Dear Dr. Silver:

I take pleasure, on behalf of our Administrative Committee, in inviting you to the twenty-third annual convention of the Mizrachi Organization of America, to be held in Baltimore, Sunday-Tuesday, May 19-21, at the Southern Hotel.

We are most eager that you participate in this important convention. Your presence will surely give us inspiration and encouragement in this grave hour for our people in the diaspora and in Eretz Israel.

I am looking forward to meeting you at any session convenient for you, where we may expect to hear your message to the delegates.

Sincerely yours,

LEON GELMAN
President

New York, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Gellman:

Through an unfortunate oversight, I failed to send my greetings to the annual convention of the Mizrachi organization which was held the early part of this week in Baltimore. I had every intention of sending you a telegram but due to the pressure of work in connection with our local campaign for the Jewish Welfare Fund, I was away from my desk most of the last ten days and many things were overlooked. I hope that your convention was very successful. I am looking forward with pleasure to seeing you at the UPA meeting in New York.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very cordially yours,

AHS:BK
