Ass't. Prof. Business Research,
Ohio State University
Columbus, Ohio.

My dear Dr. Boothe:-

The Temple Women's Association, an organization of over fifteen hundred women connected with our Temple is planning a Symposium to be held early in October on the subject "Whither Womankind."

I recall reading with tremendous interest the May 1929 issue of "The Annals" which you edited devoted to "Women in the Modern World" and I would appreciate very much if you would give me some suggestions as to the speakers who would be most helpful in this Symposium.

It is planned to have four women speak on the following subjects:

Woman in Industry
Woman in Civic Life
Marriage as a Profession
Woman and Liesure

Could you suggest to us the names of speakers who could most competently and in an interesting way discuss these subjects? It would be extremely helpful to us.

With kindest regards, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mrs. McCormick:-

The Temple Women's Association, an organization of 1500 women of the Temple, is planning to hold a Symposium on the subject "Whither Womankind" on the occasion of its opening meeting on Wednesday afternoon, October 15th, 1930.

The Organization plans to have four speakers discuss the subjects, "Woman in Industry," "Woman in Civic Life," "Marriage as a Profession," and "Woman and Leisure."

It was the unanimous wish of the committee that you might find it possible to be our principal speaker at this meeting and to discuss "Woman in Civic Life."

Your address should last about half an hour. You will receive a very warm welcome in our midst and we believe that you will enjoy your visit very much.

The Organization is in a position to pay the modest honorarium of $200. I trust that you will find it possible to come.

Hoping that I may receive a reply from you at your earliest convenience, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Martin:-

You were so helpful in assisting us in our Symposium on "The Romance of Industry" that I make bold to solicit your help again.

The Temple Women's Association, an organization of over fifteen hundred women in our Temple, is arranging a Symposium on "Whither Womanhood" to be held on Wednesday, October 15th, 1930. Two of the subjects to be discussed at this Symposium are "Woman in Industry" and "Woman and Leisure."

I wonder if you could suggest to me the names of outstanding women, either in or outside of Cleveland, who are qualified to discuss these subjects. We have invited Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago to discuss "Woman in Civic Life." I shall be very grateful to you for any assistance which you may render.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

Please forgive the delay in answering your communications but I have just returned from Europe and found your telegram on my desk. The office wrote me but the letter never reached me in Europe.

I regret that I have not an open Sunday to offer you either in October or November and on the Sundays in January we are tied up in Washington. There is a slight possibility that I could arrange it for Sunday January 18th but I would first have to consult with Mr. Newman who with his operator and outfit would have to journey from Baltimore and back again to be with you then. Mr. Newman's fee is $500. which includes the services of our own operator and outfit.

My dear Mr. Mercer:-

Permit me to thank you for your kind letter of July 31st.

The Temple Women's Association will be very happy to have Mr. Newman on Sunday, January 18th. The fee of $500 is acceptable.

There is one matter which bothers the Association. Mahler Hall, where the lecture will be given, is too small to accommodate the membership of the Association.
They would like to extend to every member the privilege of hearing Mr. Newman. This could only be arranged if the lecture were given twice, - in the afternoon and in the evening.
Would Mr. Newman be in a position to do that and would there be any extra charge involved and if so what would the charge be?
Please bear in mind that the Temple Women's Association is a philanthropic organization and that no admission charge will be made for the lecture.

The organization would like to have Mr. Newman give a travel talk on Egypt and the Near East, with particular reference to Palestine.

convenience, permit me to remain

My dear Rabbi Silver:

This is to confirm the suggestion made yesterday regarding a woman to speak on "Woman in Industry".

I suggested Miss Mildred Hickman of the Research Department of the Board of Education.

Miss Hickman has had wide experience in employment work, especially with women. She has very much of a reputation in this field.

She has also written two excellent reports, which have been published, on the garment and electrical industries of Cleveland.

I feel sure that she would give you a most satisfactory talk.

Miss Hickman might also suggest a speaker for your third topic.

Yours truly,

Earle Martin

My dear Rabbi Silver:

I think the lady mentioned would hardly give the point of view that you are interested in.

I have been thinking over possible leaders of discussion on the subjects you named, and in addition to (2) Miss Magee, whom of course you know, think Miss Elizabeth (1) Hauser of Girard, Ohio, would be a most stimulating and broadminded speaker if you could get her. She has been active in suffrage and in the League of Women voters for years, and is well informed on industrial subjects, keen, humorous, and most stimulating.

(3) Miss Mary Dewson, who is on the staff of the National Consumers' League, is also an excellent and stimulating speaker, and if she could not come, there is another alert person in the National office, whose name I cannot recall just now.

(4) Miss Marjory Carr, who is doing an interesting bit of research for the A.I.C.P. in New York and was Industrial Commissioner of Pennsylvania under Governor Pinchot, is also a stimulating and intelligent speaker who has done excellent work in both places.

These women are all sound in their point of view, thorough, and dependable in their work.

If none of these seem to fit the need of the Women's Association, I will try to think of others who might.

Direction of CHARLES MERCER

Chicago, Ill.
August 7th - 1930.Rabbi Hillel Silver,
The Temple.
East 105th St., At Ansel Road,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

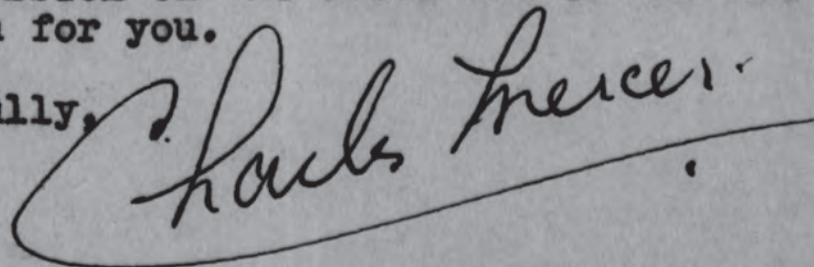

Thank you for yours of the 4th inst. and I note what you say about the smallness of Mahler Hall and an extra performance to accommodate the membership. What is the seating capacity of Mahler Hall and how many invitations will you send out? You see, I do not yet know whether Mr. Newman his operator and projection outfit could arrive early enough in Cleveland on that day to give a matinee, neither do I know what concession Mr. Newman would want to make, under the circumstances, for the extra performance on the same day. However I offer this suggestion for your consideration. Why not rent Engineers Hall, - the B. of L.E. Auditorium, - which has a seating capacity of nearly 1200 and give the one evening performance? If you think well of this I would suggest that you get an option on January 18th right away.

With regard to your choice of the subject, I am enclosing herewith an announcement outlining Mr. Newman's series for the coming season. This is all brand new material and I believe would be more pleasing to your members because I feel that the majority if not all of your members have seen the subject you ask for and you would get a greater response from them with up-to-date pictures and a new story.

Just heard from Newman Mr. Newman that he will not sail from the other side until August 23rd so I expect he will not reach Chicago until about September 1st.

Please let me have your decision on the above and in the meantime I will protect January 18th for you.

Yours respectfully,

E. M. Newman, Traveltalker, realizing that the great majority of his fellow travelers prefer European subjects, will bring us this season an up-to-date group of scenes and a different story entitled "Seeing Europe". The master traveler promises to show us his best collection of still and motion pictures of places we are familiar with and scenes of many things that are new to most of us. This carefully selected series of five Traveltalks will be presented in such a manner that it becomes as much reality as if we were actually touring the countries visited.

The Traveltalks will be shown in the following order:- "Seeing Italy" (From Naples to the Alps), "Rome and the Vatican City", "Oberammergau", "Switzerland", "La Vie de Paris". In these popular places we may live over again the travel joys of a previous visit or revel in anticipation of a dream still to be realized.

My dear Mr. Mercer:-

Permit me to thank you for your letter of August 7th. With regards to Mahler Hall our seating capacity is about eight to nine hundred. We will wait until Mr. Newman's return to this country to learn whether he can come to us both on the afternoon and evening of the 18th of January before we proceed to make definite arrangements with any other hall. I shall keep your suggestion of the Engineers Hall in mind. With regards to the travel talk of Mr. Newman, his new subjects are all most interesting. I believe, however, that it would be more in keeping with the purposes of the Temple to have Mr. Newman give a travel talk on the Near East with special reference to Palestine. Our people are very much interested at the present time in what is going on in Palestine and if Mr. Newman has attractive pictures on that part of the world we would be most happy to have him talk on that subject.

We are definitely scheduling Mr. Newman for January 18th. With kindest regards, permit me to remain

She will have to make a special trip from New York to be with you and her fee will be $125 and round-trip expenses. I shall hold the date on her schedule for your final confirmation.

I do not know just what lecture courses you are planning at the Temple this season, but wish you might fit in a few of our other speakers. I am especially eager to have Anna Louise Strong speak in Cleveland on Sunday, December 7. That is the only free Sunday on her two months' lecture schedule, and she will be in Akron on December 8. I enclose her latest list of subjects. Her fee is $100.

A few others I think you might be interested in are:-

Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver - early November.
Mary Austin, author, of New Mexico - mid-January; early March.
Prof. S. L. Joshi of India (Prof. Comparative Religion at Dartmouth College) - late March.
Prof. Kirtley F. Mather of Harvard College - mid-March.
Dr. Ford A. Carpenter of Los Angeles on aviation-- late October and early December.

Willoughby, Ohio.

My dear Miss Sherwin:-

The Temple Women's Association, an organization of 1500 women of The Temple, which is undoubtedly known to you, is planning to hold a Symposium on the subject "Whither Womankind" on the occasion of its opening meeting on Wednesday afternoon, October 15th, 1930.

The Organization plans to have four speakers of national note discuss the subjects, "Woman in Industry," "Woman in Civic Life," "Marriage as a Profession," and "Woman and Leisure."

It was the unanimous wish of the committee that you might find it possible to be our principal speaker at this meeting and to discuss "Woman in Civic Life."

Your address should last about half an hour. You will receive a very warm welcome in our midst and we believe that you will enjoy your visit very much. I trust that you will find it possible to come.

Hoping that I may receive a reply from you at your earliest convenience, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

AHS/IR

My dear Rabbi Silver,

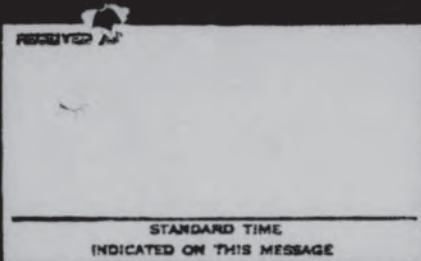

Your letter of September 17th. addressed to my sister, Miss Belle Sherwin, came when she had left Willoughby for the East. I have taken the liberty of opening it and have been able to reach her and receive an answer by telegram.

She wishes me to say that she regrets very much that she will not be able to speak before The Temple Women's Association on October 15th. She would have welcomed the opportunity to speak to so large a group of women, and thanks you for the invitation but finds it quite impossible to accept.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Abba:-

I can't make up my mind whether the bust of you is a good one. On reflection, I feel it isn't just you.

On several occasions Florence and David inquired when you were coming back, so you can see what a wonderful impression you made. The toys which were immensely appreciated were only an incident.

All sorts of good wishes for a happy New Year to you and your dear ones in which Ruth joins.

Miss Agnes C. MacPhail,
Ceylon, Ontario, Canada.

My dear Miss MacPhail:-

I was very pleased to receive your telegram informing me that it will be possible for you to be with us on October 15th.

The meeting is held under the auspices of the Temple Women's Association at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 15th. It will be in the nature of a Symposium on "Whither Womankind."

There will be three addresses. Mrs. Alice Foote MacDougall will speak on "Woman in Industry," Mrs. Felix Levy will speak on "Woman and the Home" and it is our hope that you will speak on "Woman in Public Life - the contribution which women are making or can make to the political institutions either directly through serving as public officers or indirectly as part of the electorate."

Each speaker will have from twenty-five to thirty minutes.

Unless we hear from you to the contrary we shall make reservations for you at the Wade Park Manor which is a very excellent hotel in close proximity to the Temple.

Please forward to me at once one or two of your photographs which we may use in our publicity along with any other item of interest about yourself which will help us in getting up our announcements.

With kindest regards and best wishes, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Alexander D. Noyes,

New York, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Noyes:-

I was one of those who was privileged to hear your splendid paper at the recent Convention of the American Bankers Association. It was so thoroughly helpful to clear thinking on the present industrial situation that I feel that the men of our Temple would be greatly profited by receiving that message.

The Temple Men's Club, an organization composed of eight hundred members of the Temple plans to hold its opening meeting on Wednesday, November 19th at which time they would like to have the subject "Insuring Prosperity" discussed from two points of view, the workingman's and the businessman's.

Mr. Sidney Hillman has graciously accepted to come to us on that day to discuss the subject from the workingman's point of view. We should feel highly honored if you would come to us on that evening and present the businessman's view point so excellently expressed in your paper before the Bankers Association.

We shall of course be very happy to pay your traveling expenses and to add the modest honorarium of $75.

Trusting to hear favorably from you at your earliest convenience, permit me to remain

Dear Sir:

I have noticed in the public press that you are arranging a kind of symposium at The Temple and that you aim to present speakers representing different political groups and schools of thought. It is in regard to the communist part of the program that I wish to address a few words to you.

I am a member of the Proletarian Party of America which, according to us, is the only communist party in America. We claim, and are well prepared to prove, that the Communist Party of America is not a communist party at all. I do not know if you are familiar with the theoretical differences between the two groups.

Of course if your object is to present the views of certain parties then you must employ a member of the Communist Party to represent that party. If, however, your desire is to present the fundamental principles of communism, a Communist Party man should be the last one to select.

I should be glad to expound the principles of communism from your platform if you so desire and my party gives its approval. Have had about ten years experience on the public platform and am fairly well known in labor circles. Am now acting as organizer for Local Cleveland, Proletarian Party of America. There would be no charge to you for my services.

Trusting I may hear from at an early date,

I am,

Dear Abba:

Last Monday morning I sent you a wire in reply to your message, and which read as follows:

"Have cancelled two important engagements to be with you November 12th. Any possibility of my getting back to Philadelphia Thursday noon?"

1. Is there any possibility of my being able to get out of Cleveland in time to get to Philadelphia about noon the following day?
2. I wish you would give me a few more details regarding the meeting at which I am to speak. Specifically, what are some of the features you would like to have me stress, particularly in view of conditions as they prevail in Cleveland? You know it is difficult for me to talk in terms of generalities, and while I shall have concrete facts, still, I should like, if possible, to get the Cleveland setting.
3. From several persons I heard what a marvelous address you delivered in Boston.
4. What did you think of Lessing Rosenwald's speech and how was it received?
5. I am distressed on account of the White Paper which came out of the Colonial Office. Incidentally, what did you think of the statement by your former rabbinical colleague?

With best regards, as ever,

Yours,

October 31st, 1930

Mr. Jacob Billikopf,
Jewish Charities,
330 South Ninth St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Billie:-

In reply to your letter of October 30th;

There will be three speakers at the meeting on the 12th. A businessman will discuss the present industrial situation from the point of view of a businessman; a bank economist will discuss it from the point of view of a banker, and I should like to have you discuss the whole subject, particularly the problems involved in unemployment, from the point of view of the workingman and of the student of social conditions.

As far as Cleveland is concerned, our conditions here are as bad as in other parts of the country and in many instances worse than in most parts. There is tremendous unemployment here. The Associated Charities have had to care for four times the number of people that it normally looks after. The small Jewish businessmen have suffered tremendously particularly those who have been in real estate. There is a psychic depression as well as an economic one in the community.

It would be fine if you would devote some time to the subject of Unemployment Insurance.

Lessing Rosenwald read a very fine and effective statement at the Boston meeting. His earnestness and his intelligent handling of the subject made a splendid impression upon the people.

I am enclosing herewith a clipping from the local Yiddish newspaper which might interest you.

Your rabbinical colleague is on the way to an anti-Zionist psychopathic ward.

My dear Rabbi Silver;

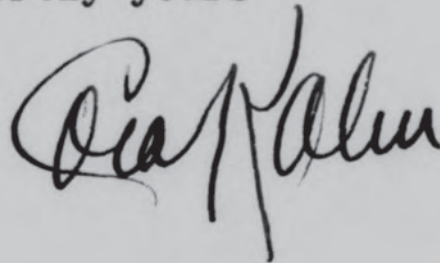

I know your programs are filled for the year but I wondered whether, if I gave the sisterhood a very reasonable rate for an afternoon reading, they would consider a reading on the afternoon of Friday November 28th. I shall be in Cleveland on Thanksgiving day and I can offer a rate of $15. 00. which would just cover part of my expenses.

I can offer "Green Pastures" or "The Criminal Code" which play in my estimation deserved the Pulitzer prize. Each play requires one hour and twenty five minutes to interpret.

Let me hear from you. With cordial greetings to you and yours,

Dear Abba

For the last few weeks I had been planning the following series of Sunday morning sermons:—

1. The five greatest men of Judaism
2. The five greatest men in Christianity
3. The three original ideas of Xtranty
4. The original contributions of Judaism.

I was uncertain whether or not such titles would be attractive although of course I was going to discuss the subject any how. When I got your recent Temple Bulletin I was delighted to read how popular your discussion was of the "10 greatest men in Judaism" proved to be. It encourages me. But you always encourage me, more than you know.

The second matter about which I want to write you is this:— My school is developing nicely, chiefly due to the labors of Elkan Vannoy & Mrs. Solomon Strouss.

Mrs. Strouss who is a skilled educator, an enthusiastic Jewess & a woman of great culture is the life of the institution. I told her about your school & she wants to spend Saturday & Sunday in Cleveland studying your school. I would appreciate it highly if you could drop her a note ~~assuring~~ her that she would be welcome to visit. Her address is 5639 Blackstone Ave.
I would like you to ~~know~~ know her. She is a remarkable person.

The third matter is this: - You will receive an invitation to speak before the city of Winnetka. I want to tell you something about it. Winnetka is a suburb of Chicago, in the forefront of progressive ideas in education.
If you can come you will enjoy meeting the "Winnetkans". They are an unusual group.

Rabbi Silver,
The Temple,
Ansel Rd and E. 105th St.,
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Rabbi,

Referring to the father and son stag which takes place Wednesday evening, it will not be necessary for you to review the rehearsals for the reason that the act has been changed completely.

We thought best to do this so as not to have anything offensive to you.

A seat has been reserved for you at the table of honor and I will greatly appreciate if you will pronounce the benediction, therefore, will you kindly see me as soon as you arrive at the Club.

Please try to arrange to be at the Club between 6:00 and 6:15 P. M. so I can explain to you just what our arrangements are.

Thanking you, I beg to remain, as ever,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Children,
In some of the packages containing gifts for the children of our home there were enclosed the names of the kind-hearted boys and girls of the Temple who reminded us with such lovely gifts in action, however, there were not any notes enclosed.

He, the children of the Orthodox Jewish Orphan home, therefore wish to express to you all our deep gratitude for your kind thoughtfulness and true Jewish sympathy.
We are especially appreciative of the heartfelt aid and motive that prompted you children to remember us on Christmas.
For children to be as considerate of others as fortunate, they must have not only good parents but also good teachers such as you must have in your Temple Sunday School. We are grateful to them, too, and we would be very happy indeed to have them come with their classes to visit us in the near future.

Before closing this letter we would like to ask a favor of you. You see we heard our superintendent often remark what a wonderful Rabbi you have, and that he is more than a Rabbi, a true prophet. How fortunate you are in being able to hear him often.

We children are really craving to hear him just once and to see him, but we haven't got the nerve to ask a busy man like him to come to speak to fifty orphans.

We do believe, however, that if you children will ask him he might kindly consent to visit us sometimes. Will you please ask him in our name? With our best wishes to yourselves, your folks, and your teachers, we are,

Sincerely yours,
The Children of the Orthodox Orphan Home.

My dear Bishop:

I was delighted when you told me that it would be possible for you to attend our Fathers-Sons Dinner on Saturday evening, February 14th.

This is a long established institution in the life of our congregation and one to which our people look forward with eagerness from year to year.

The dinner is held at 6:30. By 7:30 or a quarter of eight you will make your address, which need not at all be formal. A few helpful and intimate remarks to young and old on the general idea of fathers and sons would be most appropriate. I would suggest a talk of about twenty to twenty-five minutes.

If you can spend the evening with us we shall be delighted to have you do so. If not, you will be free to leave immediately after your address.

Please let me know at your convenience what the subject of your message will be so that we can announce it in our bulletin.

With kindest regards and thanking you again for your cooperation, I remain

Dear Rabbi Silver:

February 17th will mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the death of the Poet Heine whose lyrics, not only as read but also as sung to the music of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Schumann, Liszt and Rubenstein are among the great treasures of the civilized world.

A definite movement is under way to place a bust of Heine in the German Cultural Garden in Rockefeller Park and the anniversary of his death has been chosen as a most appropriate time to make definite plans for the completion and dedication of this new contribution to the remarkable Cultural Garden development which has already made such gratifying progress in this city.

We are asking a group of representative citizens to meet in the Lecture Room, on the ground floor of the main Public Library, at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, February 17th, to form a civic commission to direct the project and shall be pleased to have you join with them. We trust you will find it convenient to be with us on that occasion.

Mr. Sidney P. Schloss,
c/o The Superior Foundry,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Sidney:-

Mr. Levy informed me of the deliberations which you had at the last meeting of the Finance Committee in reference to the budget of the congregation. He left me with the impression that you plan to make certain recommendations to the Board at its meeting next Tuesday.

It will be impossible for me to attend the Board meeting on Tuesday in as much as my father-in-law, Mr. Horkheimer, is celebrating his seventieth birthday anniversary on that day and the family will meet in Atlantic City for the occasion.

I should like to have an opportunity of talking over with you in great detail the budget for the coming year. There are certain departments where substantial savings may be made and others where such savings would be distinctly detrimental. I wonder whether you could meet with me some time when we could have a chance to go over the situation.

I am under the impression that any recommendations for specific curtailments of the budget at the next meeting of the Board would not be helpful. As it is the new budget will not go into effect until next September and there will be ample time for any revision between now and long before our plans are definitely made for next season.

With kindest regards, I am

Dear Dr. Silver:

Thank you for your very cordial note in which you transmit the wish of the Temple Women's Association to have me lecture in Cleveland on September 30. I shall be delighted to come. I have only the most cordial remembrances of my previous experiences with your groups.

May I take this opportunity to ask about your lecture for our Hillel Forum series? I can offer a choice of six dates, April 5, 6, or 7 and April 12, 13, 14. Inasmuch as Passover does not begin until the evening of the 20th there will be no conflict there. I hope one of these dates will be suitable. Will you please send a list of subjects so that we can select one and begin on our publicity plans.

Perhaps the secretary of the Temple Women's Association will write me later suggesting a subject for my address. I enclose part of a folder which a lecture agency used for me last year.

I am enclosing herewith a list of Dr. Sachar's subjects. He has spoken on the Romance of the Rothschilds and on Disraeli, although the Disraeli lecture was delivered before a small group of teachers.

I have checked off the three subjects which appeal to me most.

Rabbi A. H. Silver,
Chicorua, N. H.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

We held a meeting this morning of the Committee working for the unemployed i. e. Mesdames Grossman, Affelder, Rosenthal, Joseph and myself.

It is the opinion of the members of the Committee that they prefer to try this experiment with a small group of about ten women to see how it can be managed. In as much as there is such great need amongst our own people they also prefer to start this work with just the Jewish women through the Jewish Social Service Bureau, having the Bureau pay for the work of the women and having the Temple Women's Association budget a definite sum presumably $1000. for this project and also to try through the personal solicitation of a few people to raise $2000. additional.

The women who are to be employed would bring their own lunches, at least in the beginning and the Temple Women's Association would furnish coffee. The finished garments are to be donated by the Temple Women's Association to the Jewish Social Service Bureau.

If this is successful we could then enlarge our project and take ten women from the Associated Charities having the Associated Charities both pay the women and furnish the material and in return receive the finished garments. We would go to Mr. Lynde and explain the situation to him and also ask advice in planning our work along the lines of the Wade Sewing Group of the Associated Charities.

What is your reaction to limiting this project to the Jewish Social Service Bureau?

Also want you to know that both Mrs. Grossman and Mrs. Affelder feel that they would not be able to do any Tuesday work if they undertake this other, but would want to turn their apron group over to someone else who could hold it intact. They are and have been right along much more interested in this new project as that is what they have wanted from the beginning.

I am uneasy about the Apron Group under other supervision but hope that the unemployment situation will not be of long duration and in another year these women would turn back to the Tuesday work.

Hope you are all enjoying your vacation and are missing the extreme heat that we are having here.

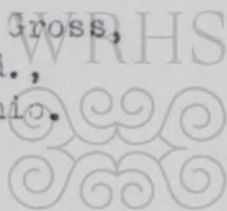

With kindest regards to Mrs. Silver and yourself and looking for an early reply so that we may call in our Board and begin this work, I am

Sincerely yours,

Puella D. Gross.

Dear Rabbi Silver:-

There seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the new sewing project. I received your letter with your explicit expression that it would be better to start with about ten women from the Jewish Social Service Bureau.

Mrs. Joseph says that she spoke to you about it and you felt (as only she does) that it would be far wiser to have a larger group and include the Associated Charities in the very beginning of our experiment.

Did you change your mind for any reason, or did one of us misinterpret you? Mrs. Joseph also insists upon trying to raise funds on the outside and I think that a real mistake at present.

I have given this a great deal of thought along financial lines and feel that if the Jewish Social Service Bureau can not finance the purchase of material (at least after the first two months) that it is a great deal more than we should undertake. We find that we would have to have a paid director (in California she receives $85.00 per month) on a basis of $50.00 -- $60.00 per month. Our funds would carry us only a few months and a great deal of energy and time would have to be expended.

It is my personal opinion that the Temple Women's Association could do more good by using this $1,000.00 during the winter to meet some definite emergencies that may arise in connection with the work of the Jewish Social Service Bureau. We want to help them but this would be too costly for the benefit derived. It would really only accomplish the upholding of the morale of an average of ten women for a few months.

We have an appointment with Miss Kitner to discuss this once more and I would like to hear from you again as soon as possible. Sorry I didn't talk to you when you were here.

With best regards to you and
Mrs. Silver, I am,

Cordially yours,

Rabbi A. H. Silver,
Chocorua, N. H.

My dear Rabbi Silver:-

At a special Board meeting held August 3d, the Board passed the recommendation of the Finance Committee to budget $1000 to be used for Emergency Unemployment Relief.

Mrs. Grossman is to be Chairman of the Committee in charge of this work and as soon as she returns from her vacation she will organize her committee including representatives from all groups.

On the advice of both Mr. Lynde and Miss Kittner the work will start the first week in October after the holidays are over, sewing Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. I should have said that all this hinges on the Temple Board granting permission to use the Assembly Hall. If the Temple can not carry the expense of heat and light due to the cut in its budget, then the Temple Women's Association will defray that expense.

We are to work with women from both the Associated Charities and the Jewish Social Service Bureau. The J.S.S.B. has absolutely no funds to purchase materials, so the A. C. will furnish materials for all the women including the Jewish women, and in return the A. C. will receive all the garments to distribute to the needy. The J.S.S.B. will pay its women and cooperate with us in every other way except the furnishing of the materials.

The Council of Jewish Women want to promote an opportunity shop for unemployed women with a sales' end, on condition that all the sisterhoods dispense with their sewing groups with the exception of quilting and community sewing. Of course we will not consent. I have told them so personally, as my own reaction and our Board will take action at its September meeting.

Hope that you and Mrs. Silver with your children are enjoying your vacation to the fullest.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Ruetta

My dear Lena - I will not be present at the board meeting. I have had a matter on my mind that I would like to have taken up with you. How can we make the board understand that it was no easy matter to get Mrs. Gross' consent to accept the presidency again? Every one has the idea that all that would be necessary would be to ask her to take the job again. As an active member of the nominating committee you are in position to make it very clear that only when she saw how badly we needed her, and only after we promised her & her family that we would lighten her burdens, did she consent.

If you could offer a resolution that the board attend meetings, ^{faithfully} unless something serious prevented, and in other ways show our loyalty to one who is giving so much of herself, and perhaps it would contribute much to our sister-hood's success, ^{and Mrs. Gross' confidence in our promises!} Perhaps Rabbi Silver could suggest something. At any rate, you get my idea, do you not?

Am sorry I won't see you all, but my thoughts are all concentrated on one thing, at present: my husband's recovery. He is making daily progress. I am glad to say.

Sincerely

May P. Hartman

MANAGERS OF AMERICAN TOURS

NEW YORK,

WHAT SHALL WE DO ABOUT RUSSIA?

Russia is once again crowding the front page of the papers.

The inside pages, too, are crammed with headlines bearing Russian news.

Everywhere you look you see articles about things taking place in Russia.

The New York Times on December first carried eleven full columns of Russian news. The preceding day their Sunday magazine had two full pages about Russia in addition to news cable dispatches.

The New York Evening Post every night is featuring front page articles about Russia. The great headline each night is about some Russian situation. The Public Ledger Syndicate of Philadelphia is distributing those articles throughout the land.

Other papers, other magazines everywhere, are talking Russia.

There is something back of this keen interest. Russia with its Five Year Plan is challenging the business supremacy of the rest of the world. The subject affects us vitally. We must understand what it all means.

There is one authority on Russia who stands head and shoulders above all others, and this is William C. White. He knows Russia because he has lived Russia. He can explain to you what Russia is because he is open minded and can give you all sides of this complicated situation. His mind is not warped by favoritism.

For the first time marvelous motion pictures are available of what Russia is doing. These pictures are of exceptional beauty and of great interest. If you wish William C. White can bring these pictures to you and give an illustrated lecture. You now have a two-side choice. Don't, however, fail to have Mr. White soon.

Write or wire for terms and available dates immediately. Don't delay. Have this man while the interest in his subject is so keen.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. MacDOUGALL started twenty-two years ago, with $38.00 for capital and three beautiful children for inspiration; alone and untrained she built up a very lucrative business in roasted coffee.

To extend this business, she rented a tiny booth in the Grand Central Terminal and there, every Wednesday afternoon, she herself presided over the huge coffee urn.

One stormy, bitterly cold Wednesday, as she watched the shivering, damp, depressed people who streamed through the station, Mrs. MacDougall felt a sudden kindly whim to lessen their discomfort. Impulsively she sent home for her waffle iron and the necessary ingredients, and to all who came to the little shop that afternoon, she served attractive waffles and delicious coffee. The glowing appreciation of her guests showed her that she had found a combination of foods with an almost irresistible appeal.

Time proved the truth of this. First the Little Coffee Shop began to serve waffles and coffee, then, in rapid succession, Mrs. MacDougall opened the Cortile, the Piazzetta, Firenze, and two years ago she signed a million dollar lease for Sevilla, the most picturesque of her charming coffee houses. Finally, on Friday, December 13, 1929, she opened another coffee house, in the heart of the business district, at 129 Maiden Lane,—The Auberge.

Mrs. MacDougall's coffee houses have gained not only a national but an international reputation and people from all over the world who find themselves in New York City, take the time to pay a brief visit to one or another of her interesting shops.

Mrs. MacDougall has written three books. They are:

"Coffee and Waffles"

"The Autobiography of a Business Woman"

"The Secret of Successful Restaurants"

My dear Rauch:-

When I last visited your city you told me of a Chicago woman who had been delivering a series of lectures on psychology in your city with marked success.

I would appreciate very much if you would inform me whether she lectured on adult psychology or child psychology, whether she is worth while and where she can be reached.

Hoping that you and your dear wife are having a very pleasant summer, permit me to remain

Very sincerely yours,
