My dear Dr. Fosdick:

My Temple here in Cleveland is celebrating this year its 100th anniversary. It was the first reform congregation in the Middle-West and is today, I believe, numerically the largest in the country. We are planning a number of functions in connection with the Centennial Celebration. One, a very impressive one, already took place on December 18th when 2,000 past confirmants of The Temple met in a reconsecration service which was very inspiring.

The Centennial Committee has planned for the month of April a dinner meeting with the Jewish and Christian clergy of Cleveland as its guest for a re-affirmation of our common brotherhood in the ethical and spiritual tasks which confront them. It is the thought of the Committee to have an outstanding representative of Christianity and one of Judaism present their views on the general theme, "Religion Looks to the Future". The Committee was unanimous in its invitation to you to be our guest and spokesman. It is our hope to invite Dr. Leo Baeck, whom you probably know, to speak for Judaism.

I would be delighted if you could come. We are thinking of Monday evening, April 10th, or Monday evening, April 17th. If these dates are not convenient for you, would you indicate any other evening in April when you would be free to come? I believe that the event would mean much to our entire community and would attract national attention.

Hoping that you will be able to fit this meeting into your crowded schedule, and with all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

ABBA HILLEL SILVER

My dear Dr. Silver,

Your letter of February 12th is before me.

You do me great honor to invite me to your temple for this significant occasion of your centennial.

It would be impossible for me to come on April 10th, but I think I could be with you on April 17th.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Sockman:

Dr. Silver left this morning for a few days in Miami where he is addressing a meeting, and I am therefore acknowledging your kind letter of March 2nd. I am forwarding to Dr. Silver the information that you can come to us on April 17th, and I am sure that you will hear from him upon his return to his study early next week.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to Dr. Silver

My dear Dr. Sockman:

I was in New York a few days ago and telephoned your office, but I was informed that you were in Washington. I wanted to tell you how delighted we all are here with your acceptance of our invitation to address the dinner meeting of the Jewish and Christian clergy of Cleveland which The Temple will hold in connection with its Centennial anniversary celebration. We have definitely fixed the date which is convenient for you - that of Monday evening, April 17th. I think that you will greatly enjoy the occasion. I shall send you further details of the meeting later on. We shall make a reservation for you at the Wade Park Manor which is a first-rate hotel in close proximity to The Temple.

I need not tell you that I shall look forward with keen pleasure to your coming.

With all good wishes, I remain

My dear Friend:

As part of its Centennial celebration, The Temple will hold a Dinner Symposium on Monday evening, April 17th, at 6:30 p.m. in Mahler Hall for the ministers and clergy of Cleveland. Two eminent leaders of religious thought in the United States will discuss the subject, "Religion Looks to the Future"; Dr. Ralph W. Sockman of Christ Church, New York City, and Dr. Louis L. Mann of Sinai Congregation, Chicago. I shall preside at the meeting.

We are eager to extend warm hospitality to the religious leaders of our community who will join with us in an evening of fellowship to celebrate our Centennial year. Our guests will sit at tables in groups of ten, and I am inviting the members of The Temple Board to act as hosts at these tables, one Board member to each table.

Please indicate on the enclosed card whether you will be able to attend this Dinner Symposium and to act as a host for The Temple on this occasion.

With all good wishes, I remain

Most cordially yours,

Dear Rabbi Silver:

Accept my grateful thanks for the stimulating experience and warm hospitality extended last evening at your Centennial Symposium. The fellowship was really enjoyable. The visit to your new museum was the first such privilege I had had since visiting the museum of your Seminary in New York City while attending Union Seminary. It gave me good ideas for my own hopes for establishing a small museum some day in the church building which we are now erecting here.

The speakers were indeed brilliant and you and your associates are to be commended for providing all of us with an opportunity to hear them. I was in a very good state of mind to enter into your joy of Centennial observance for I had just come from a week-end of participation in the Centennial observance of my home church, Christ Evangelical United Brethren at Wilkinsburg, an east end suburb of Pittsburgh. Serving a young congregation in a very unsettled residential suburb, I am keenly conscious of the values of long loyalties and deep roots, such as were evidenced at my home church and The Temple.

May God bless you, your fine associates, and your congregation as you preserve and re-interpret your great heritage to our entire community.

Sincerely yours,

Richard R. Rhodes

Our people are still talking of the magnificent address which you delivered Monday evening at The Temple Centennial Symposium on "Religion Looks to the Future". I have been receiving letters from some of the ministers who were in attendance to express their delight and their appreciation of the opportunity which was theirs to attend the occasion and to have received your inspiring message. We are all greatly in your debt. With us your visit will remain a memorable one and will be linked up with the fine recollections of our 100th anniversary.

Dear Dr Silver:

Thank you for your gracious hospitality, and the cordiality of your trustees at the seminar last Monday evening. It was most enjoyable, and the addresses scintillating, and encouraging.

If Dr Mann's address is printed in some form I should very much like to subscribe to a copy. I'd like to catch on print his brilliant language that clothed his thought. Thank you, your trustees, the ladies,

Dear Dr. Silver:

I want you to know how very much I appreciated the gracious courtesy and wonderful hospitality you extended to me by inviting me to share with you your great anniversary. It is an honor and a deep privilege to be included among your friends and guests at such occasions as this.

Also, the evening was one of great and abiding inspiration to me. Such stimulating thought as that which Dr. Mann and Dr. Lockman provoked in each one of us might easily provide the needed stimulus toward a better, more God-like world; I pray that this may be so.

Again, my heart-felt and sincere thanks, and may that prosperity which only God can give, abide with you these next hundred years and more.
