal year, $14,700 of such collections, with another sum of $17,900 collected in since March 1st. This was an indication, Mr Myers said, that the subscribers looked upon these pledges as they do their current business obligations. These delinquent collections have made it possible for the Treasurer to clean up all commitments to the Overseas agencies up to 1936 and for 1936 there remained unpaid only the sums of $2500 each due the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal.

On 1937 account the total collected to date was $196,206 or 67.2% of the total pledged as against 66.2% for the same date in 1936.

Unpaid appropriations for 1937 amount to $112,711 towards which there was cash in hand of $18,000 and pledges yet to be collected, of $95,770. Question was raised about the item of commissions paid on the collection of delinquencies, and it was explained to the members that for the past several years two elderly men had been engaged as collectors on a commission basis; they were given the delinquent accounts only after every means for collection had been exhausted through the mails and through the aid of the Division members who originally secured the pledges. More than half of the delinquent collections were brought in by these two men.

Reference was also made to the long list of Yeshivas and institutions for the care of Aged and Orphans in Europe and Palestine to whom small sums were granted from the Contingent Fund, thus forestalling their annual solicitations in the Community.

The comparison of collections year by year attached hereto indicated an average collection experience for the first six years of the Fund, of 94%. The table of contributions by ranges of giving, showed a splendid increase from 1931 to 1937: $1000 and over rose from 14 in number to 26; $500 to $999 from 21 to 60, etc.; down to the minor gifts up to $49, which had increased in number from 2846 in 1931 to nearly 9000 in 1937.

4. Mr Frankel called on Mr Joseph M Berne, the President of the Federation, who in a few brief words commended the Organization on the interest evidenced by their presence in such numbers at this Meeting; he referred also to the successful results of the past several Campaigns as further indication of the deep interest and fine loyalty of the members in their activity on behalf of the Fund and its many beneficiary causes.

5. Mrs Herzog, as head of the Women's Division, stated that while she had no suggestions to offer, she did desire to present two problems which were of major concern to the Women's Organization in the Campaign: first was the problem of securing more adequate pledges from the small business places particularly in the 105th Street district where the women seemed unable to get proper results; it was Mrs Herzog's feeling that possibly a Special Men's Committee would be of help. The other difficulty was in respect to the pledges of widows and other unmarried women of means but from whom the women solicitors have likewise been unable to secure satisfactory gifts.

6. Mr J B Kohn said that in his experience as one of the Chairmen of the Iron and Steel Division, he had found it advisable for himself and his members to work in teams.

7. Mr Jerome Curtis, the Chairman of the Young Adult Division, felt that while this Division was not expected to produce large money returns, its cultivation of the giving of young people provided a constant source of new prospects for the Men's and other Divisions as the earning capacity of these young people increased; it was evident also that despite the transfer yearly of several hundred such young givers in the other Divisions, the total number of young adult givers continued to grow year by year.

8. Mr Eugene Freedheim, Chairman of the Speakers' Division, said that the number of speakers available for the Campaign had been increased to sixteen during the past year and that they had covered many organizations and groups over a period of six weeks prior to the Campaign. There was question, however, as to the relative effectiveness of younger men chosen because of their ability as speakers as against older men of broader experience in the work and greater prestige, though less effective as speakers. Mr Freedheim also stated that in the course of the recent Community Fund campaign, he had heard the argument used that Jewish giving to the Community Fund had been curtailed because of the demands of the Jewish Welfare Fund. This question was pursued further by Mr Sharlitt who asked if any figures were available indicating whether or not Jewish Welfare Fund contributions affected Jewish giving to the Chest and to what extent.

Mr Goldhamer replied by advising that within the past several months material had been prepared for the Regional Conference in Pittsburgh where the question of Jewish Federation and Community Chest relationship was discussed. It had been possible this year to secure detailed information from the Community Fund files on the basis of which a study was made of the gifts of all individual contributors of $100 and over of both the Community Fund and the Welfare Fund, and covering the period since the establishment of the Welfare Fund in 1931. The study was also extended to a sampling of nearly 600 givers of $10 to $99. Some of the tables in the study elicited the following information:

That while the Community Fund had in 1935, the first year of emergence from the depression, gained 2.1% over 1934 in its total campaign results, and likewise from the $100 and over givers, the Jewish contributors of $100 and over had increased their giving by 5%; for 1936 the Fund itself advanced 4.3% over 1934, all $100 and over givers 4.7% while Jewish contributors of $100 and over raised their giving 12.6%; for 1937 the Fund had gained 12.4%, givers of $100 and over 12.5% while Jewish givers of $100 and over advanced 26.3% over 1934.

Regarding the effect of Jewish giving to the Welfare Fund on Community Fund giving, it was pointed out from another table that while the contributors of $100 and over had pledged a total of $666,374 to the Welfare Fund in the seven years, 1931 to 1937, these same contributors had given the Community Fund $1,061,000 in that period. In the lower brackets of givers from $10 to $99, it was found that a sampling of 560 out of a total of nearly 3000 in these brackets, had given the Community Fund $62,078 in the seven years as against $56,948 to the Welfare Fund.

With respect to this information, it was felt that while the members of the Campaign Organization should be generally acquainted with it, there might be considerable danger that undergivers would avail themselves of this knowledge as a further excuse for giving even less than at present; and that the information must, therefore, be discreetly used.

9. Mr George Mayer, one of the Chairmen of the Builders' Division, expressed the opinion that the meetings of the Divisions did not take place early enough in advance of the Campaign to enable the members to review their cards carefully; and that if the cards were available early enough, two or three meetings of the Divisions might be held rather than one so that the present prospect lists might be supplemented with new names.

10. Mr Joseph Pevaroff, the Vice-Chairman of the Employees Division, felt that the Jewish employees and especially those in the salary brackets, were not sufficiently cultivated with literature about the Campaign to assure the needed willingness and generosity of their giving.

11. Mr Adolph Keller referred to the item of the expense of the Campaign as shown in the Financial Statement and said that while criticism had been made of the amount last year and he had been made a member of a committee to examine into the detail of the expenditures, he had satisfied himself that all of the expenses of the Campaign were necessary and legitimate and that in Cleveland the Campaigns were managed on as low a percentage cost as those of any other cities.

12. In this connection Judge Bernon expressed the feeling that every member of the Campaign Organization ought to be conversant with certain facts about the Campaign expense. For example: that the Statler Hotel accommodations for offices and meetingrooms were given without cost whatsoever from the first of March until the close of the Campaign in the middle of May; that the major cost in the Campaign was for clerical hire for a large force of office help in producing the necessary records and files on the basis of which the Campaign was carried along efficiently and smoothly; that another substantial cost and a legitimate one was the differential between the hotel's charges for meals at the daily luncheons and the Opening and Closing Dinner Meetings, and the amount charged the workers for these meals; other large items were, of course, postage, printing and publicity and telephones. Judge Bernon pointed out, as did Mr Keller, that as the Campaign goal and realization increased, the percentage of cost was reduced.

13. Mr Frankel also submitted to the Meeting letters which he had received immediately after the Campaign closed from Messrs Sam Miller, William Skirball, Adolph Weinberger and William Weisenberg.

Mr Miller suggested that the effort to secure new members ought to be continued throughout the year particularly for the purpose of enrolling those who had recently come to the city. Mr Skirball believed that considerable education was needed to better impress many of those solicited with the seriousness of the situation of the Jews Overseas. Mr Weinberger thought that perhaps experienced social workers might be in position to better solicit certain of the prospects who were inadequately informed of the needs and purposes of the agencies included in the Welfare Fund; and he was particularly disturbed because of the outstanding inequalities of giving of certain firms in the city who he believed would require special cultivation. Mr Weisenberg called attention to the difficulty of resoliciting a prospect whose pledge was already accepted; it was his belief that no pledge should be accepted for less than 75% of the quota on the card.

As a result of a general discussion of these suggestions and recommendations, the following appeared to have the approval of those present:

- (a) that a Special Men's Committee should be organized to assist the Women's Organization in the handling of certain of the smaller business prospects;
- (b) that further effort should be made to stimulate the giving of young adults through the organizations with which they are affiliated;
- (c) that consideration should be given to the use of older members of the Federation and Welfare Fund whose names and prestige might make them more effective as speakers for large gatherings before the Campaign;
- (d) that Chairmen desiring to hold Division Meetings for careful review of their cards in advance of the Campaign, be given adequate opportunity for so doing;
- (e) that copies of the detailed expenses of the last Campaign be provided the Chairmen of the Campaign Organization and the Divisions in order that they may be equipped to answer any questions arising on this score;
- (f) that the Co-Chairmen confer with one another at the earliest possible time for the selection of the personnel of their Divisions for the Campaign next spring; and that the office be apprised promptly of any suggested changes;

- (g) that some follow-up work be done during the year and in the interim between Campaigns in developing the gifts of those whom it was found had not been properly cultivated in the brief period of the Campaign;
- (h) that Division members be advised not to accept pledges representing less than 75% of the quotas established;
- (i) that attention be given to a more intensive education of workers and prospects with regard to the causes represented in the Fund;
- (j) that work be continued during the year in securing pledges from new people in the city and others who were overlooked in the Campaign.

14. Rabbi Silver was then called upon to make a report of the Briarcliff Meeting and he prefaced his statement with a brief review of the broad interests and activities of the late Felix Warburg for whose place, Rabbi Silver said, there seemed to be no one in present American leadership. While the Briarcliff Conference discussed such specific subjects as Jewish participation in non-Jewish and general activities; a status of the Royal Commission's Report and the Jewish State; the activities of the large protective organizations, and Jewish problems in general, the main purpose and goal of the Conference seemed to revolve around a conscious attempt and willingness of groups and individuals representing every shade of opinion and every movement in Jewish life, to achieve a composition of their views in order that they might more effectively serve the larger cause of Jewish peace and security.

The meeting was then adjourned.

My dear Sam:

Have you canvassed the field a little further for a chairman of the publicity committee for our campaign? It seems that both Howard Wise and Jack Lang are unable to accept. Howard Wise, in the enclosed letter, suggests Paul Einstein. He may be a good man for the post. What do you think?

January 13, 1938.

The Jewish Welfare Federation

Minutes of a Meeting of the Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign Council held at the Office of the Federation on Thursday, January 20, 1938.

1. There were present: Rabbi A H Silver, Chairman; Mrs Siegmund Herzog, Messrs Joseph M Berne, Maurice Bernon, Paul Einstein, Philip Frankel, I S Kenen, and Eugene E Wolf.

2. The Chairman reviewed with the Council, a suggested list of Campaign Officers to head up the 1938 Campaign, including Honorary Chairmen, Campaign Chairmen and Vice Chairmen, as per memoranda attached hereto; also a list of Officers and Members for a Campaign Advisory Committee hereto attached. These two lists of names were reviewed carefully and additions made thereto with the understanding that those selected would be notified and asked to serve in advance of the Campaign and as part of the Campaign organization which is now going forward.

3. In reference to further Campaign Plans, the Council was advised that the dates of Sunday, May 8th to Tuesday, May 17th were tentatively decided upon as the most suitable, fitting in with Jewish holidays and other considerations; and that Headquarters had been arranged for at the Statler Hotel, beginning March 1st, without cost as in other years; reservations were also made for the use of the Ballroom and other Meeting Rooms for preliminary Campaign organization and for the Campaign week.

With reference to the charges for Luncheons and Dinners, it was moved, seconded and carried that the practice of past years be continued, the Welfare Fund charging 60¢ and $1.00 respectively for Luncheon and Dinner reservations, while paying the Hotel the difference of 40¢ and 75¢ respectively.

The Council was advised also that some preliminary Meetings had been held, one of the Men's Division Chairmen on December 1st, 1937 and another of the Women's Division Chairmen on December 8th; out of both of these meetings, had come valuable suggestions and ideas that were to be considered at this Meeting.

4. In reference to Speakers for the Campaign Meetings, the Secretary stated that he had already communicated with the Joint Distribution Committee, which aided us in securing a number of out-of-town Guest Speakers last year; the J.D.C. is prepared to be helpful again this year. Mr George Backer, Vice Chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal is being invited to be the Guest Speaker for the Opening Rally on May 8th.

The Federation Office will begin about February 1st the preparation of the prospect cards which volunteer members of the Women's Division are now checking for changed addresses.

About the 1st of March, Division Chairmen and Co-Chairmen will be consulted for the purpose of selecting their Team Personnel and will be given an opportunity also to make an advance review of their prospect list for addition of new names and for a withdrawal of prospect cards requiring special attention.

In the meantime also Budgetary information regarding the services and needs of all Beneficiary Agencies is being requested so that by the first of April the Budget Committee may be able to study this material preparatory to arriving at a decision on tentative allocations and the Campaign Goal. In this connection mention was made of the respective Meetings of the Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal Budget Committees to be held on Sunday, January 23rd, the former in St Louis and the latter in Washington. Mr Frankel and the Secretary have been invited to attend the Joint Distribution Committee Meeting, while Rabbi Silver, the newly elected National Chairman of the United Palestine Appeal and others from Cleveland, will be in attendance at Washington.

Following the determination of the Campaign Goal, there will be a Meeting of the Campaign Advisory Committee for the purpose of fixing individual quotas for pre-Campaign solicitation.

With reference to the suggestions coming to the Campaign Council from the Women's and Men's Divisions, the following actions were taken:

- (a) It was deemed advisable not to create a Special Men's Committee to assist the Women's Organization in the handling of some of their prospects, but rather that several members of the Women's Special Gifts Committee, should sit in with the same Committee of the Men's Division, so that all such cards, would follow through the usual procedure; it was also thought that in some cases the men might accompany the Women on special cards especially where the influence of one of the men would be helpful.
- (b) It was also suggested that the pledges of all of the Temple Sisterhoods and the larger Women's Organizations should be routed through the Women's Division instead of the Social Service Division.
- (c) Mr Freedheim, the Chairman of the Speaker's Division being absent on account of illness, it was recommended that the Chairman request him to consider the older members of the Federation Board and of the Campaign Committee, as available for speaking engagements with any of the larger Organizations calling for a speaker prior to the Campaign.
- (d) With reference to the provision of the detailed campaign expense account to the Chairman of the Campaign Divisions, it was decided that general information regarding Campaign expenditures, such as was presented to the Meeting of the Men's Division in December by Judge Bernon, should be used rather than the detail which might be subjected to questioning or criticism without sufficient explanation. Judge Bernon's statement in that Meeting was as follows:

"Judge Bernon expressed the feeling that every member of the Campaign Organization ought to be conversant with certain facts about the Campaign expense. For example: that the Statler Hotel accommodations for offices and meeting rooms were given without cost whatsoever from the first of March until the close of the Campaign in the middle of May; that the major cost in the Campaign was for clerical hire for a large force of office help in producing the necessary records and files on the basis of which the Campaign was carried along efficiently and smoothly; that another substantial cost and a legitimate one was the differential between the hotel's charges for meals at the daily luncheons and the Opening and Closing Dinner Meetings, and the amount charged the workers for these meals; other large items were, of course, postage, printing and publicity and telephones. Judge Bernon pointed out, as did Mr Keller, that as the Campaign goal and realization increased, the percentage of cost was reduced."
- (e) In reference to the suggestion for a continuous follow-up during the year in the interim between Campaigns for new and increased Gifts, it was thought advisable that a smaller Committee than the Business Men's Council, might undertake this responsibility with better success than had heretofore been possible through the larger group.
- (f) Regarding the proposal that Solicitors refrain from accepting pledges of less than 75% of the quotas assigned, it was deemed more practical to again impress upon the workers the desirability of holding the cards and advising the prospect that the Solicitor would be back after the prospect had had an opportunity to further consider the need for an adequate increase in his pledge. It was recognized that the probability of a second increase was greatly lessened after once the card was signed.

- (g) In addition to the regular publicity that usually is sent to the entire list of 17,000 prospects prior to the Campaign, it was suggested that a special letter be sent to the 7,000 prospects from whom no pledges were secured in the last Campaign, calling attention to the fact that effort was made to secure a pledge and it was hoped this year they would enroll themselves as contributors to the worthy causes included in the Welfare Fund, etc.
- (h) For a more intensive education of the Workers in the Causes represented in the Fund, two proposals were made for attention of the Publicity Committee: (1) That approximately the same information as now contained in the Annual Report Booklet with regard to the Agencies and Causes benefited by the Fund might be prepared in a more popular vein and in leaflet form, each leaflet to contain a review of the work of four or five of the Agencies and to be sent out periodically over four or five weeks preceeding the opening of the Campaign. This, it was thought, they would be much more likely to read than the information contained in the booklet or the handbook, which was prepared for the Campaign. (2) That the Publicity Committee and the Women's Division undertake to carry out a suggestion which came from the latter, that display material regarding the work of the respective Beneficiary Agencies be secured from them and utilized in arranging an Exhibit in the Ballroom of the Statler Hotel to which Members of the entire Campaign Organization would be invited on a Special Day set aside as the "Welfare Fund Goes to School Day" about two weeks prior to the opening of the Campaign. It was also thought that special Movie Pictures now available from the Oversea Agencies, might be run continuously in connection with the Exhibit, and the Publicity Committee was asked to work out the details with the Women's Organization.

No further business coming before the Meeting, it was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary.

Dear Dr Glinchy:

We were delighted to learn from Mr Herman of the Joint Distribution Committee that you have accepted the invitation to speak in Cleveland on Friday noon, May 13th at the Luncheon Meeting of our Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign. We shall look forward with considerable anticipation to the message which you will bring, particularly after your visit in Europe and your first-hand observations of what is transpiring there. We shall be happy of course to meet all expenses incurred in connection with your trip here. The Meeting will be held at the Statler Hotel and will include our Campaign organization of several hundred persons.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Klein:

We are beginning to prepare for the next Jewish Welfare Fund drive, to be held during the second week of May. As you already know, events effecting Jewery in Germany, Poland, Roumania, Austria, and other countries, have made it imperative that we conduct the most intensive campaign in the history of Cleveland Jewery. They need the help of American Jews as never before.

One of the important units of the campaign organization is the Publicity Committee, and we should like very much to have you serve as a member of this group. We know that your experience could be of real assistance in planning and directing the publicity for the campaign, and you may be sure that your participation in this way is needed and will be greatly appreciated.

We hope that we can count upon your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

General Chairman

Chairman, Publicity Committee

P.S. We should like to schedule the first meeting of the committee within the next few days, and shall consult you concerning the time.

Dear Governor:

It is remiss of me not to have written you since our significant meeting of the Plan and Scope Committee at St. Louis where your presence and contribution to the success of the sessions constituted the high spot of our deliberations. We are particularly grateful to you for the inspiration which you gave to the important leaders representing key communities from such a large sector of the country, and we are delighted that you found it possible to accept the Honorary Chairmanship of our 1938 national campaign. Widespread publicity has been given to this and is bringing definite results for the advancement of our program.

Cleveland, Ohio will inaugurate its fund-raising campaign to include the Joint Distribution Committee as one of its most important beneficiaries on Sunday evening, May 8th. Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver is to be the Chairman of the campaign. Rabbi Silver and his associates are most eager to have you as their guest of honor for this occasion. I assured them that I would be only too happy to extend an invitation to you in their behalf as well as in behalf of the Joint Distribution Committee.

If you find it possible to accept the invitation, I know that you will do so cheerfully. Cleveland is the type of city we all like. It is a splendid Jewish community -- a city which has a deep and abiding conscience along welfare lines. There are individuals of great wealth and your presence on such an occasion as I have mentioned, would not only assure a most successful meeting but would stimulate a most generous response to the worthy appeal which they are now planning.

As our friends in Cleveland make early preparations, a factor which in itself contributes to the success of their philanthropic efforts, both they and I would appreciate it tremendously if you could indicate your acceptance at an early date.

With cordial personal greetings, I am

COPY OF LETTER TO YOUNG ADULT DIVISION EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

We are beginning to organize actively for the 1938 Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign. In making our selections for the Executive Committee of the Young Adult Division, we recall with pleasure the work you did last year, and we are very happy to ask you to serve again as a member of this group.

From the accounts which have appeared in the newspapers during the past few days, you know how critical is the situation of European Jewry and how desperately they need our help. You know, too, that the fate of the young people particularly has come to the fore, with riots in the universities and with the professions and civil service being closed to them.

The situation is by no means hopeless, however. With our assistance they can and will find means of self support while they retain their self respect.

The first meeting of our Executive Committee will be held next Wednesday evening, March 2, 8:15 p.m., at the Council of Jewish Women Office (10616 Euclid Ave.). At that time the basic plans for the Young Adult Division will be developed, and the decisions which we shall make at that time will be fundamental in determining the ultimate success of our work.

It is imperative that we have everyone present, and we trust that you will let nothing stand in the way of your attendance.

Sincerely yours,

I am happy to report that Rabbis Silver and Brickner have again consented to accept leadership for the 1938 Campaign of the Jewish Welfare Fund and they will as heretofore need to depend upon the cooperation of those of us who are prominently active in the Jewish life of our Community.

At a Meeting of the Campaign Council held on Thursday, January 20th, Officers were selected, among them yourself, and I sincerely hope that you together with the others who have been selected will lend your counsel and aid cheerfully and willingly so that we may look forward with confidence to renewed success in our efforts.

The Campaign is to be held the week of May 8th, and while no meetings are scheduled until later in the spring, plans for the organization of the various working Divisions of the Campaign are now going forward.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

President,

Your loyalty and interest as one of the Chairmen of our Campaign Divisions, contributed much to the success of the Campaigns which we have held for the Jewish Welfare Fund in the past several years; and we are deeply grateful for your cooperation with us.

The Cleveland Jewish Community will hold its Annual Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign as usual in May, and we will begin our preparations as early in March as possible in the selection of Campaign Personnel and in reviewing our prospect lists within the respective Divisions.

Meetings of the major Divisions and the Campaign Council have already been held in order that valuable suggestions which have come from yourself and others may be incorporated wherever possible into our plans. Some of these are set forth in the memoranda of a Meeting of the Campaign Council held on January 20th.

We look forward to a renewal of our pleasant associations in this common task.

Implement Committee,
Jewish Welfare Federation,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Goldhammer, Secy.

Gentlemen:-

Permit us to present our viewpoint which will serve as a base for our future discussions concerning the communal support of our schools for the years 1938 - 1939.

1) The Jewish Welfare Fund:- The aims and needs of the Jewish Welfare Fund are near and dear to us. It is our opinion that the future success of the Jewish Welfare Fund is dependent a great deal on the response of a united Cleveland Jewry. We believe that the gratifying results of the Fund in the last few years were due in no small measure to attempt of the Jewish Welfare Federation for unity among the various Jewish groups in the city. The Community Council of which our organization is a member, is an outstanding example of this cooperative effort.

2) Communal Unity:- In recognition of the need of a united Jewish community in Cleveland, for the Welfare Fund and for other causes which are constantly arising, let it be said at once, that it is high time to relinquish the attitude of prejudice and bias towards our educational institutions.

It is generally recognized that there is not one single system of Jewish education in America which may be applicable to an entire community. Rather are there a number of systems, each and every one of which has its own deep rooted and definite reasons for existence. A united Jewish community should certainly be cognizant of all these systems.

3) The Bureau of Jewish Education:- The Bureau of Jewish Education did recognize this multiplicity of systems at its inception. It was the intention of those who established the Bureau, to make it a central force which should furnish the motivating power for Jewish education in its various forms. Unfortunately the Bureau was not successful in this mission. Instead of incorporating in its functions the various schools in existence, the Bureau has ignored those groups which might have been a source of strength in its activities and certainly would have broadened the effectiveness of the Bureau in the field of Jewish education.

4) It is our contention that it is not too late now for this Bureau to broaden its base and gain the strength and prestige which is rightfully due it. The Bureau may yet fulfill the mission for which it was originally intended. It should give full hearted and sincere recognition to and incorporate in its body due representation of all Jewish educational institutions in the city. It naturally follows that the funds under the jurisdiction of the Bureau should be distributed proportionally among the various schools in accordance with both the number of pupils and the number of school days.

The aforementioned problems can not be ignored and their solution is of great importance to a united Cleveland Jewry. Surely there is enough of prejudice around us demanding a constant expenditure of energies for their combat. We can not afford to be divided if we are to succeed. We know that you will give careful consideration to this letter. The statements contained herein are elementary and axiomatic.

The recognition of these facts will certainly assure an enthusiastic and whole hearted cooperation in all your efforts by our various groups.

Very respectfully submitted,

Implement Committee
Jewish Welfare Federation

Mr. Goldhammer, Secy.

Gentlemen:

Permit us to present our viewpoint which will serve as a base for our future discussions concerning the communal support of our schools for the year 1938-1939.

1) The Jewish Welfare Fund:- The aims and needs of the Jewish Welfare Fund are near and dear to us. It is our opinion that the future success of the Jewish Welfare Fund is dependent a great deal on the response of a united Fund in the last few years were due in no small measure to the attempt of the Jewish Welfare Federation for unity among various Jewish groups in the city. The Community Council of which our organization is a member, is an outstanding example of this cooperative effort.

2) Communal Unity:- In recognition of the need of a United Jewish community in Cleveland, for the Welfare Fund and for other causes which are constantly arising, let it be said at once, that it is high time to relinquish the attitude of prejudices and bias towards our educational institutions.

It is generally recognized that there is not one single system of Jewish education in America which may be applicable to an entire community. Rather are there a number of systems, each and every one of which has its own deep rooted and definite reasons for existence. A united Jewish community should certainly be cognizant of all these systems.

3) The Bureau of Jewish Education:- The Bureau of Jewish Education did recognize this multiplicity of systems at its inception. It was the intention of those who established the Bureau, to make it a central force which should furnish the motivating power for Jewish education in its various forms. Unfortunately the Bureau was not successful in this mission. Instead of incorporating in its functions the various schools in existence, the Bureau has ignored those groups which might have been a source of strength in its activities and certainly would have broadened the effectiveness of the Bureau in the field of Jewish education.

4) It is our contention that it is not too late now for the Bureau to broaden its base and gain the strength and prestige which is rightfully due it. The Bureau may yet fulfill the mission for which it was originally intended. It should give full hearted and sincere recognition to and incorporate in its body due representation of all Jewish educational institutions in the city. It naturally follows that the funds under the jurisdiction of the Bureau should be distributed proportionately among the various schools in accordance with both the number of pupils and the number of school days.

The aforementioned problems can not be ignored and their solution is of great moment to a united Cleveland Jewry. Surely there is enough of prejudice around us demanding a constant expenditure of energies for their combat. We can not afford to be divided if we are to succeed. We know that you will give careful consideration to this letter. The statements contained herein are elementary and axiomatic.

The recognition of these facts will certainly assure an enthusiastic and whole hearted co-operation in all your efforts by our various groups.

WORKMEN'S CIRCLE SCHOOL #1

Very respectfully submitted,
WORKMEN'S CIRCLE SCHOOL #2.

P.S. May we suggest that in the deliberations of the Budget Committee, our representative be invited to attend. We will be more than happy to answer whatever questions may arise.

Mr. Samuel Goldhamer, Executive Director,
Jewish Welfare Federation,
1001 Huron Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Sam:

I am enclosing herewith this literature from Mr. Shroder. While there is merit to his request, I doubt whether we will be able here in Cleveland, this year, to make so large an increase to the Council as is requested. We have been steadily increasing our allotment to the Council. In 1936 we gave them $1250 and last year, $2000. There would be, I am afraid, considerable resistance on the part of other beneficiaries whose allotments we will not be able to increase this year. I shall be very happy to talk this matter over with you.

With best wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK

Dear Dor:

In further reference to the suggestion for the pooling of subscriptions of a selected group on a national basis, Rabbi Silver and others with whom I have discussed the plan here, all seem very much taken up with it; and in fact, Rabbi Silver feels some such procedure as this is almost essential to the success of the Campaigns especially in the larger cities where the effects of the recession are more in evidence. We are very hopeful, therefore, that you and the other Campaign officers can develop some such program of giving.

What sort of a speaker is young Edward Warburg, the son of the late Felix Warburg; would he be a possibility for us to consider for our Opening Meeting if we cannot get George Backer?

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Gentlemen:-

We are enclosing herewith a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the Yeshivath Adath Bnai Israel at its last meeting, after considerable deliberation and discussion. We feel that the matters raised therein are very pertinent to the welfare of our institution and the advancement of traditional Jewish Education in our community, and ask your full consideration.

May we suggest further that representatives of our institution be invited to attend the deliberation of the Budget Committee, so that we can answer questions which may arise.

Sincerely yours,

YESHIVATH ADATH BNAI ISRAEL

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE YESHIVATH ADATH BNAI
ISRAEL -- ADDRESSED TO THE JEWISH WELFARE
FEDERATION OF CLEVELAND.

RESOLVED: That

WHEREAS, the Jewish Community of Cleveland is primarily interested in the Jewish education of our children; and

WHEREAS, the Jewish Welfare Federation subsidizes Jewish education by its allotment of funds to the Bureau of Jewish Education; and

WHEREAS, it is the function of the Bureau of Jewish Education to further the work of all Jewish education in Jewish educational institutions, and to avoid discrimination between said institutions; and

WHEREAS, the cost of instruction is and should be the same per hour of instruction per week, it is the duty of the Bureau of Jewish Education to allocate funds to each school or institution in proportion to the number of students enrolled and the hours of instruction given, and its further duty to avoid discrimination between the Jewish educational institutions being maintained and furthered in our Community; and

WHEREAS, the Yeshivath Adath Bnai Israel gives ten hours of instruction per week to about 400 students enrolled in its schools, in a traditionally religious and approved manner, with a minimum of assistance from said Bureau of Education and disproportionate to the number of students enrolled;

THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED:

(a) That to unite and unify the advancement of Jewish Education in Cleveland, the undersigned Yeshivath Adath Bnai Israel be represented on the Board of the Bureau of Jewish Education;

(b) That full recognition be shown said Yeshivah and it be allocated funds by said Bureau, from the money received from the Jewish Welfare Federation of Cleveland, in proportion to the number of students enrolled and the hours of instruction given in its school, so that said Yeshivah may function efficiently and accomplish to maximum of good for its pupils;

(c) That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Jewish Welfare Federation of Cleveland for its consideration and action.

-Respectfully,

March 18, 1938

Mr. Salmon P. Halle,
Chairman of Budget Committee,
Jewish Welfare Fund,
1001 Huron Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Halle:

Enclosed please find the budget for the Bureau of Jewish Education for 1938-39.

The Bureau would like to have an opportunity to present this budget and discuss it with you and the members of the Budget Committee at an early date. Unlike every other organization that receives a subsidy from the Welfare Fund, the Bureau is exclusively dependent upon the Welfare Fund for its maintenance. Therefore, it is important that the Welfare Fund should know the work of the Bureau, its constituent organizations and their needs.

Please advise us several days in advance of conference with your Budget Committee so that arrangements may be made to have our budget presented by Messrs. Frederick Frankel, Alex Wintner, Ezra Shapiro and myself.

The enclosed budget was prepared by the Budget Committee of which Mr. Frederick Frankel is Chairman and Mr. Alex Wintner is Vice-Chairman.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Barnett R. Brickner

President

Note:

Increase of $253.00 over budget of last year due to the opening of a new branch and one additional session in all branches planned for this year.

We are herewith submitting the budget of the Cleveland Hebrew Schools for twelve months, March 1, 1938 to March 1, 1939.

This budget has been carefully drawn up after a thorough study by the Administrative Board. Every item has been separately considered with the view of possible curtailment.

You will find enclosed various information as requested at the Bureau Budget Committee Meeting with Rabbi Brickner, March 15, 1938.

We are also submitting a tuition chart showing amounts of tuition paid to the Hebrew Schools by the parents and the number of free pupils in each branch. This chart represents the amount to be paid, which, as a rule, is not paid 100%. The office always makes a strenuous effort to collect the highest amount of tuition possible, however, avoids antagonizing the parents so that they would not have any excuse for withdrawing their children from the Hebrew Schools.

My dear Mr Cantor:

I am just taking this occasion to remind you of your kind promise to us to plan to be here for our Opening Dinner Meeting of the Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign which takes place on Sunday evening, May 3th, at the Statler Hotel. I understand, of course, that all of this is contingent on your not having to go to the coast.

It has occurred to some of our Officers that an added feature at the Meeting that would be of particular interest to you, would be the tender of a check to you for the local Hadassah's share in the Youth Aliyah movement which was included in our Welfare Fund Campaign last year for the sum of $3500; and for which an allotment will be made by our Budget Committee through the Hadassah this year as well. I offer this suggestion because of your close interest in this particular phase of the Overseas work. Our Committee looks forward to your coming with a great deal of pleasure as does our whole community.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Deutsch:

In preparing for the publication of the Jewish Welfare Fund booklet for 1937, our Executive Committee have just been reviewing a few larger delinquent accounts and regretfully we find yours among them, both the 1936 pledge on which there is a balance of $350 and the 1937 pledge of $300 are unpaid which means of course that we must omit your name entirely from the booklet list as the matter stands. It is our hope that your check for these unpaid pledges will be forthcoming.

We are

Yours sincerely,

My dear Rabbi Silver:

It is impossible for me to make an appearance in Cleveland for your forthcoming Jewish Welfare Fund Drive due to my broadcasting and motion picture engagements. I expect to be called back to the coast on a week's notice between this writing and the first of May, and under the circumstances I dare not make any definite engagements away from my regular work. However, I shall be delighted to talk to your group over the telephone. I have done this successfully for some time. Your Committee can arrange with your local telephone company for the hook-up wherever I am at the time either in California or in New York. They do this through the means of a loud-speaker, and it is most effective.

You can reach me until further notice at the Sherry-Netherland Hotel in New York City.

Kindest regards.

Mr. Samuel Goldhamer,
Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign Headquarters,
Statler Hotel,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Sam:

I have just received word from Mr. Finkel stating that it would not be possible for Mr. Edwin Samuel to come to Cleveland on May 8 for our opening meeting. I am therefore proceeding with the original arrangements for a meeting on Sunday night, May 15 in Mahler Hall under the auspices of the Cleveland Zionist Society. We will, of course, utilize the occasion on the 15th to bring home to the assemblage that the Hebrew University is a beneficiary of the Jewish Welfare Fund. Inasmuch as no meeting of our Campaign is scheduled for that night, there will be no conflict.

I have written to New York headquarters about arranging for a broadcast from Dr. Weizmann. In a few days we should know whether that can be arranged.

I don't think that we should wait too long before inviting Senator Norris or some other outstanding Senator. Whether Mr. Cantor comes or not it would still be well to have a prominent man in American public life to address our opening dinner.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK

P.S. I note in an announcement sent out this morning that I am being bracketed as "Co-Chairman" of the Campaign. I am not aware that I accepted a new designation of my office. In order to avoid confusion, please instruct your secretary that in sending out letters over my signature to refer to me as "General Chairman".

Mr Eddie Cantor
Sherry-Netherland Hotel
New York City.

My dear Eddie:

Knowing that your plans are still indefinite, as pointed out in your letter to Rabbi Silver and our telephone conversation, it is the thought, however, of the local committee to build their program for the opening meeting of the local Jewish Welfare Drive on Sunday May 8th, with your presence in mind. They feel that you will make every effort to attend and hope that the message from the coast makes their wishes come true.

Feeling that the most fitting tribute that might be paid you for your untiring efforts in behalf of Youth Aliyah would be a public and formal acknowledgment, they are planning telephone addresses by Dr Chaim Weizmann, President of the World Zionist Organization and Miss Henrietta Szold, on behalf of European children who have found the answer to tomorrow and life's future in our Palestine.

To complete the extensive program which includes Dr Weizmann, Miss Szold and yourself, the committee has included an address by Mr Edwin Samuel, Mr Samuel is the son of Viscount Samuel, former High Commissioner of Palestine.

Hoping to see you May 8th, I remain

Sincerely,

(signed) LEONARD S LABOWITCH

1938 NATIONAL QUOTA $ 5,100,000
JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE CAMPAIGN
100 East 42nd Street, New York

Mr S P Halle, Chairman,
The Budget Committee,
The Jewish Welfare Fund
1001 Huron Road, Room 1015
Cleveland, Ohio.

April 21, 1938

Dear Mr Halle:

Through the courtesy of the children of the late Julius Rosenwald, the Joint Distribution Committee Campaign is privileged to advise community campaign leaders and friends throughout the country of the most generous contribution made by the children of Julius Rosenwald and members of their immediate families, including philanthropic organizations through which they customarily contribute, in order that others may be stimulated to support generously the 1938 program of the Joint Distribution Committee.

In a letter addressed by Mr. William Rosenwald to Mrs. David M. Levy, daughter of Julius Rosenwald and Chairman of the Women's Division of the Greater New York Campaign of the Joint Distribution Committee, announcing a contribution of $81,000 from Rosenwald family sources as above stipulated, Mr. Rosenwald also states that this contribution of $81,000 will be increased to $150,000 if the Joint Distribution Committee receives two new individual gifts of $75,000 each by August 1, 1938 to meet this offer. If however, the Joint Distribution Committee receives two new individual gifts of $50,000 each by August 1, 1938, the Rosenwald contribution will be increased to $100,000.

Although the children of Julius Rosenwald are willing that the Joint Distribution Committee advise its friends to the end that it might stimulate generous contributions in all sections of the country, they are particularly desirous that no publicity be given to their gift or contingent offer in the secular, Anglo-Jewish or Yiddish press.

You and your associates are privileged to make an announcement at any appropriate meeting - a formal statement being attached for your convenience. The Joint Distribution Committee will be most grateful if you will assume responsibility for seeing that no press publicity is given to the announcement. Should press representatives be present at any meeting where this announcement is made, we believe that they will cheerfully cooperate with the Rosenwald family if the matter is brought to their attention.

Cordially yours,

The Honorable Hamilton Fish, Jr.,
United States Congressman,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Congressman Fish:

I was delighted to receive your message informing me that it will be possible for you to address the opening banquet of our Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign on Sunday evening, May 8th. We shall look forward eagerly to your coming. A very warm welcome awaits you.

Our Campaign, this year, is for $328,000. The major part of it will be devoted to the relief of our unhappy brethren in Germany, Austria and in Eastern Europe, and to the upbuilding work in Palestine to which so many thousand of our refugees are turning. You have addressed such gatherings in the past, I am sure, and you will know exactly the note to strike. Should you require any literature on the subject, I shall be very happy to send it to you, or Mr. Max Rhoads, Woodward Building, of Washington, D.C., will be able to supply it.

The banquet will be held at the Statler Hotel at 6:30 in the evening. We shall make reservations for you at this hotel if that is agreeable to you. Please let me know the time of your arrival as we should like to have a committee meet you.

With all good wishes and looking forward with pleasure to our meeting, I remain

Most cordially yours,

UNITED PALESTINE APPEAL

111 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK, N. Y.

THE JEWISH WELFARE FUND OF CLEVELAND

Campaign Headquarters - Statler Hotel -
Rooms 412, 414, 416

April 25, 1938

Rabbi A. H. Silver, Chairman
United Palestine Appeal
111 Fifth Avenue
New York City

Dear Rabbi Silver:

The campaign goal of the Jewish Welfare Fund of Cleveland for 1938 has been set at $328,000 as against the amount of $291,000 which we raised and distributed in 1937. Included in this campaign goal is an amount of $175,000 for the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee and the United Palestine Appeal, subject to a division on the continued agreement basis of 40% to the United Palestine Appeal and 60% to the J.D.C.

This additional amount in the allocation to the two Overseas Agencies constitutes the major part of the increase in our campaign goal; and other allotments to refugee work constitute in large measure likewise the balance.

We are striving to achieve this goal in the face of business conditions that are not at all promising, but our Campaign Organization is geared up to do its utmost. We are sincerely hopeful that campaigns throughout the country will achieve the results which will enable your Committee to receive its full quota.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

S. P. HALLE
Chairman, The Budget Committee
The Jewish Welfare Fund, Cleveland

The Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign

To the Officers of the Campaign:

It is always helpful to the interest and morale of the Campaign workers to meet some of the Officers of the Welfare Fund -----won't you please aim to attend some of these Meetings whenever convenient just to express a brief word of encouragement or some message of particular interest.

Sincerely,

S. Goldhamer
Executive Director.

Mr Walter L Reynolds
c/o Mr Hamilton Fish
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr Reynolds:

We are very grateful for your prompt attention to Mr Rhoads's request with reference to photographs, mats and publicity material in connection with our announcement of Mr Fish's attendance at the Opening Dinner Meeting of our Welfare Fund Campaign at the Statler Hotel on Sunday evening, May 8th. This is to be a dinner meeting beginning at 6.30 o'clock; dress, so far as the general attendance is concerned will be informal; if Mr Fish himself prefers formal dress, those at the head table will dress likewise.

AMERICAN JEWISH ARCHIVES

In reference to Mr Fish's subject, may I tell you that this is not solely a meeting for the raising of funds for Palestinian work. It is a meeting of a general Welfare Fund which includes all of the agencies and causes ministering to Jewish needs nationally and overseas, in the fields of relief, rehabilitation and for refugee work. We should prefer to have Mr Fish talk on the responsibilities towards the refugees from Germany, Austria and the other countries where persecution is at present rife; or as indicated in my letter to Mr Rhoads, on our own Government's attitude toward the European situation of Jewry as reflected in Secretary Hull's recent call for an International Conference. We do not wish to limit Mr Fish except to address himself to these problems for which our Welfare Fund is projecting its Appeal.

This will be a meeting of the Campaign Organization just prior to their going out on their personal solicitation for the Funds required---no monies are asked for or raised in this meeting.

If you will be kind enough to indicate to me Mr Fish's topic, we shall be glad to include it in our publicity for the meeting.

Again expressing appreciation for your helpfulness, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Executive Director,
The Jewish Welfare Fund.

CONGRESSMAN HAMILTON FISH AND THE
ZIONIST RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS

Congressman Fish is one of the leading public friends of the Jews in the United States, and for many years has championed their cause. He is the co-author of the famous "Lodge-Fish Resolution", whereby the Congress of the United States ^{in 1922} approved the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine.

This Resolution has been described as the "American Balfour Declaration". It represents the only parliamentary approval of Zionism as such by any government, other than England. Other governments issued declarations through their foreign offices, but the United States was the only government where ~~the~~ legislation was enacted. Inasmuch as the American action was a joint resolution of Congress, it has, by virtue ^{thereof} of ~~this action~~, become the permanent foreign policy of the United States, whereas other governments ^{might} ~~would~~ change their policy towards Zionism, not being bound by legislative enactment. The adoption of the Resolution hastened, and possibly assured the ratification of the Palestine Mandate by the League of Nations.

Congressman Fish was the first to introduce the Resolution. He presented it in the House of Representatives, and subsequently, the Resolution was introduced in the Senate by the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, hence it has been known as the "Lodge-Fish Resolution".

Copy for Rabbi Silver.

Mr. Samuel Goldhamer,
Executive Director,
The Jewish Welfare Fund of Cleveland,
Statler Hotel,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Goldhamer:

I have your letter of the 23rd instant. I was very happy to have been of service in the matter of Congressman Fish.

Incidentally, he is not a Senator. He is a member of the House of Representatives. Officially, his title is "Representative", although ordinarily the popular title of "Congressman" is used. In compliance with your request, I contacted with Fish's office yesterday and arranged for the forwarding to you of publicity material, including photographs and mats. It will probably expedite the matter from now on if you will address all your further communications to Representative Hamilton Fish, U. S. House of Representatives, House Office Building, Washington, D. C. Both he and his office are always so busy that you may not get very quick service, so don't hesitate to apply telegraphic pressure.

You will of course be sure to bring into your publicity the fact that he was the co-author of the famous Lodge-Fish Resolution, whereby the Congress of the United States approved the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine. I herewith enclose a little memo for incorporation in your publicity.

I suggest that you enter a reminder in your diary to wire Fish on the date preceding his engagement, reminding him thereof, and specifying the exact time and place, which however I have already given him.

The Congressman is very happy that the dinner will be informal and hence will dress informally himself. If you want to change this, please notify him in adequate time. It is assumed that all the others at the speakers table will be dressed informally.

With regard to his topic, he has no preference. Any topic dealing with Zionism you may prefer is satisfactory to him. It is not necessary for you to announce a specific topic, unless you prefer to do so. "What Palestine Means to the Jews" is satisfactory to him. I would advise you to rush to him immediately the full text of the Resolution adopted Sunday by the U. P. A. conference in Chicago urging proposing the settlement of 100,000 Jewish refugees in Palestine annually for the next five years.

With all good wishes, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

MAX RHOADE

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver,
The Temple,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

I am very happy indeed that Fish accepted the invitation, particularly as such short notice was given, coupled with the fact that he was out of town. Ordinarily, at least four to six weeks notice is given for a Washington speaker. Of course I appreciate that the situation at your end doubtless made this impossible.

I was called out of the city myself on an urgent matter over the weekend, otherwise I would have continued to keep after him for his decision. When I called Fish's office yesterday, I found that he had already accepted as a result of direct contact with you.

Please don't hesitate to let me know at any time I can help you.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Cordially yours,

Max Rhoads

Dear Rabbi:

We were advised by Mr. S. P. Halle that the Board of Trustees and the Jewish Welfare Fund Committee of the Federation have renewed the allotment of $250.00 for our school for the year 1938.

I have been instructed to convey to you the sentiment prevailing among the members of our Society that the decision for such a negligible sum was based on some misunderstanding. Taking everything into consideration, we feel that we were entitled to at least double that amount. We hope that you may still find a way to correct this injustice to our institution.

May I also add that we are planning to take an active part in the coming welfare campaign, and that we all wish you success in your efforts.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. O. Halperin

The writer of this didn't sleep much last night — he was too greatly moved by an INCIDENT in this Campaign.

It was at the close of the Food Products Division Meeting near midnight yesterday,—and after an evening of intense and earnest concentration on the business in hand—the distribution of about 500 Food Division Cards into hands where the most effective solicitation would be done and the best pledges secured.

Phil Frankel had told the men of the "Frankel System" of soliciting and how well it was working. Rabbi Harris had added a word on the turn of fate that placed us and our families here instead of 'Over There' — and how fortunate we are that we can help them.

And then it happened. We don't want to mention any names. But one of the Chairmen of this Division slipped over to another Chairman who had his Card, and shoved a Pledge into the latter's pocket. And then he hurried out of the Meeting to avoid any "thanks" or "appreciation" for doing what he felt was the performance of just a simple duty.

The Pledge was for $500 — an increase over the $200 which he had given in 1937.

Dear Mr Weil:

I cannot tell you how gratified I was with the word that was given me today of your generous action in increasing your pledge for this year so magnificently. I am sure, that aside from the intrinsic value of the gift itself, it will be an example to be followed by many others who are likewise imbued with the spirit which impelled you to do this.

With much appreciation, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. S. Halle

Dear Mr. Halle:

I received by air mail while in Chicago a copy of your telegram to the ORT office in New York, in which you state that the Cleveland Welfare Fund appropriation for the ORT in 1938 will be $3500. Among the reasons stated for this reduction, there is the following: "Our committee noted that a very substantial portion of your budget still continues to come from the Joint Distribution Committee." This statement is clearly based on a misapprehension. It is true that we have been receiving a subvention from the Joint Distribution Committee for the years 1929-37, but we are receiving none in 1938, and I am enclosing herewith a statement signed at the beginning of the year, both by Mr. Baerwald and myself, to the effect that this year no such subvention will be forthcoming, which means that while in 1937 the contribution of the Cleveland Welfare Fund was for the purpose of supplementing our subvention from the JDC, in 1938 it will be a part of our complete budget, and I am certain that from the material sent to you by our office, you know that because of the situation in eastern and central Europe, the budget of the ORT has been increased by nearly 50%.

The first reason stated by you of course is a matter of opinion. In all sincerity I think the greater the misfortunes heaped by fate upon the Jewish people, the more outstanding and more important is the work of the ORT. As the size and the nature of the problem increases, the necessity increases to handle it, not in a superficial manner, but in a spirit of reconstruction. I am quite certain that your decision is based on a misunderstanding, and that you will find it possible, not only to restore the ORT to its original appropriation, but even to increase.

We have been very grateful to you for the consideration you had given us in 1937, and I know that the spirit that prompted you to recognize the ORT under more favorable circumstances, will not forsake you now.

With kind greetings, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
AMERICAN ORT FEDERATION

We The People

Nazis and the Jews A Persecution Mania People Swap Places

BY JAY FRANKLIN

WASHINGTON, April 1. — Ever since the advent of Hitlerism in Germany and Hitler's persecution of the Jews, I have been wondering about it. After reading that Goering has ordered 300,000 Jews to leave Vienna and that the Nazis have arrested Dr. Freud, the "father of psychoanalysis," I have finally concluded that the Nazis are suffering from a persecution mania, an inferiority complex so profound as to be dangerous and to be shifting the German character from its old foundations of sobriety and thoroughness to an Oriental hysteria and fanaticism.

The other evening I dined with a Nazi official who, properly goaded, launched into a well-informed discussion of the Nazi policy toward the Jews. As he spoke, I wondered whether he realized what he was saying, since his remarks—when laid end to end—constituted the most impressive tribute to the Jewish race I have ever heard.

What the Nazi said amounted to a frank admission that the German people could not compete with the Jewish people, either individually or collectively, in business, in the arts and professions, in science, in political organization or in social ideas. He admitted—without realizing it—that the Germans feel themselves inferior to the Jews, and showed—with an almost touching innocence—how the Nazis are busy building their own ghetto for Germans and are swapping places with the Jews psychologically.

JAY FRANKLIN

Where Is Shylock Now?

I shall cite one example. He said that Germany would be delighted to accept Roosevelt's proposal and send all the Jews out of the country, but that of course Germany would keep all the Jewish money and property! Where is Shylock and his "pound of flesh" now? He seemed to feel that what he called "Jewish Marxism" was the great danger to Germany.

He was not clear as to what this was: The only thing apparent was that you could not combat "Jewish Marxism" by discussion, reason or debate—it was too strong—but only by suppression. He also believed that all eroticism in art, literature and the drama was of Jewish origin—which is a strange idea indeed!

Again the Germans accuse the Jews of ingratitude. Let's look at the record!

The truth is that the Jews helped mightily to create imperial Germany before the war and that international Jewry helped Germany fight the war until after the overthrow of the czars had smashed the greatest anti-Jewish government in the world. You need only to read the letters of Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador at Washington during the World War, to realize how the Jewish bankers were supporting the kaiser.

Jews Gave First Words of Friendship

Had it not been for international Jewry, for men like Rathenau in Germany, and the Jewish bankers in England, France and America, Germany would have perished in the post-war era. The first words of friendship for republican Germany came from the Jews and if Hitler and his Nazis are alive today, it is because of the international rescue work of the chosen people for their co-racialists in central Europe. That some of them collected a profitable commission from the nation which they saved may have been galling, but it was not unjust or unnatural.

So what the world is now witnessing is a sort of transmigration of racial souls. The Germans are devouring the Jews—"Tell me what you eat, and I will tell you what you are!"—and have walled themselves into a narrow, neurotic and self-pitying racialism, while the Jews—despoiled and tortured—go free, as men and women, leaving to their tormentors the legacy of the ghetto from which they have at last been driven.

A DISPATCH WHICH CAME THRU THE NEWS COLUMNS YESTERDAY;

Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, April 27---Two thousand Jews have committed suicide and at least 12,000 others have been arrested since the Austro-German Anschluss, according to a prominent personality, whose identity cannot be revealed, who has just returned from several weeks in Austria.

The fate of many of the 12,000 arrested is not known. Again and again, lorries driven by Nazi Storm Troopers drive up to the central cemetery in the Jewish section and unload sealed coffins. The cemetery officials are not given the names of the dead, are ordered not to open the coffins and to inter them without identification. Burials usually take place at dawn with only "kaddish" being recited as coffins are lowered into graves.

JEWISH WELFARE FUND
STATLER HOTEL
CLEVELAND, OHIO

THIS IS THE GERM . . .

A deadly virus is poisoning the life stream of Jewry. The swastika — microbe of hate — is spreading across the map of Europe.

- In Germany — where the Hitler germ originated — there are still 375,000 Jews condemned to end their days in virtual slavery. They are denied political and civil rights. They are denied the right to earn a livelihood. They are denied their property if they manage to escape. They are doomed to extermination.
- Into Austria — the Nazi brownshirts have carried their barbarous gospel and 200,000 Jews have been lashed by the stormtrooper's whip. Distinguished savants are being ousted from their professions. Stores are padlocked and property is being confiscated. Jews are trapped. Hundreds have chosen death by their own hands.
- In Roumania — The Goga fanatics, the Hitler-inspired mobs clamour against the 900,000 Jews who live in that unhappy land. Thousands are in the direst poverty.
- In Poland — the boycott and bomb are the violent weapons of Jew-baiting politicians and demagogues. There are 1,000,000 Jews who face utter starvation. They are ringed by bars of hate.
- And in America — the Nazi germ has sought to infect the atmosphere of a country dedicated to freedom, as Nazi propagandists, well financed by Hitler, seek to poison Americans against the 4,000,000 Jews who have been blessed with opportunity, equality and liberty.

THE PRESCRIPTION is the JEWISH WELFARE FUND

- NOW, as never before in the history of modern Jewry, we must come to the rescue of a stricken people.

The Jewish Welfare Fund, through the Joint Distribution Committee and other agencies, provides emergency relief to keep them alive — food, clothing, shelter, loans, employment and medical care.

The Jewish Welfare Fund, through the United Palestine Appeal, helps thousands of Jewish refugees to rebuild their shattered lives in a homeland in Palestine, the scene of a modern day miracle, the rebirth of a people.

The Jewish Welfare Fund, through the American Jewish Congress, Committee, and other agencies, serves to protect American Jewry from a fate similar to that of our people in Europe by exposing and combatting the Nazi infection in the United States.

Relief, Reconstruction and Protection — these are the three major objectives of this year's appeal of the Jewish Welfare Fund — an appeal in which all Jewish agencies unite in order to assure preservation of our people.

THE BLACK PLAGUE SWEEPS ACROSS THE GLOBE

We CAN Survive This Plague!

• ANNUALLY, the Jewish Welfare Fund has been appealing to you for support to raise funds for the relief of suffering Jews throughout the world. Your response, in the past, has been magnificent. This year, the need is greater than ever before. This year, millions of Jews are threatened with extermination. We cannot save them all. Many are doomed. But we must, more than ever before, strain every energy, and every resource. We must not forsake them. We cannot rely on others to help us. We must help ourselves. The need is desperate. No cause commands your generosity as much as this. We must save our fellow-Jews in Europe. Saving them — we save ourselves.

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Confirming our conversation of Monday morning, the Welfare Fund Radio Broadcast will take place Saturday evening, May 7th, 7:30 - 8:00 P.M. in the Studios of WTAM. As we know you will agree, the cooperation of some of Cleveland's most noted artists should surely help to make this broadcast a fitting introduction to this year's highly important effort. We hope, too, that the entertainment features of this program will serve as a fitting background for what we know will be your constructive and inspirational address.

We will sincerely appreciate it if your secretary will arrange to have the script for your address at our office by not later than Friday morning. Because it is so essential to accurately time this most important portion of the broadcast toward timing the balance of the program around it, we will be most grateful if the delivery of your script will be handled in this manner.

And, in behalf of our committee, I should like to express our grateful appreciation for your help and cooperation.

Sincerely yours

Alvin B. Fisher

 PRESS CABLES TELL OF MEN AND WOMEN TRYING TO FLEE DESPERATELY FROM NAZIFIED AUSTRIA,

 SHALL WE, THE FORTUNATE ONES, STILL DEBATE WHETHER WE SHALL GIVE TEN OR FIFTY OR

My dear Dick:

I am enclosing herewith subscription cards for your contribution, that of Mr. Richman and of Carl S. Felder. As I tried to explain over the telephone, our goal this year, is $328,000 which is about $40,000 more than last year. This increase has been made necessary by the appalling situation which has suddenly developed in Austria. The increase, therefore, represents about fifteen percent over last year and we are asking our generous donors of previous years to add fifteen percent to their last year's contributions. You gave, last year, $1900. A fifteen percent increase would mean approximately $2200. Mr. Nathan Richman gave, last year, $3500. Including the fifteen percent increase, Mr. Richman's 1938 contribution would be $4000. Mr. Carl Felder gave, last year, $400. Perhaps you can persuade him to give $500 this year.

I am not unmindful of the numerous other contributions which you and Mr. Richman make and I hesitate to ask for this increase. But what can we do? Unprecedented things are happening in Jewish life overseas and hundreds of thousands of our people are desperate. We can be only grateful that our lot is not their lot and that we can in a small measure help them.

I hope that you will be able to come to the opening meeting of the campaign next Sunday evening at the Statler Hotel at which Mr. Hamilton Fish will be the speaker.

I am very grateful to you for volunteering to take care of these contributions. With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

My dear Sam,

I am enclosing herewith the subscription cards of yourself and family. They totaled last year $5900. As you undoubtedly know, our goal this year is $38,000 more than last year. The increase was made necessary by the appalling situation which developed in the last few weeks in Austria. To reach this goal, an increase of about fifteen percent is required of our contributors. Let your generous heart be your guide.

With all good wishes, I remain

My dear friend,

I'm enclosing herewith your subscription card to the Jewish Welfare Fund. As you undoubtedly know, our goal this year is about $40,000 over last year. This increase was made necessary by the appalling situation which developed in the last few weeks in Austria, where a quarter of a million Jews are facing impoverishment and expulsion. You know best what you can give. Let your generous heart be your guide.

Mr. Samuel Goldhamer,
Executive Director,
The Jewish Welfare Fund of Cleveland,
Statler Hotel,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Goldhamer:

I have your letter of the 23rd instant. I was very happy to have been of service in the matter of Congressman Fish.

Incidentally, he is not a Senator. He is a member of the House of Representatives. Officially, his title is "Representative", although ordinarily the popular title of "Congressman" is used. In compliance with your request, I contacted with Fish's office yesterday and arranged for the forwarding to you of publicity material, including photographs and mats. It will probably expedite the matter from now on if you will address all your further communications to Representative Hamilton Fish, U. S. House of Representatives, House Office Building, Washington, D. C. Both he and his office are always so busy that you may not get very quick service, so don't hesitate to apply telegraphic pressure.

You will of course be sure to bring into your publicity the fact that he was the co-author of the famous Lodge-Fish Resolution, whereby the Congress of the United States approved the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine. I herewith enclose a little memo for incorporation in your publicity.

I suggest that you enter a reminder in your diary to wire Fish on the date preceding his engagement, reminding him thereof, and specifying the exact time and place, which however I have already given him.

The Congressman is very happy that the dinner will be informal and hence will dress informally himself. If you want to change this, please notify him in adequate time. It is assumed that all the others at the speakers table will be dressed informally.

With regard to his topic, he has no preference. Any topic dealing with Zionism you may prefer is satisfactory to him. It is not necessary for you to announce a specific topic, unless you prefer to do so. "What Palestine Means to the Jews" is satisfactory to him. I would advise you to rush to him immediately the full text of the Resolution adopted Sunday by the U. P. A. conference in Chicago urging proposing the settlement of 100,000 Jewish refugees in Palestine annually for the next five years.

With all good wishes, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

May R. Roads

CONGRESSMAN HAMILTON FISH AND THE
ZIONIST RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS

Congressman Fish is one of the leading public friends of the Jews in the United States, and for many years has championed their cause. He is the co-author of the famous "Lodge-Fish Resolution", whereby the Congress of the United States ^{in 1922} approved the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine.

This Resolution has been described as the "American Balfour Declaration". It represents the only parliamentary approval of Zionism as such, by any government, other than England. Other governments issued declarations through their foreign offices, but the United States was the only government where ~~in~~ legislation was enacted. Inasmuch as the American action was a joint resolution of Congress, it has, by virtue ^{thereof} ~~of this action~~, become the permanent foreign policy of the United States, whereas other governments ^{might} ~~could~~ change their policy towards Zionism, not being bound by legislative enactment. The adoption of the Resolution hastened, and possibly assured the ratification of the Palestine Mandate by the League of Nations.

Congressman Fish was the first to introduce the Resolution. He presented it in the House of Representatives, and subsequently, the Resolution was introduced in the Senate by the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, hence it has been known as the "Lodge-Fish Resolution".

Mr Max Rhoads
Woodward Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr Rhoads:

I appreciate very much the information which you have given me regarding Congressman Fish; since my communication with you, his secretary has sent me photographs and quite complete biographical information.

We have also written to his secretary to suggest that he confine his address to the discussion of the Government's attitude toward the Refugee problem and the general responsibility of other countries as well. It was thought inadvisable to have Congressman Fish discuss the Palestinian angle only, since our Welfare Fund encompasses all phases of European relief and rehabilitation in its budget.

We shall follow your suggestion of wiring a reminder on the date preceding his appearance here.

Thanking you for your helpful suggestions, I am,

Sincerely yours,

April 29th, 1938.

CONFISCATION OF PROPERTY BELONGING TO AMERICAN JEWS IN GERMANY

Mr. FISH. Mr. Speaker, I find myself in some difficulty, because I happen to be a member of the New York State Constitutional Convention at Albany. It is impossible to be in two places at the same time. This is the only opportunity I will have to say a few words regarding certain issues that are now or should be before the Congress. In the first place, I call the attention of the House to a statement made yesterday by Field Marshal Herman Goering, of Germany, the economic dictator, who said he proposed to confiscate and to seize the property not only of German Jews living in Germany and Austria but also of alien Jews, and that means American Jews.

It so happens that in the State of New York, from which I come, there are 2,000,000 Jews living in New York City and probably half a million more living up-State. Many of these American citizens own property under the law in Germany. If this threat of Field Marshal Goering is carried out against American citizens it means that the property of our citizens will be confiscated by a foreign nation, and it does not make any difference as far as the Congress is concerned whether our citizens be Jew or gentile or be American citizens of German or Austrian origin.

It is none of our business what form of government there is in Germany, in Spain, in Soviet Russia, or in any other country of the world; that is purely their business. It is our business, however, and primarily the business of the Government of the United States, the President, the State Department, and the Congress, if the property of an American citizen is seized in any foreign land, particularly in any civilized nation or in any nation with which we have friendly intercourse and have diplomatic relations, to come to the aid and assistance of those citizens.

Let me point out that if the program of Field Marshal Goering is carried out it will raise a very serious issue and result in a very serious circumstances. We as a nation cannot afford to remain silent. The only way we have of protesting, if the German Government ignores the rights of American citizens to own property or money, is either to enter into some method of reprisal, to stop trade with Germany, or to seize some of her property in this country. In the last analysis it would be proper if the German Government proceeds to put its program into effect to withdraw diplomatic relations and recall our Ambassador.

I do not believe Germany will proceed with the suggestions made yesterday by Mr. Goering, but I am serving notice as a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee of this House that if the German Government—and I repeat we are not concerned with the form of the German Government—seizes the property of any American citizen, be he Jew or Gentile, American born or naturalized, and takes it away from him, then the Government of the United States has a definite duty to use its influence and powers to protect the property of its citizens. That is what we legislate about year in and year out, that is why we appropriate these huge sums of money for our Navy and our Army, and particularly for our Diplomatic Corps and our Foreign Service.

Before any property of American citizens is confiscated in Germany it seems to me that the State Department should notify the German Government that any such act would be immediately resented by our Government and our people. The State Department should make it very clear that we propose to uphold the traditional American policy of protecting the rights, the liberties, and the property of our citizens everywhere in the world. Otherwise our procedure in the Congress is just a mockery and a farce when we appropriate millions upon millions of dollars for our Navy, our Army, our Air Corps, and our Diplomatic Service if we do not propose to protect the rights of our citizens to trade and to own property.

I make this statement now because I believe a little plain talking will stop a very serious situation from developing. After the horse is stolen it does not make any difference what we do about locking the barn door. A firm protest now might well solve the situation and save us from trouble and grave difficulty in the future.

Mr. BIERMANN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FISH. I yield.

Mr. BIERMANN. How does the gentleman propose that we protect the right of these citizens? Does he want us to go to war in Germany?

Mr. FISH. I am glad the gentleman asked me that because he must know my views about war. I am not in favor of any war except a war of defense of the United States of America. But I am ready and prepared, if any foreign nation deliberately violates the rights and seizes the property of our citizens, either to sever diplomatic relations or to stop trading with them or to enter into proper forms of reprisal, anything short of war. We could adopt economic embargoes, sanctions, and other trade measures. If any country is worth living in it is the United States of America. We must see to it that our citizens are respected and that their rights to trade are protected. In the days of ancient Rome the very words "Romanus civis sum" was a guaranty of protection throughout the known world. Today the mere statement of "I am an American citizen" should afford the same kind of protection. I refuse to go to war for the almighty dollar, whether it be in foreign lands or here, but I am willing at all times to uphold and protect the rights of our citizens in foreign lands and especially the right to trade and own property.

Mr. BIERMANN. I do not want to quibble with the gentleman over a word, but he used the words "protect the property of these citizens." I do not see how we can protect property in Germany except by going to war.

Mr. FISH. I will tell the gentleman how we can protect the property of our citizens in Germany. All we have to do is to have the State Department serve notice immediately that if the threat of seizing the property of American citizens is put into effect, then we propose to do exactly the same thing in America against German citizens or, preferably, against the property of the German Government in the United States.

Mr. BIERMANN. That is not protecting property.

Mr. FISH. It is protecting property, because then the German Government will not seize the property of our citizens. This is not a Jewish issue—it is a great American issue upon which we will not compromise or pussyfoot.

Mr. BIERMANN. That is a reprisal.

Mr. FISH. It may be, but it is protecting the property of our citizens in foreign lands directly or indirectly because if we let the German Government know that we are not going to stand for it in the first instance, I do not believe it will ever happen.

Mr. BIERMANN. I agree with the gentleman that we ought to do something like that, but as far as actually protecting the property is concerned, I think we would have a hard time doing that. We may sever diplomatic relations or we may invoke reprisal, but as far as physically protecting the property is concerned, I think the gentleman would have a hard time doing that.

Mr. FISH. If the gentleman thinks any of us are going to war about it, then he is much mistaken, because I am as much against going to war on such an issue as he is. I am quite sure the gentleman realizes if the United States Government notifies the German Government that if the property of American citizens, Jews or Gentiles, is seized in Germany, that we propose to protect our citizens to the best of our ability. What is our ability? We cannot go over there and fight them nor do we want to. The only thing we can do is either to seize their property over here, refuse to trade with them, or withdraw our ambassador. I would not hesitate for one minute, if they proceed with any such drastic course and insist on seizing the property of our citizens and actually do it, not threaten to do it, to withdraw our ambassador and our entire diplomatic force from Germany. The Nazi government, if it violates international law by the confiscation of the property of American citizens, ought to be outlawed.

Mr. LUDLOW. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FISH. I yield to the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. LUDLOW. Does the gentleman know whether or not the State Department has taken cognizance of this extraordinary utterance by Mr. Goering?

Mr. FISH. This statement of Mr. Goering was made only yesterday. I saw something in the press today that led me to believe the State Department did know the statement had been made, but so far has taken no action. I am not speaking for my own party in this matter. I am speaking for myself as a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee when I say that I will back the administration to the limit in any firm stand it takes to protect the rights of American citizens anywhere in the world short of war.

Mr. LUDLOW. I feel as the gentleman does that the State Department ought to take some notice of this.

Mr. FISH. Yes; and do it immediately before it is too late.

Mr. BIGELOW. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FISH. I yield to the gentleman from Ohio.

Mr. BIGELOW. Has the State Department taken any such action with reference to the oil situation in Mexico?

Mr. FISH. May I say in reply to the gentleman's question that while I do not go to the State Department very often, I was there last week. I went there to visit one of the best State Department officials that we have at the present time, Mr. Sumner Welles, Under Secretary of State. As I was coming out of Mr. Welles' office I noticed the distinguished Ambassador from Mexico waiting, so, putting two and two together, I assume Mr. Daniels was there to discuss the Mexican oil situation. I make that statement in fairness to the State Department.

Mr. Speaker, I want to discuss in the remainder of my time the pending wages-and-hours bill, and I am glad to note the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MARTIN] is here, a member of the Rules Committee. I want to take this opportunity to express my views on the wages-and-hours bill. I opposed the wages-and-hours bill when it came up a few months ago on the ground that the bill in its then form would create a huge bureaucracy. I believe the time has come, and long since passed, to restore representative government in our country and not create additional bureaucracies and administrative agencies to run our country. I would vote against the bill again if it were in the same form because I will not compromise with bureaucracy and regimentation and the creation of additional bureaucratic agencies and the concentration of power in the President to control industry and labor.

If the wages-and-hours bill as now proposed and pending before the Rules Committee is reported out and comes up for consideration I propose to support it to the best of my ability because then we will have a government by law instead of a government by bureaucratic and executive edicts. I believe legislation of this type, doing away with sweatshop hours and sweatshop labor conditions and wages, should have been enacted by Congress years ago. If you and I are sincere in this Congress in trying to combat radicalism, socialism, and communism, then we ought to enact legislation of this kind in order to promote social and industrial justice and provide for a square deal to labor, and particularly for the one-third who are ill-housed, ill-fed, and ill-clothed.

There is no man in this House who would not have been shocked this morning if he had listened to the testimony of some underpaid mill workers from the State of New York who appeared before the New York State Members of Congress in a special committee meeting. I thought I knew something about the economic conditions in my own State, but I found out I was woefully ignorant of the deplorable and tragic conditions existing in my State. I knew that certain wage earners there were paid $8, $9, $10, and $12 a week, yes, but these people brought in slips and presented them to our committee showing where they had received 10 cents an hour, $2 a week, $3 a week, $4 a week, $5 a week, and $6 a week. I would not have believed it if some Member had gotten up on the floor of the House and made such a statement. I was under the impression they paid from $6 to $12 a week in these sweatshops. But the facts are as I have stated them.

The wages-and-hours bill in a new and feasible form is now pending before the Committee on Rules. It seems to me a bigger issue is being raised before the Committee on Rules than even the merits of the bill. The question is, Do we or do we not have representative government in this House? Have the Members of the House anything to say with respect to what kind of legislation will be brought before them, or must they turn over their power to the Committee on Rules, which, by a majority of one in a small committee might chloroform this bill and smother it and withhold it from consideration in the House? Great labor organizations like the American Federation of Labor and practically all the wage-earning people in this country want this bill passed. I believe the rank and file of the American people want to put an end to the terrible conditions of our wage earners in the sweatshops who are being exploited by human vultures, yet Congress does nothing. If this condition continues to prevail in the House, of course, Mr. Majority Leader, the responsibility is upon your party. You have a 4-to-1 majority. You have control of every committee. With that majority you should be able to legislate. Nevertheless, may I say this for myself as a Republican, because apparently the word has gone out that the Republicans are against this bill, that it is not true, and I predict and predict deliberately and advisedly—and I am making the statement now, because I will not be here most of next week, when this matter may be again discussed—that if this pending wages-and-hours bill comes up for consideration in its present form, instead of only a handful of Republicans being for the bill, as was the case when the other bill was considered, over 50 percent of the Republicans will vote for this bill, and I would not be surprised if there were two-thirds. I make that as a definite prediction. Still, the responsibility rests on the majority party to bring out this measure. If the Committee on Rules refuses to allow it to be brought out and insists on chloroforming it, I hope the majority leader will see to it that a petition is put upon the desk, and I predict it will be signed within a week's time, and we will get action through the Members of the House. If the Rules Committee continues to thwart the will of the House, then the rules should be changed and the power of the Rules Committee curbed.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FISH. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. RAYBURN. A few weeks ago we had a wage-and-hour bill on the way to consideration in this House by the discharge route. We read through the bill and then the bill was recommitted. That bill contained most of what this bill contains. If my memory serves me correctly, we did not have any help at that time from the gentleman from New York or from many members of his party.

Mr. FISH. No; I was against it. May I make very clear again why I was against it then and why I would be against it again. That bill proposed to create a commission or a board. It made no difference to me or to those who are opposed to regimentation or bureaucracy whether it was a board composed of 1 man or of 5 or 10 men. That is the difference between tweedledee and tweedledum. The bill created a huge bureaucracy whether under a board of five or just one person, and turned full control over industry and labor to these bureaucratic agents. If we are to legislate, let us legislate by law and not by bureaucratic edicts or by more Executive orders. That was the issue involved, and if that issue comes up again I hope it will be defeated. Why even Mr. Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, opposed that bill because he knew what it meant. He knew it meant more bureaucracy, more inefficiency, and more control over labor, and industry as well. That is why that bill was defeated. Mr. Green is for

HAMILTON FISH, JR.

Hamilton Fish, Jr., Republican Member of Congress from New York. Born at Garrison, N. Y., December 7, 1888.

Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., is a descendant of a long line of patriots. His great grandfather, Nicholas Fish, was a Colonel under George Washington in the American Army of the Revolution and was an intimate friend of and executor for Alexander Hamilton. His grandfather, Hamilton Fish, was Governor of New York and United States Senator, and served for eight years as Secretary of State in President Grant's Cabinet. His father was Speaker of the New York State Assembly and served in Congress. His first cousin, Sergeant Hamilton Fish, served in Col. Theodore Roosevelt's Rough Riders, and was the first soldier killed in the American Army during the Spanish-American War.

Hamilton Fish, Jr., is a graduate of Harvard, having completed his studies with a cum laude degree in three years, at the age of twenty. He is a former Captain of the Harvard football team, being selected by Walter Camp as an All-American for two years. From 1914 to 1916 he was a member of the New York Assembly, as a Progressive and a follower of Theodore Roosevelt.

He served throughout the World War, being a Company Commander of the 15th New York Volunteers, later known as the 369th Infantry. He took part in the Battle of Champagne, July 15, 1918, and was awarded the French Croix de Guerre and the American Silver Star for gallantry in action. He served as a Major of Infantry in the Fourth Division of the Army of Occupation, and graduated from the Army General Staff College of the A. E. F. He is now a Colonel in the Officers Reserve Corps.

Representative Fish was elected to the 66th Congress, in 1919, and has served continuously in that body ever since, being reelected with increasing majorities. In 1924, he was one of the few Republicans in the East to have a greater majority in his Congressional District than President Coolidge. He is at the present time the ranking Republican member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and a member of the important Banking and Currency Committee.

Representing President Franklin D. Roosevelt's home Congressional District, Mr. Fish received a majority of 20,000 votes in the last election, increasing his previous majority by several thousand and running sixteen thousand ahead of the Republican candidate for Governor, in his District. He has always had endorsements from agricultural and labor groups during his entire political career.

As an ex-service man, Mr. Fish has been a tireless worker in the interests of the American Legion, which he helped to organize. He served as Chairman of the Committee which drafted the preamble of the American Legion Constitution, which General Pershing declares to be the most patriotic declaration since Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg. He introduced the Resolution to return the body of the Unknown Soldier for burial at Arlington, which President Wilson signed as his last official act, in 1921. Mr. Fish was appointed by President Coolidge as Chairman of an Advisory Committee on Veterans' Preference, and the President, following the recommendations of this Committee, granted preference to all disabled veterans in Federal Civil Service examinations.

Representative Fish served as Chairman of a special Committee of the House of Representatives to investigate the activities of the Communists in the United States, in 1930 and 1931. He has been an outstanding leader in combatting the spread of subversive activities in this country, the work initiated by him having now been taken up and carried on by practically every patriotic group in the United States.

Mr. Fish has with him in Washington his wife and two children, and enjoys his home life. He is a lover of outdoors, plays tennis and golf, and enjoys football and baseball, and likes to mix with all sorts of people when traveling or has time to enjoy their company. He is never too busy to work for any cause he believes in and is two-fisted in his likes and dislikes.

ON WELFARE FUND SPRING CAMPAIGNS

7 Cities Show Impressive Advances

The first seven Jewish welfare funds to report the results of their Spring campaigns this year show notable advances over 1937. Five of them have reached or outstripped their 1938 goal.

SAN FRANCISCO'S Jewish National Welfare Fund has thus far raised $335,000, toward a goal of $365,000. Last year's campaign raised $311,221.

The NEW ORLEAN'S Jewish Welfare Fund topped its $59,000 goal by $100. In 1937 the total was $54,000.

With its quota set at $60,000, the United Jewish Campaign of HOUSTON already reports pledges of $52,000. The final figure last year was $45,600.

HARRISBURG'S new Combined Campaign for All Jewish Causes, aiming at $34,259, has gone over the top with $36,800.

In DES MOINES, the Jewish Welfare Fund boosted its 1937 total of $35,072 to $36,078 this year. The Fund had been seeking $35,064.

In advance of complete returns, the O KLAND United Jewish Welfare Fund announced it has already reached its goal of $31,000. This is a considerable increase over last year's $26,243.

TRENTON'S Jewish Federation doubled its 1937 results with an impressive $26,000 total, $3,500 above the goal.

The increasing burdens placed on American Jews for relief and reconstructive activity overseas and the pressing needs of refugee work have stimulated an increased response in the local communities to non-local appeals this year.

During the three-week period beginning April 23 and ending May 15, campaigns have been held or are scheduled in 28 cities.

THE WELFARE FUND IS OUR ANSWER

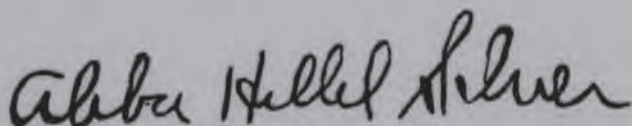

These are critical days for Jewry. We are suffering from a blight of anti-Semitism and persecution such as we have not known for hundreds of years.

The picture is dark. But it is not hopeless. In Poland, in Austria, in Germany our fellow-Jews have not lost courage. They are keeping their heads up. They are working out their salvation.

They are doing this because of the help we Jews in America give them. The physical aid is essential. But more important is the fact that it gives them hope.

For without that they could not go on. This year our goal for sixty agencies in the Jewish Welfare Fund is $328,000. It is $38,000 more than was raised last year. Yet it is far less than is actually needed.

Every resource will have to be tapped. Every prospect must understand fully what the situation is. The contents of this little booklet will help you to give him that understanding. Please review it carefully. You need these facts.

WHAT SHOULD I SAY IF THE PROSPECT ASKS—

Q. Why should I give when I am already supporting my family and relatives?

A. Most of us are doing this, and are thankful that we can. But how about those who have no relatives? How are they going to live?

Q. Why should I give to the Jewish Welfare Fund when I already give to the Community Fund?

A. The Welfare Fund includes those specifically Jewish activities which do not come within the scope of the Community Fund. These agencies help persecuted Jews in Europe; resettle many in Palestine; fight anti-Semitism. If Jews don't do this, no one will.

Q. I have already made my contribution to someone who solicited me.

A. There must be some mistake, because I have your card and am responsible for getting your contribution. Can you give me the name of the person who contacted you? And will you please sign this duplicate pledge card? I am marking it "duplicate" plainly so that you cannot be billed twice. I have been instructed to do this so that I may discharge my responsibility.

Q. There are some agencies in the Fund I don't believe in. Why should I give as long as they are included?

A. Every agency has been investigated and found deserving of support. People's opinions differ. Some agencies you prefer, others don't like. In a joint campaign these preferences balance and each agency gets its just share of support.

Q. I can't afford to give.

A. You are the best judge of that. But how are starving Jews going to live if governments take away their business and if their fellow-Jews don't help? And have you asked yourself, "Can I afford not to give, in this battle against anti-Semitism—here as well as abroad?"

The Battle to Save 5,000,000 Persecuted Jews

1,000,000 JEWS IN POLAND

are starving—slowly wasting away unto death. They are padlocked from life. They are without food and the means of getting it. Their stores are boycotted. They are barred from industries. Their shops and homes are destroyed by fire and bombs. Thousands need medical care. A survey in one school district shows two-thirds of the Jewish children plagued with tuberculosis. Jews are beaten on the streets, left to die in the gutters.

200,000 JEWS IN AUSTRIA

are being shattered by the Nazi dictatorship. They are being ousted from the professions. Their property is being confiscated. Their department stores and corner shops are closed. Their leaders are being thrown into concentration camps. Trapped, they cannot live in the country and many cannot get out. Hundreds have committed suicide.

375,000 JEWS STILL SUFFER IN GERMANY,

victims of a pogrom more subtle but more diabolical than any conceived by the Czars. They are political and social outcasts. They are not permitted to earn a livelihood. They lose their property if they manage to escape. They are denied public relief if they remain. The public schools are closed to their children. Almost one-half of the Jewish population has applied for relief from Jewish agencies.

“Israel Must Weather this Storm too”

900,000 JEWS FACE PERSECUTION IN ROUMANIA.

The anti-Semitism promoted by the Goga regime still flourishes. Thousands are victims of the direst poverty. They need food, clothing, shelter, medical care, education.

IN HUNGARY, LATVIA, LITHUANIA, and other European countries, thousands of Jews are in desperate need.

THE REMEDY:

THE JEWISH WELFARE FUND

Black though the picture may be for the Jews of Central Europe, ringed with the bars of Nazi hate, there is hope for them.

A plan for the mass emigration of Jews from the fascist countries has been announced during the last few weeks by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Its execution depends on the Jewish agencies which receive their support from the Jewish Welfare Fund and which must raise the money to finance these sad exiles of the 20th century.

During the last few years these agencies have helped victims of persecution to emigrate to other lands, notably Palestine. More than 100,000 have left Germany since Hitler came into power. Many more have left Poland, Austria, and other lands.

For those who must remain, these agencies have brought renewed hope of life.

1938 Welfare Fund Campaign May 8-17th

Food is provided for those who are utterly destitute and would starve without this help. More than 100,000 children get their only real meal in this way.

Thousands who are in rags are clothed. Shelter is given to the homeless, victims of persecution.

More than 200,000 free loans are granted each year, involving millions of dollars. One-fifth of the Jewish population of Poland and Roumania are kept self-supporting in this way.

More than 100 Jewish communities have been helped to withstand and recover from pogroms.

400 farm and trade schools and factories are maintained, to teach Jews technical skills and give them employment. Self-support, not charity, is the goal.

Hospitals, clinics, and sanatoria are supported for the destitute sick. 100,000 children are sent to summer health colonies each year.

This work is done by agencies which receive their support from the Jewish Welfare Fund. It is made possible by the money you will raise. The agencies are: the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee; American Ort Federation; German Jewish Children's Aid; National Coordinating Committee to Aid German Refugees; German Jewish Refugee Local Committee; University in Exile (New School for Social Research); Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society.

TO REBUILD JEWISH LIVES

More than 175,000 Jews have entered Palestine since 1933, when the Swastika first began its scourge of European Jewry. From Germany, from Poland, from Austria, from other lands have come the victims of persecution to begin a new life in an old land.

No country in the world has such a record. Palestine has accepted more refugees than all the other countries combined—70 per cent of all Jewish immigrants in the last six years. Today it has a Jewish population of 410,000.

SELF HELP

The keynote of immigration to Palestine is self-help, not charity. The goal is to aid people to become self-supporting in a sound economy.

LAND

Immigrants are supplied with land, purchased and owned by the Jewish people, and leased to the settlers. 100,000 acres have been bought to date. Swamps have been drained, arid parts irrigated. 2,000,000 trees have been planted. Tools and equipment have been provided.

The result is a flourishing agriculture, led by the citrus production. Palestine now commands 25 per cent of the world citrus market. Its annual export is more than 10,750,000 cases. Twenty-five per cent of the Jewish population is rural, the backbone of Jewish development in Palestine.

1938 Welfare Fund Campaign May 8 - 17th

PROGRESS

Jews are assisted in establishing themselves in industry. Free loans are granted, mineral resources developed, roads built. In the last fifteen years the volume of industrial output has increased 25-fold. The number of industrial establishments has grown from 1,800 to 4,600. Electrical output in ten years has increased 28-fold. Imports have doubled, exports tripled.

MEN AGAINST DEATH

Important has been the treatment and prevention of disease. The drainage of swamps, research under Jewish auspices, the spread of medical knowledge, the operation of hospitals have had effect.

In recent years the death rate among Jews in Palestine fell from 13.45 per 1000 persons to 8.57; the infant mortality rate dropped from 115.4 to 64. Malaria constituted 7.2 per cent of all cases of disease; now it is 0.8 per cent.

LEARNING

The children of immigrants are educated. A Jewish school system is maintained. Heading the educational development is the Hebrew University on Mount Scopus. Open to Jews and non-Jews, it has become a center of learning, with the largest library in the Near East.

Some of the world's greatest professors, driven from Germany, have been added to its faculty. Its medical and agricultural research have been of immense practical value. Its newest addition is the Rothschild-Hadassah Hospital and Medical Center.

“Israel Must Weather this Storm too”

LOOKING AHEAD

The current political uncertainty and Arab disturbances have not halted Jewish progress in Palestine. Despite these factors, 44,000 Jews entered in the last two years.

Zionist leaders emphasize that the work of land purchase and colonization must be intensified. Tentative arrangements already have been made for additional land purchase and development of colonies on a larger scale. The only obstacle is the lack of funds.

The major money raising agencies for Palestine are included in the Jewish Welfare Fund. They are those which bring the immigrants to Palestine, train them for their new life, help them to become self-supporting. They include the United Palestine Appeal (Jewish National Fund and Keren Hayesod), the Youth Aliyah of Hadassah, and the Hebrew University.

FOR HEALTH, SPECIAL RELIEF, GENERAL SERVICE

The Fund gives support to the Jewish hospitals in Denver and Los Angeles, which are caring for victims of tuberculosis who have come from Cleveland and are destitute; to the National Home for Jewish Children in Denver, for the orphaned children of these persons; to the Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations for special Passover food to Jewish persons on public relief; to the Leo N. Levi Memorial Hospital in Hot Springs for destitute persons who have come for the mineral treatments; to the Jewish Community Council and the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds to help meet more effectively current Jewish problems.

1938 Welfare Fund Campaign May 8-17th

TO BUILD A HEALTHY JEWISH YOUTH—

If ever Jewish youth needed a knowledge of their history and religion, they need it today. Without it, they cannot fully understand themselves, or adjust themselves to the serious problems that they, as Jews, must face.

Many Jewish parents cannot afford to pay for such instruction for their children. The Jewish Welfare Fund helps them by providing this education.

LOCAL

In Cleveland the Fund supports the Bureau of Jewish Education, including the Cleveland Hebrew Schools and the Council Religious Schools, the Workmen's Circle Schools, the Yeshiva Adath B'nai Israel, and the Yiddish Culture Society School.

NATIONAL

Through the Hillel Foundations and the Menorah Association the Fund brings Jewish religious, cultural, and social service to Jewish students at American universities.

Through the National Farm School, it helps to train Jewish boys for scientific agriculture.

Through the Graduate School for Jewish Social Work, it prepares young people for effective Jewish social service.

Through the Jewish Welfare Board it organizes recreational and cultural work.

"Israel Must Weather this Storm too"

To Preserve Our Rights at Home

IS IT HAPPENING HERE?

Millions of dollars are being spent by the Nazi government to foment anti-Semitism in this country. It is an open secret, made public by the Congressional Committee which officially investigated Nazi activities here.

The Nazi organization has more than 100 branches in the United States. It operates 50 camps, where youngsters and adults are taught Nazi doctrines, give the Hitler salute, march in uniform behind the swastika.

PROPAGANDA—MADE IN GERMANY—

German diplomatic representatives are propaganda agents. Professors and lecturers are sent to address colleges and every type of organization they can reach. Thousands of anti-Semitic pamphlets are shipped here and distributed. Theatres are subsidized to show Nazi movies. More than twenty German schools have been set up, their teachers brought here from the Reich. German firms are used to spread propaganda and finance Nazi agents.

HATRED—

There are scores of other organizations, non-German in name, but getting their stimulation and part of their support from Nazis. They have as their sole purpose the destruction of the Jew. They use every means to achieve it.

SO THAT IT WILL NOT SUCCEED —

Several Jewish organizations fight this movement and its propaganda. These organizations are supported by the Jewish Welfare Fund.

EXPOSE—

They make it their business to discover every evidence of anti-Semitism. They watch the newspapers, movies, magazines, books, radio. They take prompt steps to counteract and destroy anti-Semitism wherever it is found.

They expose the false nature of the charges. They reveal the un-American bigots and racketeers behind them and the source of their support. They take legal action. They secure the cooperation of government officials. The result has been that Nazi agents have left the country, hastily.

“Israel must Weather this Storm too”

INFORM—

They spread accurate information about Jews. They aim to create an intelligent public opinion that will discredit and reject anti-Semitic falsehoods.

A million pamphlets have been distributed. Thousands of books have been placed in libraries. Hundreds of meetings have been held to build good will. Thousands of addresses have been made, many in German to German groups.

COMBAT—

To break the propaganda at its source, German goods are being boycotted. Money spent for German products returns here to spread anti-Semitic hatred. Even Hitler has admitted that the boycott has hurt.

Germany needs foreign exchange. Its exports have lagged behind those of other countries. It lacks raw materials which the foreign exchange would buy. The rearmament program is hampered. Food is being rationed. Dissatisfaction is growing among the German people. There is less money to spend on propaganda here.

The funds which you will raise will be used to support the agencies fighting Nazism. They are: the American Jewish Committee; American Jewish Congress; B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League; Jewish Telegraphic Agency; League for Human Rights Against Nazism, Cleveland; Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights (national).

Dear Dr. Clinchy:

You will be pleased to know that our campaign exceeded its quota. The total received to date is $343,000. This is $ 15,000 more than our goal, and over $ 50,000 more than was raised last year.

May I tell you how pleased we were to have you here and how helpful your message was. The comments received after your address, made it plain that the workers who heard you and others who got the message through them, were deeply moved. There is no doubt, but that it paid dividends, not only in contributions received, but in the better understanding our workers and the community had of the current Jewish situation and their responsibility in it.

You may be sure that we are grateful to you for your assistance.

Dear Mr. Lowenthal:

You will be pleased to know that our campaign exceeded its quota. The total received to date is $343,000. This is $ 15,000 more than our goal, and over $ 50,000 more than was raised last year.

May I tell you again how pleased we were to have you here and how helpful your message was. The comments received after your address, made it plain that the workers who heard you and others who got the message through them were deeply moved. There is no doubt, but that it paid dividends, not only in contributions received, but in the better understanding our workers and the community had of the current Jewish situation and their responsibility in it.

You may be sure that we are grateful to you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi A.H. Silver

Dear Mr Bloch:

Just prior to the closing of our Welfare Fund Campaign on May 17th, I took the liberty of sending a wire to you to a forwarding address provided by your office, asking if we might announce your pledge for the Fund for 1938. Evidently the wire failed to reach you and in the absence of any word Mr Carl Felder, as Chairman of the Men's Clothing Division, took the liberty of entering a renewal of your 1937 subscription of $150, subject of course to your confirmation and approval.

You undoubtedly know our Jewish Community was deeply impressed by the seriousness of the situation of Jewry in other parts of the world particularly in Europe; as well as by the need to protect ourselves in this country against the possible recurrence of these conditions in this country. As a result, the contributors generally increased their pledges and the goal was over-subscribed enabling us to give additional funds to the European situation. I mention this in the thought that you may wish to do likewise in confirming your own pledge.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

General Chairman
Jewish Welfare Fund Campaign

Cleveland, Ohio

My dear Mr Spielberger:

In making a final check-up of the response which we received to our Jewish Welfare Fund Appeal this year, our Officers have noted that no pledge was received from yourself; and in the feeling that it would be your natural desire to join with our Jewish business and professional men in the fine response which they made, I am sending you enclosed herewith a blank pledge card which you may fill out and return to me. The goal this year was $328,000 or some $40,000 more than was raised last year and the entire increase is for the aid of our fellow Jews in their dire plight in the European countries.

The pledges are payable in quarterly installments, the first being due June 1st and if you wish to do so, we shall be glad to have you forward a check for your first quarterly installment of your pledge. Checks are made payable to Mr Max Myers, Treasurer.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

General Chairman
Jewish Welfare Fund, Cleveland

June 3rd, 1938

It is so inconceivable that the substantial citizens of the community, men and women, who are socially minded and who devote themselves untiringly and zealously as trustees, to the administration of the community's welfare activities; and who by virtue of their sympathetic understanding of the welfare problems and needs of the community, are charged with the responsibility of setting up the minimum budgetary requirements of all of these services which contribute to the well-being of the City, should be the less concerned when they serve as members of the Community Fund campaign organization, in giving more generously themselves and in seeing to it that the community which they are soliciting also gives more adequately.

Out of this conception of the Chests' responsibility to the giving public has grown the use of the so-called "check figure" to establish the campaign goal. The check figure represents a preliminary estimate of the Fund's annual money-raising capacity, decided upon usually by the Director of the Fund in conference with a Campaign cabinet, and often in advance of any budgeting whatsoever. And it is this campaign goal check figure which has in fact given rise to the major difficulties of both the non-Jewish and Jewish federations in their chest relationships. Nor is this situation peculiar to any one city or area, as indicated by comments thereon in the Bulletins of Community Chests & Councils, Incorporated.

It has provoked considerable debate and controversy in various years almost throughout the history of the Community Fund in Cleveland, and the attitude of the Community Chest is well illustrated in the following excerpts from statements of the General Manager of the Chest and the Chairman of its Investigating Committee:

The Report of the Manager of the Community Fund to the Council, January 8, 1926, in reference to the foregoing, says:

"There is a view now being held by certain social agency trustees and executives that social agency contribution budget needs, as determined at conferences between the agencies and the budget committees of the two Federations, should hereafter be presented to the Community Fund without reference to any so-called 'check' figure or any preliminary estimate of the Fund's annual money raising capacity. Their theory is that the resulting material increase in the Fund campaign objective would be a challenge to the generosity of our contributors, and that a material campaign failure under such circumstances would represent an honorable defeat and possibly a rebuke to the self-satisfaction of Clevelanders respecting their support of social work. I must admit that I am not in sympathy with this idea. There can be no denying the fact that, since the beginning of the Community Fund, there has been a tremendous increase in the amount annually contributed by the public for the support of local social agencies.

"It is true that much of this expansion occurred four years ago and that progress since that time has been less rapid. The fact remains that the quality and quantity of social work done by Cleveland must, to a great extent, be determined by the money reasonably obtainable. To ignore financial limitations in the preparation of agency budgets is, in my judgment, to undermine the confidence of the contributing public in such elements of economy and efficiency as we are now able to claim. If the Welfare and Jewish Federations do not administer the contribution budgets of their constituent agencies with a view to financial feasibility as determined by the Fund's experience over a period of seven years, it will be necessary, in my opinion, for the Fund to create its own detailed budget machinery for the close scrutiny of agency budgets. Lacking this machinery the Fund could only undertake more or less arbitrarily to reduce budgets as presented by the Federations, in order to bring the total within the amount reasonably obtainable from the public. The establishment of such machinery must inevitably add to the Fund's operating cost, while it is evident that the examination of budgets by the two Federations will become increasingly perfunctory."

A statement by the Chairman of the Investigating Committee to the Community Fund Council at a Special Meeting October 4, 1929, is reported as follows:

"Mr Garfield expressed the view that materially increased budgets for both Federations could be justified on the basis of community service needs but that the Welfare Federation apparently concurred in the Fund's policy whereby budgets for welfare services are limited by estimates of available contribution resources, whereas the Jewish Federations has contended, with considerable justification, that agency needs should annually be presented to the public in their entirety, thereby placing upon the contributors the responsibility for any failure to balance the requirements. He stated that the budgets as presented by the respective Federations reflected this difference in viewpoint; however, in the determination of a campaign goal to produce the largest possible result and to retain the essential services and morale of the Fund's large volunteer campaign organization, the Fund must be guided by previous campaign experience and by the views recently expressed by the campaign leaders upon whom rests the responsibility for raising the money."

In this discussion, we are of course more particularly concerned with the relationship of Jewish Federations to the Community Chests because the situation here described has necessarily given the Jewish Group and Jewish leadership a greater concern in its effects.

Out of the old tradition that 'Jews take care of their own' and which, in reality, means that Jews must take care of their own, has come the feeling of sensitiveness on the part of our Jewish Group as to their participation in the Community Chest. There is at present always the feeling that unless Jews as a Group, contribute to the Chest more, if not as much, as they would draw from it, the Jewish position becomes thereby untenable and a reflection on the Jewish participation in the Chest.

The result of the budgetary experiences here referred to, has been to put the Jewish Federation and its Executive Officers, constantly on the defensive; there has been a reluctance to ask for adequate funds even when such needs were clearly indicated; or to suggest the addition of agencies or institutions now in our Jewish Welfare Fund but equally eligible with other agencies for Chest support. Also there has been the cloud of doubt as to whether Jews were actually giving as generously as they should; as to whether they were giving as much as the Federation was taking out; and whether too much pressure from the Jewish Group on the Chest in the interest of maintaining not only Jewish but general standards and practices, was not unwise and fraught with grave consequences for our relationship and for the Jewish Community itself.

That these misgivings were not altogether unfounded may be gathered from such references as the following with regard to Jewish Federation Budgetary requests:

In the fall of 1923, the following comment was made in a budgetary hearing by the Executive Officers of the Chest: "The Community Fund would very likely draw to itself much criticism if an amount in excess of the 1923 allotment were allowed the Jewish Federation while the Welfare Federation was compelled to accept a smaller appropriation."

Or again in 1928, when the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Chest, included this comment in a statement submitted by him: "The fact that certain types of Jewish social services are at a higher cost than corresponding service for non-Jewish residents has heretofore been represented to the Fund as attributable to a difference in standards and traditions. If that be true is it fair to the Fund givers at large who are virtually subject to a voluntary form of taxation, to maintain a differential favoring one group in the Community."

There should, of course, never be any questions of this kind raised. If the Chest truly stood for the principle of 'from each according to his means and to each according to his needs! ~~and~~ the whole attitude of the Fund represents in our judgment ~~rather~~ an attempt to rationalize on their inability to secure adequate funds from the Community rather than ~~from~~ any attitude of resentment against the claims and appeals of the Jewish Federation.

A brief reference to some facts and figures, both with reference to Cleveland's experiences and to the experiences of Chests throughout the country, will suffice to point out that the whole problem would disappear if Chests could be persuaded to adopt those effective methods and instrumentalities for money raising which have made for the success of Jewish Federations and Jewish Welfare Funds.

For example: in an analysis of gifts of $100 and over to the Community Chest in Cleveland, for the years 1934-5-6 and 7 (period of business recovery) the following information is revealed:

With 1934 as the index, the Cleveland Community Chest raised 2.1% more in 1935 than in 1934; 4.3% more in 1936 than in 1934; and 12.4% more in 1937 than in 1934.

In the bracket of the givers of $100 and over only, where the greater part of the funds must always be secured, the percentages of gain did not show up differently:

2.1% in 1935 over 1934; 4.7% in 1936 over 1934; 12.5% in 1937 over 1934.

However, when we analyze the record of Jewish contributors of $100 and over to the Chest for these same years, we find that they gave 5% more in 1935, 12% in 1936 and 26.3% in 1937 over 1934.

It is, moreover, noteworthy that while the Jewish population of Cleveland is estimated to be 7.1% of the total metropolitan population of the city, the number of Jewish contributors of $100 and over is 18.3% of the total number, or 438 out of a total of 2,398; and the Jewish contributors of $1000 or over were 12.4% percent or 25 out of a total of 202.

(see Schedule I)

On the question as to the effect of Jewish Welfare Fund Appeals on Jewish giving to the Community Chest, an analysis just made, shows that the Jewish contributors of $100 and over to the Community Chest for the seven years elapsed since the establishment of our Jewish Welfare Fund, have given the Chest a total of $1,061,000 while at the same time giving the Jewish Welfare Fund $566,374.

Furthermore in the range of contributions from $10 to $99 a sampling was made of every tenth name in our list of Jewish Welfare Fund contributors, represented by a total of 560 of such names out of the total 2,919; these 560 contributors gave the Chest a total of $62,078 for the years 1931 to year 1937, while giving the Jewish Welfare Fund $56,948 for the same period.

It will be noted further from Schedule II here attached that while the Welfare Fund goals for 1935, 1936 and 1937, were very substantially raised in each of these years the Jewish contributors in all of these brackets of giving, continued to raise their pledges to the Chest, in even greater degree than is reflected by the Chest Campaign results.

It has been contended by those of us who are in position to observe more closely the giving of Jews and non-Jews, that Jews man for man, give more liberally to the Chest than do the non-Jews. Recently published information has been available with regard to the 1935 salaries of corporation executives, both Jews and non-Jews. The giving of these executives has been analyzed in the light of their salary incomes and reveals the following information.

That 210 non-Jewish corporation executives with salary income from $15,000 to $200,000 gave to the Chest in 1937 2.1% of their incomes; while 77 Jewish corporation executives with salary incomes ranging from $15,000 to $130,000 gave to the Chest 2.3% of their published salary incomes.

And furthermore for the purpose only of pointing to the added burden which Jewry carries in its responsibilities to national and overseas Jewish Agencies, we should add the contributions which these 77 Jewish corporation executives give to their Jewish Welfare Fund and we find that their total giving represents 5% of their published salary incomes.
(See Schedule III attached hereto)

Notwithstanding the fact that the Jewish Community has always been sensitive if not apprehensive with respect to its total gifts to the Community Chest and their relation to the amounts withdrawn, it has never been possible to determine the amount even approximately. For example in 1936 26.7% of the total raised by the Chest came from corporations having stock ownership; another 23.7 came from industrial contributions collected by the Industries in payroll deductions from the employees' envelopes. In the case of the former it is of course impossible to know what interest Jewish owners of stock in the corporations might have in the amounts these corporations give to the Chest out of stockholders money. With reference to the industrial giving the Community Fund files contain no record of the individual gifts of employees these records being kept entirely in the offices of the plant and stores. Thus no check can be made of Jewish giving; and substantial gifts of plant and store executives are frequently included in the industrial giving in order to make a good showing for the employers response to the Fund.

However we do have an estimate of over 5% of Jewish individual gifts ranging from $10 ~~up to~~ included in the solicitation of the business men's division; if we should apply this 5% base to the other divisions in which detailed checking is impossible, viz., the corporation, industrial and schools division one may readily assume that the Jews in Cleveland are giving as much, if not more than they withdraw from the Fund, though in wealth they represent a very much smaller share than their relation to population.

(See Schedule IV)

In the past several years the demands on Jewry for overseas relief has increased tremendously the Campaign goals and realizations in Jewish Welfare Funds. It was not to be expected that the Community Chest could do so well lacking the same urge which has prompted Jewry to give so generously for its own. Nevertheless it is interesting to take note of references which have been made in the Bulletin of the Community Chests and Councils, Incorporated. An Issue of August 1936 has the following to say:

"Chests raised only 91.3% of their 1936 Goals, although they raised 4% more for 1936 than for 1935. The effect of the Goal on the amount raised is a Chest-old controversy*. On the face of the returns high goals raise more money, even tho they are not reached.The questions of the necessity of sometime reaching the goal for effect on the campaign workers is left unsettled."

This statement is significant in the light of the arguments of Chest officials in Cleveland that higher goals not only increase the danger of failure and a resultant effect on the morale of the Campaign workers, but also that higher goals may be a discouragement to the contributors to give any more than before.

The Bulletin further comments on the diminishing percentage of $100 and over gifts to Chests:

"In the range of gifts of $100 and over for 156 Community Chests, there has been a decline in Chest support, from 61.1% in 1934 to 59.7% in 1935 and to 58.4% in 1936; this is mentioned as a cause for real concern, "since past experience has been that in the long run the totals obtained in the higher brackets of $100 and over, determine the trend of Campaign totals."

A comparison of the amount of the contributions received in the various ranges in Chests and Welfare Funds, and in Cleveland's Welfare Fund for 1936, serves to throw light on the aforementioned comment of the Bulletin:

(Schedule V)

This is further brought out in some memoranda prepared for the Business Men's Council of the Federation of the Jewish Philanthropies of New York and Brooklyn, comparing the percentage of large gifts in the New York Federation with Community Chests percentages for the larger Cities for 1936:

New York Brooklyn Jewish Federations	$100 and over gifts amount to	86.2%
Detroit Community Chest	" " " " "	72.5%
Cincinnati " "	" " " " "	72.4%
San Francisco " "	" " " " "	71.8%
Cleveland " "	" " " " "	63 %
Minneapolis " "	" " " " "	66.4%
Baltimore " "	" " " " "	76.3%

As a result of these foregoing considerations, in which we must grant:

- That Community Funds are correct in principle;
- That the Jewish Group has much to gain from its cooperation with other elements in the Community in such a broad communal enterprise;
- That the Jewish Community has undoubtedly been relieved to a great extent of the one responsibility of money-raising for its local purposes;
- That there would be no moral ground for a termination of the relationship of Jewish Federations with the general Chests; and
- That any attempt to supplement the Chests' support of Jewish Federation agencies by special appeals directed to the Jewish community would be both unfair to the Jewish contributor and a violation of the spirit and principle of affiliation with the Chest.

And having established further ~~at least to our own satisfaction~~ that the Jewish Group has been giving at least as generously if not more to the Chest than have other elements in the Community;

- That the establishment of Welfare Funds has not handicapped the Chests in securing such an equitable response from Jewry;
- And realizing further that the difficulties which seem so inherent in the situation have to do very largely with the Chests' point of view with regard to public ^{attitude toward} support of private welfare work, and a definite lack of application of more successful money-raising experiences and methods;

What then may we ask, can we as Jews do to promote within the Chest, a broader conception of the public's relationship to the welfare and well-being of the community; and greater realization of the Chests' own responsibility as the fund-raising organ of the philanthropic enterprises of the Community; and the Fund's acceptance at least in part of those methods and instrumentalities which have throughout the record of Jewish federations, contributed to the success of their endeavors.

Dear Rabbi.

I found your telegram awaiting me upon my return from a fishing trip. You would otherwise have received a more prompt response.

The amount of my contribution was arrived at only after careful consideration and in view of circumstances which it is here unnecessary to discuss represented the maximum which I feel I could give.

I trust that the Campaign was successful. Your good wishes were appreciated and Carlyn joins me in most cordial regards.
